

Local and Personal

Messrs. Tim Moriarty and Tom Webb were Columbus visitors, Monday.

Mr. Mike O'Reilly, of Gore, was a visitor in Logan on Tuesday of this week.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sherrard, on Friday, February 12, a daughter.

Mr. Ralph Edmiston, of Columbus, was a visitor in Logan a few days this week.

Mr. J. P. Elder, of Shawnee, was the guest the past week of his daughter, Mrs. Jesse Voris.

Mr. William Tolbert and family, of Lancaster, were guests of friends and relatives in Logan, on Monday.

Mrs. Clara Weiland and son Raymond and wife, of Columbus, were in Logan over Sunday, visiting relatives.

Mr. Carl Judy was in Columbus Wednesday of this week to see his father, who is sick in Mt. Carmel Hospital in that city.

Mrs. Harvey C. Garber, of Columbus, with Miss Ruth Bishop were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Bishop.

Mr. Lawrence Yerges left Wednesday for Sandusky to attend the wedding of his daughter, Mildred, to Mr. Leslie Wilson of that city. The wedding will take place on Saturday of this week.

Father Weiland, of Columbus, was in Logan a few days this week visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Weiland. Mrs. Weiland has been quite sick.

Mr. Earl Goodwin, who had an operation performed some weeks ago at the Columbus hospital for appendicitis, is again able to be at his home here on Glenview Heights.

Mr. Ernie Kleinsmith broke ground on Monday to build a house on the west half of the Henry James lot on Hunter street. He has a good location and will put up a modern house.

We are glad to announce that word was received here this week that Dr. Charles Balger, who has been so seriously sick in a hospital in Cincinnati, is convalescing after a hard hand to hand contest with that dreaded pneumonia.

Miss Effie Myers, who has undergone an operation at the Cherington hospital, a few weeks ago for appendicitis, is now able to be out again, and will soon resume her position in the Logan schools as music teacher.

We regret to learn of the death of Mrs. Dr. J. H. Goss in Lancaster on Monday of this week. She was an estimable lady and had many friends in Logan, as also has her most excellent husband. The cause of the death of the wife seemed to be heart failure. Besides her husband, one son and a married daughter survive her.

The heavy all night and all day rain of Tuesday put the Hocking River out of banks and all the cracks in this valley are doing much damage. The trains of the River Division were running late Wednesday on account of the floods.

It looks a little like Logan will soon be in the grasp of the old colonial "Blue Laws," and that all the stores and restaurants will be closed on that day. The five ordinances that are before the council, if passed and enforced, will certainly tighten up the town.

Miss Mary McBride is in Cleveland this week trimming hats and going through the millinery stocks of the city, preparatory to putting on her spring goods and styles for the inspection of her custom and the public. The S. E. McBride Millinery store promises to have made up some creations in millinery this Spring that will be most pleasing.

We are pained to learn that Rev. J. F. Williams is quite sick at his home on Orchard street. He has had remarkable health for a man eighty-three years of age, and he has been a great pleasure to the editor of this paper in his frequent calls here. We hope for his speedy recovery and that many useful years may be yet allotted to him. He is a grand good man.

"Tempest and Sunshine" is a spirited Southern comedy drama that rings true in its many original and distinct characters with romantic story and irresistible appeal to the human heart, and an unending series of ingenious complications and surprises. A remarkable cast, realistic scenery, novel and complete, to be seen at Logan Opera House on Thursday, March 4th.

A letter from Mr. and Mrs. John Rempel, who are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ferdie Rempel in California, announces that they hope to be at home by March 10, and he will resume his duties in the Remple National Bank as its president as usual. They are very well pleased with the west, but express themselves that they prefer Logan for a place to live.

"Tempest and Sunshine," a dramatization of Mary J. Holmes' clever novel will be the offering at Logan Opera House on Thursday, March 4th. It deals with a great people in their simplicity and grand in their intensity, embodying all that is fair and just, a people whose hearts are bursting with love, truth and honesty, and from whom justice can't be bought. Interpreted by a clever cast.

Mr. Merton Hansel and his bride, of Haydenville, were in Logan on Monday of last week receiving congratulations from their relatives and friends on their recent happy marriage. Mrs. Hansel was formerly Miss Edna Roby, the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Roby, and they were married last Sunday a week ago at her home near Haydenville, the Rev. John Orr officiating. We wish them all the happiness the world affords.

Mr. John Hansel's children gathered into town to see him on Monday of last week and they certainly all had a good family reunion. The occasion of their meeting was that their eldest son Ephraim Hansel is here on a visit from his farm and home in Georgia, and his son Merten was recently married, and it was a great pleasure to have a family reunion and dinner with all present once more, except Mrs. Fultz, of Ewing, who could not come. They all had a good time and regretted the time when the "Good Bye" should be said.

"Tempest and Sunshine," a dramatization of Mary J. Holmes' popular novel, to be seen at Logan Opera House on March 4th, is a play full of genuine heart and interest, and is full of exciting scenes and surprising climaxes. It has an interesting plot and holds the audience spellbound through the four acts. It is acted by a company of performers especially engaged for each and every part of such a production, which, together with the vast amount of new and beautiful scenery, keeps the audience in a suppressed state of excitement. It is a play that appeals to the innermost recesses of the heart, hence its wonderful success.

Yesterday was Ash Wednesday and the beginning of Lent, as observed by the Catholic church. Special services will be held in the St. John's church here twice a week, in the evenings, during the Lenten season, which lasts forty days.

On Monday of last week Roxey J. Cupp, the genial clerk in the Gibsonville store, sprung a surprise on his many friends by taking a little trip to Cincinnati and thence across the river to Covington, Ky., accompanied by Miss Maude Durant, the charming daughter of Will Durant, who lives close to Logan. They have returned to their native heath and received the congratulations of their friends and the well wishes of all who know them. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Cupp, who was manager of the Peoples' Store Co. for some months.

"When We Were Friends."

"When We Were Friends," the beautiful comedy drama that will be presented at the Logan Opera House for one night only on Friday Feb. 26, comes highly recommended as being one of the most interesting American plays of recent years, and while a strong vein of comedy pervades the entire play, yet there is an air of sentimentality and a cleverly woven plot that your entire interest until the drop of the final curtain. An exceptionally clever cast is presenting this newest of the season's offerings and the gorgeous costumes are said to be the finest ever seen on a local stage. The cast is headed by the clever actor, William Macauley, who is well remembered here for his clever acting in "The Minister's Son" and "The Little B-mstead." Mr. Macauley has a part much suited to his ability and is receiving great praise for his clever acting in the above production. The play has been rewritten during the summer and ends now with the escape of "Desmond" (Mr. Macauley) after confessing and proving the murder was in self defense.

Our aim to sell the best clothing obtainable is our first business principle. We know that in selling the best it will bring us more customers, better customers, and better satisfied customers, than anything else we could possibly do. We also know that by giving you "better values" for "your money" than you could possibly get elsewhere, we can reasonably expect a good share of your business. We go further than most stores, we "guarantee satisfaction" to our customers. There are many other reasons why it will pay you to buy your clothing, hats and furnishings at our store. Come in and see for yourself, that's the best way. We make a specialty of Extra Good Work Clothing.
