International Lesson for January 14, 1894. Adam's Sin and God's Grace—Gen. 3:1-13. (Specially Arranged from Peloubet's Notes.)

LESSON NOTES. How Old is the Human Race?—The exact date is unknown. No one now would attempt to fix the time "with an cheerful confidence as the great chronologist determined by his system that the world was created on a certain day in September, at six o'clock in the afternoon."

The Garden of Eden, Man's First Home.—(1) The garden of Eden was but a small portion of the region called Eden. The garden or paradise is a place fenced round; hence a park, a pleasure-ground with trees, streams, flowers and fruits.

The Condition of Man in Paradise.—Two opposite errors are frequently held in regard to the Bible account of the first man. One, that he was a typical savage, a cave-dweller, lower than the inhabitants of darkest Africa.

The Tree of Life.—The tree of life in the midst of the garden was probably a tree which, by Divine endowment with medicinal qualities, would keep their bodies from decaying with age, and would heal any accidental injuries.

Man perished in Eden while it had a tree of life in it. So men perish now within sight of the Redeemer's cross, because they will not believe and obey.

No place or character of employment can free us from the assaults of temptation. The innocent Adam was assailed in Paradise, and the holy Jesus in the wilderness.

The German Kaiser. Kaiser William has invented a new dance called the gavotte lancers, which is to take the place of the quadrille de la cour. It is a mixture of the quadrille, the country dance, and the lancers. Before deciding upon it the emperor had it performed by some professionals from the theaters.

FIFTY-THIRD CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—SENATE.—Immediately after the reading of the journal Wednesday Senator Blackburn (Ky.) presented the credentials of Senator Ezra Huntley of Virginia and the oath of office was administered to the new senator. Senator Frye (Me.) presented a resolution declaring that in the opinion of the Senate the investigation of the committee on foreign relations of our relations with Hawaii, there should be no interference on the part of the United States in that country.

HOUSE.—Mr. McCree (Ky.), chairman of the foreign affairs committee, offered a resolution setting apart next Friday and Saturday for the consideration of the Hawaiian report. Yesterday a vote was demanded on the question of consideration, reported by Mr. Millin. A rising vote resulted. Yeas 57, nays 123.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—SENATE.—The session of the Senate Thursday was significant in two respects. Senator Hoar, of the republican side, introduced a resolution calling on the secretary of the treasury for his authority for the payment of the Hawaiian report.

HOUSE.—The democrats Thursday suffered a repetition of their experience of Wednesday. Unable to produce a quorum, they adjourned until Friday morning. The high-water mark Thursday was 180 democrats, twelve more than Wednesday, but it was claimed by the republican majority.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—SENATE.—Not in session. HOUSE.—Again Friday was a day lost because of the inability to secure a quorum. On Wednesday telegrams were sent out to the absent members of the committee on rules, desiring to report from that committee a rule assigning time for the tariff bill.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—SENATE.—Not in session. HOUSE.—On the basis of the cable from Auckland, Mr. Hill introduced the following resolution in the house Saturday morning: "Resolved, That the president be requested to communicate to the house of representatives, all information received since the message of December 18, 1893, or not transmitted herewith and now in his possession touching recent reported events in the Hawaiian islands; any attempt to overturn the republican government thereof, and erect a monarchy in its stead, and especially whether any representative officer, vessel or armed forces of the United States took part in such attempts to subvert a friendly government, and, if so, by whose orders they acted."

Alleged Swindle of Ten Millions of United Pacific Money. NEW YORK, Jan. 8.—It is stated on good authority that the unexpected departure of Henry Villard for abroad, and the subsequent announcement that he did not intend to return to this country, resulted from his knowledge of the fact that civil proceedings which might thereafter develop into a criminal direction were about to be instituted against him and others in the United States courts.

There are those who know that say that Villard's connection with the Northern Pacific has netted him not less than $10,000,000 at the expense of the stock and bondholders, and that, when the story comes to be told in its entirety, it will eclipse in audacity the greatest piece of jugglery in the history of any American road. Report has it that criminal proceedings against several of those implicated in the unloading upon the Northern Pacific of railroads constructed simply for unloading purposes may be taken before the present civil proceedings have reached a decision.

POWDER EXPLOSION. Four Men Killed at Rifton, N. Y., and Several Badly Wounded. Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Jan. 8.—The Lavin & Rand powder mill at Rifton, Ulster county, twelve miles from this city, blew up at 7 o'clock Saturday morning. Four men were killed and several badly wounded. The dead are Gardner, Friedenburgh, Solomon, Friedenburgh, Joseph Saunders, and Kipp.

The explosion occurred in the glaze department, where the powder is dried after it has gone through the other processes of manufacture. The explosion shook the nearby country, and in the village of Rosedale, two miles away, many panes of glass were shattered.

Capt. Leathers' Son-in-Law Suicides. NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 8.—Mr. George Winchester suicided dramatically Saturday morning in front of the residence of Capt. T. P. Leathers, the famous steamboatman and captain of the Natchez, one of the boats in the historic race to St. Louis many years ago. Mr. Winchester is a son-in-law of Capt. Leathers, having married Miss Courtney Leathers, who stood high in social circles and who was once queen of the carnival. At an early hour Saturday Winchester walked up to the entrance of Capt. Leathers' residence on Carondelet street and, putting a pistol to his head, blew his brains out.
