Obituary.

Filbert Easter was born on what is known as the Robert Sumner farm 1 1/2 mile south of New Petersburg, Feb. 2, 1870, departed this life May 20, 1910, aged 40 years 3 months and 18 days.

He never united with any church but turned his attention to the Friends Church where at Hardin's Creek he acted as janitor for quite a while. His neatness in his work showed his respect for the house of God.

His conduct toward his fellowmen won the respect of all for whom he labored.

He lived a moral, upright life and believed in the church as ordained of God. Was respectful toward, and had faith in those who were true to their profession as Christians.

He was not addicted to the vices and immoralities common among young men.

For several years he has lived among his relatives and friends.

He had the confidence and good will of his neighbors wherever he lived.

He was generous to all who came to him in need, up to the means of his ability.

His character was unquestionable, truthful and honest in every respect. All who knew him spoke of him in the highest esteem.

He has gone to meet those who have gone before. He leaves us behind to await the summons from on high to cross the dark valley from which none return. His last illness was of short duration. All was done that loving hands could do, but death has robbed us. While we sorrow to-day we remember that God doeth all things well. So we have hope that he now rests from his toil and afflictions "where the wicked cease from troubling and the weary are at rest."

We Don't Have to

Tell you what it's for it's name tells. Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey is the best cough medicine and several million people know it. Look for the Bell on the Bottle.

CHANGELESS.

A Beautiful LOVE SONG as sung by

Mme. Louise Gardner of the Gustav Heinrich Opera Troupe.

Andante con grazia.

H. TROTIERE.

Musical score for 'Changeless' with lyrics: 1. Should our world, love, one day al-ter, should our bright skies turn to grey, Song to si-lence, light to 2. Be to me still in the shad-ow, all thou wert when life was bright, Walk be-side me, love, and shad-ow, and our glad-ness steal a-way; On-ly love me then as now, dear, lift thy guide me when the way is lost in night, Then tho' shad-ows close a-round us, and the stand-fast eyes to mine; Smile for me as thou wert wont to, take a-gain my hand in thine, night be fraught with fear, Shall the dark-ness be as light, love, and the far-off dawn seem near.

Musical score for 'Changeless' with lyrics: CHORUS. Tho' your lips, O love, are si-lent, tho' you breathe that day no vow, I shall know that you are change-less, that you love me then as now! Tho' your lips, O love, are si-lent, tho' you breathe that day no vow, I shall know that you are change-less, that you love me then as now! I shall know that you are change-less, that you love me then as now!
