Klise, Mrs. Rice belonging to the Christian Union Church. Interment at Marshall.

The entertainment and social given last Thursday evening by the Daughters of Rebekah at the Odd Fellows lodge room was quite a success. The program was given by the boys and girls. It consisted of songs, little addresses and recitations, and each number was well done and highly appreciated by the audience. The "Sunflower Drill," given by twenty-one girls ranging from six to twelve years old, was a very delightful feature of the program and certainly reflected much credit upon Mrs. Elton who drilled them. After this charming program delicious refreshments were served, free. During the social hour that followed the young people enjoyed music and dancing. The audience certainly was well pleased with their evening's entertainment which was well worth twenty cents instead of the small sum of ten cents which was charged.

PALACES OSCAR HAS LOST.

Royal Residences and Civil List of Swedish King Were Exceedingly Modest.

London.—When the Norwegian storking, by a simple decree, declared the union with Sweden dissolved and that the king of two countries had ceased to act as king of Norway, the material loss of King Oscar and the royal family of the Bernadottes was not so great as might seem at the first blush. The union has been more nominal than real and the golden link of the crown has never been particularly solid. King Oscar has, indeed, at one stroke lost nearly half of his subjects and considerably more than one-third of his territory, but in Norway the monarch has never derived from the state revenues an excessive income. King Oscar has never encouraged a lavish expenditure in the management of his court and a moderate civil list, supplemented by a moderate private fortune, has sufficed for the needs of the royal family, which has in many respects formed habits of democratic simplicity.

The civil list of King Oscar as king of Sweden is about $363,710, and the royal family enjoys also an annuity of about $22,000, voted to King Carl XIV. and his successors on the throne of Sweden. Norway allowed the monarch a civil list much less than half that granted by Sweden, about $136,250, which was to maintain the royal dignity.

By law King Oscar was bound to pass six weeks annually in Norway. Until recently—and it must be remembered he is in his seventy-seventh year—the attended every year the opening of the Norwegian storking, and on his visits to Norway resided in one or the other of the royal residences at Christiania, the royal palace and his country seat, Oscarthal.

The royal palace, situated on an eminence in the western part of the city, was built in 1826-1848, and with the gardens did not cost more than $123,000, voted by the storking.

The private apartments contain paintings and sculptures by Norwegian artists, most of which were presented to the king and queen on their silver wedding in 1852. The throne-room contains portraits of Oscar I. and Queen Josephine, besides other members of the royal family.

The second royal residence ("Oscar's Hall") makes a favorite excursion for visitors to Christiania, as it is beautifully situated on the Christiania fjord, two miles from the city. It was built in 1847 by King Oscar I. in Anglo-Gothic style. It is sold by Charles XV. to the government, but was set apart for the use of the reigning monarch. The painter Tidemand is well represented by some of his characteristic pictures of Norwegian peasant life. In the grounds are to be seen antique Norwegian buildings, an old Norwegian church, dating from the twelfth century, and typical farm-houses of the country.

LOOKSMITH WAS TRICKED.

Betrayed by a Man Who Employed Him to Open His Door.

New York.—A German locksmith in Harlem had a call one night recently from a young man who said that he'd lost his keys and wanted to get into his house quietly. The locksmith went with the young man to a house near by and set to work on the lock.

"There's no use of my banging around," said the young man. "I'm going to the sornie for a drink. When you get through whistle."

The German stuck to his task and in ten minutes he had the way clear. Then he whistled.

The young man came up. The locksmith said he wanted two dollars for his work. He was told to come around in the morning. As he knew some of the occupants of the house he consented. The young man walked into the house and the German went home.

Next morning he went around for his money. The house was full of cops. He stayed long enough to hear that the house had been looted and then made tracks for his shop.

"WIDOW'S MITE" IS FOUND

Ancient Coin Recently Picked Up on a Farm Near Berlin, Wisconsin.

Madison, Wis.—Experts of the University of Wisconsin hold that an ancient small coin picked up in a field of the Allard farm near Berlin by Anton Disterhoef is a genuine "lepton" or "widow's mite" of Bible times.

The coin is copper, three-eighths of an inch in diameter, with a design representing two cornucopias and a poppy on one side and an inscription on the other, "Jonathan, the high priest, and the senate of the Jews," in Greek.

The coin, when found, was inclosed in a small metal box and is supposed to have been lost by one of the French missionaries who visited Wisconsin in the early half of the seventeenth century. It was worth about one-twentieth of an American penny, but now has considerable value, as it is one of very few in existence.

Mississippi Bloodhounds.

The state of Mississippi is to go into the dog-breeding business. Several recent failures to run down escaping criminals with bloodhounds and some mistakes made by the hounds in tracking the wrong persons have convinced the officials of the need of improving the breed, the hounds being hitherto hired as occasion demanded from local parties. Mississippi has now bought the finest bloodhounds within its borders, and will start a state pack.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages. That is Catarrh. Dr. Carter's Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical profession. Catarrh, whether it be of the bladder, requires a constitutional treatment. Dr. Carter's Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for each case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

INSTITUTE.

pression. His work is interspersed with good wit and the teachers should do better reading work in their schools the coming year as a result of these talks of Prof. Bible.

Miss Nina Glenn gave a most enjoyable piano solo at the opening of the afternoon session.

Dr. Tussing, with various drawings showing the cumulus cloud in its first form through the making changes until the full life and death of a thunder storm, made this imperfectly understood phenomenon a part of the mental stock of his audience.

After a violin solo by Miss DeHass, accompanied by Miss Grace Walker, both in their happiest execution, Prof. Bible proceeded to talk on the many methods for teaching reading in the primary grades. He thinks none wholly good, but finds rocks and pitfalls to avoid in each. His talk of devices and their possible uses, but positive abuses, was a telling one. He claims that a class of idiots could have devices used with good results, but not one of nominally minded children. Development was the note upon which he rang the changes, showing that by that method alone is justice done the child.

Ralph Parlette's night brought a crowded house and he held his audience until ten o'clock, but he seemed pleased to be held. His conception of many phases of human life are very strong and when he comes again may expect his old hearers.

Miss Leone McConnaughey sang in perfect harmony with her accompanist and as always, pleased the audience.

So many requests had been made for a repetition of the flower drill by Miss Shepherd's class of girls that she was compelled to gather her flock once more. It was enthusiastically received again and teacher and pupils should be pleased by the reception given them.

NEW GOODS.

OLD PRICES.

The price of WOOL is now MORE THAN DOUBLE what it was two years ago while COTTON has scored even a greater advance. This, of course, means high prices for manufactured goods. We anticipated present market conditions by placing orders early last spring for THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS WORTH OF WOOL AND COTTON FABRICS. These goods are now coming in, and we find they are costing us from 15 to 25 PER CENT LESS than we could now buy them, and prices are still advancing. By reason of these early orders our store, ALWAYS FAMOUS FOR LOW PRICES, will be in position this season to give our customers even more surprising values than ever before. As a prudent shopper, don't fail to see our goods and get our prices--we can SAVE YOU MONEY.

CLEARANCE SALE.

The announcement some time ago of our usual summer clearance sale brought the crowds and resulted in the sale of an immense quantity of merchandise. Though the prices were very low we are pleased to know that our customers appreciated our liberality.

On what remains of these goods we have made still lower prices. Come in and look them over. You may find among these just what you want at a mere fraction of its real value.

Ask to see the Ladies' White Waists, which we are selling at about half price. Every one of them of the famous "Munson" make and strictly up-to-date in style.
