BASE BALL

Logan Won and Lost on Decoration Day.

Carbonhill made its first appearance on the local grounds Decoration Day and defeated Logan in the first game by the score of 5 to 2, but lost the second, a five inning affray, by the score of 7 to 0. Logan was unable to hit Brannigan to any extent in the first game, while Carbonhill's hits were timely and coupled with errors allowed them to score five runs. The best Logan could get off Brannigan was two.

This is the way it happened: Johnson led off with a hit in the second, and Smith duplicated with another, they both advanced on a passed ball and scored on Shannon's wild throw and Horn's sacrifice. They scored two more in the sixth on a base on balls and errors by Pennybaker and Shannon, and one in the ninth on two hits and Kleinschmidt's error.

Logan could do nothing with Brannigan until the ninth inning, after two men were gone. Beck singled, Spencer batting for Saunders, beat out an infield bouncer, Jones then doubled to center, Beck and Spencer scoring, the latter on a bad throw to the plate by Edgell. Buntz could not keep the good work going and went out on a hard drive to Horn, thus ending the inning and further scoring by Logan.

Martin kept Logan from scoring in the fifth when he made a nice catch of Buntz's sacrifice, doubling up Jones at first. It was one of the prettiest catches of the season. Beck also made a nice running catch, in left center, off Martin, in the seventh inning. Martin made a nice running catch of a foul in the last game. In the second contest, an abbreviated affair in order to let the visitors catch a train, Logan was out for revenge, and they certainly got it. The way they went after Mr. Dane was a shame. We scored seven runs in the first inning by some clever base running and timely hits, combined with several errors by the visitors. Mr. Dane lasted two-thirds of an inning and Manager Horn thought that was plenty, so Dane was chased to left field, and L. Smith was brought in to do the pitching. Smith stopped the scoring all right, but it was too late, as Saunders had the visitors at his mercy and they could not score, he allowing them only two hits.

MEMORIAL SERVICE, DECORATION DAY

The past week was given to the memory of departed soldiers. In Logan the occasion was fittingly observed by almost all citizens closing their places of business and assisting in commemorating the virtues and great achievements of the soldiers.

On Sunday, June 2, the ex-soldiers went in a body to the M. E. church. A male quartette, composed of J. D. Sanderson, A. Murphy, S. C. Bright and J. B. Dollison, rendered appropriate music, and Rev. Arbuckle, of Washington, C. H., most eloquently delivered the sermon. He is an ex-soldier and could feelingly tell of the privations and hardships. He put a high standard on citizenship and held his hearers to a breathless attention. At the close of the service, the quartette sang "Tenting on the Old Camp Ground."

On Thursday the town was well decorated in memory of the annual Decoration Day. The Carbonhill Band under direction of Professor Weaver, were on hand and rendered most excellent music. At nine o'clock there assembled at Memorial Hall the G. A. R. Post, ex-soldiers, relief corps, with a great parade of children bearing daisies. They marched to the cemeteries and strew flowers upon the graves of the fallen heroes.

In the afternoon the soldiers were accompanied by the Band, sounded the taps.

On returning to the Presbyterian Church, a large audience had assembled to hear the 41-quent address by Comrade Tom Powell, of Columbus, Col. Powell did certainly please his old comrades and the people by his masterly effort. He told of the gratification to the declining years of the old soldiers, that the young people are enthusiastic in memory of the great work done by these heroes.

On the program at that service, J. B. Dollison, Mrs. G. C. Weitzell and Miss Ruth Brooke sang solos.

The day was beautiful in weather and in success in every detail, and once more the annual service in memory of the fallen heroes has passed into history, and each year their ranks are thinner and their steps less firm. Many have dropped out of the ranks in the past year in Logan. Who will be gone from among them, by next memorial day. While they are here we will love and cheer them along. Give them flowers now, while they can see them and enjoy them. Give them good cheer and "God speed" now, while their ears can hear. When they are gone we will reverence their Godly memory and the great service they have rendered to us, who enjoy the fruits of their sacrifice.

Look Into Space. A young man whose eyes had been troubling him, consulted a New York oculist. "What you want to do," said the specialist, "is to take a trip every day on the ferry or in New Jersey, Long Island—any place where you can see long distances. Look up and down the river, across fields or, if the worst comes to the worst, go on the top of a skyscraper and scan the horizon from that point. The idea is to get distance. You use your eyes a great deal and always at close range. You can't use them any other way in town. Even when not reading or writing the vision is limited by small rooms and narrow streets. No matter in what direction you look, there is a blank wall not far away to shut off sight."

Travel Free. "Conductor," said the gasping passenger, vainly trying to raise a window, "there are at least a billion microbes in this car." "You ought to be able to stand that if the company can," growled the street car conductor. "We don't get a blamed cent for carrying 'em."—Chicago Tribune.

Lies Low. "Of course she doesn't like discussions about ages." "No. Usually when she's queried about hers she just says nothing, but lies low." "Yes, or if she says anything she lies low."—Philadelphia Press.
