One of the best attractions that has played Logan in a number of years was the hilariously funny comedy "The Girl Who Looks Like Me" as presented by Kathryn Osterman and a clever company in January of last season; a return engagement for this play is to be given at our local theatre on Monday, November 25; this season Miss Osterman is supported by her clever sister, Anna Belmont, and an especially selected New York cast. Seats will be placed on sale Thursday morning November 21, at Billison's Drug Store.

Charming Entertainer

Kathryn Osterman, who won great favor here last season in the immensely entertaining comedy, "The Girl Who Looks Like Me," comes again to the Logan Opera House on Monday, November 25, in a new edition of this piece and supported by the best company she has ever had the good fortune to gather about her. This is saying a great deal when it is remembered that Miss Osterman was once the leading woman of Stuart Robson's company, star of "What Happened to Jones," "Brown's in Town," "Miss Petticoat's," "Nancy & Co." and "Piff, Paff, Puff," besides having scored numerous other notable histrionic achievements surrounded with some of the country's most capable players including her sister, Anna Belmont. Usually Miss Osterman has left the selection of her company entirely with her manager, this season however, she settled herself in New York and personally selected each individual artist, each for his or her particular fitness for a role in the "The Girl." Not only this, but Miss Osterman directed every rehearsal, acting as her own stage director. All this has resulted in the presentation of this rare comedy in a manner that is as near perfection as is possible to attain and the forthcoming engagement of Miss Osterman and her company is sure to mark an unusually enjoyable epoch in local theatrical annals.

Noble-Nunemaker

One of the most elegantly appointed home weddings of the season took place Thursday Nov. 14th. at high noon at the beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Nunemaker one mile and a half north of town, when their youngest daughter, Jennie May, was united in marriage to Mr. Thomas J. Noble of Logan in presence of a number of immediate friends and relatives. Rev. Willis, pastor of Logan U. B. Church officiated.

The bride wore a white silk mull gown over white silk. A full bridal veil was held in place by white roses and she carried white chrysanthemums. The brides-

BROWN BROS. Strong Trade WINNERS

It's economy to buy good clothes, it's more economy to buy them at the right price. Every man is entitled to full value for his money. Wouldn't it be a satisfaction to you to know that you are going to get value received in the clothes you buy? "Our guarantee insures you that." Investigate, make careful comparisons before you buy your Fall and Winter Clothing. Don't buy here or anywhere else, unless you know how it's made. A good fit and good fabric is not enough. The inside material and workmanship must be good else the garment cannot give satisfactory service. There's life in the clothes we sell. They are not skimped here-and-there, pressed and whipped into shape to deceive the inexperienced buyers, but are made to give a full "dollars worth" for "your dollar" backed by the manufacturers and our guarantee. maid, Miss Elsie Noble, wore a light blue silk gown and carried carnations, and Mr. Maek Mount acted as best man.

Mr. Nunemaker gave his daughter in marriage, and Mrs. Ed. Hockman, sister of the bride, played the wedding march and Miss Janette Hartman sang the appreciative song, "Oh Promise Me" accompanied by Mrs. Ed. Hockman at piano. After the ceremony the guests were escorted to the dining room where a sumptuous dinner was served. Those seated at the bride's table were the bride and groom, bridesmaid, and best man, the bridal table being carried out in a full bell effect. Those serving in the diningroom as waiters and ribbon girls were the Misses Blanche England, Janette Hartman and Alice Kuhn, who also acted as receivers. The decorations of the home were very attractive, the color scheme being green and white. The bride and groom were the recipients of many useful and costly presents too numerous to mention.

Mr. and Mrs. Noble are two of Logan's most excellent young people and well known. Mr. Noble being in business at this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Noble will be at home to their friends after December 1st., Logan, Ohio.

Domestic

Mrs. Will Brandt entertained the Domestic Club, Thursday afternoon of last week, and easily maintained her prominence as a most charming hostess.

Saturday Club

On last Saturday afternoon Mrs. John Dougherty received the Saturday Club, and was in her usual grace, a most pleasing hostess. Mrs. Frank Gallagher and Miss Naomi Jones had very interesting papers.

The Junias

On Monday evening Miss Vall received the Junias. They are a most joyous bunch of ladies, and are quite literary. They are now making a study of the works of popular authors. Miss Olive Rochester, Miss Helen Blasius and Miss Mary McCray had splendid papers. The hostess served a pleasing collation.

Sewing Circle

Mrs. Dill Sanderson was hostess to the Sewing Circle, Saturday evening last. These ladies have a good time in conversation, and enjoy the comparison of the needle work they bring along. They spend a useful two hours together as well as most enjoyable. Mrs. Sanderson served refreshments that were most delicious.

Flinch.

Mrs. John Strawn was hostess for a number of ladies, Monday evening, and entertained them in the popular game of flinch. Those present were Mrs. C. W. Schwenke, Mrs. Dr. Wright, Mrs. Thurness, Mrs. Will Lurimer, Mrs. Tom Braddock, Mrs. Henry Schafer, Mrs. Mose Strawn and Mrs. W. H. Acker. Mrs. Strawn served refreshments.

Wonn-Hane

Thursday evening at 6 o'clock Miss Arta Hane renounced maidenhood and became the bride of Mr. Wonn, the ceremony being performed at the parsonage of the First M. E. Church by Rev. Harry B. Lewis. Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Hane were the only attendants. Immediately after the ceremony they departed on the 6:40 train for Chicago, where they will visit Mr. and Mrs. Heft, relatives of Mr. Wonn. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Hane and is a great favorite among her acquaintances, owing to her unusual sweetness of character. She has been associated in a business way for several years with Gardner & Huges and on this important occasion wore an exceptionally becoming gown of navy blue broadcloth with a chic hat to match. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Wonn of Logan, is cashier at the H. V. freight office in this city and is to be congratulated upon securing so fair a bride. He is a young man of sterling qualities and the best wishes of their many friends go with the young couple through life. Owing to the serious illness of the bride's sister, Mrs. Harry Lelew, the event was a quiet nature. Upon their return on Monday, November 18, Mr. and Wonn will enter upon the pleasing duty of housekeeping in the Matt property on East Main street all

Miss Bowen's Recital.

The piano recital given by Miss Eveline Bowen of the faculty, assisted by Mr. Henry Froehlich, violinist, of the faculty, and Mr. Harry Kopp, violinist, was very successful. Miss Bowen was known to many in the audience during her years here as student and assistant in the piano department so that her progress made during the past two years in Berlin under Stepanoff was of particular interest. Miss Bowen played with ease and showed thorough mastery of the difficult technique which her program demanded. The numbers by Mr. Froehlich were also highly appreciated, as was the final trio by Schubert for piano, violin, and violoncello in which Mr. Harry Kopp assisted. A pleasant reception followed the recital.

Six Hand Euchre

Mrs. Dr. Lyons and Mrs. Purcell very delightfully entertained a number of their friends with six hand euchre, Wednesday afternoon and evening, at the Purcell home. In the afternoon, seven tables of players enjoyed the fascinating game, and favors taken by Mrs. Dr. Cherrington, a hand painted plate; second, Miss Minnie White, a china plate; third, Mrs. Will Kessler, a salad dish. Mrs. Wolf, of Athens, carried off the visitor's prize, a silver spoon. The out-of-town guests were Mrs. Dr. Beery, of Lancaster, Mrs. Preston and Mrs. Wolf, of Athens, and Mrs. Poston, of Nelsonville.

In the evening four tables of players were present, a number being kept away by the inclement weather. Mrs. Jeffries secured first prize, a silver spoon, Miss Mollie McBride, second, a china salad dish, Miss Anna Smith, handmade handkerchief. Miss Mame Wellman received the consolation prize, a pitcher in the form of a lemon. Elegant refreshments were served during the afternoon and evening.

Death of Mrs. Lanning.

Mrs. Thomas Lanning, mother of Councilman Warren Lanning, died Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, from acute Bright's disease. She had made her home in Logan for some years with her son, since the death of her husband at Ewing, and had many friends here. She died at the age of 73 years. Here home for many years was at Ewing where her family was born and raised, and where she was laid to rest Tuesday by the side of her husband.

The children living are Mrs. Whitcraft, mother of Attorney H. M. Whitcraft and Warren Lanning, both of Logan. Those preceding the mother in death are, Homer and Alva, and Mrs. Frank Bushey.

Common Pleas Court.

Common Pleas Court opened Friday for a short session with Judge George Martin of Lancaster, on the bench. Only one case was up for the day and was that of the Bank of Millersburg against Charles T. Emsinger, Mentor Johnson, et al. It was an action on a promissory note for $2,000 which was given by Johnson to Emsinger, who later resold it to the Bank of Millersburg. The note was given in payment for an interest in a laundry in Columbus and the maker refused to pay on the ground of misrepresentation in the selling.

The case was heard on the evidence and taken under advisement by Judge Martin, who will announce the decision later. The attorneys in the case were from Columbus and Millersburg.

Cider Valley

Mrs. Rhoads, of Starr, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Geo. Anthony, for a few days. Mr. Amos Knipe moved his family to the Homer Wilson farm, near New Plymouth, last week. Mr. C. V. Harden spent Friday night and Saturday with Frank Souders and wife.
