Republican Central Committee.

There will be a meeting of the County Central Committee at the Committee room, August 25th, 10 a. m.

T. W. HAMPTON, Sec. Gen. Garfield represents the Nation. Gen. Hancock represents the Confederacy. There is only one choice for Patriots.

Ole Bull, the celebrated violinist is dead. The Postmaster, in his efforts to defeat Mr. Neal for Congress, receives valuable assistance from the Cincinnati Enquirer.

William Cullen Gaston, of Lancaster, is a reformed Democrat. He delivered his first speech for the Republican cause in Alabama, because they contended for an "honest count."

No more whisky tax, seems to be a part of the Southern programme, if Hancock is elected.

It is the opinion of Gen. Grant that Garfield will carry New York easily.

There is no enthusiasm for Hancock except among the fellows who want the post office.

The Logan Republican, speaking of the nomination of Hon. H. S. Neal, says: The people of Hoeking will support the nominee with a will as he was really the first choice of the old reliable Republicans, after Bright, and the choice was so expressed by the county convention.

The Society of the Army of West Virginia will meet at Parkersburg Sept. 29th. All Union Soldiers who served in the Department of West Virginia are entitled to membership, and are earnestly requested to attend.

"A full vote, free ballot and fair count," says Gen. Hancock. If the General will in earnest he would come out and denounce the frauds committed in Alabama at the recent election. Read the expose on the first page. There is no "free ballot" or "honest count" in the South, and the utterance of such a sentiment as the above, in the face of what is really transpiring in the South, is a premeditated insult to an intelligent people—makes him who utters it not a whit better than the Bulldozers themselves.

Judge Hilton, who made himself so obnoxious to the Jewish citizens of this country, by excluding them from his hotel at Saratoga, has been made Chairman of the Finance Committee of the National Democratic Committee. This action has given rise, and justly, to no little indignation among the Israelites in the Eastern cities, more especially in New York, where Judge Hilton resides.

The Democratic Congressional Convention met at Ironton Thursday, Wells A. Hutchins, Esq., of Scioto county, was nominated for Congress, and J. F. Roadarmour, of Lawrence, for Presidential Elector. Mr. Hutchins is a gentleman of fair ability, and stands well as a lawyer. The objection to him is his politics. He is a Democrat of the ultra school. Votes the ticket first, last and all the time, whether it be soft or hard money, tariff or anti-tariff, Union Generals or Southern Brigadiers, etc. The Eleventh District is not yet ready to give over its great interests into the hands of such a representative.

Mr. Hutchins has a record. He was a member of the 38th Congress, from March 4, 1863, to March 4, 1865, when men's patriotism was tried with fire. How Mr. Hutchins' patriotism stood the test will appear hereafter.

Markets. CINCINNATI—Wheat 90 to 95; Hogs, fair to good packing, $4 85 to $5 30; Cattle, fair to good shippers, $4 00 to $4 65.

GALLIPOLIS—Wheat 85 to 90; Eggs 8 to 9c per dozen; Butter 10 to 12c; Salt $1 15 to $1 40; Wool from 25 to 40c.

State Board of Equalization.

The Republican Convention for the Eighth Senatorial District, called for the purpose of nominating two candidates to serve as members of the State Board of Equalization, met at the Court House, in this city, last Wednesday. Every county was represented. Mr. E. B. Willard, of Lawrence, was chosen Chairman, and Mr. J. S. Blackaller, of Meigs, was made Secretary. W. H. C. Ecker, Esq., in behalf of the Gallia delegation, presented the name of William Symmes, as a candidate; and Ira Graham, Esq., presented the name of John S. Gilles, of Meigs, as the second candidate. No other name being presented, these gentlemen were nominated by acclamation. Messrs. Symmes and Gilles are well qualified for the duties they will be called upon to perform, and will worthily represent the District.

The Old 33d. O. V. I.

The members of this gallant regiment in this vicinity will be interested in knowing that those of their comrades who were present at the large gathering at the office of the Board of State Charities Thursday, and perfected a regimental organization by adopting the usual mode of constitution and the election of the following officers: President, Capt. A. G. Byers, of Columbus; Vice President, Col. J. H. M. Montgomery, of Gallia county; Recording Secretary, Sam'l Watt, of Hardin county; Corresponding Secretary, J. M. Higgins, of this city; Treasurer, A. W. Maick, of Lima.

An Executive Committee was appointed consisting of Sergeant John W. Shanks, of Gallipolis, Capt. T. A. Minshall, of Chillicothe, and Lieut. Jacob Farwell, of Kenton.

There were about thirty members of the regiment present, and they were handsomely entertained by Chaplain Byers at his residence on Franklin Avenue. Old battles were fought over, old jokes revived, and new friendships cemented.

The organization adjourned to meet in this city where a reunion will be held at the call of the committee. As the regiment was organized, and left this place for the seat of war, it is most fitting that their reunion should be held here. Any of the old veterans who desire to become members of the organization can do so by addressing any of the above named officers, and it is hoped that they will do so.—Pittsburgh Tribune.

Hon. H. S. Neal has ever been the working man's friend. Where the poor man who was too lowly for his notice or whose claims he would not hear with interest and push with energy? It was not some of the found fault with Neal, but the high-toned, political tricksters whose schemes he had the nerve to mar. The honest toilers of Lawrence county, both Democrats and Republicans, will roll up a majority of over two thousand for Hon. Henry S. Neal.—Ironton Daily Bee.

Republican Rally at Mud Sock.

On Saturday evening at 7 o'clock, August 28th, 1880, there will be a Republican meeting at Mud Sock, for the purpose of organizing a Garfield Club. Dr. B. B. Bond and other able speakers will be present. Let all the Republicans of Walnut turn out.

T. H. NEAL, Committeeman. If there is anything likely to create a breach in household happiness, that thing is Neuralgia. White's Neuralgia Cure is the antidote.

The Alexander Church.

According to an announcement we dedicated the Alexander church on the 8th of this month. It took quite an effort on the day of dedication in order to secure the necessary amount of subscription to meet the indebtedness, and many had to go home before the house was dedicated, and we will take this opportunity of requesting all who subscribed either on the day of dedication or before, or since, to be so kind as to pay the same to any one of the trustees, or to John Ecker, as soon as convenient, as they are very anxious to get all the debts paid and the responsibility of their hands and minds. If you will pay it over without being asked for it, it will save a great deal of time and trouble in going around to collect, and by so doing you will accommodate many.

The first of the series of locks and dams, designed for Kanawha river navigation, has been completed and is in successful working order. This lock is ten feet high, and is situated on the river at its lowest stage, can be flushed through the pool sixteen inches to its mouth. It is claimed that this flushing process will affect the Ohio river the same as a swell from the Kanawha.—Marine Journal

For the Gallipolis Journal.

Mr. Editor:—I have read the proceedings of the Eleventh Congressional Convention held at Portsmouth, Aug. 10th, as reported by the Standard and Portsmouth Blade. The Tribune gives a fair and truthful report—not quite full however. The Blade draws largely upon its imagination for many of its statements.

Both papers forget to mention that while Capt. Jones was trying to get his name to be reported as an important paper before the Convention, the Chairman asked him two questions: 1st, if he considered himself a member of this Convention? 2d, if he proposed to take part in the Convention with his country delegates and become a part of and act with the Convention? To the first question he gave an equivocal answer. To the second he promptly answered "No."

Thereupon the chair decided him out of order, an outsider, and refused to hear him further. In this connection let me say that if Capt. H. Jones and the other delegates of Vinton Co. had taken their places in the Convention, as chairman of that Convention I would have ruled in favor of the reading of his paper, or at least allowed it to be referred to some committee.

But when Capt. Jones declared that he, nor any of the Vinton county delegates, would serve on committees or in any way take any part in the Convention, he became an outsider, and his sense of propriety ought to have kept him silent. They made a mistake in staying outside of the Convention.

"'Tis true, 'tis pity, 'tis 'tis true, One word with regard to the Portsmouth Blade, its extreme position, and its unfair statements, its weak arguments, with its bad English, its slangy and blackguard language—at once stamps its editor as a man unworthy of notice; and makes the impression upon an intelligent reader, that his brain does not weigh more than a half ton avoirdupois.

Let me attempt a short and imperfect explanation. The situation at the Portsmouth Convention was simply this. A minority undertook to rule a majority. They failed (as they usually do). True, they did not declare the nomination, but they did declare that the majority should not nominate the man of their choice. They abandoned Judge Harp-wood's name, and elected Capt. Bright by the way an excellent man and his war cry was—anybody to beat Neal and let the Neal name name the man—Mr. Beman (a Neal delegate) was urged to become a candidate. Capt. Bright and Stone they proposed E. A. Stone, hoping thereby to break the Neal phalanx. But the Neal delegates simply announced that they would not support a legitimate war—in the usual way, not the work of politicians, but of the people. And that too without making war—either himself, or by his friends upon any other candidate for the same position. As the people are sovereign, they had a right to send such delegates to the convention as would do their bidding; and those delegates had a right to misrepresent their constituents. And more—no coercion of politicians—not even a minority of the people, possess the right to dictate to a majority, what it shall or shall not do.

When a minority fails to submit to, and abide by the will of a majority, then comes anarchy and ruin, and end to party discipline and organization. When we fail to recognize this great principle (fact)—the corner stone of Republican government—that majority shall rule with parties. The majority must rule; the minority must submit, gracefully if it can—but submit it must.

Now, it is a fact that most of the anti-Neal delegates (as they style themselves) finding they could not rule, saw fit to stay out of the convention; why I cannot tell. Perhaps this will always remain a mystery.

It was a great mistake, as many of them must now see; and contrary to the advice of that true and cool-headed man, Capt. Bright, of Hocking county. The course they pursued was as unjustifiable as it was unprecedented.

We feel sure that most of them regret it. We are sorry that so much democratic thunder has been manufactured by Republicans.

But we will forgive and forget. We cannot become democrats, nor will we turn the good old 11th District over to Wells A. Hutchins and thereby add two votes to a Confederate Congress. No! No!

We will let bygones be bygones, and strike hands for the success of the grand Republican party, not only in the State, in the Nation, but in the Eleventh Congressional District of Ohio.

Chairman of the Convention, I see the Bulletin don't like the way the Soldiers vote. Well, after all their brag and bluster that they would carry the soldier vote, it is a little discouraging no doubt, to see the way they voted on the late excursion trains to the Columbus Round Trip.

As for the vote taken on our train on the 10th, it was fairly taken on the car that I was in. The collector of ballots did not collect them with a gun, and he did refuse the ballots of boys under 21. Ladies votes were counted separately. So you see, there was nothing in the "letting a lot" except wind (colic) and disappointment. VET.

OBITUARY. MATTHEWS—Died in this city, on last Sunday morning, about 4 o'clock, of paralysis, Elisha Matthews, aged 67 years, 4 months and 17 days. A few months ago deceased was stricken with a paralytic stroke rendering him nearly speechless and almost helpless; but he seemed to recover some, and at times was upon the street, but he gradually grew worse until he could not leave the house, and required constant attention until death relieved his pains.

Mr. Matthews was a native of Gallia county, Ohio; was married there Nov. 9th, 1837, to Miss Phoebe Ewing. In 1849 he came west looking for a home, and settled in La Harpe township the same year. His occupation ever since has been that of a farmer and mill contractor. He was the father of ten children, three of whom are dead. The survivors are Mr. Ed. Matthews, and George E. Matthews, are well known to our people, and are straight forward, enterprising young men, Ed. P. now being a citizen of Colorado, and A. E. of Creston, Iowa.

Mr. Matthews has been a citizen of Carthage for almost twenty years. His funeral took place on Monday from the M. E. Church, where a discourse was preached by Rev. Applebee, of Hamilton. He was then laid away in the old cemetery by the side of his wife, who preceded him to the grave not long since.—Carthage, Ill., Exchange.

The deceased was a brother of Mrs. Wm. Symmes, of this county.
