

SOCIETY AND CLUB NEWS

Domestic Club

Mrs. Chase will receive the Domestic club this afternoon.

Weaver-Rodgers

On Thursday, March 17, at the U. B. parlour in Logan, the Rev. J. W. Willis solemnized the marriage of Mr. John E. Weaver and Miss Mary A. Rodgers, both of Marion township, in this county.

Five O'Clock Tea

The W. B. M. S. will give a five o'clock tea at the M. E. parlour on Tuesday evening of next week. The charge will be 10 cents, and an unusually good supper will be provided. You are invited.

Jolly Dozen Pedro Club

Miss Lillie Wright very charmingly entertained the Jolly Dozen, Thursday night. Miss Flossie Newman secured the club prize, a handsome water-color picture, and Miss Myers won the visitor's prize, a china plate. Mrs. Fred Grove was handed the booby, in the form of a lemon. Mrs. Fred Grove and Miss Myers were visitors. A lovely two course lunch was served.

Election of officers

Logan Lodge 452, B. P. O. E. held annual election last Friday night, elected the following officers for ensuing year:

Exalted Ruler, Chas. H. Beck; Secretary, D. H. Lappen; Treasurer, W. H. Strentz; Esteemed Leading Knight, Geo. Smith; Esteemed Loyal Knight, Tom Price; Esteemed Lecturing Knight, H. F. Ambrose; Tyler, H. S. Green; Trustees, Geo. Gladman, I. N. Slatzer, W. A. Henderson; Representative to Grand Lodge, Geo. Gladman; Alternate, Tom Price.

The Tourists

Mrs. Herbert Harrington was hostess to the Tourist Thursday afternoon of last week. The subject was, "Hocking County," and Mrs. R. D. McManigal had an excellent paper. As a diversion from the usual program, a few of the Junias were present, Mrs. C. N. Bowen, Mrs. Will Strentz and Miss Sadie McCray, and put on the farce, "The Chafing Dish Party," which was an enjoyable affair, in connection with which a chafing dish supper was served. The guests were Mrs. Sarah James, Mrs. Barsha Work, Miss Minnetta McCray and Mrs. Garret.

W. R. C.

Mrs. Spurrier was hostess for the W. R. C. ladies, Tuesday evening, and a more pleasant time is seldom had than on this occasion. This society is composed of a jolly crowd, and Tuesday night the ringleaders in such games as Button, Going to Boston, Charades, speaking pieces and singing songs, were Mrs. Sanderson, Mrs. Haiden, Mrs. Strawn, Mrs. I. C. Wright and several others. There were fifty present, and no bunch of sixteen-year-old girls had more fun. Mrs. Spurrier served a delicious two course supper.

Nondescript

The Nondescript club met on Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Chris Jurgensmier as hostess, and a most delightful time was spent at this most hospitable home. Responses to roll call were taken from a question box. Mrs. T. J. Leyshon gave a magazine reading entitled "The Magic Thread." Mrs. Morgan, a poem "Leaving the Old Homestead;" and Mrs. Case a very humorous reading entitled "The Family Horse." After this interesting program, a sumptuous six o'clock dinner was served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Carrie Lutz and Mrs. Ed Smith. The visitors were Mrs. Will Acker, Mrs. Ed Smith and Miss Carrie Lutz.

Twice Five Club

On Monday evening Superintendent and Mrs. Silverthorne received the Twice Five Club, at their pretty residence on Glenview Heights.

The subject of the evening was "Which is the Greater Influence in the World, Man or Woman?"

Dr. Apila fostered the cause of the man, and Mr. H. R. Harrington defended the woman. The club members entered into the spirit of the subject very enthusiastically, with the weight of the argument supporting the influence of the women.

Mrs. Silverthorne demonstrated the importance of the women by serving a most elegant two course supper. The visitors were Mrs. Yerges and Miss Rannels.

Social Circle

One of the most pleasant events of the week was the meeting Wednesday evening of the Social Circle at the home of Mrs. M. H. Cherrington on Main street. Responses to roll call were "Original Conundrums." Three contests were presented, which were thoroughly enjoyed by all, and prizes taken by Mrs. Sanderson, who secured a china hair receiver; Mrs. Tide Huston, a china tray; Mrs. James Rochester, a bon bon dish and Mrs. Bruce Dollison, a china cup and saucer. Mrs. Cherrington served an elegant three course supper, assisted by Misses Lillie Wright and Flossie Newman. The guests present were Mesdames McKay, Kisele, Cowell, Kirker, Beem, Steinman, Warner, Case, Huston, Sanderson, Strawn, Johnson, Theo. Tritsch, John Tritsch and the Misses Lillie Wright and Flossie Newman.

ARCH-DEACON DODSHON of Columbus.

He will be the mission preacher, at the St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Logan all next week. Come out and hear this distinguished divine.

THE BODY OF LUCIUS TURNER

Is Found in the Sands of the Hocking, South of Athens.

The remains of Lucius Turner were brought to Logan, Wednesday and laid beside his wife in Oak Grove cemetery. One year ago the past week he drowned at Athens in the awful flood, and not until Monday afternoon did human eyes view him since he sank beneath the whirlpool of muddy water on the 14th day of March 1907. The Athens Daily Messenger of Tuesday gives the following account of the gruesome discovery:

"The badly decomposed body of the man found at Harmony, late Monday afternoon, is undoubtedly that of Lucius Turner, who lost his life in the flood of last March. His brother-in-law, Bart Davidson, who lives here, is positive that the remains are those of Turner.

The gruesome find was made by John Duncan, about 3 o'clock, Monday afternoon. Duncan, who lives at Harmony, went to the river for some purpose, and while walking down the sand-bar, about 100 yards below his home, he saw the body lying upon some logs, where it had evidently been washed by the last freshet. He hurried to his home and called Mayor Hedges, who immediately sent Duffee's ambulance after the body.

Hundreds of morbidly curious people viewed the remains at the undertaking establishment after their arrival. The body was in such a condition that recognition was impossible. The features were obliterated by long contact with the elements, and but a few remnants of clothing were still upon the body. Shoes and article overhoes were still upon the feet.

Mr. Davidson stated to the Messenger that he was positive in his identification of the body as that of Lucius Turner. Several points of identification are as follows: Prominent eye-teeth, length of the body, article overhoes, which the drowned man invariably wore, No. 9 shoes, a pencil holder found on the remnant of the dead man's vest. The concluding point was a remnant of the coat found upon the body. The local dye works took the cloth and cleaned it perfectly. When it was shown Mr. Davidson, that gentleman stated he was positive it belonged to Mr. Turner, and there was no longer any doubt in his mind that the long-sought remains had been discovered.

The death of Mr. Turner was tragic. On the morning of March 14, 1907, with his wife he entered a boat containing Albert and Edward Sweet, Charles Bearis, Carlos Young. The small craft containing the six people was overturned and all of its occupants were drowned or died from the shock incident to their precipitation in to the wild waters. Mrs. Turner and Albert Sweet were rescued by a passing boat, but died from the shock. All of the other bodies were found shortly after the waters had receded. The remains of Turner alone remained in the waters of the treacherous river. His heart-broken father, George Turner, of South Bloomington, Hocking county, in vain offered a large reward for the finding of the remains. The river was dragged and the river banks searched for miles. Then Monday afternoon the remains were found. There can be no doubt that the body has lain, all during the year just past, buried in the river bottom. The recent freshets brought it to the shore again, and discovery and identification followed.

Coroner J. J. Lane, of Nelsonville, arrived this morning and held the inquest over the remains at the undertaking establishment. The witnesses were: James Klingenberg, George Duffee, Bart Davidson and James Duncan. Mr. Davidson again positively identified the remains. The others testified as to the finding of the body. The verdict no doubt will be that of "death by drowning," and the identification will be declared correct.

George Turner, the aged father of Lucius Turner, and another son arrived in Athens about 1 o'clock this afternoon, having come in from Chillicothe. They immediately went to Duffee's undertaking establishment to view the body and personal effects found upon it. The father was not so sure about the identity of the remains, while the son, Roy, was more positive. The son declared that the piece of cloth that had been cleaned was a portion of the suit his brother wore the last time he saw him. The teeth and shape of the shoes were also like those of the dead man, thought the brother. The father also agreed in this view of the shoes.

INCORRIGIBILITY

Charge Against Glennie Dane, a School Boy.

Considerable interest has been centered on a case now pending in the Probate Court, brought by Prosecuting Attorney A. R. McBroom for the State, against Glennie Dane, for incorrigibility and disobedience to school teacher.

The boy goes to school at Monday, in Ward township, and the history of the case goes that he has pointedly refused to mind the teacher and has been largely instrumental in corrupting other children to follow his example.

The immediate trouble grew out of the boy positively refusing to recite any piece, as required of all the pupils, by the teacher. This among other things, it is claimed, had a tendency to influence the school children in general to refuse to obey.

The case has gotten so warm that it brings many persons into the matter and it will be hotly contested before Probate Judge F. P. Martin, sitting as a Juvenile Court. Prosecutor A. R. McBroom assisted by Judge Wright, appear for the State, and Wright & Pettit for the defense.

The persons subpoenaed and present in the case are:

J. W. Shuck, J. C. Huls, Thos. Lax, J. C. Whitlatch, Robt. Steward, Squire Ike Williams, Leander Murphy, Granvil Debow, Mrs. Zella Dane, Glennie Dane, Harry Davis, Ambrose Brooker, Pete Brooker, Mrs. Edna Cooksey, Wm Cooksey, Wm. Hotelinson, Eph Shaw, Elroy Williams, Loren Devol, Clem Pruden.

PAINFULLY INJURED

On Wednesday Mr. Charley Campbell, working at the Down hour & Gage saw mill on the Ringhizer place, with his brother-in-law, Ed. Rohrer, got caught some how under the carriage of the mill, and his ankle was badly crushed.

He was brought to Logan taken in the ambulance to his sister's home, where medical attention was had and the fracture reduced. He has a bad ankle and will be for some time nursing his wound.

THE GRIM REAPER

MRS. JOHN STALEY.

On Monday of this week, the relatives and friends of Mrs. John Staley were shocked to hear of her death at her home in Shawnee. She was a woman beloved by all who knew her, and was well known in this community. Her maiden name was Zeve, usually spoken, "Savay." She was a sister of Mrs. George Beck of Logan, mother of Messrs. Charles and Ed. Beck, and the news came to them with heavy hand. The many friends of Mrs. Beck sympathize with her deeply in the loss of her devoted sister. Just recently the friends here were called in sadness by the death of Mrs. Staley's daughter.

The funeral will occur at Shawnee, today. The relatives of Logan are in attendance.

MRS. HENRY LEACH.

Mrs. Lucy Leach (nee Karshner), daughter of John and Mary Karshner, was born near Laurelville, Hocking county, Ohio, Nov. 4, 1874, and died at her home on North Walnut street, Logan, Ohio, March 19, 1908. Age 33 years, 3 months and 15 days.

She was married to Henry Leach May 17, 1897, and to this union was given three children, one daughter and two sons.

She was converted and joined the United Brethren church at Logan, Feb. 11, 1907, and remained in this connection until she was called to the Church Triumphant. Her death was a victory of the faith of Jesus, which she cherished.

She leaves to mourn their loss a kind husband and her three little children, Pansy A., who is but 10 years old, John Winrick, who is 8, and Edward A., who is 6 years. She leaves also a father and mother, one grandmother, Mrs. Mary Stump, of Laurelville, Ohio, two sisters, Mrs. Daniel Martin, and Mrs. Maggie Kitchen, both of So. Perry, and two brothers, Daniel and Winrick Karshner, both of Circleville, Ohio, together with a large number of more distant relatives and friends.

On Saturday at 2:30 o'clock P. M. her body was taken to the U. B. Church where a large congregation gathered to show their sympathy with the bereaved family, and the high esteem in which she was held by those who knew her. Her pastor, Rev. J. W. Willis, held a very assuring and comforting service. The choir sang a beautiful anthem entitled "Rest in Peace," and her body was interred in Oak Grove cemetery. A profusion of beautiful cut flowers indicated the high esteem in which this sister was held.

CARD OF THANKS.

We hereby extend our sincere thanks to our friends and neighbors for the kindness and help during the sickness and death of our beloved wife, mother and daughter. To the ministers for their kind advice and comforting words. To the undertaker for his kindness. And to those tender hands that attended her in her last hours, words are inadequate to express our heartfelt gratitude. May Divine Providence lighten their burdens as they have helped to lighten ours.

HENRY LEACH AND CHILDREN, MARY A. STUCKEY.

MRS. ROBERT CURRAN.

The news of the death of Mrs. Robt. Curran of Straitsville, Sunday, was received with sadness in Logan where she had a multitude of friends. She was 80 years old, and her husband, who was formerly sheriff of Hocking county, is still living and is 88 years old.

The cause of Mrs. Curran's death was pneumonia. The funeral occurred at the home, Tuesday and the burial at Logan of the 4 o'clock train in the afternoon.

Among the number of persons who went to Straitsville to the funeral from here were: Mrs. Martha Yerges, Mrs. G. Nill, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Barker, Mr. and Mrs. Azariah Nixon, Mrs. Jerome Shaw, Mrs. John A. Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. John Clark, Mrs. John Hudson and Mrs. Lufe McMorow. A large number of citizens of Straitsville accompanied the remains to Logan for burial.

GILBERT AMENDT.

On Tuesday the remains of Gilbert Amendt were brought to Logan from Columbus, and the funeral was held from the Lutheran Church, Rev. Spoehr, of Logan, and Rev. Bachman, of Columbus, officiating.

The death of Mr. Amendt occurred on Friday of last week. He was 63 years old, and formerly was a very prosperous and respected citizen of Gore, in this county. At one time he held the office of infirmity director of Hocking county.

BOYDIE ALLEN.

On Monday came the word to Logan that Dave Allen had died at Newark, Ohio, but the authentic report followed that the son, Boydie Allen, aged 13 years, was the victim of the grim monster. The funeral took place Wednesday at Newark. The Allen family are well known in this county just south of Logan, where they lived for some time.

Tons of Coffee.

The drinking of coffee by the few individuals of a family does not seem to them as consuming much of the grain, at least not in enormous quantities, but to consider that which is consumed by a community as large as Logan alone, it is astonishing.

Comly & Son buy their green coffee of one firm, blend and roast it themselves, and they are getting quite a reputation among the Logan people for good coffee. In one year they have bought of one company three tons of green coffee, blended, roasted and sold it. Such facts seem almost incredible, but nevertheless true. This not only speaks well for their quality of coffee and their skill in blending and roasting to suit the customer, but it also speaks volumes of the vast quantity used in a small town. One grocery to sell three tons of one brand, in one year, besides the other coffees handled is astonishing. If you want good coffee they have it. Their vast sales speak for themselves. They have the reputation of putting on the market the best and purest coffee sold in Logan. Try it. If other people use three tons of it in one year, it will certainly please you.
