OFFICE IN POST-OFFICE BUILDING

FEBRUARY 13, 1896

San Free is in New York.

Don't fail to hear the Royal Bell Ringers.

Royal Bell Ringers, Saturday, February 22nd.

This Wednesday, is the birthday of Abraham Lincoln.

The Bargain Counter at Feibel Bros. for great bargains.

Mrs. Dr. T. H. Pearne is visiting friends in Dayton.

Feibel Bros. have reduced all their Men's $5 shoes to $3.98.

Miss Mabel Moore is in Franklin visiting her sister, Mrs. Thomas.

Tickets on sale for the Royal Bell Ringers, Saturday, February 15.

Hon. Ulric Sloan and wife are at French Lick Springs, in Indiana.

Men's suits, worth $8 and $9, for $4.98 on bargain counter at Feibel Bros.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Srofe rejoice in the advent of a fine new daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Ohas. Ingebrand are visiting friends in New York City.

Mrs. Pugsley, of Hillsboro, is visiting her sister, Mrs. C. M. Bosworth.—Washington Democrat.

Will O'Connell has reported at New York city for service on board the Merchant Marine.

Misses Emma and Minnie Lemon have been visiting friends in Cincinnati, during the past week.

We acknowledge the receipt of a file of Florida papers, from Albert McAmas, of Jacksonville. Thanks.

Rev. Prof. Enyart will occupy the pulpit for Rev. J. M. Montgomery, at Marshall, next Sunday, the 16th.

Carlton Spohn, of Hillsboro, is visiting his father-in-law, John Denning, near Stone Chapel.—West Union Defender.

Services every Friday evening, in the Lecture Room of St. Mary's P. E. Church, at 7 o'clock. Rev. D. C. Wright.

Rev. J. W. Montgomery will preach and hold communion service, at Belfast, on Sunday, the 16th, at 10:30 a. m., sun-time.

Common Pleas Court opened Monday. Little has been done yet beyond the assignment of cases. The prospect for business is light.

"Hillsboro's all right!" Let that be the word carried home to every town in the State by the fair daughters and the gallant sons of heroic sires.

The Y. P. S. C. E., of Marshall Presbyterian Church will observe Endeavor day on Sunday afternoon, the 16th at 3 o'clock. The public is cordially invited.

Mrs. A. D. Richards, of DeWitt, Mo., wife of Capt. A. D. Richards, one of Missouri's foremost educators, is in our city, a guest of her sister, Mrs. A. F. Richards.

The young people of the Presbyterian Church of New Petersburg, will meet Sunday, February 16, at 2:30 o'clock, to organize a Christian Endeavor Society. By Order of Committee.

It is said a "bad beginning makes a good ending." The spring course of Monday morning lectures was opened this week with a talk on "The Art Preservative," by ye editor of the NEWS-HERALD.

Frank Collins, Esq., is on a business trip to Missouri, Arkansas and Texas. His uncle, Capt. R. A. Collins, who lives at Piedmont, Wayne county, Mo., on the Iron Mountain Road, will receive a call from him.

The people of Hillsboro want the B. & O. S. W. to put a chair car on between that place and Cincinnati. Since they got an opera house they are too proud to ride in ordinary coaches.—Chillicothe Leader-Gazette.

If you should peep in at the "Institute Building," and see the discomforts and distortions called "school rooms," you'd have nightmare for a week, and not a day would go by without the prayer, "God speed the new school house!"

Chaplain Lozier delivered his famous lecture, "Your Mother's Apron String," at the college, Saturday evening. It was decidedly the most incident night of the year, yet he had a fair audience, and one that was delighted with his magnificent production.

The death of Mrs. Wm. Maroney, which occurred last Wednesday, will be sad news to her many warm friends. For a month or two she had been suffering from a complication of troubles, the chief of which was an ailment of the heart. Almost from the first, her case was hopeless. Death at last relieved her of her suffering. She leaves a husband and five children, one a small babe. The funeral took place from St. Mary's Catholic Church, Friday.

Mrs. Nathan Plaut and daughter, of Avondale, and Miss Rosetta Feibel, visited Mrs. N. P. Feibel, over Sunday, returning to the city, Monday.

Mrs. Baxter Cunningham left Monday for Portsmouth, where she will join her husband and where they will make their home. Her sister, Miss Clara Ambrose, accompanied her, and will make a short visit.

Little Miss Minnich, a charming young lady, came Thursday morning to make his permanent abode with Prof. and Mrs. H. O. Minnich. You may notice a peculiarly happy twinkle in the Superintendent's eye. Shake hands with him in congratulation.

Col. W. E. Bundy, ex-Commander in Chief, of the Sons of Veterans, will be present at the Encampment and deliver the response to address of welcome at Camp Fire. While Col. Bundy and wife are in the city they will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Conard.

Dr. E. H. E. Jameson, of Detroit, Mich., Sec'y of the B. H. M. S., will preach in the Baptist Church next Sunday morning. The Doctor is a man of ability, and worth hearing. He is an ex-speaker of the Legislature, and an all round good man. Go and hear him.

Ralph Wilson, a Portsmouth man, who organized a band of Ohio filibusters and is now assisting the Cuban insurgents, is credited with having captured two towns and many prisoners from the Spaniards. Ohio makes herself felt wherever her representatives are to be found.—New Era.

Portsmouth hopes to secure the location of the T. G. Plant shoe factory, of Lynn, Mass., within her borders. This firm employs 1,200 to 1,500 people, and owing to the unsettled condition of labor at Lynn desires to change its location. It asks no bonus or other inducement, for its location.

J. W. Jones, Supt. of the institution for the Education of the Deaf and Dumb, desires attention called to the fact that Highland county has no inmates in that institution. If there are any who wish to avail themselves of its great benefits, who will send their names to me, information of importance will be given them. H. H. REDKEY.

The new officials of Lodge 32, National Fraternal Union, are: Pres., W. W. Glenn; Financial Acct'nt, W. Harman; V. P. and Adjutant, E. D. Davis; Chronicler, J. Stevenson; Prelate, J. V. Hatcher; Herald, C. Harsha; Sentinel, W. Schermer; Picket, E. Young; Trustees, J. Woodrow, J. Mackerly; Delegate to annual session, John Mackerly; Alternate, Josiah Stevenson.

The following telegram dated at Washington was received Monday, by the Farmers' and Traders' Bank, of this city: Albert Matthews:

Your bid accepted. I wrote you yesterday. Accept congratulations. R. T. HOUGH.

This bank had in a bid for $20,000 of the bonds. Thus Hillsboro, as usual, is in the swim.

Prof. Smith, the veteran educator, the great teacher of teachers in Southern Ohio, looks sadly out of place in that dingy, narrow, low-ceilinged, poplar propped architectural nondescript tolerated by suffrage as a high school room. We're anxious to see him transferred to the new building, and watch his countenance brighten, as he feels the cheering influence of more beautiful and appropriate quarters.

The Republican abuses the Council for a set of simpletons, because they could not, without the use of cathode rays, discover what was in the obscure bid it submitted for the publishing and printing of the ordinances. Why not abolish the City Council altogether, and leave the management of city affairs entirely to the editorial wisdom of the Republican. That would save trouble, especially if the proprietor and foreman could agree whether "one dollar" meant a dollar a page, or a dollar for 250 pages.

The Republican has our congratulations once more over its careful perusal of first-class literature. The editor wants to know who Commissioner Funk is. Well, we're in the same boat. "If some power had the gittle gis us," to discover who Commissioner Funk is, we'd set em up. Now, if it had been Commissioner Drunk, we might go back to Democratic days and find him. But, who in the everlasting bow-wows this Commissioner Funk is, begosh, we don't know.

Ed. McFarland and Mal (Squint) Kittrell, both colored, had a quarrel several days ago. Yesterday afternoon they met in Ed. Koch's saloon, about four o'clock, when, without any warning, according to Kittrell's story, McFarland made a lunge at him with a knife, striking him just back of the left ear, and cutting a small artery. The flow of blood was staunch without serious trouble. Later in the evening, Officer Troutwine arrested McFarland in the alley back of Koch's saloon, and he was lodged in jail. He will be tried before Mayor Davis to day on a charge of cutting with intent to kill. McFarland has already served two years in the Penitentiary for cutting Amos Medley. Later—McFarland has been tried and bound over to the grand jury, which is now investigating his case.

The Fort Thomas horror will not have occurred in vain, if it only awakens the people to the enormity of certain evils that exist in every community. There should be more preaching, more writing, more talking against these wrongs. Young girls should know that they win neither love or respect by permitting freedom and familiarity on the part of young men. If you hope for happiness, even in married life see to it that there is no suspicion of reproach upon your name. Even a bad man wants a good woman for his wife. How much more might you expect a good and true man to exact? This is a delicate subject, but God knows it means a world of happiness or misery to many a soul. Let such fearful crimes as that which cost Pearl Bryant her life, be a warning to young men void of honor and girls void of sense.

City Council will meet Friday evening.

Delegates to Hillsboro.

The encampment of the Ohio Division of Sons of Veterans, will be held at Hillsboro, on the 18th and 19th of February. The local organization have appointed Messrs. W. H. Purdum and Timmons Harcourt as delegates to attend the affair. Capt. W. J. Sears and all the past captains are also delegates and may go to the meet if they so choose. Mr. Sears will attend the convention. Messrs. G. V. Sosman, Elijah Outright and Tiffin Gilmore are past captains of the S. of V., and may possibly go to Hillsboro.

The following transportation committee for railroads for the entire encampment has been appointed: Hon. H. D. Davis, of Hillsboro, chairman; S. C. Killum, of Cleveland; Jas. K. Stewart, of Lockland.—Chillicothe Leader-Gazette.

Lynchburg and vicinity will have an opportunity to hear Prof. Frank S. Fox, of the King's School of Oratory, Pittsburgh, next Saturday night, the 15th, in his unexcelled literary and elocutionary entertainment. This is a rare opportunity to hear a man who is praised by the press everywhere for his wit, pathos, humor and oratory. Tickets on sale Thursday noon, the 13th, at Frank Lacy's office. Proceeds for the benefit of the High School Library.

The Leesburg Buckeye tells of an invitation 'Squire Hillard found among his business papers, to a donation supper and ball, Friday evening, February 3d, 1865, instituted by the trustees of Fairfield, for the benefit of soldiers' wives and widows. The invitation bears the signatures of Nathan Chalfont, Franklin Ladd and Isaac Thornburg, trustees. After the supper came a cotillion party. 'Squire Hillard remembers that $125 was raised on this occasion, and that, the following morning came the Lees-creek bridge disaster, involving a train load of passengers, many of whom were burned beyond recognition in the wreck.

A letter has been received in this place from a Mr. Brown, who is, and has been for several years, operating a small shoe factory at Leesburg, Highland county, offering to move his plant to this place and greatly enlarge his capacity, for a bonus of $1,800. Steps will be taken in a few days to see what can be done in the direction of raising the required amount. Mr. Brown seems to be a very safe and reliable man, having started with very limited means and enlarged and improved his plant as he went along, and also built up an excellent trade. He at present makes from 400 to 500 pairs of shoes per week.—Georgetown News Democrat.

Dr. F. L. Wilson, of this city, has been appointed as road surgeon by the Baltimore & Ohio Southwestern. For two or three years he has had much, in fact almost all the road's surgical work to do at this point, and the result is that the B. & O. people have recognized his ability and skill by this appointment. As there may be some who are not acquainted with the duties of a road surgeon we will explain that upon him falls the charge of dressing wounds of those injured in wrecks and otherwise near this place, or should he be needed at a distant point, he is expected to go at once upon receipt of telegraphic orders. He has been the surgeon at this point for the Ohio Southern for several years.—Greenfield News.

A more large and appreciative audience could hardly have been wished for than the one present at the presentation of Kathleen Mavourneen, a five act domestic Irish drama, Tuesday, for benefit of the Catholic Church at this place. Nearly every chair was taken besides those who were in the gallery. The production of the little drama was attempted by a traveling troupe recently, but the actors forgetting their parts, much of the play was lost, but its parts this time were very well presented and carried through to the closing scene of the last act by Charles McCarthy's Co., without fault or break. The bright, particular star of the occasion was Miss Lizzie E. Burns, who acted the part of "Kathleen." The music was furnished by Miss Birdie Booth, piano teacher, of Hillsboro, assisted by Mr. Charles Crothers, jr., of Greenfield, clarinet, and they were frequently applauded for their fine execution, both being quite accomplished musicians.—Greenfield Enterprise.

The Royal Bell Ringers.

The Royal Bell Ringers and Imperial Carillonners will be at Bell's Opera House, Saturday evening, February 22d. This is the standard company of the world, and they are so far beyond all troupes of Bell Ringers that no comparison can be made. Following are a few comments from the leading papers of the country:

They gave a most delightful entertainment.—Washington Critic

The entertainment is really one of high order and refinement, and excels by far anything of the kind ever given in this city.—Cincinnati Enquirer

The large audience was enthusiastic in its applause, and encores were frequently demanded.—Boston Herald

The bells were rung in perfect unison, and with great skill and accuracy. The applause was very hearty and liberal.—New York Times

A sufficient proof of the skill of these performers lies in the fact that they produced a good legato in their melodies.—Chicago Herald
