In behalf of the Ladies Temperance League, we make correction of a slight mistake in reference to Mrs. T. G. HAY having signed the pledge at the time her husband did. She signed it two weeks previous, and through her influence and the prayers of the League, Mr. HAY, on that memorable Saturday afternoon, signed the pledge.

Mr. JOHN HOYT, residing near Clipper Mill, in Clay township, fell dead Tuesday evening week, while preparing for church. Heart disease is supposed to have been the cause.

The Temperance Work. Though we have no startling or sensational results of the temperance movement to report this week, still we can with truth say that there is no lack of earnestness or zeal in the prosecution of the work. The ladies continue as faithful and steadfast in their mission of love, and good will to all men, as at any time in the past.

The following is the programme of work for the past week; for which we are under many obligations to Mrs. SARAH HAMILTON, Sec'y pro tem. WEDNESDAY, Mar. 4th.—The League visited Messrs. WM. THOMPSON and Z. DENNY's establishments, in the upper part of the city. At Mr. THOMPSON's they were kindly received, and they felt hopeful that a good impression had been made. At the latter place they were refused admittance, and owing to the inclemency of the weather, it was thought best to return to the church, where prayers were offered in behalf of the liquor dealer.

FRIDAY, Mar. 6th.—They turned out in a body to attend the funeral services of C. J. MENAGER, Esq., son of Mrs. M. MENAGER, who is a member of the League, and is also her two daughters, Mrs. J. H. MORGAN and Mrs. J. E. PERRY. They first met at the M. E. Church, where, after singing and prayer, they formed in line and marched to Christ Church, making an imposing and solemn display, and from there together with the members of the Masonic order and many other citizens, they followed the remains to the cemetery as a final tribute of respect.

SATURDAY, Mar. 7th.—The League convened at 2 P. M., at the M. E. Church, Saturday being the day of their regular mass meeting, adjourned at 4 o'clock to meet again at 7 o'clock. On this evening the saloon of Mr. CHAS. JOHNSON was visited. The women entered the saloon, the leaders holding a short conversation with the proprietor, asking the permission to engage in singing and prayer, which he refused, saying it interfered with his business. He had a kindly regard for the women, however, and as the weather was very cold, hoped they would not hold any meeting at all that night in front of his establishment. The League however determined that the cutting northwind should prove no obstacle, took their stand on the side-walk in front of the saloon, where singing and prayer was conducted, until ordered off by Mr. JOHNSON. They then took position in the street, where their devotions were continued until a late hour.

SUNDAY, Mar. 8th.—They met at the M. E. Church at 3 P. M. and held a Union Prayer Meeting which was largely attended.

MONDAY, March 9th.—The League again met at 1 P. M. After singing and prayer the remainder of the afternoon was spent in visiting the grocery of Mr. JAS. DEEM, and Mr. MONTGOMERY's saloon; also the bar kept at the Merchant's Hotel. Mr. DEEM received the ladies kindly, but persisted in his oft repeated assertions, that as he was selling strictly according to law, he surely was doing no harm. The usual programme was conducted for his benefit. The doors being closed at the Merchant's Hotel, the order of exercises was conducted on the walk. Mr. MONTGOMERY could not allow them entrance, but he attended the meeting by coming out of his saloon and standing with uncovered head listening attentively to the songs of praise and prayers that were offered up in his behalf. Mr. MONTGOMERY has treated the women with such uniform courtesy, that they feel possible more than anxious that he should be reclaimed, and Heaven must have heard the prayers that ascended for him this day. At seven o'clock in the evening the St. Joseph saloon was visited. Mr. WM. BAILEY, acting for the proprietor, invited them in, but no progress was reported. A. P. MENAGER & Co. was next in order. Here they were refused admittance. Singing and prayer, however, went up from the curbstone and the gutter, and while the President of the League was offering up to the Most High a prayer for wholesalers and retailers in "man's worst foe," the proprietor turned off the gas and left. The women next went to JOHN SON'S saloon, where they were refused admittance, as on Saturday. They repaired to the gutter and curbing, as before, and the exercises were continued until near 11 o'clock, without any visible signs of progress. A large crowd, composed of the ladies' husbands and our best citizens, were spectators throughout, and where the prayers of the League fail to reach the ears of the saloonist, they fall on the ears of the multitude, where it is hoped, that like the seed scattered by the sower, who went forth to sow, some may have fallen on good ground that will bring forth an hundred fold.

TUESDAY, March 10th.—The street work was confined to the 3d Ward. In the evening there was an enthusiastic mass meeting at the Court House. Among the speakers was Mr. ATKINSON, of Buffalo, W. Va.

Next week we shall publish an address delivered by Mrs. MARY J. SHERKES at one of the recent temperance meetings. We want the world to know how our ladies talk, as well as how they act.

Death of C. J. Menager. Our well known townsman, CHARLES J. MENAGER, Esq., departed this life on the 4th inst., at the residence of his mother in this city. Though his death, by its suddenness, he having been at his office the day previous, was startling, still his family and friends were not altogether unprepared for it. He had been in feeble health for some years, and his demise was felt not to be far off. His disease was consumption.

The deceased was a son of the late PETER MENAGER, and a grand son of CLAUDIUS MENAGER, one of the original French colony that settled Gallipolis. He was in the 49th year of his age, having been born in this city in 1825. He was a graduate of Washington (Pa.) College, and a thorough scholar. After his graduation he spent some years in teaching. He was connected with the Gallia Academy for some years, and afterward taught in Virginia, and in Texas. In 1862 he returned to this, his birth place, and engaged in the practice of the law. He was city solicitor one term, and at the time of his death was serving as a Justice of the Peace. In all of the duties of his life he was faithful, earnest and sincere.

The funeral services occurred on Friday afternoon, and were largely attended. He was buried by his brethren of the Masonic fraternity. In the procession were the members of the Gallipolis bar, and the Women's Temperance League. The church services took place at the Universalist Church, and were conducted by Rev. G. W. ISAMINGER, acting Chaplain of the League.

Proceedings of Commissioners. The Board of County Commissioners adjourned on Wednesday. We complete our record of their proceeding. A treatise bridge across Double creek, in Ohio township, was ordered to be built. A stone fill for the west end of the iron bridge across Chicksamauga creek was also ordered, as well as a dirt fill for a bridge in Cheshire township, near COUGHENOUR'S.

The Board ordered notice to be given of their intention to build a bridge across Little Kyger, near its mouth. A contract was made with Mr. A. D. SUMMERS to paint the iron bridge. Price $28.

A petition for annexing territory to the village of Centerville was presented by DAVID D. MORGAN, agent for the petitioners, and the same ordered to be heard on the 21 day of June next. The Board, by a vote of two to one, refused to purchase the smaller county map prepared by Mr. W. GRIFFITH, Jr.

WHITE & HOLCOMB, Attorneys, were allowed the use of the Surveyor's office, at a rental of $5 per year. The bridge tax for the current year was fixed at one mill on the dollar.

Allowances from the Revenue fund amounted to $891 96. From the bridge fund, $30 15. See advertising columns for bridge lettings.

If, however, there had been blows and a general street fight among the men congregated, the responsibility would have rested upon the "Movement."

This is the conclusion of the Bulletin in regard to the threatened disturbance in front of JOHNSON'S saloon on Saturday night. It does gross injustice to the ladies. It was a disturbance among the men, the ladies having nothing whatever to do with it. Mr. JOHNSON, urged to it by others, ordered the women from the side-walk; they immediately complied, offering no word of remonstrance, and proceeded with their services as if nothing had happened. Afterwards the men got into an altercation, but that was soon quieted. To hold the ladies responsible for the acts of these men is no more absurd than to hold them responsible for the sin that exists in the heart of the writer of above extract. Had the women been alone there would have been no disturbance.

Forty-two applicants for teachers' certificates were before the Board of Examiners last Saturday. Eighteen were granted, to-wit: S. D. BLOSSBURN, Harris, P. O., 12 mos. Jas. O. We have been appealed to in behalf of the brute creation—asked to call the attention of Township Trustees to their duty in providing water-trough places on public highways. We do so with pleasure, as we believe it to be an important matter. The law authorizing Township Trustees to appropriate money for this purpose may be found on page 18 of the laws of 1868. A small sum expended each year for this purpose would prove a great benefit to both man and beast.

The Concomline whose terms expire this Spring are: 1st Ward, E. S. ALEXANDER; 2d Ward, H. N. BAILEY, who was elected last Spring to supply a vacancy, and F. L. LACROIX having resigned; this Ward will have to elect two members; 3d Ward, SAMUEL KEES.

Jail Delivery. On Saturday night, about 12 o'clock, when grave yards are supposed to yaw, four prisoners left the hospitable roof of Sheriff RIPLEY, and made lively tracks for freedom. The party consisted of DAILEY and MYERS, in for horse stealing, and the two HAGERS, who come up from Guyan township charged with stealing hogs. The prisoners had the freedom of the jail hall that night under the supposition that they were as safe there as in their cells. But the sequel proved otherwise. Before coming possessed of a poker and an iron bar—the former through a child too young to consider the consequences, and the latter wrenched from the fastenings—they worked their way into the second story, and thence through a brick partition wall into a room which afforded escape to the ground through a window. With the poker they made a hook, then trying to it three bed sheets, and fastening the hook to the inside casement of the window, they went to the ground in safety, bidding goodbye to jail life. Mr. GEO. DENNY, who was returning home at the time from the perilous trip after the drowned men, discovered the liberty loving creatures making for the hills, but it was too late—the whereabouts of the birds was past finding out. Sheriff RIPLEY considers one cent reward all they are worth.

One of our German friends who keeps a beer stand just beyond the brewery, on the Chillicothe road, on Sunday last opened his house for the accommodation of his German friends, and all others who favor beer-drinking and oppose the temperance movement. In the afternoon we paid our reportorial respects to the assemblage. We found quite a crowd in attendance, a conglomeration of Germans and Americans—merchants, mechanics, millers, musicians, boys, dead-beats, dead-beats, saloonists, loafers and doctors, with a large sprinkling of females. Considering the elements of which it was composed, we think it the most orderly gathering for the numbers, we ever witnessed. Evidently the temperance feeling had reached there also, and notwithstanding the strenuous efforts to do in the interest of the whisky ring to ingratiate an old-fashioned drunk, every thing passed off harmoniously, which is seldom the case at such gatherings.—What an equalizer is the intoxicating cup!

Two Magistrates will have to be elected for Gallipolis township at the approaching April election. One in place of Mr. DAMON, whose term expires, and one to supply the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. MENAGER. We have heard of quite a number of prospective candidates. These are the prominent ones—E. N. HARKER, J. G. DAMON, ALEX. VANDER, C. W. BARR and CHARLES ALESHIRE.

The Board of Infirmary Directors, consisting of Messrs. A. WATTS, JACOB KERNS and J. J. POOL, met in regular quarterly session last week.

Bills were allowed amounting to $2,401 14. Of this amount $1,113 80 was paid for relief outside of the Infirmary. The Board sent in a request to the County Commissioners for the building of a barn, an improvement which is said to be much needed. In their report to the County Commissioners the Board say: "We have visited the infirmary as the law requires, and have seen that the farm and the stock on the farm, have been properly attended to. We have made every effort to have the inmates, or paupers, as well cared for as circumstances would admit."

The following is the report of the Board as regards inmates: Last report, 33. Admitted, 28. Born, 1. Died, 4. Discharged, 17. Number remaining, 41.

Drowned. Three colored men, in attempting to cross the river, Saturday night, about 11 o'clock, were drowned. Their names are, HENRY ALEXANDER, JUNE COLEMAN and SMITH, residents of this city. The wind was blowing a gale, and the waves running high, and it is supposed the boat upset or filled with water. Their cries for help were fearful. Messrs. R. ALEXANDER, Jr., Police officer WM. CROMLEY, Jr., Geo. DENNY and CHAS. ROBINSON, manned a skiff and went to their assistance, but they were too late; nothing was seen of either the skiff or the men.

P. S. We learn that ALEXANDER was saved. He kept his hold on the skiff until he had floated to near Clipper Mill, a distance of about three miles, when he was relieved from his perilous position by the steamer Julia No. 2. He reports the other two drowned soon after the capsizing of the boat.

The Insurance bureau, conducted by G. W. ISAMINGER, furnish the public, this week, the financial statements of two of the companies which he represents—The "Royal" and the "Phoenix." They present a sound and healthy record, and we feel safe in recommending them to the consideration of our readers.

Parties wanting anything in the musical line should call at MOBERG'S Music Store, "Headquarters for the Mason and Hamlin Organ," where a fresh lot of musical instruments is just received.

Third Ward Mass Meeting. A primary meeting of citizens interested in the cause of TEMPERANCE, and in the REDEMPTION of one city exposure, was held at the Court House, Friday evening, March 6th, 1874, and it was agreed that a call be issued and published in each of the city papers, convening the citizens of the 3d Ward in Mass Convention at the M. E. Church, Third street, between Spruce and Pine streets, at 6 o'clock Wednesday evening, March 11th, 1874, to take into consideration the nomination of suitable candidates for the offices of Councilman and Assessor of the 3d Ward, and to appoint delegates to attend and represent the 3d Ward in the City Convention.

Come out, everybody! without regard to race or politics, who favor Temperance and Retrenchment. FRANK LESLIE'S illustrated paper of February 28th contains a disgraceful picture pretending to represent a scene in the temperance movement in this city. The caricature is accompanied with this explanation, in German, to-wit: "Temperance female idiots sing holy songs in front of a saloon in Gallipolis, Ohio." The whole thing is a scandal, and will injure rather than advance the cause it seeks to promote.

Mr. MAUCK, of the fashionable tailoring house of MAUCK & BRANDYBERRY, returned from his eastern trip Monday evening. In a few days the firm will be able to make a display of the new styles of Spring goods, which the great public is invited to call and examine.

The steamer Clara Scott lost her wheel overboard, coming down from Parkersburg, last Thursday. The accident occurred about 12 miles above big Hooking river.

Up to Monday evening about 100 names had been obtained towards establishing the Library and reading room. Two hundred more are needed, and the canvassing committee will make an effort to secure these before the next general meeting which occurs next Monday evening.

There is still talk of a daylight packet between this city and Cincinnati. A responsible firm at Pittsburgh has offered to furnish the machinery if parties here will build the boat. It is proposed to make her 200 feet long and about 28 feet beam. She will have no upper cabin, being built after the model of the Katydid, and will cost, complete, somewhere in the neighborhood of $20,000. She is expected to make 30 miles an hour down stream. Such a boat would clean the passenger trade.

As one of the effects of the temperance movement in the section above Cincinnati, the Gazette says the shipments of beer have fallen off about 300 kegs per day.

The Railroad. There are now at work on the G. McA & C. R. R about twenty-five plowing and harrowing teams and forty-five men; the work is being very energetically pushed along, and with good weather it will require but a few weeks to finish the grading between here and the M & C. R. R. at Vinton station. It is intended to materially increase the working force this month.
