

Library

THE NEWS-HERALD.

ESTABLISHED 1837.

HILLSBORO, OHIO, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 7, 1899.

VOL. 63—NO. 39

WITH THE JURY

Is the Fate of Ed Holton Charged With Killing Clarence Kindie.

Strong Chain of Circumstantial Evidence—Doings in Common Please Court.

The case of Edward Holton, who is charged with the murder of Clarence C. Kindie, commenced in the Common Pleas Court here Monday morning. As our readers will remember the dead body of Kindie was found in a box car at East Monroe on the 19th day of June. In his right hand was a revolver, from which it is supposed he met his death, as a gun shot wound was found near the heart. He was in the employ of a man named Smith and it was at first thought to be a case of suicide, and the Coroner so returned. Later developments, however, pointed to foul play and Ed Holton was arrested on June 28 on the charge of murder.

It seemed at the preliminary hearing, which was before Mayor Wilkin of this city, that Holton and Kindie had been on bad terms for some time and were both in love with Smith's daughter. Some evidence was also introduced showing that Holton had made threats, and as he was the last man with Kindie before his death was bound over on the charge of murder. When the case came to the Grand Jury it indicted for manslaughter.

While there were no eye witnesses of the affair, the prosecution examined about thirty witnesses and made out a very strong case of circumstantial evidence. From this it seems that there had been several quarrels between the two men and Holton had at several times threatened to kill Kindie. Holton was seen at the car a short time before the dead body was found. The position of the body and the wound also tended to explode the theory of suicide. Whether Holton is the guilty man or not is the only question now for the jury to decide.

The prosecution rested at three o'clock Tuesday afternoon and the defense decided to submit the case to the jury without presenting any evidence. The defense was represented by Hough & Wilson and the prosecution by I. McD. Smith. This (Wednesday) morning was consumed by arguments of counsel, which are still going on, but the jury will probably be given the case by evening. While Holton's character was not brought in question before the jury it is very unenviable. He has been arrested numerous times and served one term in the penitentiary.

6507 and 6183. Merchants National Bank vs. I. McD. Smith. Judgement having been paid ordered entered on record.

6601. Frank M. Miller vs. Levi B. Banks. Dismissed at cost of plaintiff.

6821. John D. Wright, admr., vs. Maggie C. January et al. Motion to set aside appraisal overruled.

6829. John T. Hire vs. Anna B. Stout. Judgement given plaintiff for $50.

6432. August F. Dickman vs. Theodore Dickman et al. Report approved and order of distribution made.

6836. John W. Rhoads and Geo. M. Rhoads, admrs., vs. Isiah Rhoads. Judgement for plaintiff for $427.53.

6746. A. H. Beam vs. James Vancot. Settled and dismissed.

6776. Jason Polk vs. John J. Rollins. Leave given plaintiff to file answer.

6842. Mary E. C. Burgess vs. John Grim et al. Demurrer to petition sustained, to which plaintiff excepts.

5729. Isma Troth vs. John F. Moberly et al. Settled and dismissed.

1676. State of Ohio vs. Wm. Holmes. Charged with assault and battery. Bond reduced to $100.

NEW CASES.

6862. Clark & Rice vs. W. M. Engle. Appeal of a replevin suit from docket of Justice of Peace of Penn township.

6863. Amos Killis vs. Harriet Kellis. They were married August 16th 1862 and live in Lynchburg. He charges gross neglect of duty during the past three years, violent temper and says she assaulted him with a hatchet on November 1st 1899, and drove him from the house. For which he asks a divorce. H. S. Pulse, attorney.

6864. Luther B. Yaple, Rec. vs. John Fullerton et al. Mr. Yaple is receiver of the Springfield, Jackson & Pomeroy Ry. Co., and has a judgement against Fullerton for $2038.26. Yaple claims that Fullerton transferred certain property to his sons and other parties so that the judgement could not be collected and asks that the conveyances be set aside.

6865. Geo. Patterson vs. Grace Patterson. Suit for partitioning of estate of Wesley R. Patterson. H. S. Pulse attorney.

REAL GOOD NEWS.

The Ohio State Journal Will Reach Hillsboro in the Mornings.

The Republicans of Hillsboro and vicinity, who have so long deplored the fact that it was impossible to get a Republican morning paper here, will be gratified to learn that the Ohio State Journal has established an agency and will deliver the paper at the same time the Cincinnati morning papers are delivered. Charles E. Graham has been appointed agent for the State Journal and will see that it is promptly delivered to subscribers every morning. The price is 15 cents weekly, including the Sunday edition, and 12 cents weekly, without the Sunday paper.

The Ohio State Journal is one of the very best papers in the country. It furnishes all the news, and, unlike the Commercial Tribune, the orthodoxy of its Republicanism is above reproach. This fact, and the fact of its early delivery, should insure it liberal patronage at the hands of Hillsboro Republicans, while its superiority as a newspaper will undoubtedly win it the support of many who profess a different political faith.

A Good Lecture.

On Friday evening last in the parlors of Miss Martha Richards, before the members of the Altruistic Association, Prof. E. M. Craig, Principal of the Sabina schools, delivered a most interesting and instructive lecture. The subject was "The Beauties of Literature." The Professor has a pleasant voice and an attractive and sympathetic manner, and held all hearts captive to his theme until the last cadence of his mellow voice died away upon the ear. It is impossible from recollection alone to give a synopsis of his treatment of the subject. His illustrations from the poets were most apt and beautiful, and with his similes and applications made the lecture a literary treat of high order. It will be a long time before we forget this most delightful and instructive entertainment. The ladies of the association heartily thank the Professor for his discourse and would be glad to hear him again.

Death of Gilbert Holmes, Sr.

Gilbert Holmes, Sr., for twenty years a respected citizen of this place, died Monday morning at six o'clock at his residence on West Walnut street from paralysis. Mr. Holmes was about 85 years of age. The funeral took place at 10 o'clock this morning from his late residence and was conducted by Rev. M. LeSourd, of the M. E. Church. The remains will be interred at Quaker Hill cemetery, near Samantha. His aged wife, who survives him, is in very poor health and fears for her recovery are entertained. Mr. Holmes came to this county from New Jersey when ten years old. He leaves five living daughters.

Death of William Patton.

Wm. Patton, a well known farmer, whose home was a few miles east of town, died Saturday afternoon from an attack of apoplexy. Mr. Patton was a brother of ex Sheriff Sam Patton and was nearly 65 years of age. The interment took place at the Hillsboro cemetery Tuesday morning.

The mission in progress at St. Mary's Catholic Church conducted by Father Burke, of the Paulist Fathers, of New York, is attracting large crowds, and are proving a great benefit to the church. Father Burke is one of the finest speakers ever in Hillsboro, and as he will only remain the balance of the week, everyone should embrace this opportunity to hear him. Services at 7:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. daily.

The News-Herald, National Stockman and Farmer and Cincinnati Gazette one year $2 15.

Notice.

Do the Ladies of Hillsboro and Vicinity:

To thoroughly introduce the celebrated and perfectly fast color, FILO FLOSS and ART WASH SILKS, we have engaged Miss Cornelia Jones, of one of the best Art Schools in the United States, to give lessons to the ladies of this vicinity. Class opens Friday morning, December 8th, in our New Dry Goods Department. All are welcome.

Feibel Bros.

GLORIOUS VICTORY.

That's What the Home Football Boys Won Over Wyoming Last Thursday.

We Might Fight With Others But We Play Ball With You.

Hillsboro 6—Wyoming Athletic Club 0.

That's how the proud banner of the invader was trailed in the dust at the Fair Grounds Thanksgiving Day. The event will doubtless pass into history as the second Wyoming Massacre, although our Indians had mercy enough to not make it too strong. They took their scalps but didn't kill anybody.

It was the most beautiful game of football ever played at Hillsboro. The weather was all that could be desired. In the first half Hillsboro won the toss and chose to defend the south goal, giving Wyoming the kick-off. Wyoming kicked to Hillsboro's 15-yard line and was caught by Smith, who advanced with it almost to the center before being downed. A series of scrimmages followed, Hillsboro bucking Wyoming at will, despite the fact that Wyoming outweighed them an average of 3 pounds to the player. When Wyoming had the ball (which rarely happened) she could make no impression on Capt. Patton's line. Furthermore, Wyoming's much talked of end runs, behind splendid interference, (to which her many former victories were principally conceded) were pie for Hillsboro's ends and half-backs. In these plays Hixson, Patton, Easton and Newby were "there." Hixson made one especially superb tackle, throwing his man for a loss of 10 yards. Hillsboro's centre mass plays were irresistible. The visitors, who had nine straight victories to their credit, the latest one being over the famous Miamis at Oxford, admitted they had never been up against such a piece of playing as was put up when either Pence or Butler were brought back of the line. They made a hole through the opposing line, going through like a cannon ball. The first half broke even (0-0) with Hillsboro easily taking first honors.

In the second half Hillsboro kicked to Wyoming's 15-yard line, but the runner was downed in 10 yards. In fact the ball was in Wyoming's field fully three quarters of the entire game. Butler, Custer, Hixson, Pence and Easton made repeated 5-yard gains, rarely failing to do so, and Custer, through guard and tackle made a touch down from Wyoming's 10-yard line. To cap this Smith made a very difficult but successful kick, the ball going over the goal beautifully.

The line-up, which differed from that announced last week, was as follows:

Hillsboro—	Wyoming—
Newby	R. E. Cherrington
Beard	R. T. Nippert, Fish
Pence	R. G. Peck
Carroll	C. Fisher, Shep'ard
Butler	L. G. Davis
Trop	L. T. Upson
Patton (Capt.)	L. E. Mead (Capt.)
Smith	Q. Sarvia
Easton	R. H. B. Levings
Hixson	L. H. B. Cowing, Nip't
Custer	F. B. Ruddell

Umpire and referee, Feibel and Emerson.

The crowd was the biggest ever present at a football game here. Marshal Lyle and his special policemen handled the crowd in good shape. A neat sum was realized above expenses. This will be devoted to next year's team.

The News-Herald helped some. Clyde Trop, of our composing room was our representative among the spikers.

It is conceded by all the spectators that Squire Underwood's magnificent subbing did much to bring about the result.

The Wyoming boys admitted that the best team won and that with proper coaching the Hillsboro team could beat any other in this part of the State.

The Wyoming boys were a gentlemanly crowd and played a fair game. Emerson, who alternated with Manager Feibel as umpire and referee, was as fair as could be desired.

There were some narrow escapes. Butler got a knock out kick below the belt, but pluckily rallied in two minutes. Patton got a good bump. Hixson got a few punches among his features.

COME OFF, KID!

The Commercial Tribune of December 2 contained an insulting and untruth-ful card regarding the game, signed by Joe M. Kirby, manager of the Wyoming. He complained of "rowdism," "off-side plays," "foul tackles" and other things he dreamed the Hillsboro boys had been guilty of. As further proof that he hears funny noises under his bonnet the following clipping from Sunday's Commercial Tribune should be read:

Sporting Editor C.T.—In last Saturday's issue of the C.T. there appeared an article written and signed by the manager of the Wyoming football team, to the effect that the Wyoming boys were treated unfairly and robbed of the game. This is entirely false and a rank injustice to the Hillsboro boys. The game was as fair as one could wish to see and was won by Hillsboro because she played better ball. The Wyoming could not have been treated fairer. We see no reason why such an article should have been written and we have the utmost respect for the Hillsboro boys.

Sincerely yours,
DEAN EMERSON, Referee.
HARRY K. MEAD, Captain.

Manager Feibel also received a letter from Captain Mead, from which we quote the following extracts:

"I can hardly express my feelings in condemning the enclosed article. It expresses the feelings of just one person, the writer of it. There is not another boy of the team that feels that way towards Hillsboro. I am sorry such a thing has happened and will do everything in my power to straighten it up. I have never been to a place where I was treated as Hillsboro treated us and we all felt at home there. As to being robbed of the game nothing could be farther from the truth. Hillsboro won in as fair a manner as was possible. Tell the boys for me that I am sorry this has happened and hope that they will have no ill feeling towards me or any of those who actually played in the game. They understand how the game was won—by better playing and fairness."

So it appears Mr. Kirby is doing his baby act all by his little lonesomeness.

The Lucas tinted glass paints have become famous for their extra durability and gloss. The Hillsboro Hardware Co. has a full line of these paints and will sell you your paint cheaper than you can buy the same grade of paint elsewhere.

You can get "Centemere" kid gloves at Hibben's.

You can get what you want in kodak supplies at Garrett & Ayres.

Royal

BAKING POWDER

- Absolutely Pure -

The housewife will find the Royal Baking Powder indispensable in making finest foods. It makes the hot bread, hot biscuit, cake and other pastry light, sweet and excellent in every quality.

Royal Baking Powder is made from pure grape cream of tartar, the most healthful and pleasant of all fruit acids, and adds anti-dyspeptic qualities to the food.

Many low-priced imitation baking powders are upon the market. These are made with alum, and care should be taken to avoid them, as alum is a poison, never to be taken in the food.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

Ogden-Smith.

Coming Thanksgivings will have a double meaning for Bert Ogden and Miss Lena B. Smith (that was), who celebrated that holiday this year by being united in the bonds of holy matrimony. The ceremony took place at the parsonage of St. Mary's Catholic Church, Rev. Father Cusack officiating. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Ogden acted as chaperones at the hop given by the Don't Worry Dancing Club at Carroll's Hall, and received the congratulations of their friends. Mr. Ogden is a trusted employe of the telephone company and the bride is one of the prettiest and most popular of Hillsboro's many pretty girls. They are now at home to friends on West North street.

Hiestand-McDaniel.

Will Hiestand, the popular young grocer, went to Waverly last week, where at high noon Tuesday he was united in wedlock with Mrs. Amy McDaniel, a belle of Pike county, and a daughter of Major and Mrs. J. D. Downing. Rev. N. F. Palmer performed the ceremony. The newly-married couple at once came to Hillsboro, where they will reside and where they have the respect and good wishes of all.

Haggerty-Blair.

A very happy event was the marriage of Vernon Haggerty and Ella May Blair, the ceremony taking place at Georgetown, Ohio, Wednesday evening at the residence of Rev. S. A. Vandyke and by him. After which the happy couple returned to the home of the bride, where the immediate families and a few intimate friends awaited them and where a most elegant supper was served. The bride is the accomplished daughter of J. M. Blair, of near Russleville, and granddaughter of W. T. Galbreath, lately deceased, cashier of the Ripley National Bank, while the groom is one of Highland county's energetic young men and son of J. W. Haggerty, a prosperous farmer of Highland county. The happy couple, accompanied by Harry Haggerty and wife and Ira Davis, of Russleville. Messrs. Haggerty and Morrison, of Peebles, Ohio, are being very pleasantly entertained at the home of J. W. Haggerty, east of town. The couple will be at home to their many friends after December 15 at their home east of Russleville, Brown county. May their voyage of life be one of bliss and happiness.

JAMES MORRISON, Peebles, O.

MARRIED.

On Wednesday afternoon, November 27, at the Methodist parsonage, Mr. Vernon L. Miller and Miss Lillie Wise, both of Marshall, were united in marriage by Rev. M. LeSourd.

At noon on Thanksgiving Day, November 30, at the Methodist parsonage, Rev. M. LeSourd united in marriage Mr. Frederick A. Waterman, of Dayton, O., and Miss Della M. McCann, of Greenfield, O.

On Thursday, November 30, at the home of Dr. J. W. Letherman in New Market, Miss Mary Edith Letherman and Mr. Loren A. Hicks were joined in marriage. Only the immediate friends of the bride and groom were present. Promptly at noon the bride and groom, preceded by Revs. Smith and Powell, entered the parlor, while Mrs. Elvin Barrere played the wedding march. After an invocation, Rev. Smith, assisted by Rev. Powell, performed the marriage ceremony. After congratulations a delicious dinner was served. Mr. and Mrs. Hicks received many beautiful presents. They will be at the home of Dr. Letherman for a few days, and then will begin housekeeping at Mr. Hicks' home near New Market.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Brehn, near Hillsboro, on November 30, at three o'clock, Mr. Thurben Graybill, of Marshall, and Miss Clara Brehn, by Rev. G. W. H. Smith. The invited guests were only those who were intimate with the family. Many beautiful and useful gifts were received by the bride and groom.

Marriage Licenses.

Richard Rhoads and Louie Kessinger. Robert L. Evans and Allie Beard. Loren Hicks and M. Edith Letherman. Richard Woodmansee and Ozadora Arnold.

Andrew Frost and Jessie Beard. John E. Burnett and Edith Lucas. Vernon Miller and Lillie Wise. Arnold Juellerat and Clara E. Roberts. A. A. Ogden and Lena B. Smith. Frederick A. Waterman and Della M. McCann.

J. I. Cooper and Ludena Hetherington. T. L. Smith and Sallie Simbro.

It cost money to advertise and this is the reason Kelly can afford to sell cheaper than anyone else, as he does not offer cheap trash at the price of good goods. This is the reason he does not follow Cheap Jehu.