Euverard, wife and daughter, of Maple Grove; Walter Smith and wife, of Careytown; Mrs. Larkin, of Samantha; Loyd Euverard and wife, of Taylorsville; and Roy Euverard and wife, of Russell Station.

C. D. Harris had a telephone installed in his residence the past week.

A. L. Anderson transacted business at East Monroe, Thursday.

A demonstration of orchard pruning and the spraying of fruit trees, with a lecture by the demonstrator, took place at the orchard of J. V. Sanders last Tuesday.

Obituary.

Once more we are reminded that we also should be ready for we know not the day nor the hour when the son of man shall appear.

Julia A. Young, daughter of Reuben and Sarah McCune, was born April 23, 1847 and departed this life March 29, 1912, aged 64 years, 11 months and 6 days.

She was united in marriage to Thomas Heaton Young Dec 25, 1866. To this union were born 9 children, all of whom survive her except Emma, who died at the age of 4 months. The husband, 8 children and 14 grandchildren are left to mourn the loss of a kind wife, a dear mother and a sympathetic friend.

These lines simply and briefly record the story of another life begun and ended with all its achievements and disappointments, joys and sorrows, hopes and fears, aspirations and possibilities.

Great has been the suffering of this departed one, who has been an invalid for over 8 years. She was united with the church early in life and later was connected with the Presbyterian church of Bethel. During her long period of suffering she has borne it all with Christian fortitude. Often in her suffering she expressed her confidence in the Lord. She has often expressed her willingness to die, but believed she was spared for some unknown purpose. Her place can never be filled. The once happy home circle is broken always to remain as a reminder that they too must sooner or later pass through the same ordeal. And as we gather around the now vacant chair we may find comfort in the best assurance, that:

Those parting scenes will end
And we shall gather friend with friend
Some sweet day, bye and bye.
A FRIEND.

CARD OF THANKS.

The family desires to kindly thank their neighbors and friends for their help and sympathy during the long sickness and death of their loved one.
