Any person wishing mention made of visiting friends, will please send a note, no later than Monday.

Don't forget the lecture of Rev. A. M. Collins, at City Hall next Sunday afternoon.

You can get fishing without fear of "getting a bite" in the rear, from the millions of the law.

If you know of anything that is likely to interest the public please make it your business to see that we get it.

The Noble Light Guard are getting new pants for their dress uniform, of dark blue. The old ones were so fatigued duty.

The managers of the Hillsboro Fair Association have reduced the price of season tickets for driving on the race track to $5 instead of $10.

We are indebted to Capt. R. R. Waddell, for a premium list of the State Fair, which commences on the 9th of September and continues five days.

The editors of the News acknowledge the receipt of an invitation to the Reunion of the Alumni Association of the Union Schools, on Friday evening next.

Some Home Correspondents are unavoidably laid over. Correspondents will please try to send in their favors not later than Monday.

The Annual Reunion of the Graduates of the Hillsboro Union Schools will be held at the School building next Friday evening.

"Slim Jim" of New Lexington, who was in the running race at the Fair Ground a few weeks ago, has been put in the hands of a horseman at Salina for training.

Judge Jas. H. Thompson and Ulic Sloane, Esq., are posted to speak at a Murphy Anniversary Meeting near Centerville, Clinton county, on Sunday, June 30th.

Mr. D. Koch is putting a new front in his saloon on South High street, which will be similar to the one in the National Bank. It will be a handsome improvement.

The young ladies of the Institute left for their various homes on Friday and Saturday, leaving a large number of young gentlemen in unappealing misery at their departure.

Mr. J. C. Sanderson informs us that three or four trout in the report that one of his cows was bitten by the mad dog last week. He says it didn't even pass through his place.

Mr. Charles Woodell, of Russell Station, was visited by a surprise party from New Vienna, on the 8th inst. the occasion being his 17th birthday. A pleasant time, and a good number of presents was the result.

Capt. Barrett, of Rainboro, passed through town Tuesday morning, on his way to a meeting of the Directors of the C. & M. Railway at Sandusky. He was accompanied by Col. Noble.

Spees & Barrer are out in their hands with a new "ad." Call and see their handsome new store. They have a mammoth sign painted on the pavement, which cannot fail to attract attention.

The examinations of the Union Schools commenced Monday, and are now in progress. They will close Thursday afternoon. They are public and are held in the School building. Parents should make it convenient to attend.

The Mayor has issued a proclamation requiring all dogs running at large to be muzzled, and instructing the officers to shoot all dogs that are on the streets, unmuzzled. If you care anything for your dog, lock him up or buy him a muzzle.

We heard some talk last week of the laborers on the Corporation striking for higher wages, but think there is no foundation for the report. The laboring men of Hillsboro are too intelligent to engage in anything of the kind.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Hoskins, of Berryville, were surprised on the 9th inst. by a party of relatives and friends from New Vienna, the occasion being Mr. Hoskins' 57th birthday. They were presented with quite a number of handsome gifts.

On Wednesday afternoon of last week, Mrs. C. F. Irons, living near New Vienna, was drowned by falling into East Fork, while crossing the creek on a foot log. Her body was found a few hours after. The funeral services were held at her residence on Friday.

The Democratic County Convention held last Saturday, appointed the following delegates to the State Convention at Columbus, on the 26th inst.: Samuel Hedgesfield, O. S. Price, E. A. Mosier, John L. Hughes, Wm. Gaskin, Harvey Townsend, John Balmonte, Alternates: Alex. Sanderson, Calvin Stroup, C. B. Edwards, J. F. Fern, John Stewart, Ben. Hudson and Cyrus Noble.

Henry Kelly and John Fish, two laborers employed on the narrow gauge, came into town on Sunday and got drunk. They took lodgings at the station house Sunday night, and were brought before the Mayor Monday morning. His Honor fined them each $2 and costs, amounting to $4.87, but as they could no pay and refused to work it out on the Corporation, they were sent to jail there to remain until their fine and costs are paid.

John Parker, the colored boy who was mentioned in our last issue, a warrant having been obtained for his arrest, changing him with stealing strawberries from Catharine's yard, and slandering Mr. Schriener's harper, was brought up in the Mayor's Court last Thursday morning. He was found guilty, and sentenced to two days in jail, but the audience was afterwards commuted to a fine of $2 and costs, amounting to $7, all of which will be worked out at the work. It is a good idea to put parties at work, when they cannot pay their debts, but better than to put them in jail.

Inspector and General Revising Officer, Hillsboro, O., June 18, 1878. After publishing the card the Rec asks the following questions: Did you see the body of the deceased? It is with extreme pleasure we give place to the above explanatory card from Col. Noble. When the body was examined, your boys were inspected, our boys were anxiously awaiting him, and naturally felt chagrined at his non-appearance. We doubt not that your boys will be a most amiable and efficient officer, with the Col. will find in Company H, a prompt and willing hand, ready in every emergency.

Mr. Jos. W. Johnson, whose death was mentioned last week in our Lesburg correspondence, was one of the oldest citizens of our county, his parents having settled near Russell Station in 1807, when he was about four years old. He lived in New Vienna at the time of his death, but formerly lived at Lesburg, and spent ten years in blacksmithing near this place. He was about 75 years old, and was highly respected by all who knew him.

The Young Ladies' Society of the Presbyterian church, are busily engaged in making preparations for an "Oriental Tea Party," to be given at City Hall, on Thursday evening of next week, for the benefit of the church. Hon. Mills Gardner has our thanks for a copy of his speech, on "The Presidential Title," delivered in the House of Representatives on the 20th of May.

The Local Editor of the News will go to Chillicothe on Thursday to report the Bowler execution. Full report in our next issue.

Mr. Hugh N. Patton, of this township, this week announces his name for Recorder. He is well qualified, and is popular wherever he is known.

Old Mr. Boeglin, who was stricken with paralysis last week, died on Thursday, and was buried from the Catholic church, of which he was a member, on Friday morning. He was sick but about three days.

It is astonishing to see the number of agricultural implements that our dealers are sending out. The past year they have sent out under load, departing for all parts of the county.

Dr. T. R. Smith, of Cornington, Ky., gave an elegant lecture last evening. He is introducing his "Agricultural Land" in this part of the county, and with great success, as will be seen by our Local Notice column.

Policeman Ely left the Temperance meeting Sunday afternoon, and it was addressed by C. H. Collins Esq., and Dr. Baker, of Good Hope, Fayette county. The attendance was fair, and the meeting a good one.

A CROOKED TRANSACTION. BOLD ATTEMPT TO SWINDLE A FARMER. Beware of Traveling Agents.

About a month ago, Mr. Philip Grabill, a respectable farmer living near Marshall, was called on by a man calling himself A. J. Hought, who represented himself as a traveling agent for a Patent Corn Sheller, manufactured in New York or Pennsylvania.

Mr. Grabill disposed of these terms, and Hought produced a blank printed order which Mr. Grabill filled out, for six machines, and signed the order. Hought then departed, promising to ship the machines to Mr. Grabill.

A little after 10 o'clock a grand march was held in Hillsboro, the pupils of the school marched into the Hall, taking seats in front, with the exception of the graduates and Miss Grandgirard, the Principal, who sat on the stage.

The exercises of the evening were opened by a chorus, which was well sung, after which a prayer was offered by Rev. Dr. Pratt, of Portsmouth, and Miss Hope Thomas played a piece of music on the piano.
