An old bachelor in Coolidge is in love with an Ancient Maiden of 47. He is very enthusiastic about her, and recently said to a friend: "It is surprising how much there is left to a woman of 47."

An automobile is a good deal like a woman. An automobile will run along for a while, and seem the greatest invention in the world. Then it will sulk, and no one can tell what is the matter with it.

The queerest thing about women's fashions is how they can shift their waist from around their knees and hang it to their shoulder blades.

Every two minutes a ton of coal is burned up at Panama, every minute 12 carloads of rock and gravel are torn from the earth, every hour 1666 pounds of dynamite are exploded in mountain and jungle, every minute $124 is spent for labor!—Putnam's Magazine.

A man who stuttered badly went to a specialist and after 10 difficult lessons learned to say quite distinctly, "Peter Piper picked a peck of pickled peppers." His friends congratulated him upon this splendid achievement. "Yes," said the man doubtfully, "but it's s-s-such a d-d-deucedly d-d-difficult rem-mark to w-w-work into an ord-n-n-ary c-c-con-ver-sa-tion, y'know."—Everybody's Magazine.

Raynor—Ever do anything for your hair? Shyne—who has a rapidly growing bald spot—Yes, I mourn for it occasionally, but what good does that do?—Chicago Tribune.

Mrs. O'Toole—She's takin' on awful. Her husband got three years—but he kin git 12 months off for good behavior. Mrs. Dooley—Tell her to rest easy. Sure an' he may not behave himself.—Life.
