

Hoskin's Position.

Columbus, Ohio, October 2.—County local option is favored by Samuel A. Hoskins, the Democratic nominee for Secretary of State, in a letter addressed to Rev. J. H. Fitzwater, of Delaware. The nominee favors it both on moral and political grounds and does not halt or hesitate in his declaration of approval. It appears that Dr. Fitzwater and others addressed a query to Mr. Hoskins requesting information as to his stand upon certain moral questions. In reply the candidate made this statement: "I will say that I know so far as you are personally concerned you are aware of the position I have taken in these matters for many years past. I am a Democrat and as such believe firmly in the doctrine of home rule. This leads logically to the initiative and referendum, and I need not say that as a Democrat I firmly believe in this doctrine and that it should be applied to political and moral questions alike. Speaking from my personal convictions on the subject I will say that I believe the liquor question should be subjected to the same tests that are applied to other public questions. From the same convictions I will further say that I think each political unit, municipality, township or county should decide this question for itself. Perhaps I can state the matter more concisely by saying that we should not recede one step from the advance moral ground taken by the late Governor Pattison, and I stand for every moral and political reform for which he stood, including the declaration for county local option made in his inaugural address. Entertaining these convictions I am glad to comply with your request and let you know how I personally stand."

This statement is confirmatory of the declaration made on the day of the state convention by Mr. Hoskins when he said that he believed the Democratic state platform to be an expression of the indorsement of all of Governor Pattison's politics.—Enquirer.

Farmers Against Dunlap.

Ashville, Pickaway Co., Ohio, October 2, 1906. To the Grangers of Ohio: We feel it our duty to call the attention of all members of our noble order to the legislative record of our fellow member, Hon. Renick Dunlap, of this county, who has been placed on the Republican ticket as a candidate for Food and Dairy Commissioner.

Mr. Dunlap was elected to the senate from this district in 1903. He was an honored member of our order and announced that he was going to the legislature to champion the cause of the farmer. Unfortunately for Mr. Dunlap, he fell under the influence of the lobby and certain capitalists and he voted with them, and against the farmers' interests. We do not think Mr. Dunlap was dishonest, but he was not strong enough to withstand the blandishments these men used to induce him to forget his promises and the teachings of the Grange, and, as a result, when he was a candidate for a season term to the senate he was defeated because our people did not feel that he was a safe man in whom to trust the interests of the farmer in the legislature.

It is charged that the same influences that he served as senator secured his nomination for Food and Dairy Commissioner as a reward for his services to them.

We call your attention to page 881 of The Senate Journal for 1904. On April 25th the resolution to amend the constitution so as to exempt state and municipal bonds from taxation was adopted in the senate, receiving 22 votes, just enough to pass it.

MR. DUNLAP VOTED FOR THIS RESOLUTION AND HIS VOTE PASSED IT. HAD HE VOTED NO, THE RESOLUTION WOULD HAVE BEEN DEFEATED.

Every granger in Ohio opposed this iniquitous resolution, yet Mr. Dunlap, the supposed representative of our order in the legislature, voted strictly against the wishes of his brothers.

At a meeting of the State Grange held in Columbus in January of the present year, a resolution was adopted denouncing the adoption of this resolution and appointing a committee to take steps to have it repealed by re-submitting it to a vote of the people, thus undoing the great wrong done our people by Mr. Dunlap's vote, which resulted in EXEMPTING FROM TAXATION A HUNDRED MILLION DOLLARS HELD BY IMMENSE FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS abundantly able to bear their share of taxation, but on account of Mr. Dunlap's vote this additional burden now falls on the farmer and his land.

We feel that in voting for this questionable measure Mr. Dunlap was false to his people and has shown himself unfit and unworthy to be trusted in public capacity.

But this is not all. In another important matter Mr. Dunlap voted against the interest of the farmer. For years a sheep fund has been accumulated in each by taxing dogs to pay farmers for sheep killed and injured by dogs. On page 255, Senate Journal, 1904, on March 16, Mr. Dunlap voted for a bill to allow persons injured by dogs to draw the sheep fund from the treasury. This bill became a law with Mr. Dunlap's vote. In some counties the fund has been exhausted by people living in cities, and not a cent remains to pay farmers for their sheep, thus defeating the purpose of the original law to compensate farmers for injuries to their flocks.

We do not believe that the Grange should be used as a convenience for politicians, and Mr. Dunlap has shown by his votes that his fealty to the bosses and the lobby is stronger than his obligation to his brother grangers and farmers.

We submit these facts, which are upon the open records, for your consideration, and leave it for you to say whether your vote will be given to a man with such a record for an office as important as Food and Dairy Commissioner. BROTHER GRANGERS.

Wedding Anniversaries.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Starcher were surprised by a concourse of people Monday evening whom assembled to remind them of their 25th wedding anniversary. A most enjoyable evening was spent, and the host and hostess were remembered with a number of beautiful presents. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Geo. L. Blosser, Mr. and Mrs. Roy L. Dupler, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Whiteraft, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Bay, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Kleinschmidt, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. John Timberlake, Mr. John Linton, Mr. E. P. Price, Mrs. Mike Hensel, Mrs. Will Kessler, Mrs. Julia Mauk, Mrs. Hannah Price, Mrs. Lovina Eggleston, Mrs. Leah Blosser, Mrs. J. W. Price, Mrs. Crawford, and the Misses Effie Price, Rose Anderson, Belle Crawford, Piezza Mauk, Merlin Whiteraft, Maud Linton, Mabel Blosser, Ruth Sweeney, Mabel Rossman, Leah Starcher, Florence Starcher, Marie Kleinschmidt, Master Lawrence Dupler and Col. Eggleston.

The 20th anniversary of the wedding day of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Sparks marked a joyous affair at their home Friday night of last week. Mrs. Sparks entertained the Nondescript club and many invited guests, and a most joyous time was had. Mrs. Sparks was the recipient of many handsome and useful presents, among which was a set of solid silver spoons from the club, also a china chocolate pot from Mrs. Speelman and Mrs. Lehman in Columbus.

Hanley-Wells.

On Saturday evening last occurred the marriage of Mr. Sam Hanley, to Mrs. Alice Wells, both of Nelsonville. The ceremony was performed in Logan at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rectenwald, by Rev. T. B. White. The couple remained at the Rectenwald home until the following day where at noon a most sumptuous wedding dinner was served.

Mrs. Hanley was formerly a Logan girl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Braddock, and a charming and amiable woman. Mr. Hanley is employed in the railroad office at Nelsonville and is a worthy young man popular in his city.

This publication extends hearty greeting and blessings for a long and happy life together.

Slater's Bad Record.

Competitive bidding in the Printing Department of the state, recently introduced by Supervisor J. W. Johnson, is turning out daily surprises and furnishing new reflections upon the past management. Some weeks ago it was shown that gold leaf had been paid for at the rate of $9.50 a package by the state when anybody else could get it for $7.50. It was also shown that goods delivered to the state bindery were seldom accompanied by the invoice in order that a check could be kept. Most interesting of all it was shown that nearly all of the supplies were purchased from an individual in Dayton, who was not known to the paper or bindery business.

To-day Supervisor Johnson opened bids for binders' boards and strawboards lined with paper, and the figures staggered him. On March 26 last his predecessor, Mark Slater, bought from J. E. Brelsford, of Dayton, 475 bundles of binders' boards at the uniform weight of 50 lbs to the bundle. They were paid for at the rate of $64 a ton. There were three bids offered to-day, the lowest of which was $32.50, a ton and the highest $37.50, the quality being the same.

The lowest bidders, a firm at Tonawanda, N. Y., offered to deliver them free on board at Columbus. On the same day last March there was purchased from Brelsford 150 bundles of lined strawboard at the rate of $60 a ton. To-day a bid of $32 a ton was received for the same material, and it came from a Chicago firm that has been paid $5,000 worth of unchecked bills under the old regime.

Handcuffs Removed.

The theater going people of Logan were treated to a genuine surprise last night in the performance on the stage by Fernando, the Swiss Magician and Hypnotist. Marshal Allen went to the stage and fastened upon the wizzard a pair of the latest combination handcuff, and they fit very tightly. To the utter astonishment of the Marshal, the magician as easily removed the handcuff as if they were made of paper. Mr. Fernando gave a series of good entertainments here and deserves strong patronage where ever he goes.

STATEMENT.

I wish to say to the public interested that the removing of my handcuffs by Mr. Fernando was indeed a marvel to me and most astounding because of their late mechanism in make.

alleged violation of a temporary injunction procured by the Jeffrey Manufacturing company against the striking molders and core-makers, were not in contempt of his court, and at the same time modified the original injunction.

His decision was, in part: "While there have been some individual acts of violence committed, I do not believe it is the sense, nor the resort, nor action of the defendant unions or their officers to cause or precipitate any such actions complained of."

"The freedom and individual rights of the so-called strikers will be preserved by this court, but it will not permit them to destroy the freedom or rights of others."
