

FOR GOVERNOR, Hon. ALLEN TRIMBLE, OF HIGHLAND COUNTY.

Republican Ticket.

- For Representative, JOHN N. CLARK. For Sheriff, AARON RIFE. For Treasurer, WILLIAM NASH. For Prosecuting Attorney, SAMUEL A. NASH. For Surveyor, ALEXANDER VANCE. For Commissioner, Dr. W. W. MILLS.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY CONVENTION.

We were present at the Democratic Convention on Saturday. It was well represented by the untiring, Louis Berthe being about the handsomest man in the assembly, and were it not for their wives (women can always govern us) we would say there was not a delegate present but would have taken the premium for ugliness at any State fair.

- For Representative, GEORGE HOUSE. For Sheriff, DANIEL H. ROSE. For Treasurer, HENRY SANNIS. For Commissioner, ANDREW RAMBOS. For Surveyor, JAMES FLETCHER. For Coroner, DR. JAMES BARTON. For Prosecuting Attorney, VICTOR M. FIROR.

While the votes were being counted for Representative there were signs of deception depicted on many countenances, particularly with the friends of Dr. Morgan, who before considered they had a "dead certainty" for the Doctor.

There is a movement on foot to run the Doctor independent of the nomination, and he has evidently many friends who will not support House. They cannot overlook the defeat the General caused the late John Hoy for the same station a few years since.

The candidates for Sheriff, D. H. Rose and Rasselas Gates, were requested to "talk right out" in the convention, whereupon the present sheriff refuted some charges that were alleged against him, and referred to himself and other outsiders to substantiate as to paying over funds, &c. Rasselas could say nothing in behalf of himself only that he was a Democrat.

The balance of the candidates were nominated by acclamation, and everything passed off exceedingly harmoniously for a Democratic assembly, which alone can be attributed to our presence in the room.

BETTER AND MORE OF THEM.—Mr. GRASSON DAVIS last week brought us a basket of other varieties of his incomparable peaches. They were mostly seedlings, from the following famous varieties—Old Mixen (cling and Free-stone) Moris' Red and Nutmeg. His specimens of the Crawford Late, a large red, tartish peach, was very fine.

PEARS.—Mr. JAMES PRESTON sent us a specimen of his luscious Pears last week. We stated last week our belief that they would cap the world, and since again tasting them we are convinced our remarks were nothing more than they deserved. They are sweet, juicy, finely flavored, and can't be beat.

Mr. JOHN T. HALLIDAY has just returned from the East, where he has been to lay in a stock of goods for Waddell & Halliday, bringing us late New York, Philadelphia and Pittsburg papers.

The Meigs County Telegraph of week before last stated that the Gallipolis Journal would be attended by the following week, but as we have not received a copy of the last issue, we cannot tell whether we have been "attended to" or not.

This is the most contemptible dodge yet. Being unable to reply to our article, he pretends that he has not received a paper containing it. He must excuse us for saying that we believe the above excuse to be a "die made out of whole cloth."

The woolly dog who penned the above is so accustomed to misrepresent we believe he scarcely knows when he is guilty of falsehood. The week in question, we had J. L. Vance in our employ, who passed the post-office four times a day, upon whom we depended to bring our mail matter, and in consequence had no occasion, and were not at the post-office during that week.

We did not charge Mr. Chase with writing the "Buffalo Abolition resolution," as the woolly of the Telegraph falsely asserts, but that it had been "referred to the convention by a committee of which Chase was a member, and unanimously passed," although we doubt not in our own mind he is the author of the resolution.

As regards the resolution, a correspondent of the Cincinnati Enquirer, who has been looking over the files of the Cincinnati Gazette, sheds more light on this subject than any we have yet seen. The Kyger woolleys also have been very busy to contradict the genuineness of this Buffalo resolution, but as the proceedings are taken from that sterling old Whig paper, the Cincinnati Gazette, we presume they as well as the editor of the Telegraph will agree with us in regard to the genuineness of the resolution.

We call the particular attention of parents to the advertisement of Singing School. See advertisement of Drawing and Painting in another column. The person who took a Pocket Book containing money from S. T. & R. Langley's counter, will find something in our advertising columns particularly dedicated to him or her.

Mr. JOHN C. NEAL returned from the East last week, bringing us late New York, Philadelphia and Pittsburg papers. He brought with him a fall and winter stock of goods for Neal & McCormick.

SECRET TREATY BETWEEN ENGLAND, FRANCE AND DOMINICA.—The N. Y. Herald learns "from a reliable correspondent at Madrid," that a private treaty has been made by France, England and Spain, with the Dominican government, in which the latter, for a certain consideration, has pledged itself to the following conditions, viz:

No settlers from the United States, of any class or color, shall be encouraged to hold lands or take up their residence in St. Domingo. No land for mining purposes, factories, or coal depots, shall be sold, leased or ceded, either to private companies or to the American Government, without the prior consent of the French and British Governments.

The nomination of Gen. House for Representative has evidently given much dissatisfaction. Many of the friends of the late John Hoy have not forgotten the fierce opposition of the General when Mr. Hoy received the nomination several years since for Representative. Owing to some previous personal difficulty the General was independent to Mr. Hoy the Democratic nominee and defeated him, since which time the best of feeling has not existed towards him.

Now what does the "stink" of the Meigs Co. Telegraph think of the above? And what does he now think of an "editor who will charge Mr. Chase with writing that Buffalo resolution?" Have we not quoted good authority, and is it not perfectly plain to every individual that the editor of the Telegraph will resort to very contemptible means to avoid an open manly course.

Lewis Berthe has been fully dyed in Democracy. It was laughable to see the old Taylor Republican figure in the Convention on Saturday, when the Gallipolis delegates were wanted the Chairman would invariably sing out, "come, Mr. Berthe," when Lewis would muster up with a corporal's guard trailing after him and receive orders.

The Republicans of Gallia County are taking steps to establish a paper at Gallipolis. The Journal of that place is one of the three weekly papers of Ohio that does not support the Republican ticket, and it treats its friends in such a spirit that they are determined to have a paper of their own.

The above paragraph emanated from the State Journal and is copied into almost every little wool organ throughout the State. We have planted ourself square upon the Union platform and are determined to "stand up against the great (negro) movement of the times," and brave all "destruction."

Pursuant to notice, the Democratic Convention met at the Court house in Gallipolis, on the 8th day of September, and organized by appointing General George House, Chairman, and John Goudy Secretary.

By motion Richard Dyas, George Chapman and Melvin Lowery were appointed a Committee on Credentials. The Committee after a short absence reported, and the following delegates were admitted to seats in the Convention: Gallipolis—Gen. George House, Lewis Berthe, J. R. Baxter and John Goudy.

The Convention then proceeded to nominate candidates for the several county offices which resulted as follows: Representative—Gen. George House. Sheriff—D. H. Rose. Coroner—James Barton. Treasurer—Henry Sannis. Commissioner—Andrew Ralston.

On motion the Convention adjourned sine die. GEORGE HOUSE, Chair. JOHN GOUDY, Secy. New Goods.—Neal & McCormick have just received their fall and winter supply of new goods. Read their card, then give them a call.

ACCIDENT ON THE NEW JERSEY RAILROAD.—The New York Tribune of Thursday has the following particulars of a great disaster: Mr. Ray, a passenger, says that the train consisted of engine, tender, baggage-car, and four passenger-cars, with 100 passengers, and left Philadelphia at the usual time, 10 o'clock and 20 minutes.

They had run about 21 miles and were two miles this side of Burlington, N. J., when the engineer discovered the morning train from New York approaching, and there being but a single track, he reversed the engine and commenced backing the train to the Burlington switch, in order to allow the train to pass.

The train being on the move backward, the engineer did not see the horses and carriage until he saw one of the carriage wheels lying on the track as the engine passed over it. The conductor saw the horses and carriage and apprehended that the train would strike them, but the bell-ropes were out of order, so that he could not warn the engineer.

The four passenger cars which went down the embankment were literally broken into fragments, and the wood work of one of them was reduced to pieces, none of which were over four inches wide, every panel having been crushed apart.

Here followed a scene which those who beheld it, represent as truly appalling—one that would shake the stoutest nerves and sicken the stoutest heart. The cries of the mangled human beings who were buried beneath that chaotic wreck of material almost palsied the senses and disabled the arms of the few who were so fortunate as to be able to render assistance.

The British in the Sea of Azoff have blown up and sunk some Russian ships-of-war. In Berdiansky they had burned the suburbs of the town. The British gun-boat Jasper had been wrecked in the Sea of Azoff, and the Russians had found her signal book.

A Russian division between Kars and Ezeroum having been reinforced, had marched upon Keupri Kerri, drove the Turkish troops from their position, and finally encamped three leagues from Ezeroum. The ladies of the place came with linen to bandage broken and bruised heads and limbs, and to speak those gentle consolations which women alone can utter.

Philadelphia, and by this such of the passengers as were able came to this city last night. Of those who arrived, however, there were very few who did not have plasters and patches on their faces and heads, or their arms in slings in handkerchiefs. In fact, it is believed, that out of the whole number of passengers, there were not twenty who did not sustain injuries of some kind.

Mr. Gillespie, of Mississippi, made a will yesterday afternoon, bequeathing property to the amount of $630,000, believing that his end was near approaching. He has sustained the sad affliction with many fortitude.

Philadelphia, September 1, 1855.—John F. Gillespie, of Natchez, a victim of the disaster at Burlington, died at two o'clock this afternoon. His wife is falling fast, and will not probably recover.

Queen Victoria received most enthusiastically in France. It is rumored that a rupture has taken place in the Austrian Cabinet. The Atlantic brings 200 passengers.

They appear to have done little damage, besides burning the public stores. He says no damage whatever has been done to the fortification, batteries, or guns of the forts, and he closes his despatch on the evening of the 12th thus: "The enemy remain at their old anchorages, and do not renew the attack."

The attack, or siege, commenced at four o'clock on the morning of the 10th, by two English steamers—one a two-decker and one a frigate. The bombardment continued until seven o'clock in the evening, doing no damage.
