

Cherrington Hospital Staff

Dr. M. H. Cherrington Dr. J. S. Cherrington Lucy Armstrong, Supt

THE CHERRINGTON HOSPITAL is now entering upon its second year. During the past thirteen months many persons have been operated upon and without a single fatality.

ANY ONE in need of an operation and wishing other than the Hospital surgeons, may have their choice of surgeons.

OUR GRADUATE HEAD NURSE, AND TWO COMPETENT UN-GRADUATE NURSES are constantly in charge. The physicians' office being in the hospital, one or the other is usually present.

THE OFFICE is equipped with an X-ray and electrical apparatus for the treatment of diseases. Calls answered by either physician day or night.

TELEPHONES--Office and Hospital--Citizens and Bell, 2 on 78. PRIVATE AMBULANCE SERVICE.

CHERRINGTON HOSPITAL, Logan, O.

Local and Personal

Mr. John Shunk was in Logan, Monday.

Miss Evelyn Bowen has returned to Oxford.

Mr. Chris Achauer was in Columbus, Saturday.

D. S. Smith, the latter, is in Lancaster this week.

Mr. Johnny Smoot was in Columbus over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Hansel were in Lancaster, Sunday.

Mr. Jake Denby, of Oreville, was in Logan, Saturday.

Mr. Dan Engle and son Karl, of Orland, were in Logan Saturday.

Mrs. Will White and daughter were visitors in Lancaster, Sunday.

Mr. Eber Turner, of Laurelville, was in Logan Saturday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Eberst were guests of friends, Sunday, in Haydenville.

Miss Grace Thurness, daughter of Mayor Thurness, returned Monday from Wooster.

Messrs. Fred Ambrose and Ferd Haak, of Union Furnace were in Logan over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. B. I. Edwards, of Rockbridge, were business visitors in Logan, Saturday.

Mr. Harry Brown returned Sunday to Akron, after a week's visit with his parents here.

Master Dallas Kinser was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. H. G. Campbell in Columbus, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Price were in Lancaster, Sunday, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Price.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Ueker were Capital City visitors Sunday, guests of Mrs. Ueker's people.

Miss Edyth Chute, of Carbonhill, was in Logan Monday and went to Lancaster on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Smith, of Haydenville, were in Logan among friends, Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Fred Campbell was in Columbus, Sunday to visit his father who is at the hospital very sick.

Mr. Albert Martin, of Salt Lake City, was in Logan Monday, guest of his brother, Judge F. P. Martin.

Mr. Charles Lappen and Miss Freda Armstrong were guests of friends in Haydenville over Sunday.

Mr. Anthony Ueker, of Nelsonville, was in Logan over Sunday visiting his father, Mr. John Ueker.

Mr. John P. Hartman, who is working in Nelsonville, was in Logan over Sunday visiting his family.

Judge John C. Stoughton was called to Lancaster Sunday, by the death of his brother, Lon Stoughton's wife.

Mr. Tom Leyshon returned home Sunday, from Texas, where he has been for a few years operating a dairy farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Dill Sanderson and son John Thomas, returned last Saturday from a visit in Washington, C. H.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Timberlake, of Los Angeles, are in Logan visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Timberlake.

Mr. John Sisher, of Lancaster, was circulating among acquaintances here, Friday and made our office a pleasant call.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Sparks, of Lancaster, were in Logan, Sunday and Monday, coming through in their new touring car.

Mrs. James Poling was called to Haydenville, Sunday, because of the death of the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. John Smart.

Miss Clara Downey, who has been visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Doebele, for some days, has returned to her home in Columbus, Sunday.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. John Smart, of Haydenville, died Sunday and the funeral was held at Ebenezer Church on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. L. Blosser and Mrs. Julia Wagner and daughter Maude, of Baltimore, spent Sunday with Mrs. Whorf, of near Orland.

Miss Bertie Martin, who has been visiting relatives in Logan for some weeks, returned to her home in Columbus, Thursday of last week.

Masters Marion and Raymond McGhee, of Vinton, Gallia Co., sons of Mr. Val McGhee, formerly a railroad employee here, are visiting their uncle and aunt, Auditor and Mrs. Jas. L. Martin. They came up to take in Howe's circus, Tuesday.

SAFE AND SURE

Among the medicines that are recommended and endorsed by physicians and nurses is Kemp's Balsam, the best cough cure. For many years it has been regarded by doctors as the medicine most likely to cure coughs, and it has a strong hold on the esteem of all well-informed people. When Kemp's Balsam cannot cure a cough we shall best advise to know what will. At druggists' and dealers', 25c.

Mrs. H. G. Campbell, who has been at the bed side of her husband in Columbus, was in Logan over Sunday. Dr. Campbell is improving very slowly.

Regular services at the Trinity Lutheran church next Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, standard time. Sunday School 9 a. m. F. T. SCHROEDER, Pastor.

FOR SALE—One of the most pleasant and thoroughly appointed homes on Mound Street of Glenview Heights, in Logan. Call at residence or phone. H. T. SILVERTHORNE. June 10—3w.

Mr. and Mrs. George Daubemier were called to Lancaster, Saturday, because of the death of Mrs. Daubemier sister, Mrs. Lon Stoughton. The funeral and interment took place, Monday at Rockbridge.

Mrs. W. P. Heft and daughters Helen and Ruth, were the over Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Gilliam at their pretty home in Indianola Terrace, Columbus, Ohio. The Misses Helen and Ruth will remain a portion of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Garber, of Columbus, are in Logan this week, along with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Breneman and Miss Ruth Bishop. They are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Bishop, and are enjoying an outing at the Rock House, Cedar Falls, Ash Cave and Old Man's Cave, and other scenic resorts in this county.

The following persons were visitors in Lancaster Sunday, presumably to see the ball game: Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Ambrose, Messrs. John Wellman, Scott Braddeck, Harley Kuhn, Gus Heine, Chas. Pleukharp, Seth Sloan, Chas. Beck, Wallace Glenn, Carl Littlejohn, Jake Fox, Thos. Mohler, Clem Krieg, Cy Rochester, and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Foster.

Those from out of town who attended the funeral Thursday, of Miss Mary Josephine Dickens, were Mrs. Percy Mayo, Miss Sue Gallagher and Miss Nellie McBride of Columbus; Mr. King Wright, Mrs. Martin Orman, Mrs. Frank Caves and Miss Nell Wright, of Lancaster; Mathew McBride, John McBride and Miss Alice McBride of New Straitsville.

NEWS OF OTHER TOWNS

Pleasant Valley

Church at Fairview Sunday night was well attended.

Mrs. Ethel Blackston was an Enterprise shopper, Monday.

Mr. Chas. Lenz who has been working in Columbus, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Lenz, at this writing.

Mr. Jacob Cotterman and wife, were the Sunday guests of the former's mother Mrs. I. Cotterman of Corn Cob, Sunday.

Miss Myrtle Evans called on Ada and Nada Risch one day last week.

Messrs Edward and Boyd Conkel visited their cousin Mr. Ivor Engle of near Heshoro, Sunday.

Mr. C. W. Ziegler and Agnes Vancuren, were Logan visitors, Saturday.

Mrs. Samuel Nihser and Miss May Nihser, were the guests of their grandmother, Mrs. H. Klinger, of Pleasant Creek, Wednesday. Mr. Otto Doris and lady friend, of Gibsonville, were seen on our roads Sunday.

Rev. H. E. Lyons and friend Jimmy Hamilton, were the over night guests of J. R. Evans and family, Sunday.

Mr. Augustina Blackston visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Blackston of near Bremen, Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Bert Lenz is sporting a new buggy.

Mrs. Wm. Beougher and children, of Lancaster, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Cotterman, Sunday evening.

Earl and Bessie Kline, of Trumbull Co. formerly residents of this place, are visiting with friends and relatives here, at this writing. Mrs. Ethel Blackston was the guest of her brother, Mr. Pearl Rolston, of Stringtown, Friday.

Logan, Route 2

Practically speaking, news is inevitably scarce this week, the people being peradventure too busy to visit.

Fred Weymueller passed through this place, Sunday.

E. Howdyshell was a pleasant caller on Lucy Gell, Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Blum is visiting his daughter Mrs. Joseph Kessler, at this writing. Frank Poling attended children's service at the U. B. church at Logan, Sunday evening.

Edward Stivison and Nora Scholl attended children's service at Bethany, Sunday.

Horace Smith was in this vicinity, Sunday.

Roland Bright and wife, of Logan, visited Peter Bright and family, Sunday.

Quite a fine children's day was held at Bethany, Sunday. BLUE BELL.

Sand Run

Grace Sparron visited the past week with friends and relatives of this place.

Mrs. Donald Hannah and two children left Thursday for McCluney, where she will spend a few days.

Quite a crowd from here attended church at Coe's Chapel, Sunday evening.

Mrs. Dora Smith and Carrie Griffen spent Sunday at Gore with the latter's sister. Clarence Edgell is again counted on the sick list; he is very ill at present. We hope for speedy recover.

Gladys Edgell spent Sunday with her parents of this place.

Carrie Hannah entertained Saturday evening, the following: Fanny and Minnie Edgell, Mae Terrell, Roy Blanchard, Jennie Griffen, Edward Cooper and Grace Sparron, of Logan. Sunday school is progressing nicely under Donald Hannah as superintendent. BLUE BELL.

Crocketts Run

Everybody is busy plowing corn picking cherries and strawberries.

Miss Blanche Carpenter, who has been at home the three weeks past, returned to Canal Winchester, Saturday.

Peter Ringhizer was in our valley Thursday, buying young cattle, Peter says it pays to invest in young stock.

Carl Gruner and sister Helen visited Samuel Stivison and family, Sunday.

Children's Day services at Centenary will be held at 9:30 A. M. June 27. Cordial welcome to all.

Prof. F. H. Duffy of the O. S. U. has completed his collegiate course, and is now at home spending a vacation.

Our road Supt. Jno. Wagner is busy remodeling the roads filling the mud-holes and scraping off the bumps.

Mr. Chas. Carpenter wife and family and Miss May Carpenter, spent Sunday with Jno. Elick and family.

Misses Jessie Disbennet and Tena Ellinger were pleasant callers of Miss Cora Carpenter, Sunday afternoon.

Jno. Hiller, of Haydenville, broke bread with his parents, Sunday.

Thrashing seems to be a paying business at least Vern Dupler and Leo Sholl think so, they have purchased an outfit.

D. M. Heft was seen wending his way down the valley, Sunday evening. DAVY CROCKETTS.

Starr Corner

Bill Young and Bess Hayburn from Nelsonville, were seen on our streets, Wednesday.

Mrs. H. H. Cruise and children called on James Morse and wife, Wednesday.

The Starr Hocking Coal Co. has resumed their work on the switch from Starr to their mine at Coonville.

Elihu Wells, who has been working at Nelsonville, was home over Sunday, also Edith Wells, who has been working at Logan, was home over Sunday.

Mary E. Cruise made a business trip to New Plymouth, Thursday.

Born to Homer Hull and wife, of Carbondale, twins, boy and girl, and unfortunately they both died. The little ones were laid away to rest in the Asbury cemetery, Friday.

Dr. Moore, of Union Furnace, called at H. H. Cruise and wife and left a fine big pound boy to make his future home with them, Saturday the 19th.

Mrs. Joe O'Neill called on Mrs. H. H. Cruise, Saturday afternoon.

H. H. Cruise and Harley Morse commenced painting the Asbury church, Wednesday.

Ettie Carter, of Rabbit Ridge, has the measles.

Charley Carter and Miss Pidecock were united in marriage, Tuesday evening.

Jefferson Edgar made a business trip to Nelsonville, Saturday.

Mary McConelney, who has been

Kline's Shoe Store

LOGAN, OHIO

$5.00 DOUGLAS OXFORDS AT - - - - $2.98

ALL OXFORDS BELOW COST TO CLEAN UP

Make Us Prove It to You

Kline's Shoe Store

LOGAN, OHIO

working at Straitsville, is at home on a visit with relatives and friends.

Mrs. Hewitt and little grandson called on Mrs. Jefferson Edgar, Saturday.

Brushy Fork

Prof. Walter, of Crawfis Institute, was in this vicinity, last Friday.

Jacob Reber was seen enroute to Sugar Grove, Saturday evening.

Daniel Martin made his usual trip to Lancaster, Sunday evening.

Doc Love and John Cavine have been working for Y. Sheets, the past week.

Chas. Fisher and wife were Logan visitors, Saturday.

Emma Reber called on Mrs. Philip Martin, Saturday evening.

G. W. Bryan made a business trip to Lancaster, Saturday.

Daniel and Wm. Martin were Sugar Grove visitors, Saturday evening.

Geo. Matheny, of Lancaster, has been visiting relatives of this place, the past week.

Carl Wesbauer purchased a new set of boxing gloves recently, and as a result is carrying a black eye. Carl you had better secure another trainer.

Daniel Martin made a business trip to Horn's mill recently.

Mrs. Wm. Morgan, of Lancaster, spent Wednesday on her farm in this valley.

Frank Shue and wife were the guests of the latter's parents, Lawrence Hoke and wife, Sunday.

Joseph Matheny was a Sugar Grove visitor, Saturday evening.

James Morgan called on Jacob Matheny, Saturday evening.

Clarence Bryan called on James Morgan, Sunday afternoon.

Jacob Matheny has been on the sick list the past week.

Carroll

Ralph Coffman and wife visited Hugh McCafferty and wife, Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Maggie Coffman called on her mother, Mrs. Sarah Bauer, Saturday afternoon.

John McCafferty and daughter-in-law, Mrs. Alta McCafferty, of near Carroll, were visiting their relatives and friends of near Haynes and Laurelville, O., last week.

Nora McCafferty and mother, Mrs. Maggie Coffman and daughter, and Ed Benson and wife called on Robert McFarland and wife, one evening last week.

Mrs. Maggie Coffman called on Mrs. Mary McCafferty, one evening last week.

Mary Kistler called on Nora McCafferty, one day last week.

Elijah Kistler sold a fine bunch of hogs, one day last week.

Frank McCafferty has purchased a new binder and riding corn plow.

Mrs. Esther Harmon, of Haynes, O., wove a very fine piece of carpet for Mrs. Mary McCafferty, of near Carroll, Ohio.

Nora McCafferty visited Ella Hal-larn, last Sunday.

Mrs. Dollie Swisher called on Mrs.

Alta McCafferty, Thursday afternoon. Nelson McCafferty made a flying trip to Columbus, last Sunday.

Simeon Herron and Jenny Calbert, of Columbus, were united in marriage, June the 6th.

Frank McCafferty and wife visited Pearl Haynes and wife, Sunday.

Hugh McCafferty will plow corn for Ed Benson, this coming week.

Lee Swisher made a business trip to Columbus, Saturday afternoon.

John McCafferty and wife took dinner with their son, Frank McCafferty, Sunday.

Harley McCafferty has been working for John Coffman, the last few days.

Eliza and Grace Reid visited their sister, Mrs. Murley McCafferty, over Saturday and Sunday last week.

Hugh McCafferty purchased a very nice folding bed, last week.

Flo McCafferty, of Circleville, is visiting her father and mother, John McCafferty and wife.

FARMER GIRL.

Heshoro

Quite a large crowd of young people, of this place attended Children's day service at Mt. Pleasant, Sunday evening.

Charles Iles and family were the guests of his parents, Sunday.

Mrs. Amos C. Kline, of Rockbridge, was the over Saturday night guest of Wm. Vancuren and family.

Frank Winkler and wife, of Logan, were the guests of the latter's parents Sunday, at Miltstead and wife.

Vernon Walker, of Mt. Pleasant, passed through this place, Sunday evening.

Mrs. James Lindsey, of Hardscrabble, was seen in our midst, Thursday.

Michael Engle and wife passed through this place, Wednesday.

Thomas Vancuren made a trip to the old farm near Laurelville, Thursday.

D. W. West made a trip to Logan, Wednesday.

John Ferguson and wife were Logan shoppers, Saturday.

George Anthony and wife were seen on our pikes, Sunday.

Darley West was seen wending his way toward Orland, Sunday evening.

Wm. Vancuren and son took dinner with Vern Kitchen and family, of Mt. Vernon, Sunday.

Merle Vancuren, who has been doing culinary work for her aunt, returned home, Saturday.

FARMER GIRL.

Hungry Hollow

Charles Bright and wife, of Logan, spent Sunday with George Green and family.

Mary and Florence Saunders, of Logan, spent Sunday with their parents of this place.

Nellie Achauer visited friends in Logan, last week.

Will Bond, who has been working at Junction City, spent Saturday and Sunday at home.

Linda Patton called on Mrs. Frank Patton, on Thursday.

Several from this place attended

It's a Question of Safety Alone

We pay you the highest rate of interest warranted by current money rates and extend accommodations equal to any you will find. The only thing left to consider is SAFETY.

Eighteen years of consistent growth and patronage ought to convince you that our plan is worthy of investigation.

Write for Booklet.

The Columbian Building & Loan Co., Ruggery Bldg., 22 East Gay st., Columbus, Ohio.

"The Kind that Pleases"

When in need of Job Printing call us up over either Phone and we will quote you prices that are reasonable, with a guarantee to please you.

Let us show you samples of Job Printing that's "Up-to-the-Minute" before you place your next order.

Both Phones No. 6, "That's Us."

The Democrat-Sentinel

Children's service at Haydenville, Sunday evening.

George Bond and Nellie Achauer spent Sunday at Rockbridge.

Charles Delshey and wife were the guests of Wm. Wallace, on Sunday.

Ed Joy and wife, of Nelsonville, spent Sunday with Ott Smart and family.

Mrs. Mary Tucker and daughter called on her mother, Mrs. Mary Vollmer, on Monday.

GOLD MEDAL FLOUR

Hot Weather

is upon us. Are you going to stand over that hot cook stove when for little cost we can provide you with a labor saving, gas saving and sweat saving

HOT PLATE, GAS RANGE OR OIL STOVE.

Let us show you these goods. You will live longer by their use; at least more comfortable while you do live.

WORK BROS.

Hardware, Tinware and Stoves. Main Street, Logan, Ohio