

Democrat Announcements

PROSECUTING ATTORNEY

We are authorized to announce the name of H. E. SPARNON as a candidate for Prosecuting Attorney of Hocking County, subject to the Democratic Primary Election.

COUNTY RECORDER

We are authorized to announce the name of CHARLES A. WRIGHT as a candidate for County Recorder, subject to the Democratic Primary Election.

We are authorized to announce the name of P. D. SLOAN as a candidate for County Recorder, subject to the Democratic Primary Election.

INFIRMARY DIRECTOR

We are authorized to announce the name of NOAH BROUWER as a candidate for County Infirmary Director, subject to the Democratic Primary Election.

We are authorized to announce the name of J. M. SWEENEY, of Sand Run, as a candidate for Infirmary Director of Hocking County, subject to the Democratic Primary Election.

We are authorized to announce the name of L. W. BERRY as a candidate for a second term as Infirmary Director, subject to the decision of the Democratic Primary Election.

COUNTY COMMISSIONER

We are authorized to announce the name of JOSEPH ROUPE as candidate for county commissioner subject to the will of the Democratic Primary.

We are authorized to announce the name of JOHN W. SMITH, of Laurel township, as a candidate for county commissioner subject to the decision of the Democratic Primary.

We are authorized to announce the name of JOHN CONNORS, of Ward township, as a candidate for County Commissioner, subject to the Democratic Primary Election.

We are authorized to announce the name of J. E. HARRON, as a candidate for a second term as Commissioner of Hocking County, subject to the Democratic Primary Election.

We are authorized to announce the name of ELI WATTS, of Benton township, as a candidate for county Commissioner, subject to the Democratic Primary Election.

We are authorized to announce the name of DAVID WOLF, of Marion township, as a candidate for County Commissioner, subject to the Democratic Primary Election.

PROBATE JUDGE

We are authorized to announce the name of JOHN C. STOUT, as a candidate for Probate Judge of Hocking County, subject to the decision of the Democratic Primary Election.

We are authorized to announce the name of IRVING KRIEGL as a candidate for Auditor of Hocking County, subject to the Democratic primary election.

We are authorized to announce the name of WILL D. BRANDT as a candidate for Auditor of Hocking County, subject to the Democratic primary election.

We are authorized to announce the name of HOMER G. HANSEL, as a candidate for Auditor of Hocking County, subject to the Democratic primary election.

Real Estate Bureau.

Call on Henry Cornwell, the Real Estate Agent, if you wish to buy or sell property of any kind, as he will find you a buyer for yours or sell you just what you want. He has some bargains. Office at the Singer Machine store, Main street.

Probate Notice.

Notice is hereby given that the following Accounts and Vouchers have been filed in the Probate Court of Hocking County, Ohio, for First and Final settlement, John Gardner, Administrator of the estate of Elizabeth Gardner, deceased, and the same will come on for hearing on the 23rd day of May A. D. 1908, at 10 o'clock A. M. at said court, and may be convenient. F. P. MARTIN, Probate Judge.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Opera House, tonight, "The Arrival of Kitty."

Mr. John Larimer left Sunday for Cincinnati.

Mr. A. N. Riff was a visitor to Columbus, Saturday.

Mr. Tom Webb was a Sunday visitor in Columbus.

Mr. D. Silverman was a visitor to Columbus, Sunday.

Miss Mary Voris of Athens, was in Logan over Sunday.

Mr. Elsie Tolbert of New Straitsville, was in Logan, Saturday.

"The Arrival of Kitty" at the Opera House, tonight.

Mrs. Beem has returned from a three week's visit in Indianapolis, Ind.

Dr. and Mrs. M. H. Cherrington spent Sunday and Monday in Columbus.

Mr. Charles Mauk of Lancaster, spent Saturday and Sunday in Logan.

Mr. and Mrs. Wade Rutin, of Columbus, were visitors to Logan this week.

Messrs. Ray Ruble and Fred Warner were visitors to Lancaster last Sunday.

Mr. Ed Jurgensmier and sons George and Walter, were in Columbus, Sunday.

Mr. Wm. Beougher, of Rockbridge was a business visitor to Logan, Saturday.

Miss Lillie Wright returned Tuesday from a several days visit at Delaware, Ohio.

Mr. Harry Blosser, of Columbus, spent Sunday with his parents, on Glenview Heights.

Mrs. Biddy Rosser and children of Nelsonville, spent Sunday with relatives in Logan.

Miss Edie Myers spent Sunday in Sugar Grove, where she sang at one of the churches.

Mrs. Ferd Wetzel, of Columbus, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. L. Martin, Sr.

Misses Minnie McBroom and Edie Myers spent Sunday with friends at Sugar Grove.

The Logan Home Telephone Co. have put out a very handsome new directory. "Call by number."

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Laura, of Nelsonville, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Huffman at Logan.

Tonight at the Opera House, "The Arrival of Kitty."

Miss Emma Lecrone, of Dayton, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mathias Lecrone, this week.

Mrs. Nada Moore, of Gibsonville, made us a pleasant call, Tuesday and renewed subscription.

Mrs. Frank Fox of New Straitsville, spent several days with relatives and friends in Logan last week.

Miss Mary Baur, of Lancaster, spent Monday and Tuesday in Logan the guest of Miss Edie Myers.

Mrs. Aimes Harden, of New Plymouth, spent Thursday and Friday with her mother, Mrs. Mary Ball.

Capt. F. M. Bonner, of Columbus, attended the Knights of St. John inspection in this city Tuesday evening.

Mr. Chas. Westenhaver and wife, of the B. I. S. at Lancaster, are spending a few days with relatives in Logan.

Mrs. Walton, of Chattanooga, Tenn., the very accomplished sister of Mr. John Dougherty, is visiting in Logan.

The epidemic of measles in Logan is gradually subsiding and the schools are getting to their normal condition.

Mr. Malloy of Columbus, service inspector of the Bell telephone company, visited the Logan exchange, last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Kessler, of Nelsonville, attended the K. of St. J. inspection and ball in this city, Tuesday evening.

Miss Mabel Blosser is spending the week in Columbus, the guest of her cousin Miss Daisy Lehman, of Warren street.

FOR SALE—Two good mile cows. Persons needing a cow can secure a bargain by calling on Frank Weis, Logan, Ohio.

Messrs. Roy Dupler and Charlie Beck, of this office, attended the Columbus-Kansas City ball game at Columbus last Sunday.

Messrs. Walter Bray, "Scrubby" Magle, Ferd Smith, Rudolph and Rugg Brandt were Sunday evening visitors to Lancaster.

Marshal Shively shot and killed a mad dog Tuesday, thus probably saving much trouble in our city. It was not known where the dog came from.

Messrs. John Borgoon, Frank Welland and Joe Shorr were at Chillicothe last Sunday, attending an initiation and banquet of the Knights of Columbus.

The Jew clothiers have skidooed. They were arrested several times for doing business without license. They bucked the tiger awhile, but at last gave up.

Mrs. Ira Angle, of Columbus, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Jurgensmier, of this city, is in a serious at the Mt. Carmel Hospital in that city, with typhoid fever.

Married at the home of Dr. C. V. Allen in Logan, O., April 28, at 8 o'clock p. m., by Rev. J. E. Williams, Mr. Samuel E. Stivison and Mrs. Ellen Doyle, both of Logan.

Miss Nellie Bray spent Thursday of last week with Louie Martin, of McArthur, returning that evening to Orland, where she was the guest of her uncle, Mr. William Heinlein and family Sunday.

Dr. G. W. Dollison, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Yerges, were in Columbus, Sunday, to see Mrs. Martha Barker, sister of Dr. Dollison. Mrs. Barker had been in poor health, but is much better now.

Mr. Henson Howdyshell, of Well Summit, Route 1, was a visitor to Logan, Saturday. Mr. Howdyshell has certainly had some bad luck lately, having lost three good work horses in the last six months.

Marshal Shively was in Wellington last Thursday, after a man who had not settled a board bill at the Chapman hotel. He was brought to Logan, where matters were adjusted, and he was again turned loose.

Mr. Pearl Heinlein, of Orland, spent Monday with his cousin, Nellie Bray. Mr. Heinlein has been a successful teacher for the past two years of this county, and will commence a business course at Bliss in the near future.

A very successful term of school closed at Webb Summit last Thursday, a large number of people attending. Besides the usual recitations, there was a big dinner served, and a ball game was played to amuse the crowd. Photographs of the school and of the crowd were taken. Mr. Rolland Bright of this city, is the teacher, and we are pleased to note that he has been engaged for another term.

Miss Cora Brown has returned to her old position as saleslady at the People's Store. She invites her friends and customers to call on her. Her department is the dry goods in the new east room, formerly occupied by the Lula Wright Millinery Store.

Mr. Trave Mackintosh, manager of the People's Store, is very proud of the "spread wire" cash carrier system recently installed throughout the store. The new store is well equipped and now complete. Miss Phila Brooke is operator of the cash system.

On Friday evening, at St. Paul's Episcopal church, an election of officers will take place for the ensuing year. All members of the Guild are asked to be present, also the members of the congregation. Divine service will be held on Sunday evening at 7 o'clock sharp. A. W. BUCKLAND, Rector.

Mr. George W. Bright, of Leavenworth, Kansas, was the guest of relatives in Logan and vicinity from Friday of last week to Wednesday of this week. Mr. Bright was formerly a resident of this city, having left Logan 21 years ago. He is employed as a clerk in the Federal Prison at Leavenworth.

Gold Medal Flour is the only "best" brand.

Quality and Price Counts With People Who Care

Living expenses are high, economy is forced in many lines and most people are carefully considering every dollar they spend.

BROWN BROS. Clothing

are guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction, they are the best that money can buy, and are sold at the lowest price.

We will save you from $1 to $5 on your spring suit and give you clothes of better quality, more style and better service than those sold elsewhere at a higher price. Our stock is complete with a wonderful variety of mens and young men's suits, decidedly handsome in fabric and patterns; Hand Tailored inside and out, correct in every fashion detail. Whether you pay us

$10, $12, $14, $15, $16, $18, or $20,

you have the satisfaction of knowing you have the BEST YOUR MONEY CAN BUY

Boys Clothes

Have you seen the new Spring Fashions? They are the most attractive garments we've ever shown. If you observe economy in outfitting your boy, our splendid collection will please you. They're the best to be had for the money. Suits from 3 to 16 years at $2.00, $2.50, $3.00, $3.50, $4.00, $4.50 and $5.00.

At our store you will always find the very latest and best Hats, Caps, Shifts, Underwear and Furnishings at prices that will please you. It will pay you to see our line before buying your spring clothes.

Brown Bros.

One Price Clothiers.

SOCIETY AND CLUB NEWS

Card Party

The ladies of St. Mary's Auxiliary held a very enjoyable card party at their rooms in the Frasch block last Thursday evening. Progressive Pedro was the game and eight tables of players participated. Mrs. Frank Brown was awarded the ladies prize, and A. J. Judy was the lucky gentleman. Lunch was served at the close of the contest, and music was furnished by the members during the evening.

Joost-Eberst

On Tuesday morning at the St. John's Church, occurred the marriage of Mr. Fred Joost to Miss Anna Eberst, Rev. Fr. Richards officiating. The groomsmen were Mr. Tom Eberst and the bride's maid, Miss Catherine Joost.

Mrs. Joost is one of Logan's most charming ladies, and has been the pleasing forelady in the Home Telephone office here for some time. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Eberst. Mr. Joost is a butcher by trade and a splendid young man. They will remain in Logan for the summer, and their many friends wish them a happy, joyous life together.

Miscellaneous Shower

Mrs. Walter Doebel at her cozy home on Glenview Heights, gave a "miscellaneous shower" complimenting Mrs. Bell Miller, last Thursday night, which was a very delightful affair. Among the many nice things brought by the "April Shower," were eight solid silver spoons, two Venetian bon bon dishes, two china dishes, china plate, half dozen lemonade glasses, half dozen sherbet glasses, linen dresser scarf and linen lunch cloth. Pedro was also on the evening's program, there being six tables of players present. Mrs. Frank Eberst secured the prize, a beautiful battenberg handkerchief. Miss Williams, of Columbus, was an out-of-town guest. Mrs. Doebel served delicious refreshments.

Social Circle

A very interesting and enjoyable meeting of the Social Circle was held at the home of Mrs. James K. Rochester last Friday afternoon. A pleasing feature of the afternoon was the "Presidential Conundrum" contest. Mrs. L. R. Ruble took the visitors prize, a piece of burnt wood, Mrs. Ed. Tritsch secured club prize, a china plate and Mrs. Rudolph Brown won consolation prize, a piece of burnt wood. Mrs. Rochester served an elegant supper, assisted by her charming little daughters, Margaret and Helen. The guests were Mrs. Thomas Rochester, Mrs. Dillon Sanderson, Mrs. L. R. Ruble, Mrs. S. S. Ruble, Miss Robbin Rochester and Miss Mary Stedem. Mrs. J. F. Walker will entertain the club in two weeks.

Twice Five Club

The Twice Five Club met with Mr. Henry Woodworth, Monday evening of this week. He entertained at the Depot Hotel, assisted by Mrs. L. Warner and Miss Geraldine Fisher. The subject of the evening was "The Peril, Real or Imaginary." Mr. E. B. Conly had a paper supporting the affirmative of the "real thing," and Supt. Silverthorne the negative. A general and spirited discussion followed. A most elaborate supper was served. A thoughtful feature of the evening was a pretty folder souvenir of Mrs. Woodworth containing her picture and some sweet verses, was presented to each by Mrs. Hyson. The guests were Mr. John Jones and Miss Emma McLain.

Inspection

The annual inspection of the Uniform Rank Knights of St. John of Logan, took place Tuesday evening at their hall, with Inspector General F. M. Bonner, of Columbus, in charge, who expressed himself well pleased with the showing of correct discipline and the enthusiasm of the local commandery.

After the inspection a dance was given, followed by a most pleasing buffet lunch. The Knights of Logan are a commandery to be proud of. Excellent young men, and they certainly had a good time at their inspection and reception. Mr. Nick Shorr was master of ceremonies, which insured it a success.

There Isn't a Man

Or a Young Man in town who gives any thought to dress, but will be interested in our Showing of Nobby Spring Suits

The styles we are showing in these suits are just the same as produced by the best custom tailors in the country, and with uncommon fabric patterns, superb tailoring and faultless fit. Our clothing invariably satisfies people who appreciate good clothes. All the season's newest colorings are here at

$10.00 to $20.00 An exceptionally large showing of our famous HAND-TAILORED SUITS at $15.00

F. BLASIUS & SON

Saturday Club

On Saturday afternoon the usual meeting of the Saturday Club, a most pleasing organization of ladies, was deviated from most charmingly by Mrs. John Dougherty at her home. Mrs. Dougherty has as her guest, Mr. Dougherty's sister, Mrs. Walton, of Chattanooga, Tenn., and in her honor made the meeting a most elaborate and joyous affair.

The program was varied from and made an afternoon of unusual delight. Mrs. R. B. Longstreth had a paper on Browning's "Saul," that was received with great pleasure, and brought the reader many compliments. The hostess had a reading from Kipling and Miss Jones a reading, "Jane Ingallow." Mrs. Walton received many plaudits on her recitation "News Boy."

The guests were Mrs. R. D. McManigal, Mrs. B. C. McManigal, Mrs. Chas. Wright, Mrs. Thos. Rochester, Mrs. Rev. Wilson, Mrs. A. H. Brooke, Mrs. H. R. Harrington, Mrs. Geslin, Mrs. Dr. Rannels and Miss Fannie Pierce.

Mrs. Dougherty was assisted in serving an elegant to course supper by Miss Fannie Pierce and Mrs. Dr. Rannels.

Presbyterian Services

Rev. Charles E. Patton, of Yeung Kong, China, a returned Missionary, will speak morning and evening at the Presbyterian Church. The Foreign Mission Committee of Athens Presbytery has engaged Rev. Patton to spend a week among the principal churches of the Presbytery, and we feel we are indeed fortunate to secure him for Sunday instead of a week day. We hope all our people will hear the speaker. He is not here to raise money, the purpose of our Missionary Committee is to bring our people into closer touch with the work, and to inform them as to what is being accomplished on the foreign field.

We wish to call the attention of our men to the meeting of the Mens Bible Class at 9:00 a. m., Sunday. Let us have all of our members present. If you have no church come with us, and we will make you welcome.

Pay car No. 77 went to Hamden last Wednesday. Engineer Nichols of the M. of W. Department, and assistant to the president, Mr. F. B. Sheldon, were on board.

RAILROAD NOTES.

Mr. L. C. Engler, road foreman of engines, was giving instructions to all trainmen and air inspectors in air brake instruction car last Wednesday afternoon. Also all engineers and firemen were advised to be on hand.

Work still continues to be slack on main line and river division. All are looking for more work with-in a short time.

Yardmaster J. R. Smith made a business trip to Athens last week.

Ed. Lay went to Columbus and Nelsonville. "Yoke" Schrader performed the work while Mr. Lay was gone.

Brakeman "Circus Solly" Bill Kitchen has again reported for work and is now on a through freight. Mr. Kitchen had his arm broken a short time ago while braking on local freight

The new addition to division engineer's office will soon be completed and Mr. Johnson will move into his new office.

Engine 236 broke down while coming south on local freight last Tuesday, and had to be replaced with engine 22.

Dispatcher Geo. Finney, former mayor of Haydenville, but now assistant to President of The Ancient Order of Prevericators, was shaking hands with his old time friends of Logan, last Monday.

Engine 2, on Straitsville run, died last Tuesday at Straitsville and had to be substituted by engine 26. Engine 26, while going to relieve engine 2 at Straitsville, slipped a tire about three-fourths of a mile on other side of Webb Summit and had to come back to Logan. Then engine 63 was used and brought train No. 237 in 3 hours and 15 minutes late.

Conductor Morgan and Engineer Stoneburner, of the "Only and Famous Gore Limited," had to lay off Wednesday on account of not getting to Nelsonville in time to give them their eight hours rest.

Wife and family of Mr. Ross Kells, industrial engineer of new shops, are visiting him for a few days at Logan. His home is in Columbus.

Furniture Talk

"Harden & Co. Furniture Store? Yes you are in the right place. Wish to select an out-fit? Yes, very well. Just step back and look at this splendid all Oak Suite $24.50, a Mattress and Spring $6.00, and here is a fine Center Stand $2.50--round to the chair side, a splendid Chair $7.00 per set, Rockers, one at $2.25, this one $3.00. Sideboards, this one at $18.00. Dining Tables, one here at $7.00, that is a dandy. The Cupboard is only $5.50, all Oak. An extra bed? Oh yes! best take an Iron Bed, here is one at $6.00. Mattress and Springs $6.00 for both, $3.00 each. Best have a couch yet, this at $10.00. Best take one more real nice Rocker $4.50. Foots $102.25. Is that the lowest? Oh no! If you wish to go through again we can bout cut it to half and still have real good goods, and also we could put in these high grade goods, starting with this $40.00 Dresser and $70.00 Leather Davenport and it would run it up in the hundreds, but it would certainly be fine. Please remember these goods are guaranteed to give satisfaction. Good day. Call again." Yours truly,

J. F. HARDEN & CO. Furniture and Undertaking.