UP TO THIS time, the Republican party in Hocking has no organization no ticket. All is H—armony and Vickers gives the key note.

THE main issues the campaign will be against the single gold standard, and the establishment of an imperial form of government as proposed by the Republican Party. Now is the time for Democrats to organize campaign SENTINEL Clubs.

Times can get any worse than now, unless the Gold Standard is made a permanent policy, and an army of two hundred thousand soldiers is fastened upon the people. The Campaign SENTINEL will advocate a policy for better times. Now is the time to send in your names.

THE price of the Campaign SENTINEL is not the cost of the blank paper. How can we afford it? It is part of our contribution to the campaign. It is also our way of advertising our business. At least half the thousand who will take the Campaign Sentinel will be so pleased, that they will continue regular subscribers.

FROM the spelling of the names of those, not claiming letters, in advertised list, it might be suspected that some Spanish escapes have been here, or missionaries for the Liberty Reform Party were expected, and their letters had been forwarded. Col. Leonard, the only soldier in the party and the only statesman on the committee, should look to this.

THE Governor has appointed Mr. Lucius Hull, of Ward, Mining Inspector in place of Mr. Beatty, whose time has expired. The appointment is an excellent one, and well deserved. The "silver tongued orator" has earned recognition for his political services, and Mr. Hull, as a capable, intelligent gentleman merits the place and will ably fill it.

The Change of Name.

The New Lexington Tribune, referring to our suggestion that the name of our new, mongrel republican acquisition be changed from Hawaii, to something not like the name of our gallant democracy, "Haw Eater," says: "why not change the name 'La Drones' also?" We cheerfully accept the suggestion. Drop the "La" and the name will then comport to the Tribunes. We are willing to retain the "Haw" for our cannibal island if "whoa" be prefixed. The term "Whoa Haw," signifies that the mule and nigger turn out and stop, and give the white man and his thoroughbred the road.

La Drone, with the La left off is plain "Drone," a name applied in the American bee hive of industry, that may not only be congenial to the Tribune staff, but will be in perfect pertinence to the louts occupying the territory, the Imperial policy of the Republican party proposes putting on the keep of the laboring white men and taxpayers of this country.

SPAIN SEEKS PEACE.

Through the French Ambassador Her Ministry Sues for Termination of the Present War.

WASHINGTON, July 26.--The following statement is made: "The French ambassador on behalf of the government of Spain and by direction of the Spanish minister of foreign affairs presented to the President this afternoon, at the White House, a message from the Spanish government looking to the termination of the war and the settlement of terms of peace."

It is reported from Madrid that Manilla has surrendered to Admiral Dewey. Gen. Miles has landed 4000 men at Guiana, Porto Rico.

SAVARONOLA

The July number of the Rosary Magazine, Priory of St. Joseph's, the exponent of the Dominican Order in this country, is devoted mainly to a discussion of the character of Savaronola.

The presentation of this great character of history, a man of multiplied public concerns and especial church affairs, in bold advocacy of his pure and patriotic motives by this unquestioned Dominican and church authority, is what the world has waited and wanted for four hundred years to hear. The mighty order to which Savaronola belonged has given three great characters whose works have left an imprint on mankind to last till judgment day. St. Dominic gave to piety the Rosary. He was the man of prayer. St. Thomas of Aquin defined a realm of thought which leads to communion with the intelligence of the Angels. He was the philosopher. Savaronola gave the citizen liberty and the christian the practice of virtue. He was the apostle of progress and reform.

Dominic, with his emblem torch, a realized dream, has lit up with his wide white-robed Order of Preachers, the dark places of ignorance and crime in every quarter of the globe, and his Rosary has count of benediction in aching hearts, and comfort and resolution to the faithful on the narrow path and sometimes rough road that leads to the Light at the end of the journey. Aquinas superceded the false philosophy of the Pagan and has given to clear heads and aspiring souls the mould of christian civilization and lifted up the human mind to a touch of the Divine.

Savaronola, a minister of the people the master man of the period, established a free government antedating three hundred years our American Republic, preaching the liberty of the citizen and the purity of the christian, dispelling the resurrected, dissolute paganism which Lorenzo the Magnificent blazed upon vernal Florence and corrupted Italy.

The Rosary Magazine has done a noble work, a great good in standing up for the greatest and one of the best men the Order has produced. The Tombs embourishing in security the sacred dust of St. Dominic and St. Thomas, palaces of rest, habitations named, are shrines of piety and philosophy for devoted pilgrims; the ashes of Savaronola, flung to the currents of the Arno, have followed the course of the waters and mingling with the ocean, like its purifying waves surrounded all the nations, and after four hundred years have highest tide and apothosis at St. Joseph's.

Is Our Flag Still There?

Yes, it is, and will stay there if our children and posterity at large own the soil over which it floats. If they do not have a country and own a country, it a large majority of Americans become landless and therefore homeless, their flag is not there. It has gone after the Phoenician, the Persian, the Greek, the Roman and the Spanish colors to sink and rise no more. That our flag may be there forever, that our children may enjoy life, liberty and happiness, that American wisdom and valor and humanity may not only live forever but impart to other nations the noble lessons of Freedom and the general welfare of all God's children who are heirs to Supplement.

In order to meet the requirements of our business, we issue a SUPPLEMENT this week containing interesting reading in the business advertisements of our enterprising merchants, and reading matter of interest to all our readers. The times generally, are dull and money scarce, but the SUPPLEMENT has a constant increasing patronage, and a better business than any time for the last four years. We appreciate the liberal patronage given us, and will reciprocate in giving our patrons a newspaper up to date in all the local, general and war news of the day.

Two Things Must Be

and that immediately. 1st. All the public domain, (600,000,000) acres without Alaska) must be held in trust for all the people and neither be sold or given to a few of them. This makes every child now born, or born hereafter a landowner, and a co-partner in common, and gives each an inheritance to defend, a country to love and a flag that is still there.

The second essential, is to fix the burden of the present war debt and of every war debt hereafter on the land made valuable by the shadow of the Flag.

If the land owners of the West and the East Indies who are benefited more than a billion dollars, are required to pay this war debt, this benefit becomes general and the war has not been conducted for the enrichment of the few and the pauperization of the multitude, nor has it then made the land owners any poorer; it has only demanded for the public what its bravery and victory has given to private landownership.

If these two things be not done and done now, our flag is not there, it has become the flag of monopoly and injustice.

These are radical Democratic thoughts for which I am alone responsible. Holding principle above party I am ready to march even with McKinley if he is for the "flag" that was "still there" and not for the flag that may disgrace the red, white and blue. If he fails us, may God grant the Democratic party the backbone to come gladly to the rescue without counting its dead or wounded before the battle begins.

Mark Hanna has forced himself into public notice again in an interview at Cleveland, no part of which bears the most distant resemblance to the truth. Listen to this: The conduct of the Democratic party in the present war has been unpatriotic and the party has no claim to the confidence of the people. If the Democratic party finally manages to get together it will be on the issue of so-called anti-McKinleyism. In the Senate and House the party is demoralized on the question of a new policy. Their party brought on the war and then refused to vote for revenue to enforce it. They are floundering about in the muddy sea of uncertainty.

At this time, when all parties have united patriotically to assist the administration in the conduct of war, the junior senator from Ohio, whose own seat was attained after the most corrupt and degrading contest in the history of Ohio's troubled politics, expects that beneath the broad wings of the administration he may find shelter for his own dirty brood. The Democrats in Congress, as Senator Hanna well knows, voted uniformly for war measures, many of which they permitted to go through under the stress of circumstances, although they well knew that many covered corrupt schemes and involved principles of government and of finance which the Democratic party has opposed for three-quarters of a century. It is one of these grettable incidents of the present time that men like Hanna are enabled under the proo-

Canal Lands Put on the Tax Duplicate.

Mr. John Foreman of McArthur, the very efficient tax inquisitor for the district of which Hocking is a part, has reported for taxation the lands of the canal, the property for the last five years of the Columbus, Hocking & Athens (The Sleeper) Railroad Co. The canal land in Hocking is 240 acres; in Athens 4 1/2 acres. The land is valued at the average price of farm land adjoining viz: $20 per acre. This is a yearly valuation in Hocking of $4,800, and for five years, the period since it passed from the State to the Railroad corporation the snug amount of $24,000. Mr. Foreman is the right man for the place he fills.

Hear Ye, The People are Now in Session.

Gen. Grosvenor on the Stand.

"President McKinley had been driven into an unjustifiable war which diplomacy could have avoided, and which was against his own better judgment."

"Nine out of every ten Democrats voted against supplies to prosecute the war."

"This is a Republican war."

Hon. Wm. J. Bryan on Wednesday of last week telegraphed the adjutant general of the United States army from Nebraska:

"I have the honor to report that I was mustered into the service today, and await orders. The command will be uniformed, equipped and ready to move within a few days."

Comment is necessary and in order.

THE ARTICLE headed "Is Our Flag Still There?" is worth serious study of thoughtful readers. Its author has already exerted no small degree of influence on human affairs. This article soars in a lofty atmosphere here of pure intention to fight for what he deems the salvation of this republic and a willingness to accept the aid of any party that is able to ascend to the level he occupies for this salvation.
