Sleep on, dear sister, and take thy rest, For such as thee the Saviour blest.
Susie Anna Engle was born in Delaware County, Ohio, January 22, 1849, sweetly fell asleep in Jesus July 17, 1908. Aged 58 years, 5 months and 25 days.
She was united in marriage with Jacob Dreher, January 14, 1875 in Delaware, Ohio, and resided there until the death of her husband August 22, 1890. To this union was born four daughters. March 12, 1895, she was married to L. C. Richman and came to Hocking county to make their home in 1898.
Her first husband and her joined the Methodist Episcopal Church in Delaware, Ohio, in 1877, and all through her after life she remained faithful to the church of her choice, although she never moved her membership to any other place. She was a kind and affectionate wife and mother, and was loved and respected by all who knew her. She was of a beautiful character. Her life of patient suffering and christian fortitude, makes her advent to the heavenly home a welcome rest from the storms and sorrows of life.

The husband, three daughters, nine grandchildren, four brothers and one sister, with many friends, are mourning the loss of this dear one.
But there comes a sadder scene That tingers through the years To touch the heart with sorrow's pain. And fill the eyes with tears.
A graves in the church yard made. And though the earth be fair, One who was more than dear to us In sleep is resting there.

Arthur Warthman has a Narrow Escape from a Wildcat.

Last Sunday while Arthur Warthman and Mame Reichley were out driving they soon spied a wildcat following them, and it was only due to their thoughtfulness of making the sparks fly that kept it at a distance from them. Monday evening as Arthur was starting home from working on the sawmill, which is now located near Illesboro, the wildcat which had followed him Sunday night had followed his trail Monday and located him, emerged from a thicket, frightening his horse which tried to climb a sapling for safety. In the attempt, Arthur was thrown off the horse and quite a bit of bark was knocked off the tree, but didn't hurt the horse a bit. Seeing the unfruitfulness of its attempt the horse started to its feet, while Arthur with the agility of a Commanche, leaped into the saddle and soon scattered space between himself and the formidable foe. The people of Illesboro have sworn vengeance against Arthur for bringing the wildcat from its native haunts at Cedar Falls to their otherwise peaceful and happy community.
