

NEWS FROM THE SANDY.

A Desperate Battle—Marshall Rout—Between 200 and 300 killed and wounded—Grand Running.

After all the bragging and boasting of the secessionists as to what they would accomplish this time, in their second invasion of Eastern Kentucky...

It appears from all the accounts we can gather, that Col. Bowles of the Second Virginia Cavalry, with a small force, made a reconnaissance of Marshall's position on the 7th, and three miles west of Paintsville, came upon a portion of the enemy under command of Capt. Shawhan of Harrison county...

Col. Bowles, after burying the dead, returned, when, on the day following, Col. Garfield sent forward 300 picked infantry and 900 cavalry to pursue...

Since the above was in type our friend Wm. Craig and another gentleman have come in from above, and bring us the glorious news of a successful battle and the complete rout of the enemy!

Gov. Dennison retired, with the consciousness of having to the best of his ability discharged his duty. No Governor has ever had the labor and responsibility resting upon him, that Governor D. has, and he has labored diligently, untiringly, and to the best of his judgment to discharge the duties of his office...

The Bank suspension act has passed the House and will pass the Senate, in a day or two. In what shape it is difficult to tell. All admit that something must be done, but what, no one can exactly tell.

Tuesday morning.—Last night I attended the lecture of the Hon. Charles Anderson, upon Secession, its causes and the consequences of its success.

THE PRIVATEER SUMTER.—The Boston Journal has an account of the various escapes of that slippery craft the privateer Sumter. It says: During the time the Sumter was waiting to get out of Martinique...

[For the Gallipolis Journal.] LETTER FROM LEWIS F. BERTHE.

Mr. HARPER: There is little of importance here to write about. The health of the 18th Regiment is not as good as it has been. Most of the Galha boys are well and able for duty. We have about 250 patients in our hospital, about one-fourth of them with the measles, but being in the care of our good Doctors we have had only three to die since we have been in the service.

THE REBELS' OPINION OF THE BURNSIDE EXPEDITION. THE DESIGN OF THE FEDERAL FLEET—NORFOLK ITS DESTINATION.

NORFOLK, Jan. 7.—So much has been said and written about the Burnside expedition and its probable destination, that it is like an old worn out song, sung until it has lost its music and ceased to charm the ear of the listener, or to excite emotion, or interest, or concern in his mind.

LETTER FROM L. D. CARTER. BACON CREEK, KR., Jan. 11, '62.

Mr. HARPER:—Being now some distance from home, I thought I would drop you a line. Three months ago I no more expected to be a soldier than to be a sailor, but for two months and a half I have been a faithful soldier for my country, and have not met with half so much trouble and discomfort as I expected when I enrolled my name as a soldier for the stars and stripes.

FROM THE SOUTH THE REBELS DISLIKE DRAFTING. The Winchester (Va.) Register has this growl: The people will not submit to a draft. Once they volunteered and came willingly to the defense of their homes, and they are not willing to do it again.

SHOOTING AND HANGING. The same paper, alluding to the Union men, says: That we have such enemies, and a good many such, in the border counties of Louden, Jefferson, Berkeley, Morgan and Hampshire, is well known, and we think the sooner they are driven over the river, imprisoned, shot or hanged, the better for us.

No News.—Our troops, (late of Romney, Va.) are still at Patterson's creek, 7 miles east of Cumberland, where they are apparently waiting for something to turn up.
