

HIGHLAND.

Oct. 17, '09.

John Sylvester and wife, of Sabina, were guests of J. R. Sprague and family on Sunday.

Frank Sneed and wife, of Dayton, were visiting relatives at this place the first of last week.

Will Eubanks has rented the Mingo property south of Highland.

Oliver McCoy and wife, of Wilmington, were visitors at the home of Joe Wright and wife last week.

James Morrow and wife, of Clear Creek, were guests of Robert McNicol and wife on Friday.

David Boyer, of Illinois, was calling on old friends here after an absence of sixty-one years.

Harry Tolle and son and Miss Sarah Tolle, of Manchester, were guests of Will Syferd and wife last week.

John Fetro and family moved last week from the H. H. Mingo place into the property belonging to Mrs. Will Roads on Railroad street.

Eli Chandler and wife and little son, of Richland, Ore., were guests of Mrs. Rachel Thornburg and other relatives the first of this week.

B. C. Martin, of Clarksville, visited his brother, G. H. Martin, Sunday.

Pearl Kester and wife, of Springfield, returned home on Friday after an extended visit with his parents, G. W. Martin and wife.

Mrs. B. A. Grimes, of New Holland, is the guest of Mrs. E. M. Johnson this week.

The members of the Queen Esther society will give a Halloween festival in the Town Hall Saturday evening, Oct. 30. Everybody invited.

Mrs. Tom Achor is visiting relatives at Farmland, Ind., this week.

Clay Evans, of Bridgeport, Iowa, has been a guest of his father and other relatives in this vicinity the past week.

Mrs. Will Johnson, father and sister returned last week from a month's visit with relatives in Minnesota.

Rev. Wm. Patton and wife, of Yellow Springs, were guests of Joseph Winegar and family on Thursday.

Mrs. Edie Johnson and children, of New Vienna, spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of J. R. Sprague and wife.

Mrs. Walter Hoskins and sons, Kenneth and Meredith, returned home Saturday evening after a three week's visit with her mother, Mrs. Gussie Edwards, in Indianapolis.

Mrs. J. W. Redkey, of Cincinnati, is spending this week with her daughter, Mrs. Harry Duff, and old friends at Highland.

Charles Horsman arrived home Monday morning from St. Louis where he has been since the beginning of the year.

Mesdames Martha Butterfield and Laura Izenhous, of Wellington, Kan., John Rollson and mother, of Lees-creek, Charles Morris and wife, Lucile and Wayne Morris, Steve Bean and wife, John and Herald Bean and Mrs. Catherine Bean, of Memphis, were guests on Sunday of Edward Bean and family.

Married on Thursday Oct. 14 at the home of the bride's parents near New Petersburg, Stanley B. Stowe and Miss Nellie Karnes.

Alfred Stewart and wife started Tuesday morning for a few weeks visit with relatives in Indiana.

Mrs. F. M. Horsman and little son, Rayburn, who have been taking treatment for some weeks past in Washington C. H., came home on Saturday evening for a few days stay.

H. H. Mingo and son, Russell, of Columbus, have been visiting his sister Mrs. Sadie Sprague, the past few days.

Joe Hoskins and wife and daughter, Margery, returned Monday evening from a weeks visit with their son and daughter, in Cleveland.

Mrs. George Hoskins returned last week from a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Ballentine, in Dayton.

Misses Edith and Alice Horsman, Ella Jean and Edna Adams attended the fruit shower given by Misses Redkey, Weeks and Barrett in honor of Miss Lucile Sanders, on Wednesday evening, Oct. 13.

Frank Woodmansee and wife, Burch Woodmansee and wife and children and Ernest Woodmansee were entertained on Sunday at the home of Lonnie Terrell and wife.

Miss Elva Morrison was the guest of Miss Clara Larkin, in Washington C. H., Saturday and Sunday.

A very pleasant reception was given by the members of the Friends church to their new pastor, Rev. John McMillan, at the church on Friday evening, Oct. 15. A short program was rendered and light refreshments served and a general good time enjoyed.

The Warren County Times of Lebanon complains that conditions are not right in that village. It says that there are many empty houses and vacant business rooms and that assignments are of daily occurrence and that the city treasury is bankrupt. It says it knows what the trouble is but refrains from stating and does not give a remedy.

THE IRON-CLAD

Copyright 1909 by Hart Schaffner & Marx

WE know what we are doing when we say we are giving UNEQUALED VALUES IN MEN'S AND YOUNG MEN'S SUITS at $10.00, $12.50, $15.00, AND $16.50

Come in and see the Pure Worsted Suits we are showing in a beautiful array of colors and tailored up to the very latest style at these prices. We want you to see these suits and if they are not better, and you don't feel that you are saving from $2.50 to $5.00 on them, we won't ask you to buy.

Overcoats and Cravenettes

We've got a big stock and we will undersell anybody on the same qualities. Come and see. It means money and a good overcoat to you.

A big line of Sweater Coats for men and boys. Winter Caps. An immense line of Underwear, all kinds, at prices the very lowest.

Iron-Clad Clothing Store

HILLSBORO, O. NORTH VERNON, IND. GREENSBURG, IND.

MOWRYSTOWN.

Oct. 17, '09.

Miss Hattie Ludwick, of Cincinnati, is spending her vacation at the home of John Long and wife.

Miss Tilda Troutman, who has been an invalid for years, is now in a serious condition.

Lonnie Jacobs, of Greenfield, is visiting friends here this week.

Rev. Brown, a promising student of Lane's Theological Seminary, occupied the pulpit at the Presbyterian church last Sabbath and delivered an able sermon to the congregation.

All the pavements on Diehl avenue are completed.

Newton Overstake and wife are starting on a western trip to visit friends and view the country. They expect to be away four weeks.

Mrs. Ella Read, of Hillsboro, was a pleasant guest of friends here the past week.

Mrs. Henry Grothaus was recently the guest of her sister at Mt. Orab.

Emilie Druhot and wife have made five hundred gallons of sorghum molasses in three weeks and are still grinding cane and boiling molasses.

Fred Parrot is spending his vacation at Louisville, Ky., where he is the guest of his brother, George Parrott and family.

Misses Chrissie and Pearl Euerard are on their way to Dayton, Tenn., where they will visit their uncles, Joseph and Noah Euerard, who for many years have been residents of that state.

Wesley Milner has the foundation laid for his new residence on West Main street.

Mrs. Edwards, of Indiana, has moved to this place where she will reside permanently.

Mrs. Mary Ross is spending this week at the home of Pete Works, where she is with her invalid sister, Mrs. Lavina Huggins.

Frederic Euerard, of Columbus, was a business visitor at this place a short time ago.

Lewis Porter and family moved to the farm of Julius Druhot last week. Their farm home will be occupied by Clarence Martin and family.

Mrs. Crawford, of Georgetown, is at the Robert's Hotel with a full line of millinery goods that she is selling at reasonable prices.

Davie Sonner is the new clerk at Dr. Funk's Drug Store and Miss Anna Rossetol is smiling at the customers at Cornet and Rilea's store.

A church wedding is announced for Wednesday night to be held in the U. B. church. The contracting parties are Ed Druhot, of Sardinia, and Miss Nellie Cornet, of this place.

Miss Nelline Druhot, of Ebenezer, is celebrating her birthday tonight by giving a party to her young friends.

Burt Kelley, of the Miami University, was a guest of Ed Tissott and family from Saturday until Tuesday of last week. His home is at Lima.

James Beuler died at the I. O. O. F. home at Springfield recently. He was a former resident of this place and a member of the Odd Fellow's lodge. His body was shipped to this place and the I. O. O. F. members conducted the funeral services and buried him by the side of his wife in the Mowrystown cemetery.

NEW PETERSBURG.

Oct. 17, '09.

Frank Johnson, of Winchester, Ind., spent part of last week with E. O. Fairley.

Miss Alice Williams, of Samantha, visited last week with M. B. Williams and family.

Baxter Cunningham and family, of Portsmouth, were guests Sunday of D. R. Cunningham and wife.

James Hildenbrand, of Jackson, spent part of last week with his brother, A. B. Hildenbrand.

Mrs. Margaret Mercer, of Washington, C. H., is a guest at the home of Abraham Mercer.

Dr. K. G. Norris and wife and W. H. Miller and wife, of Hillsboro, visited last Friday with Miss Nellie Miller.

Mrs. Louisa Weller has purchased a home in Greenfield and will move there next week. She will be greatly missed in this community and the church will lose an interested worker.

Eugene Ballard, of Highland, and Miss Deborah Williams, of Samantha, visited Sunday with Misses Della and Lena Williams.

Miss Nellie Steats, who has been sick for some time, is not much improved.

The last cable road in Brooklyn will soon be electrified.

WINKLE.

Oct. 18, '09.

Henry Bohls and family, of Mowrystown, were the guests of A. S. Calley and family Sunday.

Lewis Fawley and wife, of Hollowtown, were the guests of his brother, John, Sunday.

J. A. Fouch, who has been sick for the past three weeks, is some better.

Alex Fouch and William Stroop are sick.

Eli Winkle and family returned home from Sabina last week where they have been the guests of their son, Charles.

Prof. C. N. Winkle and wife and son, of Mowrystown, were the guests of his parents from Saturday until Monday.

George Kibler was the guest of his parents at Five Mile Saturday and Sunday.

Ira Stroop and wife were the guests of Wm. Dadds Sunday.

George Bingham and wife, of Mowrystown, were the guests of J. W. Emery Sunday.

Bert Walker, who has been working at the carpenter trade at Belfast the past summer, is at home.

Mr. Tomlison, of New London, was the guest of Ulric Peterson last week.

Mrs. Chas. Moberley and daughter, of Buford, were the guests of Mrs. America Robinson Sunday.

Mrs. Ella Shaw, of Hillsboro, is the guest of her son, Clarence, this week.

O. M. Roush and wife were guests of D. N. Debass Sunday.

Chas. Barr will move to Pricetown this week and O. M. Roush will move to the place vacated by Mr. Barr.

James Sonner and family were the guests of W. B. Jacks Saturday and Sunday.

C. C. Winkle was a business caller at the Queen City one day last week.

SHARPSVILLE.

Oct. 17, '09.

Mrs. Mike Hamfen and children returned to her home in Xenia after a two weeks visit with her father, Joseph Carpenter.

Marion Bellis and family, of Yellow Springs, are visiting Jackson Brewer and wife.

Mrs. Lora Hamfen and children and Joseph and Pearl Carpenter took dinner Monday with Charley Gilliland and family.

Mrs. Maggie Chaney and two children spent Tuesday with Mrs. Anna Burton.

Burton, Ray and Branson Chaney spent Sunday with Stanley Chaney, of near Mt. Olive.

T. J. Lowman and family and B. F. Lowman and family took dinner with C. E. Chaney, Sunday.

Alex Fox and family and Tillie Chaney were the guests of Jasper Chaney, of Damascus, Sunday.

James Bird and Mattie Chaney are on the sick list.

Mrs. Dora Shaffer was the guest of her parents, John Larrick and wife, Wednesday.

Leona Lowman called on her friend, Margaret Watson, Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Etta Brewer spent Friday with her sister, Mrs. Lizzie Borden.

SINKING SPRING.

Oct. 17, '09.

Tom Luper, of Columbus, was the guest of friends here last week.

Several from this place attended the Rainsboro fair.

Mrs. H. C. Drake and daughter, Edith, have returned after a pleasant visit with relatives in Scioto county.

Mrs. Flo Hughes, of Loudon, was the guest of friends here Thursday.

Frank Turley and wife were guests of his brother, John Turley, of Rainsboro, the latter part of last week.

Dr. Chapman and wife are guests of relatives at Dayton.

Mrs. I. Tener, of Locust Grove, is the guest of friends and relatives here.

Ferris Cummings and wife, of Marshall, were guests of Mrs. T. C. Weaver Sunday.

Sickening headaches, indigestion, constipation, indicate delicate unhealthy condition of the bowels. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea makes the bowels work naturally and restores your system to perfect health and strength. Begin tonight.

W. R. SMITH CO.

Notice to Hunters.

We positively forbid hunting or trespassing with guns or dogs on our farms and will prosecute all violators: Cora O. Parks.

The Zeppelin III has two 15-horsepower motors, the working of which costs in petrol and oil $1 10s an hour.

The Safety Valve Fruit Jar

Has all the good features of other fruit jars—and special features EXCLUSIVELY ITS OWN.

It is called "safety valve" because it is the only jar that can be safely processed entirely under water. Each jar is supplied with a high grade rubber ring. When you buy a dozen safety valve fruit jars you get twelve perfect jars complete, no extras to buy making it the least expensive jar in the long run that you can buy. Prices everywhere.

Pints ..... $ 1.00 doz
Quarts..... 1.25 doz
+ gal..... 1.50 doz

Stabler's 5 & 10c Store

Everybody who is anybody trades at Stabler's.

If your children are troubled with their eyes have them examined before starting them to school.

EXAMINATION FREE.

Dr. C. F. Faris,

The Eyesight Specialist,

OFFICE—First door east of Economy Store. Main street, Hillsboro O.