

Band concert Friday evening.

Don't fail to hear the Kid Band Saturday.

Stocksale day and landsale day, both next Saturday.

Dick Patton, of Columbus, spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. S. N. Patton.

Books suitable for commencement presents and school prizes at Bowles' Book Store.

Capt. H. C. Dawson and daughter, Miss Ruth, are the guests of relatives at Springfield.

Charley Richards is excavating for the erection of a number of new houses on Key street.

Charles D. Johnson returned home Tuesday after a short visit with relatives at Lexington, Ky.

All the Highland Terrace land sale next Saturday will need to be a big success is nice weather.

Rev. George Mayerhoefer, of Lebanon, former pastor of St. Mary's Catholic Church, was here Sunday.

The Missionary Round Table will meet at the home of Mrs. D. M. Mealey, Thursday, April 29, at 7 p. m.

J. R. Wisecup, of Carmel, was the guest of his uncle, J. M. Wisecup, and his aunt, Mrs. Mary E. Skeen, Sunday.

The supper that was advertised by the Ladies' Aid Society of Dallas for May 1, has been postponed until May 15.

Those who like fine music should hear the open air concert by the Hillsboro Military Band Friday evening.

Jacob J. Bering, who died at Cincinnati April 19, was buried at Lynchburg, his former home, last Thursday afternoon.

Thomas Brown and family, and Clark Wisecup and family were the guests of J. M. Wisecup and Mrs. Mary E. Skeen, Sunday.

Rev. John Cotter, of Chillicothe, former rector of St. Mary's Catholic Church, was greeting friends here Friday and Saturday.

Miss Helen Matthews has arranged to join a party of Cincinnati people for a three months' tour of Europe. They will sail June 5.

Thos. J. Finn, of Fremont, has been named as superintendent of subsistence of the Ohio Penitentiary, succeeding J. P. Donohoo, of this county.

Dr. A. Deleplain, of South Solon, was appointed night physician at the Ohio Penitentiary last Friday. He was formerly located at Berryville, this county.

Hon. and Mrs. J. J. Pugsley, who have been the guests of their daughter, Mrs. Henry Graham Brown, at Pittsburg for several months, returned home Saturday.

Col. D. Q. Morrow, Thomas Mitchell, E. T. Sanderson, Dr. I. W. Carey, N. E. Chaney, Kirby and Walter Smith, J. G. Bell and Fred Bennett were among those who spent Sunday in Cincinnati.

Last Sunday's Commercial Tribune Illustrated Magazine contains a pretty half tone portrait of Miss Margaret Ann Geyler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Geyler, reproduced from a photo by Weyrich.

Starling White has signed to pitch for the strong Wiedeman ball team, of Cincinnati, this season. The Wiedmans are one of the best semi-professional teams of that city. He went down Sunday but did not pitch.

Charles W. Seitz, the D. T. & I. fireman that was badly mangled in the wreck near Bainbridge October 18, 1908, has sued the D. T. & I. railroad for $25,000 alleged to be due from the company as damages for injuries sustained in the wreck.

Mrs. Lena Penn Spargur has contracted with P. J. Geyler & Co. for the construction of her new residence on North High street. The estimated cost is $12,000. The interior will be of the finest, with piano-bed finished hardwood floors. The first story will be of brick, the second of stucco, and the roof will be of tile.

E. V. Overman, Secretary, Treasurer and General Manager of the Cincinnati and Hammond Spring Company, returned yesterday from the East, where he attended the annual meeting of the company. He came back with a Vice Presidency, his new title now being Vice President, Treasurer and General Manager.—Enquirer.

Kirby S. Raines, the dean of Hillsboro's brigade of trap drum experts, left Monday for Mantua, near Cleveland, to begin rehearsals with the Griswold Dramatic company, this being his second season with that attraction. The Griswold company is one of the best of its kind, comprising 35 people, making one night stands and traveling in one of the finest private cars in the country. The management features a fine band and orchestra and in these "Casey" will shine, for he is "there with the goods."

Searborough—Insurance.

Fayette county's automobiles are valued at $100,000.

Call on John Pfarr for clothes cleaning and repairing. 151 West Main st.

Fig Newton Cakes, 10c per lb., at Stabler's 5 and 10c store.

Granite Coffee Pots at from 25 to 60c at Tener's.

"Up-to-date" Millinery at the very lowest prices at Cohn's.

Garden Seeds that will grow, 2 packages for 5c at Stabler's.

Will Foley has taken a position in Rockhold & Co.'s new grocery.

Go to Cohn's for your Millinery, best and cheapest place in Hillsboro.

Carpenters are putting the roof on the Second Baptist church building.

Frank Crotty spent Sunday and Monday with his parents at Cincinnati.

Charles Allen left for the South yesterday after spending two weeks here.

Framed Pictures and Picture Frames at from 10c to $2.85 at Tener's, in Opera Block.

Ernest Boelzner, of Los Angeles, Cal., is the guest of his parents at Fairview.

Brushes—Paint, Varnish, White-wash and Scrub Brushes at lowest prices, at Tener's, in Opera Block.

Mrs. B. R. Shipp, of Wilshire, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. O. J. Eckley, has returned home.

Steel Knives and Forks with heavy malaca plate, 60c per set, at Tener's, in Opera Block.

FOR SALE—Eggs from prize winning Houdans.

JOHN CONWAY, Phone 709.

Rev. W. B. Dunham will preach at Elton School House next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock sun time.

FOR RENT—furnished rooms centrally located.

MRS. LULU BARRERE.

The pastor of the M. E. Church requests members to bring their benevolent cards next Sunday morning.

FOR SALE—A good building lot on Pleasant street, near corner of South High. Inquire 335 S. High st.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church will hold a market Saturday, May 8, at some point to be designated later.

Special Saturday, May 1, heavy malaca Plate, Tea and Table Spoons, two sets for 15c, at Tener's, in Opera Block.

Fine Chocolate Candies, 10c per lb., at Stabler's. Nearly as good as you pay 40 and 60c per lb for elsewhere.

Clarence Stroup, of the Hotel Parker barber shop, is taking a vacation and resting at the paternal home at Dodsonville.

Large bottles of Blueing, large bottles of Household Amonia, Granite Cups and Dippers, 5c each at Tener's, in Opera Block.

Memoirs of the late Mrs. Amanda Henderson and the late Joseph A. Rittenhouse will appear in next week's paper.

A. W. Teter, a Bainbridge druggist, was arrested a few days ago charged with dispensing booze from his soda fountain. The trial is set for May 3.

Rev. A. D. Dexter held services in St. Joseph's church, at Frankfurt, Thursday morning of last week, and visited his brother, J. A. Dexter and family.

Mrs. B. V. Broadus, of Bunceton, Mo., died April 20. Deceased was the mother of Mrs. C. E. Wisecup, wife of Dr. C. E. Wisecup, formerly of this place.

The Hillsboro Wool Co. is located this year with Miller & McHugh on South West street in the Morgan Block. The highest market price will be paid for wool.

A very pleasant surprise was tendered Mrs. Ed. Moore last Friday evening by a large circle of friends at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Schilly, on West street.

Dr. L. F. House and family, formerly of Sinking Springs, but more recently of Bourneville, have gone to Los Angeles, Cal., where they contemplate locating permanently.

Mrs. Will Matthews returned home last week from a short visit with her niece, Mrs. Benjamin A. Gage, of Cleveland. Mrs. Matthews expects to leave for New York in a few weeks to join her husband.

Mrs. C. W. Riber and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. George Inskip, of Washington C. H., Mrs. Ella Brady, of New Richmond, and Mrs. Susan Schwab, of Lincoln, Ill., were called here Sunday by the death of Mrs. Eleanor Inskip.

Searborough—Real Estate.

Remember the free offer with each dollar's worth of goods at Tener's, in Opera Block.

Black Hill Locust Posts for sale J. E. McDermott, Hillsboro, or Craig Eubanks, two miles south of Carmel.

Dr. Howard has moved his office into the room formerly occupied by Schweinsberger's saloon, next door to Keever's restaurant. Both phones.

FORT HILL.

April 26, '09.

Well Jones and wife made a business trip to Chillicothe last week.

Mrs. Lola Radcliffe, of Topeka, Kan., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Mary Butler.

John Richmond, of Sinking Springs, and S. S. Deardoff took dinner with I. W. Stults and wife.

H. V. Matthews removed his household goods to Greenfield Saturday.

D. Butler and grandson were at Washington C. H. Saturday.

Tom Thompson, of Newfain, spent Saturday night with his grandmother Mrs. Permelia A. Kinsling.

Ray Deardoff was the guest of his cousin, Vena Rhoads, Sunday.

Mrs. Sarah Butler spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Hepsey West.

Well Jones and family visited Cary Little and family, of Cynthiana, Sunday.

Lewis Henry closed a successful term of school in our district Thursday.

Branson McCoy met with a serious accident Wednesday while working on a fence. His axe glanced and cut an artery in his foot. Dr. Eylor, of Cynthiana, was called and took several stitches.

RAINSBORO.

April 26, 1909.

Mrs. Charles Clark and two children, of Georgetown, have been visiting relatives here for several days.

I. T. Roads and wife spent Sunday with his parents on Paint.

Harvey McCoy, of Hillsboro, has been the guest of his home folks here the past week.

E. P. Carter and wife spent Sunday with his mother in Ross county.

The school at Snake Corner closed last Friday and the parents of the district gave the teacher, Miss Bessie Bryan, a surprise dinner that day as a slight token of their appreciation of her work during the year.

J. B. Davis and family were guests of Warren Harper and wife, at Good Hope, over Sunday.

Mrs. Waverley Waddell and daughter, Miss Anna, visited friends at Fort Hill the first of last week.

Silas Hodge entertained several of his little friends on the 25th in honor of his ninth anniversary.

Rev. E. A. Huntington received word today of the death of his brother in New Mexico.

Dr. Eylor and wife, of Cynthiana, will move to our village this week and occupy the property just vacated by Dr. Mercer.

Miss Elizabeth Spargur visited friends at Carmel over Sunday.

The worst electrical storm of the season visited this section on Sunday night.

C. L. Redkey has commenced the erection of a large barn on his farm just north of town.

Workmen have been engaged the past week in moving the old U. B. church and it now occupies the corner by the public well where it will be remodeled and used for a business room.

The high school will give the play "A Ruined Life," a temperance drama in two acts, at the K of P. hall on Saturday night of this week. Admission 10 and 15 cents. Tickets on sale at McNary's store.

Miss Elva Davis returned Saturday night from a visit with her sisters in Cincinnati.

Miss Goldie Barrett, of Dallas, was the guest of Miss Grace Glenn over Sunday.

Our public school will close tomorrow for the summer vacation.

A law and order league was organized here the past week. For several months past our peace loving citizens have felt the need of such an organization and we hope it will accomplish much good.

Joseph Rittenhouse, a highly respected farmer of this community, passed away on last Wednesday evening after a long and painful illness with cancer. Funeral was held at the late home on Friday conducted by Rev. Huntington and the remains were then taken to Hillsboro for interment. The widow and children have the sympathy of the entire community.

The British International Floating Exposition company is sending to Russia a steamer with samples of English goods in order to acquaint Russian merchants with the same. The company also intends to use the steamer for the exposition of Russian goods in English ports.

THE BEST

Boys' and Children's CLOTHING

I am showing the largest and best selected line in all the late New York novelties at the LOWEST PRICES.

CALL AND SEE THE LINE

THE EXCLUSIVE CLOTHIER

FREE'S CORNER, HILLSBORO, O.

WINKLE.

April 26, '09.

M. S. Hunter, wife and children, of Mowrystown, spent Saturday night with John Emery and wife.

John Bennington and wife took dinner with D. C. Winkle and wife Sunday.

James Sonner, wife and daughter spent Saturday night and Sunday with W. B. Jacks and wife.

Cordie Lee and son, Hugh, of Delaware, returned home Sunday after spending three weeks with the former's parents, Lewis Sonner and wife.

B. C. Sonner, wife and two sons, Samuel and Clement, spent Sunday with George Sonner and wife.

L. J. Sonner was at Columbus Sunday.

C. W. Roler is repairing and painting his house.

Bert Walker has his house about completed.

The Pricetown I. O. O. F. lodge came over Saturday night to help the lodge here do some work after which they had a supper.

There was a good attendance at the skating rink Saturday night.

Misses Fenner and King and gentlemen friends, of Hillsboro, came down to the skating rink Saturday night.

H. N. Pulliam was visiting friends at Fincastle Saturday.

Mrs. Mary Long returned home Saturday after spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Louderback, at Fincastle.

C. W. Roler and wife spent Sunday with A. R. Hawk and family.

B. C. Sonner and family spent Saturday night with H. N. Pulliam and wife.

The sick are all better except John Stroop, who is very low with no hope of recovery.

Milt Ludwick was a business caller at Hillsboro Friday.

Elder Foust will fill his regular appointment at Union next Sunday.

J. P. Surber has been confined to the house the past week with his foot and leg.

B. C. Sonner has moved his saw mill to the farm of Hamer Houston.

L. J. Sonner and son, Warren, are preparing to burn brick this summer.

The farmers are about done plowing for corn in this neighborhood.

BOWLES & CO.

Artistic Wall Papers

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL

We can show you papers that will harmonize with the STYLE and COLOR requirements of the room to be decorated at the prices you wish to pay. We will appreciate your business.

BOWLES & CO.

NORTH HIGH ST. OPP. SOLDIERS' MONUMENT

ICE

We have purchased the Retail Ice business of the Hillsboro Light & Fuel Co. and will redeem all outstanding tickets. We are, of course, prepared to supply new customers and will be glad to have them in unlimited numbers. Deliveries Daily. Home Phone No. 62.

MILLER & KOCH

Office Morgan Block West Main Street.

Eggs That Hatch

Over 90 per cent of the eggs sold by E. W. Archer and Chas. Pennington, of this city, from their pens of pure bred single comb White Leghorns have been fertile. All eggs guaranteed to be fertile. One dollar for 15.

Home phone.

The ideal republic will be achieved when everybody can govern and nobody will be governed.—Chicago Record-Herald.

Pond's Ice Cream

Brick Ice Cream and Fancy Ices to Order.

Delivered at your door

Leave orders at Buck's Dining Room, East Main St. or 'Phone Home 138

FRANK B. POND