Rutter-Barnes
We announced last week that Mr. Nathan Rutter, son of Dr. Rutter, of Marion Township, had returned from the Athens Hospital, where he had been employed for some time, and would go to his father's home and complete his studies of medicine. That was not the young man's intention at all. He went just straight as he could to the Probate Judge's office, and on Wednesday to the home of Reason Barnes, near neighbor to his father, and took Miss Matilda Barnes, and most estimable young lady, on a pleasure trip to Junction City, where Rev. Crabbe tied the knot that made the young folks life companions.

Queen Esther Band
The third meeting of the Queen Esther Missionary Circle was held at the home of Miss Mary Campbell on Tuesday evening. Miss Flora Eckhart read an interesting article, "By All Means," which was helpful to Home Missionary Workers. Masters Gerald Lanning and Doyen Wardwell played two violin duets which were heartily applauded. An article, "Good News for Queen Esther Girls," was read by Mrs. Warren Lanning. A most excellent reading, "The Revolt of the Hall Closet," by Miss Mary Wright, was both amusing and instructive.

The next meeting will be at the home of Miss Janice Kennard on the first Tuesday in January. Miss Mary Wright and Cora Kelly were appointed as a program committee by the president.

Two new members were added to the Circle, Miss Nellie Weltner and Hester Mercer. Misses Ethel Hillis, Josephine Graham, Margaret Savy and Hazel Armstrong were visitors.

Light refreshments were served after the program.
