Severe Storm.

On Sunday evening a most severe storm swept over Logan and central Ohio, doing much damage to wires and crops. The storm gathered from the north, reported from Columbus as coming our way at four o'clock in the evening, but did not reach us until seven. The down pour of rain was but for a few minutes, and did but little damage, but the hail storm that followed cut the growing crops to pieces in many sections and the sharp electrical storm put telephone and telegraph wires out of commission for a time, but all were hastily repaired the next morning. In Cleveland and many cities in Ohio in the past week the storms have been very severe and attended with much wind that did great damage to property. The city of Cleveland seemed to be the greatest sufferer.

Tom Johnson.

The Mayor of Cleveland has decided to run for his fifth term as mayor of that city. If he had retired at the end of his third term, he would have gone out in a blaze of glory, but he staid too long, and his last term has been a failure. His running this time will only be running, for it looks like anybody will defeat him this year, and the city will be benefited by his retirement.

Grand Wedding.

On Wednesday of last week, April 21, 1909, there occurred one of those happy events of this life, at the home of one of our prominent neighbors, namely Mr. and Mrs. Hamp Steele, when their daughter, Miss Etta I. Steele, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to one of our prominent neighbor boys, Mr. Chas. F. Davis. Rev. Graham officiated on the occasion. Quite a number of friends attended the wedding and report a good time. On the following day the bride and groom departed for the home of the groom's parents, where they remained the next night and were met by a large crowd of people, who gave them a grand belling and was enjoyed by all who were there.

The young folks were raised in this vicinity and are highly respected by all who knew them. They have been peaceful and quiet young people, ever full of life and fun, and have been among those young folks that make a good community. Both are members of the church of God and are devoted to the sanctuary. What a grand thing it is to see unions made through the love of God, and hearts united by the power of God, who is able to keep them forever, for there is no peace and safety but in God. Praise His Holy name. Our hearts go out to them with the most sincere desires and prayers to God for their happiness and success in this life and their safety with God in the end. Dear young friends who read this, take an example from the life of these our young friends, and live pure and clean in the sight of God and men. May the Lord bless them both in the prayer of the writer.

School Closing.

Saturday, April 17, marked the closing event of Pleasant Valley School, taught by Vallie Wolfe, of Logan. Of course on last days the regular routine of classes are not recited in the afternoon. In the forenoon the regular recitations were carried on, but in the afternoon some good declamations were given by the pupils. The patrons of the district came some time before the noon hour with well filled baskets of chicken and pickles and pie and cake. An elegant dinner was indulged in by visitors and all present. After all had eaten to their hearts content, two base ball teams were organized, Enterprise vs Pleasant Valley, which ended in defeat for Enterprise. Pleasant Valley won against Enterprise in a hotly contested game of eleven innings. The score stood 3 to 4. After the ball game school was resumed, then the declamations were given by the pupils.

Those who attended from Logan were Misses Janette Hartmann, Anna Mickel and Mrs. Rosa Weltner.

We have had a very pleasant and profitable term of school with Mr. Wolfe at the helm, and we all feel grateful to him for the care and skill he has exhibited in the tutorship of our beloved school. His term has been a phenomenal success from start to finish and we predict for him a bright future should he continue in the capacity of teacher in the public schools. His first term was taught here and leaves us with our recommendations.

An oldtime spelling was given in the evening which was highly enjoyed by all.

Following is a list of the declamations in the afternoon and in the evening:

"Words of Welcome," Grace Vanceuren
"Saturday Night," Rose Murphy
"Who Was She," Erna Nibiser

Closing of Webbs School

On Saturday of this week, the Webbs school closed after an eight month term. The day was enjoyed by all, but the scholars and teacher regretted that the last day had come, because of their intimate friendship formed during the term. The forenoon was spent in reciting classes and the afternoon in speaking declamations. The classes were very ably spoken by the scholars. The teacher, Roland Bright, one of the county school's best teachers, did all in his power to instruct the scholars and also made a great success of it. It being his second term in the district, and the district wishes him to return. At noon a very sumptuous dinner was served, prepared by the noted cooks of the district.

A very large crowd was in attendance and all had an enjoyable time.

A ball game was witnessed between Webb Summit and Whiskey Hollow, the score being 2 to 10 in favor of the "actors" (Whiskey Hollow).

May friendship and education endure till the end. BUCK BELL.

Harmon's Personal Selection.

One of the new penitentiary officials won his place largely through an excellent county dinner served at his home one noon during the last campaign to Candidate Harmon. Another attracted attention to himself when presented for chairman of a Harmon meeting earlier the same day, as a minister who was not for Governor Harris, and made a rattling good Democratic speech.

Two other personal appointments were made at the desire of Governor Harmon. Both men were prominent in the trip of that day through Gallia and Jackson counties. Thomas H. B. Jones, the new warden, was candidate for congress in the Tenth district and acted as major domo for the party. George U. Marvin, secretary of the new board of managers, was one of two newspaper men who traveled with the Democratic caravan throughout the campaign. Mr. Marvin is one of the best known newspaper men in the state. For 20 years he has been a political writer on Columbus, Cleveland and Toledo papers, in Columbus and Washington and is acquainted with leaders of both parties in every portion of the state. He was secretary of the Primary Reform league, which did effective work in securing the passage of the Bronson primary election law.

Governor Harmon's week's campaign tour commenced one week at Gallipolis, whither he had gone in his car from Cincinnati. Rev. Frank Richards made a good chairman of the first morning political meeting ever in the town and was an active Harmon worker in counteracting Anti-Saloon league influences. He will be the new penitentiary chaplain.

From Gallipolis the party went to Oak Hill, a small mining town on the edge of Jackson county, arriving a couple of hours late in bulky automobiles. Dr. J. W. Clark, a recent arrival in the town, was the liveliest Democrat there, and his wife is a good cook. The future governor's fashionable governor's condition, between the dust-hustling party was made that re-
