GALLIPOLIS, DEC. 23, 1875.

The President, some members of his Cabinet, and a large number of Congressmen, went on a visit to Philadelphia, Friday, to inspect the arrangements for the Centennial Exposition. They were feasted by the citizens of Philadelphia on Saturday. The managers of the Exposition want an appropriation of $1,500,000 from Congress, in aid of the undertaking, and this excursion was gotten up that members might learn for themselves the importance and necessity of this Congressional aid. As this is to be a National Exposition, and as the Nation has as yet never given anything in its behalf, there is no sufficient reason why this small appropriation should not be made. Foreign governments are making extensive preparations, and liberal gifts, for proper representation in this grand affair, and it would be a disgrace to the American people for its government to withhold a helping hand. We hope the appropriation will be made, and the Centennial year made memorable by an exhibition that will astonish the world.

Germany.

The number killed and wounded by the Bremerhafen explosion is now estimated at one hundred and forty. Of this number about one-half were killed. William King Thompson is the name of the man who owned the case of dynamite which exploded. The Weser Zeitung gives the following history of him:

He was born in New York, married a New Orleans lady, and has four children, the youngest a baby. He lived in Virginia during the war, and engaged in the business of blockade running, whereby he grew rich. Since 1866 he has resided here at Leipzig, and last at Strehlen, near Dresden. He appears to have lost his money and become embarrassed. He was twice in America during the past summer. The last time he went without the knowledge of his family, and when he returned he wrote his banker here that he had made arrangements enabling him to pay his debts in December. He was highly esteemed by people in Germany. His house has been searched, but nothing found connected with the disaster.

He was arrested and confessed to the intention of destroying the steamer Mosel for the sake of the insurance he held, the machine being so arranged by a clock-work attachment as to explode when the ship had reached mid-ocean. The accidental discharge on the wharf, though disastrous as it was, frustrated the real intent of the maker of the infernal machine. It is stated that the clock-work was made by a mechanic named Fuchs, residing at Bernburg.

Thompson attempted suicide, and some days after his arrest died from the injuries inflicted by himself.

The Democratic Representatives in Congress, adopted resolutions last Monday, for the appointment of a Democratic Executive Committee; and a committee of eleven to suggest, at a future meeting, such a line of policy or action on public measures as would best serve the interests of the country.—Portsmouth Times.

This is "centralization of power" in earnest. Eleven men to do the thinking for one hundred and seventy-four democratic members of Congress; "eleven to suggest" to one hundred and sixty three to act the part of puppets! Well, this action may be all right; it may be that the 163 are so deficient in understanding what "would best serve the interests of the country," that they needed to have guardians appointed over them. It is either this, or else that other thing, which democrats profess to war against, "centralization of power." Will the Times make clear the conundrum?

There was a threatened bread riot at Montreal on Friday. About a thousand unemployed people assembled in front of the City Hall, where they remained for some time in an excited state, but, beyond an attack upon a beer wagon, from which they took the kegs and drank the contents, and the cleaning out of a bread wagon, no reprehensible acts were committed. In the afternoon the city Council met, and, after long discussion, decided to employ as many as it could in earthworks at sixty cents a day. Their cry was, "We are suffering, and want food."

SENATOR DAVIS, of W. Va., has introduced a bill in Congress making an appropriation for continuing the improvement of the Kanawha river. It was referred to the committee on Commerce.

SENATOR MORTON proposes to test the fealty of the Confederate Generals in Congress to National unity. He has introduced resolutions declaring that "the people of the United States constitute a Nation," that State Sovereignty is a false doctrine, and that the idea of secession is in conflict with the spirit and letter of the Constitution. We are anxious to see the vote taken on these resolutions.

MR. BRIDGE, of Tennessee, has offered a bill in Congress to restore the franking privilege.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

MR. BRIGHT is a Democratic member of a Democratic Reform Congress.

The value of cotton marketed at Memphis, this season, is $12,000,000.

Congressional Notes.

The House, on the 15th, adopted two important resolutions. The first was one pledging Congress against all railroad subsidies in money or lands; the second was against a Presidential third term. There were 33 votes against the first, and only 18 against the second.

In the Senate, on the 16th, a bill was introduced to provide for a Commission to examine into the liquor traffic in the United States. The bill requires the President to appoint (subject to confirmation by the Senate) a commission of five persons, neither of whom shall be a Federal officer-holder nor an advocate of prohibitionary legislation, or of total abstinence, in relation to alcoholic liquors, who shall serve without salary, and within two years investigate the liquor traffic, its relations to the revenue and taxation, and its general economic, moral, and scientific aspects in connection with paupers, crime, social vice, the public health, and general welfare of the people, and, also, inquire and take testimony as to the practical results of license and prohibitionary legislation for the prevention of intemperance in the several States of the Union. The bill appropriates $10,000 for necessary expenses, and requires the Commission to report the result of their investigation to the President, to be by him transmitted to Congress.

Both Houses adjourned on Monday over to January 4th. This is the holiday recess.

UNION soldiers are at a discount in Washington. Even Democratic Union Soldiers have to retire. Most of the subordinate places about the Democratic House have been given to ex-rebel soldiers, which fact brought out the following resolution from a Republican member, to-wit:

"Resolved, By the House of Representatives, that in all subordinate appointments under any of the officers of this House, it is the judgment of the House that the wounded Union soldiers who are not disabled from the performance of duty should be preferred."

The Democratic stomach couldn't stand this, and it was amended by the offer of the following, the vote being strictly a party one, to-wit:

"Resolved, That inasmuch as the union of the States has been restored, all citizens thereof are entitled to consideration in the appointment to office under this government."

This makes easy the action of the party as stated by the correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette, to-wit:

The Democratic movement in the House against disabled Union soldiers on the rolls of its employes continues. Capt. Ball, one of the doorkeepers, who had lost an arm in the service, has been discharged, and his place filled by an ex-Confederate officer.

A BILL in aid of the Washington, Cincinnati and St. Louis Railroad was introduced in the lower House of Congress on the 14th. The correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette says it is nearly the same as passed the House Committee last session unanimously. The road is now in process of construction. The bill proposes the government to guarantee the bonds of the road to the amount of $15,000 a mile through Virginia, and $10,000 a mile through the other less mountainous States. The company promises to carry freight after the road bed is thoroughly settled at about half the rates now charged on through lines, and even less than the Erie Canal rates.

FROM the unfoundlings already made in Congress the Cincinnati Commercial is constrained to say: There is to be fun in this Congress. The true inwardness must be got out. The harp that once in Dixie's halls the soul of music shed is about to be thrummed under the dome of the Capitol.

HON. FRANKLIN LANDERS, of Indiana, is the only inflationist in Congress who stood by his principles. He refused to vote for KERR, for Speaker, at the dictation of a democratic caucus. All the balance went over to the Wall streeters.

The steamer W. S. Pike was burned at New Orleans on the 16th. Her cargo consisting of 997 bales of cotton, 208 hogheads of sugar, 594 barrels of molasses, and other freight, was likewise destroyed. Loss $100,000.

He was "taken quietly out of his bed by masked men and hung with any disturbance," is what was done to Thomas Burt, at Carson, Nevada, on the 16th. He had been engaged in the business of arson and robbery.

We hear of an organized gang of outlaws up Kanawha, whose business it is to burglarize and rob upon all occasions. Depredations by them are already reported.

MR. ADAMS, the Clerk of the National House of Representatives, has appointed his uncle to the position of Chief Clerk, forces the object to Democratic officials following the disastrous precedents laid down by President Grant. This protest might find local application.

At Owensboro, Ky., on the 13th, Geo. W. Murphy and Wm. McAllister had a dispute about a debt of $2. From quarrelling they went to shooting, the result being both were killed.

MR. BRIGHT, of Tennessee, has offered a bill in Congress to restore the franking privilege.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

MR. BRIGHT is a Democratic member of a Democratic Reform Congress.

The West Virginia Legislature.

has passed an act requiring every applicant for a license to sell spirituous liquors, wine, porter, &c., to give bond in the penalty of $500, conditioned that he will not permit any person to drink to intoxication on any premises under his control, and will not sell or furnish any intoxicating drinks to any person who is intoxicated at the time, or is known to have the habit of drinking to intoxication, or is a minor; or furnish such drink to any person on Sunday. A violation of these conditions is made a misdemeanor.

License in West Va., is subject to a vote of the electors.

The election of town officers for Point Pleasant occurs Jan. 6th. There are two tickets in the field: one in favor of granting license to sell liquor, the other opposed to license.

VIRGINIA sends Hon. JOHN W. JOHNSON to the United States Senate, the gentleman having received the nomination of the democratic caucus on the 45th ballot.

The Grangers are talking of erecting a permanent building in Louisville, the money to be raised by ten cent contributions from each of the 700,000 patrons in the United States.

STAVES are selling from flat-boats at New Orleans at $105 to $125 for pipe, $65 to $75 for hhd. and $50 to $60 for cask; extra cask delivered alongside of ships average from $25 to $40 higher. The wine vintage in France has been so abundant during the past season that staves are unusually high, and in much demand there.

MR. BLAINE has introduced in Congress his Constitutional Amendment regarding the public schools and the free exercise of religious privileges. Something in this line will probably pass both Houses.

FROM official records for 1870, the sum of six hundred millions of dollars, was expended in the United States during that year, for liquors of all kinds. Of this sum, New York paid $106,000,000, Pennsylvania $65,000,000, Ohio $68,000,000, Illinois $42,000,000, Massachusetts $25,000,000, Maine $4,500,000, &c.

The same authority asserts, that 60,000 Americans die annually from the use of intoxicating liquors. These startling facts might serve our statesmen and politicians, as a proper subject of consideration, in legislation for the public welfare. The actual waste of this enormous amount of money, and the misery, disease, crime and disgrace consequent thereon, is certainly a topic, worthy of note. Is it surprising that the country is overrun by "tramps," and that the jails and penitentiaries are crowded with criminals of every grade? The papers everywhere, teem with reports of the most revolting crimes known in any age of the world. The funds thus perverted, would, if applied thereto, pay off our National debt, and the wealth, peace and happiness of our people, increased beyond measure.

THE DEAD OF 1875.

The following persons of prominence have died during the past year: Andrew Johnson, Henry Wilson, Gov. Bramlette, Wm. H. Aspinwall, Jno. C. Breckinridge, Jesse D. Bright, Frank P. Blair, Lady Jane Franklin, Hans Christian Andersen, Henry T. Blow, and Wm. B. Astor.

ON Saturday morning there was an alarm of fire in the city. The roof and ceiling in the upper end of Mr. DELMONTE's building on Second street, below the Public Square, occupied by Mr. GATES as a jewelry store, had caught fire from a defective flue. It was extinguished with but small damage. The fire Department was not needed.

L. D. POSTER, the wealthiest man in Athens county, died at Nelsonville on Thursday.

THE contract for building the Dayton & Southern Narrow-gauge Railroad, complete for the rolling stock, has been awarded to Phelps, King & Co., of Boston, Mass., for $67,16 per mile. It is 115 miles in length, and is to be completed by October 1, 1876.

A RELIGIOUS WAR at hand is what the Abbe Michaud, writing in last week's Independent, deduces from the gigantic organizations which the Jesuits and Rome are everywhere developing. The Ultramontanes hold doctrines that lead to insurrection, and the Abbe's conclusion is that a religious war is in the near future for Europe, and only a matter of time for America.

THE Rev. Dr. Cumming, (Presbyterian), of London, says next year is to be signalized by the destruction of the Turkish Government and of the Papacy. He finds warrants for this in the Prophecies of Daniel.

MOORE and Sankey report 134 conversions during the first three weeks of their stay in Philadelphia.

GOVERNOR PECK, of Vermont, seeing an old woman in Jericho sawing wood, the other day, stopped his horse, took off his coat, and sawed and split enough to last her and her aged husband for some time.

ERHARD CARLE, said to have been the first white man born in Ohio, died lately in Jefferson county.

Cheekure Items.
We will not say much about the weather this time, for we presume everybody has experienced a change in the elements.

Henry's whiskers are promising. Joseph Mauck and wife are at New Orleans.

Miss Ida Pittinger has gone to Illinois to spend the winter.

H. G. Swisher and Alex. King left for Missouri last Friday.

Rev. R. Dunn, D. D., preached an interesting sermon yesterday to a large congregation.

"Bliss" was in town last Friday, and spent the time perusing the JOURNAL, and eating apples and cheese.

G. W. Ring was elected Master of Peerless Grange at their last regular meeting. He is a zealous Granger, and no doubt will make a worthy and efficient officer.

Dr. Watkins has returned from Texas. He is pleased with the country, and will locate there. Doc, we are glad to see you enjoying improved health.

John Golden was fined five dollars for "Squire Symmes," for disturbing the meeting at First Kyger.

D. Coughenour, N. King, B. Rife and M. Coughenour, were tried before Judge G. W. Ring, for poisoning the breath out of John Golden. The three former were acquitted, and the next Court of Common Pleas will have to settle McNeil's case.

Ice commenced running in the river last Friday morning, and of course the Chesapeake had to go into winter quarters the day previous; therefore, we have had no mail since last Thursday. We entertain hopes, however, that the accommodating mail contractors of the Gallipolis and Parkersburg route will give us one more mail during 1875.

Our benzine merchant is still dealing out the deadly poison. Yes, and more yet, we have another doggerel now about two miles from town. Whither are we drifting?

Several dances in the community next Friday evening, but they will be no enjoyment to us, as we have never trained our number tens to keep time.

We will say to Mr. Coughenour, there is to be an Exhibition, &c. No dogs at Rio Grande—house not done in time. They did talk of an entertainment and oyster supper.

Miss Ida and Truda Haining have gone to Cheshire to stay over the holidays, and visit friends.

Miss Ollie Ridgway has a short vacation in her school.

"Aunt Susie White" (as she is familiarly known), still weaves carpets. She has just finished one that is hard to beat, in design and quality. Mrs. Aaron Davis is the owner of said carpet.

College bell in place, and the clock has at last taken its position. Behold! take a note, time waits for no man.

Corn does not sell in Rio Grande. Adamsville store has been paying 40 cents per bushel.

Old and young are desirous of spending Christmas pleasantly, and why not? as it only comes yearly, and it is well to be mindful of "Him" whose mission on earth was one of mercy, and good will to man. But one family at least do not desire a repetition of the "fren" that was served on them last Christmas.

I never could conceive why the P. M. and family of all people on earth, should be so anxious to do nothing, and do nothing for the public, which would amount to hundreds of dollars, while others are asleep—but such was the case not one hundred miles away. Some hours before day they were suddenly aroused with but one idea, that the "notorious John Morgan" and his "legion" had "come forth," and they were about to be "captured"; but it was soon revealed that it was "Christmas" morn., and it was only the sons of about two families (who "sorter" call themselves young men) with some old shot guns, who continued their noise as near as possible, almost without cessation.

An impulse of a moment was to try what "virtue" there was in a little lead mixed with powder—but for once desisted—however, at dawn of day they took to the heels for home, fleeing haplessly over it unheeding.

If they wish to repeat the performance this year, they are kindly invited to stay on their own premises, and let their dear parents have the enjoyment—as the aforesaid wish for no such demonstration in the future.

Weather moderate, and owing to hard frosts the roads are in very good stage for travelling.

Hard times are still talked of, and Christmas near at hand.

Hayes leaves Mercersville to-day with his mammoth wigwag, to locate near Crownsville, Md., where he will meet success in his new locality.

Mr. Williams, of Sandfort, organized a singing-school at the new Baptist Church at Mercersville, yesterday (Saturday), to commence the 27th of January. From appearance, we believe him to be a good teacher.

I would like to correct Paul Pry's mistake in the Bulletin in reference to the regular Ohio county; he said in his letter there were three dozen lodged in said township, while there is but three, but, our No. 2, numbers but 66, and I think we are doing good work. It was said before we organized, if a man rode through the township on a good horse and would raise in his stirrups, the horse would be stolen from under him, but now he can ride through in perfect safety. There was a family of desperadoes residing in the township, who were very bad, and had stolen a shoe-string band, but when about thirty-five of our men went to their house and told them they had better get out, they were very glad to go, and stayed on staying until the next morning, when they left. The next morning said desperadoes, and there were twenty-five of them, were taken to jail.

Again, in Pry's letter he asked for the law on Sabbath hunting. I think it best to clear the church of such men, and then use the law on them.

Protracted Meeting.
There will be a protracted meeting at the First Huntingdon Free Will Baptist Church, commencing in the evening of December 31st, 1875, to be conducted by Rev. I. Z. HANXIE.

The First Step.
(Washington Dispatch, in Yesterday's N. Y. Herald.)
The Democrats in Congress continue to play into the hands of their adversaries. Like the Bourbons, when they are so often named after, they "never learn anything, and never forget anything." For example, Senator Merrimon, of North Carolina, very quietly introduced a bill, to-day, to repeal Section 4,716 of the Revised Statutes. Those who were curious enough to refer to the paragraph, found that it was a section of the Pension law, which provided that "no money on account of pensions shall be paid to any person, or the widow, children or heirs of any deceased person who, in any manner, voluntarily engaged in or aided or abetted the late rebellion against the authority of the United States." The introduction of this bill is about on a par, if it is not a good deal worse, than the blunder of the Louisiana resolution. The Democrats have put their foot into it twice within a single week.

VEGETINE
Purifies the Blood, Renovates and Invigorates the whole System.

Its Medical Properties are

ALTERATIVE, TONIC, SOLVENT AND DIURETIC.

VEGETINE is made exclusively from the juices of carefully-selected herbs, roots and berries, and so strongly concentrated, that it will effectually eradicate from the system every taint of Scrofula, Scrofulous Humor, Tumors, Cancer, Cancerous Humor, Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Syphilitic Diseases, Canker, Faintness at the stomach, and all diseases that arise from impure blood. Scatica, Inflammatory Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Gout and Spinal Complaints, can only be effectually cured through the blood.

For Ulcers and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin: Pustules, Pimples, Boils, Tetter, Scaldhead and Ringworm, VEGETINE has never failed to effect a permanent cure.

For Pains in the Back, Kidney Complaints, Dropsy, Female Weakness, Leucorrhoea arising from internal ulceration, and uterine diseases and General Debility, VEGETINE acts directly upon the cause of these complaints. It invigorates and strengthens the whole system, acts upon the secretory organs, allays inflammation, cures ulceration and regulates the nervous system.

For Catarrh, Dyspepsia, Habitual Costiveness, Palpitation of the heart, Headache, Piles, Nervousness and General Prostration of the Nervous System, no medicine has ever given such perfect satisfaction as the VEGETINE. It purifies the blood, cleanses all of the organs, and possesses a controlling power over the nervous system.

The remarkable cures effected by Vegetine have induced many physicians and apothecaries whom we know to prescribe and use it in their own families. In fact, Vegetine is the very remedy yet undiscovered for the above diseases, and is the only reliable BLOOD PURIFIER yet placed before the public.

H. R. STEVENS, Boston, Mass.

WHAT IS VEGETINE?—It is a compound extracted from herbs, roots and berries. It is Nature's Remedy. It is perfectly harmless, and has no effect upon the system. It is nourishing and strengthening. It acts directly upon the blood.
