

ROYAL BAKING POWDER Absolutely Pure.

This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness.

NEW LEXINGTON.

July 29th, 1889.

Miss Rosa Wise, of Washington C. H., is the guest of Miss Hattie Duff this week.

Miss May Wright, who is attending school in Hillsboro, spent last Sunday with her parents here.

Joe Kearns and wife, of Hillsboro, were visiting Silas Horseman and family last Sunday.

The German Medicine Co. have been represented here for the past week by a troop giving free shows every night.

One night last week after the show a colored man named Albert Peyton from near Carytown, filled to the brim with bug juice, became to noisy.

Prof. Barrett and family are visiting Capt. Barrett and family at Lancaster this week.

Misses Ella and Bertie Wise, of Washington C. H., were the guest of J. J. Duff and family last Saturday.

The W. F. M. S. will hold an all day meeting next Thursday, August 1st, at the home of Mrs. Elwood Brabson.

Rev. King, of Londonderry, preached in the M. E. Church last Saturday night, and on Sunday night in the same place he delivered a lecture, subject, "social purity."

Quarterly meeting at the M. E. Church here next Saturday and Sunday, August 3d and 4th.

Miss Jennie Terrell left this week for St. Joseph, Mo., where she intends staying for some time.

Miss Elsie McPherson, who has been at Norwood for sometime, returned home last week.

Messrs. Frank and Robert Tilton gave a very pleasant social to a number of their young friends last Wednesday night.

Miss Sallie Cohn is the guest of friends in Lancaster this week.

LYNCHBURG.

July 29th, 1889.

G. Bayless returned from Minneapolis, Minn., on Saturday night, where he had gone on business.

Mr. Geo. Bering and wife and Mrs. Geo. Pfister returned last Friday from a visit to friends near Marion, Ind.

Mrs. J. A. Bering and the Misses Ella and Lou West are visiting their sister, Mrs. Johnson, at Kokomo, Ind.

Miss Vada Stautner died very suddenly last Friday night about eleven o'clock of heart disease, age 18 years.

Miss Mary Wallace has rented the building formerly occupied by Dr. Fulton as an office, and will shortly move her stock of millinery goods into it.

Jacob Holladay has secured a position as salesman in Bayless' store.

Harry Murphy left last week to look for a position in the Far West.

J. M. Holladay's little boy came very near being gored to death one day last week by a vicious cow.

An interesting game of base ball between the Marathon and Lynchburg clubs was played here last Saturday.

Dr. S. J. Spees, of Hillsboro, was on our streets on Monday.

J. M. Hummel, editor of the Clinton County Democrat, Sundayed here.

LENSBURG.

July 29th, 1889.

Rev. J. W. Gaddis is the guest of friends in New Carlisle.

Miss Lizzie Templin and Lizzie Sanders, of Springfield, are the guests of Mr. David Sanders.

Miss Mae Johnson, who has been quite sick, is slowly improving.

Quite a number attended the Blair trial here Saturday.

Mr. Odbert Allison, of New Vienna, was in town Wednesday.

Mrs. Lee Sanders spent Friday in Hillsboro.

C. P. Keen was in Hillsboro Friday on business.

Mrs. Ada McNeil, of Chillicothe, is the guest of her mother.

Mrs. T. B. Evans is visiting her sister, Mrs. Shep Dunlap, at Columbus.

Miss Kittie Oldaker, of Russell's, is the guest of friends here.

Mrs. A. G. Sharp leaves to-day for her home in Burlingame, Kas.

Mrs. Ray Johnson, of Cincinnati, is the guest of her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Meyers, of Greenfield, spent Sunday with F. L. King.

Quite a number from the surrounding villages attended quaker quarterly here Sunday.

Mr. Adam Griffith and wife, of Washington, C. H. are the guests of Mr. T. A. Pavey.

On account of the inclemency of the weather Sunday evening the Sons of Temperance postponed their meeting until next Sunday night.

Messrs. Mox Gugenheimer, Dwight, Miller and Shoemaker, of Greenfield, were in attendance at quaker quarterly.

Miss Villa Holmes, of Greenfield, is the guest of Miss Emma Hilliard.

Mrs. R. M. Griffith and daughter, Pearl, are visiting Mrs. James Patton, at Columbus.

OLIVE CHAPEL.

July 29th, 1889.

Harvesting hay and oats is the order of the day.

There will not be a half crop of corn in this vicinity this year.

Meadows are better than was expected.

Mr. Jacob Overstake was the guest of Simp. Edgington Sunday.

Mr. Ira Mitchell and wife, Mrs. Betsey Mitchell, Mrs. Sarah Ennis, Isaiah Roberts and wife and Christian Roberts were the guests of Alfred Roberts Sunday.

Mr. William Naylor and family, of New Vienna, are visiting at Israel Glascock's this week.

Nelson and Della Glascock gave a grand ice cream supper last Thursday night.

James Martin, wife and son, of Brown county, were the guests of William Martin Sunday.

Mr. Nelson Roberts and wife attended the funeral of Mr. Joseph Ferguson, at Rainsboro, last week.

Mr. Ira Masters and wife, of Fincastle, spent Sunday in this vicinity.

Mrs. Polly Vance, of Sonner's Chapel, was the guest of her daughter, Rachel Roberts, last week.

A COMPLETE SURPRISE.

July 23d, about 11 a. m., the home of Rev. J. W. Cummings was invaded by about fifty persons.

Mrs. Cummings and daughter, Rosa, managed the affair so that it was a complete surprise to Rev. C. An appropriate prayer was offered by Rev. J. W. Willis. Miss Leota Winkle presided at the organ and rendered good music for those present.

The time to pay your taxes is now. This is the last week without penalty.

Take Hood's Sarsaparilla 100 Doses One Dollar

The Chief Reason for the great success of Hood's Sarsaparilla is found in the article itself. It is merit that wins, and the fact that Hood's Sarsaparilla actually accomplishes what is claimed for it, is what has given to this medicine a popularity and sale greater than that of any other sarsaparilla or blood purifier.

Hood's Sarsaparilla cures Scrofula, Salt Rheum and all Humors, Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Biliousness, overcomes That Tired Feeling, creates an Appetite, strengthens the Nerves, builds up the Whole System.

SINKING SPRING.

July 29th, 1889.

Mr. Wash Butler died at his home three miles from this village last Wednesday evening at nine o'clock, and was buried at the Beavers grave yard near Rainsboro. He was an old and well known citizen in this community and county.

Mr. Dawson Washburn and Miss Sallie Tenor were quietly married at West Union one day last week, taking their friends by surprise.

We would correct the mistake of the printer last week. It was Miss Nannie E. Wickerham who was sick in New York City, instead of Nannie McKeehan.

Rev. Winget, wife and sister, Mrs. Marsh, spent last Friday with Rev. E. L. Knox and family, taking Miss Anna, who has been making a short but pleasant visit, home with them.

The health of Squire McKeehan is improved. Mr. Huggins is no better. Mrs. Fannie Hite is failing.

Mrs. Mary Bragg went to Youngsville to visit her brother, John, the past week. She has been in close attendance upon her sick mother for some time.

"Our folks" here have been invited to attend a festival at Cynthiana next Saturday evening.

There will be a basket meeting at Pisgah next Sunday conducted by Rev. Knox.

Rev. Quinter Calvert spent Sunday night in the village.

WINKLE.

July 29th, 1889.

Elder Crawford addressed the congregation at Union Sunday, on the subject of the Christian's strength.

Most of the farmers of this section are through harvesting with the exception of threshing, and that will begin in a few days.

E. G. Fender was the only representative at the Allensburg celebration Saturday, and reports a good time.

There was a surprise given at the residence of John Kibler's Saturday evening in honor of his daughter, Rosa. We are unable to give in full the particulars.

A great deal of the corn in this vicinity looks very sickly.

We would say to our neighbors who complain of chicken thieves that we, too, have a few beings who will borrow poultry occasionally.

George Roush, sen., and family, of near Willettsville, were the guests of Amos Hawk and wife Sunday.

Let everyone remember the date of the celebration (August 10th) near this place at Sonner's Chapel. Come one, come all.

W. B. Ruble called on friends near Mowrystown Saturday evening.

Blackberries are not so plentiful as last year, but everyone is getting his share and then some.

So don't rush and there will be plenty for all.

Let everyone attend the fair and make it a success.

Don't forget the celebration at Sonner's Chapel August 10th.

MARSHALL.

July 29th, 1889.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Montgomery spent Sunday at Mr. Wm. Spruce's.

Mr. Eli Templin and wife are visiting their daughter, Mrs. Storer, in Adams county.

Misses Ella and Emily Templin spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives on Fall Creek.

Dr. Patton, accompanied by Miss Verna Dick, has gone to Wilmington to visit his daughter.

There will be an ice cream supper and a magic lantern entertainment at the residence of Chas. Ella next Friday night. Everybody is invited to come. Bring your friends and pocket-books. The proceeds will be for the benefit of the Presbyterian Church.

Marshall will be pretty well represented at the Greenfield fair.

DODSONVILLE.

July 29th, 1889.

Corn looking well.

Blackberries selling at 10 cents per gallon.

James Parker and family, of Tipton, Ind., are visiting Mrs. Laura Parker.

Some one asked us why Dodsonville didn't have a Sunday school celebration. We don't know. Ask the Sunday school superintendents.

Miss Ella Ritt and Wm. Reyhamer, of Clermont county, were married at Lynchburg Sunday by Rev. Davis. May joy and happiness be theirs through life is our best wish.

The time to pay your taxes is now. This is the last week without penalty.

PRICETOWN.

July 29th, 1889.

Eq. John Cox, of Washington C. H., was in our village last Saturday in quest of stock.

Chas. Barr's three little folks are having the measles.

Quite a storm of wind and rain passed through here last Friday evening. Three chimneys were untopped for Wm. Sanderson.

Plinn Holden's have moved into the property belonging to Mrs. Drake.

Rev. Singer discoursed at this point last Sunday morning, and at Harwood Sunday afternoon.

The Bridge Company, of our town, has completed the stone work on the fill at the Roberts bridge, and the wood work is now in course of construction.

There will be a grand celebration at Harwood on Saturday, August 10th. Everybody come and have a good time.

Our Sunday school and band, and also a good many of our populace attended the celebration at Allensburg. All report a good time with the exception of the deficiency of water on the ground. Why this important item was not attended to by the managers we are at a loss to know.

The young folks enjoyed cake and ice cream last Sunday evening at the residence of Mr. Cy Cochran.

J. M. Himes has begun work in his new shop, 1/2 mile east of Jake Riding's old stand.

HARRISBURG.

July 30th, 1889.

A party from this place went to the Rocky Fork Caves last Saturday.

Mrs. F. M. Harris and a lady friend, of Washington C. H., are the guests of Miss Rebecca Parks.

Farmers are all done harvesting. Wheat above the average.

Sanders Bros. sold to M. Rizer last week seventy-eight pounds each.

H. O. McConaughy and Miss Minnie Miller attended the Tannahill-Roads wedding last week at Hillsboro.

Miss Mary Gailey called on friends at this place last Friday.

A small portion of White Cap law in broken doses, we think, would be beneficial in this community.

LITTLETON.

July 29th, 1889.

Mrs. Tillie Pulliam is on the sick list. Jerry Shaffer spent Sunday at South Liberty.

Lida Sherry is visiting friends in Cincinnati.

Julia Walsh, of Paris, Ky., is visiting relatives and friends at this place.

Josephine Shaffer spent Sunday with Eliza Sherry.

John Tedrick spent Saturday with Kate Sherry.

Lewis Orebaugh and family of Mt. Zion, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Orebaugh.

TAYLORSVILLE.

July 29th, 1889.

Mrs. Clara Windon, Miss Emma Borden and a little child of Wm. Boyd's have been very poorly, but under the skillful treatment of Dr. Cox, they are speedily recovering.

Mr. A. P. Purdy is visiting his sister, Mrs. Dr. Laycock, at Decatur, O.

Aunt Eliza Bayless, of the Hill City, is visiting relatives in this community.

Miss Clara Ambrose, of Hillsboro, is visiting relatives in this community.

The Taylorsville Sunday school will attend the celebration at Sonner's Chapel.

HE MARCHED WITH SHEEMAN TO THE SEA!

Trudged all the way on foot, over mountain and through morass, carrying knapsack and gun, slept on brush heaps to keep out of the mud, caught cold, from the effects of which he thought he would never recover.

DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY

Cures the worst cases, no matter of how long standing. 50 cents by druggists.

NEW MARKET.

July 21st, 1889.

Jim Grimes and mother, of Mt. Holly, are visiting friends in this place.

Miss Mamie Vance is visiting friends near Danville.

Newton Miller, who has been working near Wilmington since last Spring, returned home Saturday.

Myra Ogden and Marie Harshberger, who are working in Hillsboro, spent Sunday with their parents.

Miss Amy Conn, of Washington C. H., is visiting near this place.

Miss Ollie Vance is visiting her parents.

Thomas Borden and wife, of Sardinia, spent Sunday with A. D. McConaughy.

Charlie D. Harris was taken into the band last Tuesday night. He takes the place of F. L. McReynold, whom we mentioned last week as going to Green county soon.

Ross C. Vance spent last Wednesday and Thursday in Washington C. H.

A meeting of the school board was called last Saturday for the purpose of appointing a committee to meet the commissioners selected by the Probate Court, to meet in August and settle the question in controversy between this and Whiteoak townships, concerning the location of a certain school house. The board failed to meet and a committee was not appointed.

Miss Martha Johnson spent last week with Miss Cora Emery.

Agnes Nickerson is the guest of Miss Edith Letherman.

Mr. Charlie Wilkin and family, Henry Nesbit and family and Arvil Pavey in company with Miss Donna Donahoo took in the sights at the Serpent Mound Sunday.

Alvin Van Winkle is at home at present.

Dr. Van Winkle, of Blanchester, spent the first of the week with his parents.

Mrs. Rosa Hibler, sister of Aunt Charlotte Conch of this place, died at the residence of Dave McConaughy Sunday, July 28th, 1889.

Mrs. Lillian C. Bethel, County Superintendent of the W. C. T. U., delivered a temperance lecture at the Presbyterian Church last Thursday night. She pictured to her hearers the ruin and curse that liquor and saloons had caused, and how it was left to the women to rid our country of so great an evil.

She next proceeded to organize a Union in this place. The following officers were selected: Mrs. Dr. Letherman, president; Miss Nora Vance and Mrs. Davis McConaughy, vice-presidents; Arabelle Hunter, Librarian; Joanna Morrow, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Anna Wilkin, Treasurer. Other officers were selected, but we failed to learn who they were. The next meeting will be in the afternoon of August 14th, 1889.

MOWRYTOWN.

July 29th, 1889.

The privileges for the celebration to be held August 17th, were sold Saturday to E. and J. Murphy, of Mt. Orab, for $97. All indications point to the largest crowd we have ever had.

The band aided at the I. O. O. F. celebration at Sardinia Saturday. All were loud in praise of the good time enjoyed, and of the treatment shown them by the order. They also enjoyed their trip home over the O. & N. W.

The Evergreen Sunday school intends attending the Sunday school celebrations, both at South Fincastle and Sonner's Chapel. Rev. Willis is leading them in singing.

Rev. J. W. Cummings occupied the pulpit at the U. B. Church Sunday morning. He preached an interesting sermon in his usual style. Come again.

Now it is, "Any mail Doctor" referring to Dr. Guertin, who has been appointed to that office here.

Prof. Ed. Huggins was on our streets the past week.

RUSSELL'S.

July 30th, 1889.

Mr. Will Wilson and family, of Springfield, who have been visiting relatives here, returned home last week.

Miss Elsie Kruse, of Cincinnati, is visiting at Mr. Eugene Jontes.

Mrs. C. L. Bennett and daughter Nellie, left here Monday for Ripley, O., to visit relatives.

The Sunday school of this place attended the celebration at Allensburg last Saturday.

Ethel R. daughter of Sam and Earl Batson, died Tuesday, July 23d, of Cholera infantum. Aged 5 weeks and 4 days. The little body was laid to rest in the Strange grave-yard.

Their Business Booming.

Probably no one thing has caused such a general revival of trade at Seybert & Co.'s drug store as their giving away to their customers of so many free trial bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Their trade is simply enormous in this very valuable article from the fact that it always cures and never disappoints. Coughs, colds, asthma, bronchitis, croup, and all throat and lung diseases quickly cured. You can test it before buying by getting a trial bottle free, large size $1. Every bottle warranted. Seybert & Co.

RAINSBORO.

July 30th, 1889.

Miss Flora Spargur attended the funeral of her grand father, Mr. Butler, in Brushcreek townships last Friday.

William Ferguson was sworn in as deputy post master yesterday to serve in the temporary absence of his father. M. B. Park attended the Prohibition Convention at Zanesville last week.

Miss Jessie Barrett of Lancaster is visiting friends in this vicinity.

William Bryant, of Decatur, Alabama, was the guest of Dr. Garrett last Thursday night.

James W. Roads has been suffering from a serious attack of cholera morbus but is on the road to recovery now.

Dr. Glenn has been enjoying a visit from his father whose home is in Hillsboro.

Mrs. William Miller was quite sick last week but is able to be about again.

Aunt Jane Davis was at church last Sabbath after months of confinement with disease, her presence at church was a pleasure to her and very gratifying to her many friends.

John Mackery, of Hillsboro and sisters Miss Alice Mackery and Mrs. John Hulitt, of this place, attended the marriage of their niece Miss Jessie Thomas, of South Salem, last Wednesday.

Charley Keeler has been appointed road supervisor in the place of Frank Hogsett who contemplates moving to Hillsboro this week.

A mite social will be held at J. G. Redkey's on Tuesday evening next, at which ice cream will be served. All are cordially invited.

Johnny George and wife visited friends at Boston the first of this week.

Captain Chaney and wife, of Tile Junction, were guests of William Epperson and wife Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Abraham Smith moved to town to-day, and now occupies her new residence on East Main street.

Some lady left a small hand satchel in the church at the W. C. T. U. meeting two weeks ago. It is in the hands of the sexton, J. S. Williamson, awaiting a call from the owner.

Miss Alice Taggart visited her brother and family at Jeffersonville last week.

Miss Susie Foraker, daughter of George Foraker, has been quite sick with stomach trouble for several days past.

Rev. and Mrs. Winget and Mrs. A. E. Marsh visited Rev. Knox and family at Sinking Spring last Friday.

The contract for the stone work of the bridge across Rocky Fork, near James W. George's, has been given to a Mr. Ward, of Adams county.

BELFAST.

July 29th, 1889.

Mr. Job Haigh sold a lot of big cattle averaging 1800 pounds to Washington stock buyers last week.

E. W. Tanahill and wife had a fine young son come to see them last Friday.

In our last week's items we spoke of Rev. G. P. Bethel preaching August 4th. We should have said July 28th. We should have said the cause of his quitting preaching was on account of falling strength, but he has decided to stay with us until conference unless he can get somebody to take his place.

Rev. G. P. Bethel is visiting friends in Kentucky.

It is announced that Rev. Abel Jones will preach in the M. E. Church here Sunday, August 11th, at 11 o'clock.

Mr. John Tanahill, of this place, and Miss Sallie Roads, of near Folsom, were married in Hillsboro Thursday, July 25th, by Elder Ranyon. After which the young couple in company with Messrs. Matt Gary and Howard Blackburn and Misses Tilla and Anna Tanahill took the evening train for Cincinnati, returning Saturday for their reception at his father's here Sunday.