Friday's Meetings.

The crowds commenced coming in early, and at ten o'clock the Marshalls reported the delegations. Some question arose between Green and Springfield townships as to numbers, and which should be entitled to the flag. This was settled by giving a flag to each one. At 1:30 the meeting opened with Hon. Jos. Bradbury Chairman. Mr. Holcomb presented the claims as follows:

Men of Green and Springfield townships—Gallia county does you honor, because you have to-day done yourselves honor. She gives you the flag of the free and asks you to give it to her because it is the flag of Washington, the flag of Lincoln, the unfurling plume of every sea. It is the glad fruition of an eight years war to create it and of four years war to preserve it. Its red is typical of the blood spilled for it; its white of the purity of true government, and its blue of the truth that supports it. It is the flag of one Country, one Nation, one grand, inseparable, unconquerable Union of States. It represents the whole, always greater than a part. It is the sign of freedom and fame from Maine to Mississippi, from California to Connecticut. Its folds, breathing celestial smiles, are the beckoning of the Nation's great heart in invitation of the rich and poor, the high and low, the prince and the pauper of any kingdom or color, from every land and lineage, to come to come where they may expand the energies of their souls; where into their hands goes the scepter of privilege, and where is created a crown of manhood to adorn their frames.

Its stars twinkle with delight that its stripes are not stripes upon the back of unpaid toil, but stripes of the morning, bright and beautiful, radiant with the glory and glow of the divine, and under its sutter, every citizen and condition of life, every form of human existence, from the meekest throb to the highest aspiration, finds protection, opportunity and encouragement, and having received, give from their inner hearts conscious, grateful homage, while their outer man rejoices in the ecstatic day-spring and noontide of joy.

I give it to you in behalf of the Republican party of Gallia county at a time when all is peace; when the struggle of life is for honest preference; when the wheels of industry endlessly circle; when labor receives its ample and willing recompense; when trade and traffic are rushing and crowding on all sides; when the providence of plenty has emptied her every horn upon our people, and the sheaves of harvest remain uncounted. Take it; take it to your township and cherish it, and remember you were it as a reward for duty, and that duties to your country never cease. Treasure it, even when its colors shall become dimmed, and its frayed tatters tell the years of its service, and on other days and other occasions bring it to the front, the rallying point in the battles of peace as it has been in the fatal death of war.

Against a blue sky may it ever float; by kindest winds be it evermore and everywhere kindled; and its glorious colors may it forever wave, the flag of every State, of every man, the banner of Gallia, the star-spangled emblem of God.

This was responded to by J. W. McCormick and Dr. Sisson. After which Hon. Stanley Matthews was introduced and spoke for nearly two hours. He was followed by Col. Allen Miller. The crowd was estimated at 1,500. The Porter Cornet Band furnished excellent music. In the evening Hon. John Sherman spoke in the Court Room. He arrived on the 7:30 train, was received at the depot and escorted by a long procession of lamps and transparencies. The court room was crowded to suffocation, and about 300 outside were unable to get admission. The latter were under the leadership of Col. L. Z. Cadot, W. P. Small and others deserve thanks for their special efforts. The famous financier was met at the depot with a large procession of torches and escorted to the Court House, where the suffocating crowd was awaiting his arrival.

The posters for the Republican meeting here Friday, were either defaced, torn down or covered up with Democratic posters a short time after they were put up. Men that would be guilty of such acts would not be backward in supporting a "solid South" in any of its demands. A party that sanctions such acts would not hesitate to usurp the powers of government, rather than not possess them.

Fried, Prized and Frosted.

The railroad has reached Chesire. Dr. Needham says he slept uneasily, Friday night, with a member of the Cabinet and an ex-United States Senator in the house. Hon. Jas. Sherman and Hon. Stanley Matthews were the notables.

The excursion to Logan was killed by the big Republican meeting, Friday. We are sorry, but will go at some future time.

Cochrane, Gallipolis, Vincent B. Wood, Perry, Charles Walters, Morgan, R. M. McGrath, Green, C. L. Keller, Greenfield.

Most sad and affecting death occurred Friday night. Wm. R. Womeldorf, son of the late Wm. Womeldorf, of Green township, had been to town attending the political meeting. In company with others he was driving rapidly along the road, his wagon being laden with heavy groceries, when the fore wheels of the vehicle struck a large rock lying in the road. Instantly the wagon overturned, throwing out the contents. A barrel of carbon oil struck the unfortunate man, the chime of the barrel striking and breaking the neck, killing him instantly. The young man was married on Sept. 16th, to Hannah Morgan and had been to house-keeping but one day when he was snatched away. He was a steady, sober young man.

The Democratic meeting at Aleshire Hall, Saturday evening, was a weak affair. The character of the speakers may be judged by this remark, made by one of them: "The Chicago convention labored and brought forth a mouse." A colored boy was offered fifty cents to join in the applause. He declined the offer. Republicans went home more in earnest than ever before. That is all that "Last Grand Rally" amounted to.

The City Board of Equalization adjourned Wednesday, sine die, after making the following further changes:—

Additions—$300 to house of Wm. Shober on Lot 100; $300 to Lot 229 of Jas. McClurg; $240 to 34 acres of C. A. Clendinning, and $200 to stable of Frances H. Henking.

LOCAL, OCT. 11. Hutchins majority will be less than seven hundred in Rocking. PURSUE. Scioto County a stand-off between Hutchins and Neal. Neal will have not less than 1500 majority in the District.

Indiana. Wednesday morning—The latest and most reliable returns indicate a small Democratic majority. Republican gains all over the State.

West Virginia. Ft. Pleasant, W. Va., Oct. 10, '80. The Election in Mason County very close, but Republicans carry it by small majority. Manager's election over Simpson is conceded.

Election Notes. A quiet election. Full vote Tuesday. The weather, Tuesday, was all that could be desired.

Seven Democrats in the Third Ward voted the clean Republican ticket. There were similar cases in the other wards.

"Clever" won't win when it is covered with a democratic skin.

The Democrats in Addison voted an idiot. Indict the Judges. Let them understand that the "Constitution and Law" must be obeyed.

Committee Riggs sends up a splendid report from Clay.

We are proud of old Huntington. Old Gallia maintains her inviolability. We are proud of her "work" Tuesday.

Dr. Needham and his committee have made a good light.

Hurray for Walnut. Better and Better. Guyan redeemed. All hail to the Harrison boys.

If Dungan and Vance could have had another week in Gallia the Republican majority would have gone to 2,000.

Republicans of Gallia, you have done nobly. Our majority will be twelve hundred.

W. C. H. NEEDHAM. Republican Committee Meeting.

There will be a meeting of the Republican Central Committee at the Committee Rooms October 23, Saturday, 10 a. m.

W. H. C. NEEDHAM, Chairman. T. W. HAMPTON, Sec'y.

Speaking. New Hope Church Rev. P. H. Williams, October 10th, Tuesday, 1 p. m.

Those illegal votes polled in the First Ward should receive the attention of the Grand Jury. If such acts are to pass unnoticed we might as well acknowledge that a Republican form of Government is played out. Frauds upon the ballot-box are the death of Free Institutions. The outrage must be stopped. The law must be enforced. It must be applied to both voters and Judges of election. The law reaches both, and if Judges will receive illegal ballots let them also suffer the penalty.

We believe in what we teach—an honest ballot. We believe in punishing to the full extent of the law all election frauds. We call upon the Grand Jury to do its duty in the premises, regardless of persons. It is time that the law be enforced, and repeaters and ballot-box stuffers be taught that the doors of the penitentiary stand wide open for them.

A dispatch received in Washington states that General Thomas Ewing, who has been ill with malarial fever at Tucson, Arizona, has sufficiently recovered to ride out, and hopes to reach Ohio by the 25th of October.

Year after year we hear of the polling of illegal votes in the First Ward. We are tired of it. Forbearance has ceased to be a virtue. We call upon the Grand Jury to do their duty in the premises. Let the investigation extend to those who "counsel and advise," as well as those who vote illegally.

The Democrats voted a poor idiot in Addison township, Tuesday—officially declared an idiot by the Probate Court of Gallia County. This is another case for the Grand Jury. Enforce the law.

The members of the Episcopal Church are requested to meet at the Church Friday evening next.

From the proceedings of the Supreme Court we take the following:— Abraham McEwing vs. Daniel C. James. Error to the District Court of Gallia County.

Melvin, C. J. Held: 1. The date annexed to items in the copy of an account pleaded as a set-off, filed with the answer, does not conclude the party as to the time when his claim accrued.

2. The statute of limitation ceases to run against a set-off from the date of the commencement of the action in which it is pleaded.

Judgment reversed and judgment for plaintiff in error.

Examination. The following is the list of the names of the successful applicants who were present at the Examination on Saturday week:

A. Blessing and Emory Boster, 18 mos. C. W. Carter, D. E. Phillips, E. E. Smith, Jefferson Booth, Wm. Morris, R. S. Campbell, Hugh Martindale, J. J. Bailey, each 12 mos.

A young man with an umbrella overtook an unprotected lady acquaintance in a rain storm, and extending his umbrella over her requested the pleasure of acting as a rain bow. "Oh!" exclaimed the young lady, taking his arm, "you wish me to be your rain-dear." Two souls with but a single umbrella, two forms that stepped as one.

M. A. COX, No. 23 Court Street.

Sept. 30, 1880.

In Memoriam. To WILLIAM JOSEPH HOLCOMB, who died Oct. 11th, and others, during the yellow fever epidemic in 1878.

"'Twas just two years ago the eleventh, Loved ones remember well; How Willie, dear, was called away, And placed beneath the silent clay.

Dearest Willie though we miss thee, And thy loss we deeply feel; Still we hope at last to meet thee, With Ella who doth all things well.

There were others, prior to his death, And more who left the stage; Who like his mother, to their graves will bring, The earliest offerings of the Spring.

REST IN PEACE. Though the chairs at the table be vacant, When the evenings home pleasures are high, And the lights in the homesteads are burning, And the stars in the calm azure sky; All before the good nights are repeated, And have lain themselves down to their sleep, Will whisper a prayer to the Savior, To meet the loved ones who are at rest.
