With Only One Opening

Attorney-General Ellis in an opinion recently rendered upon request of State Mine Inspector Harrison held that no shaft mine in the state shall be operated with but one opening.

There are many small mines in the state with but one opening, and it has been heretofore held allowable to operate them as long as no more than 20 persons were employed in the mine. Mr. Ellis holds that such mines cannot be operated at all for the production of coal, and miners can enter and work in them only for the purpose of making a second opening.

Of Interest to Miners

Scranton, Pennsylvania, March 6.—A decision of vital interest to miners throughout the United States was handed down this morning by Judge Kelly in the case of the commonwealth against John Shaleen of Illinois, who was charged with and convicted of violating the act of July 15, 1897, in which the constitutionality of the act is sustained. The opinion of the court is that the law is in accord with the constitution and that the conviction of Shaleen is regular and therefore he directed him to appear forthwith for sentence.

This is the case brought by the Delaware and Hudson company against Shaleen for working without a miner's certificate.

When the law was passed it was for the purpose of protecting the miners and little was then thought of the assistance the act would be to the miners' organization in time of strife between them and the companies.

Alice Carey Concert Company

The closing number of the Library Lecture Course will begin at the Opera House, Tuesday, March 14. Season Tickets reserved Saturday, March 11, and general admission Tuesday. The company promises an unusually pleasant program with Miss Carey, violinist, Miss Hayes, soprano and pianist, and Miss O'Day, reader, banjoist and vocalist. The Saginaw (Michigan) Evening News contains the following:

"The Alice Carey Concert Company, entertained a large audience in a decidedly sweet and pretty concert last evening. So appreciative of the efforts of the three members of the company was the audience that each number was warmly applauded and encores were necessary. The program included twelve numbers and gave each of the participants an excellent opportunity of showing their versatility, an opportunity which was not neglected. Miss Carey handles an instrument of the most beautiful tone, in a manner which cannot fail but appeal to all of her audience. She is a master in technique and in understanding of the sympathies of music and her renditions thoroughly awakened the spirit of appreciation among the music lovers of her audience. She was forced to respond to two encores, which were rendered in an exquisite manner.

IN TESTIMONIAL

To Mr. W. B. Gray by His Attorneys.

We, as attorneys of W. B. Gray, who, on last September, was charged with the crime of embezzlement by A. A. Clark, Secretary of what is called "The Ermine Soap Company," feel that it is our duty in relation to our client, to make a plain statement regarding this case, that the public and especially the good people of Logan may have a clear conception and understanding of the facts surrounding the case.

Mr. Gray, as Treasurer and Manager of the said Ermine Soap Company, received and charged himself with the sum of $1,910.00, this being the total amount received by him during his employment as such Treasurer and Manager of said company.

An investigation of his checks and other expenditures show that he paid out as such Treasurer and Manager the sum of $2,276.00, so it is plain to be seen, by a little subtraction, that instead of Mr. Gray having embezzled the funds of this company, the company is indebted to him in the sum of over $360.00.

His arrest for said crime of embezzlement was made in the month of September, 1904, and was incarcerated in the jail of the county for the period of about four weeks, at which time he procured the necessary bond and was released from custody.

The grand jury which was to investigate his case, and which did investigate the same, convened in January of this year and from their investigation no bill of indictment was found against him for said crime. In other words he was exonerated of the charge of embezzlement.

We have made a careful inspection of the books of the Ermine Soap Company and of the stock issued by said company, and are clearly of the opinion that Mr. Gray in no way could have been guilty of any crime in connection with his service with this company.

Upon the other hand we sincerely believe, from the knowledge that we have been able to obtain relative to his work in connection with this company, that every act of his, pertaining to his said employment as Treasurer and Manager of said company, indicates clearly, that he had at all times the purest motives and at no time an intention to do his fellow man a wrong. For some reason unknown to us, the said A. A. Clark, who filed the affidavit against Mr. Gray, before D. H. Lappen, Justice of the Peace of this township, charging him with the said crime of embezzlement, failed to appear before the grand jury of this county at this January term, as a witness against Mr. Gray. We think this fact alone is sufficiently significant to convince the ordinary person that Mr. Gray, in the first instance, was not guilty of any crime or offense, for surely if he had been, this man Clark, who claims to have been robbed by him would have prosecuted him in the severest manner known to the law. It was his plain duty to do this as it would be the duty of every good citizen, and as we said before, when the time came for him to do so he was nowhere to be found. Now we have no motive or interest in this matter other than we would have for any other good citizen who might, unfortunately, have been charged with a similar offense.

Since Mr. Gray has decided to remain a resident of Logan, and since he has the care and maintenance of an almost invalid companion, we feel, in justice to him, that the people of the town ought to know exactly what there was in the crime charged against him and what, in fact, became of it. We believe him to be an honest, upright and sober man, sincerely devoted to the care of his companion.

Very Truly Yours,

EDWIN D. RICKETTS, H. E. SPARSON.

The eucalyptus tree dries up springs rapidly.

The olive will live longer under water than any other tree.

There are forests of leafless trees in some parts of Australia.

Whenever a plant is wounded a positive electric current is established between the wounded part and the intact parts.

In Tibet there is a most curious tree known as the tree of the thousand images. Its leaves are covered with well defined characters of the Tibetan alphabet.

On the island of Loochoo grows a tree about the size of a common cherry tree which possesses the peculiarity of changing the color of its blossoms. At one time the flower assumes the tint of the lip and again shortly takes the color of the rose.

Weatherwise River Men.

River men who have followed the Potomac from youth to old age are full of wise sayings that come as near being correct as do the predictions of the more scientific observers. An old river man who as master on sailing vessel and steamer has traveled to and from on the Potomac for the past fifty years said that he had often noticed that as the weather is on the first three days of December in each year so will the weather be in the three months of winter—that is, the 1st of December is so will December be; January will be like the 2d and February like the 3d. Another saying is that the weather is on the Thursday before the new moon so will be the weather for the greater part of the moon—Washington Star.

Today.

Today is your day and mine, the only day we have, the day in which we play our part. What our part may signify in the great whole we may not understand, but we are here to play it, and now is our time. This we know. It is a cynicism. It is for us to express love in terms of helpfulness. This we know, for we have learned from sad experience that any other source of life leads toward decay and waste.—David Starr Jordan.
