

Don't Burn It

"I have money to burn" said old Si Chestnut, "but some way I can't stand the smell of the smoke."

And Si was a pretty wise old man. Still money actually does burn sometimes, literally—not figuratively. Hid in the stove and some chump starts a fire, hid away in the house that burns down. The only safe plan is to keep money in a reliable bank like ours. It's subject to check when you need it, but in the meantime it is safe from fire, burglary or accident.

EVER WATCHFUL

A Little Care May Save Many Hillsboro Readers Future Trouble.

Watch the kidney secretions. See that they have the amber hue of health; The discharge not excessive or infrequent; Contains no "brick dust like" sediment.

Doan's Kidney Pills are especially for weak kidneys.

Here's Hillsboro proof of their merit. Cary Rodes, retired farmer, 136 E North St., Hillsboro, Ohio, says: "For several years I suffered greatly from kidney weakness. I hurt my back years ago and whenever I caught cold. It was sure to settle there, causing sharp twinges of pain. The kidney secretions became scanty and were highly colored. I commenced using Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Garrett & Ayres' Drug Store and was greatly relieved. I still hold a high opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills. They have proven a wonderful kidney medicine in my case. The statement I gave in their praise before holds good."

Obituary.

Suzanna Flemming was the daughter of John and Elizabeth Flemming, of Adams county, Ohio. She was born Sept. 20, 1843.

She was married to Addison Thompson, of Clinton county, Sept. 15, 1868. Mr. Thompson died Jan. 7, 1895, and she was married to J. W. Wooddell, of Hillsboro, Dec. 17, 1896, by Rev. William McSurely, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, of Hillsboro. She joined the M. E. church in early life and continued her membership in that church until her marriage to J. M. Wooddell, when she joined the First Presbyterian church, of Hillsboro, under the faithful service of Rev. Faulkner and she was a quiet, zealous member of that church until her death. She loved her God; she loved her church; she loved her people; she loved her home. It was her keener pleasure to sit in Christian communion with God, with her brothers and sisters in Christ, and she loved to steal awhile away from every cumbering care and commune with God when none but God was near.

Her Christian experience was clear and well defined and her hope of heaven was strong and well founded. She had a stroke of paralysis at 1 o'clock on the morning of Tuesday of Feb. 3, 1914, when she became unconscious and she died near Martinsville, Ohio, at 3 o'clock on the evening of Thursday, Feb. 5, 1914 and was buried at 11 o'clock on Sunday, Feb. 8, 1914 among her many deceased relatives in the Dunn's Chapel cemetery in Highland county, in the presence of about forty of her kindred and tried friends in full hope of the resurrection to live with God a million years.

O change! O wondrous change! Burst are the prison bars! This moment there—so low In mortal prayer—and now Beyond the stars!

Oh change! Stupendous change! Here lies the senseless clod; The soul from bondage breaks. The new immortal wakes— Walks with her God!

CARD OF THANKS.

We tender our sincere thanks to our many tried friends and neighbors, and to Dr. Scott for their faithful ministry of kindness and help to our beloved during her sickness, and to the many kindred and kind friends from Hillsboro, Russell and Dunn's Chapel, who stood with us at the grave to cheer our drooping spirits.

Obituary.

Mary, daughter of Ralph and Mary Stockwell, was born in Washington township, Highland county, Ohio, October 15, 1840, and her spirit passed to the Great Beyond on February 3, 1914, as peacefully and silently as an autumn frost before the morning sun, to receive the reward of the Great Judge of all—aged 73 years, 3 months and 19 days.

On the last day of the year 1861, she was married to Nathaniel Roush, by George Leonard. Although this home was not blessed with children, yet it was not childless. She became foster-mother of Richard Roush and Mrs. Arthur Chaney, who together with the husband, are now grieving over the loss of a careful mother and dutiful wife.

She united with the German Reformed church at Danville soon after her marriage and has lived a pure, clean and consecrated life during all this period of time. Her life has been an open book, which all her relatives, friends and neighbors can read and from it we may gather many lessons which would profit us in ordering our own lives.

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to thank all the friends and neighbors who so kindly aided us in many ways during the sickness and death of our loved one: also Rev. John Howard for his words of sympathy and consolation, and Kincaid & Son for their excellent services as undertakers.

LEADING AUTO MFRS. WILL EXHIBIT CARS

Once a year the leading automobile manufacturers of the country send approximately $1,000,000 worth of automobiles to Cincinnati purely for exhibition purposes. This annual "Million Dollar Auto Show" will be given this year, as heretofore, at Music Hall, under the auspices of the Cincinnati Automobile Dealers' Association, an organization of local representatives and distributors whose operations are not limited to Cincinnati, but who do business with dealers in various portions of Ohio, Indiana, West Virginia and Kentucky.

This year's "Million Dollar Auto Show" opens on Saturday, February 21, when the classiest and most popular makes of pleasure cars will be shown, this department continuing until Saturday, February 28. On March 2, the following Monday, a supplementary show, devoted entirely to the display and exploitation of motor trucks and general service vehicles, will be inaugurated, to run for a period of three days.

The fact that this year's exhibition has been split up into two sections is due to the extraordinary demand for space, the number and magnitude of the displays of both pleasure cars and service trucks exceeding those of previous years. This means that prospective buyers, whether dealers, private citizens seeking any grade of pleasure car, or business men, desirous of getting up to date by handling their deliveries on motor trucks, will find a greater variety of motor-driven vehicles to select from than ever before were shown in the Ohio Valley.

Nor will the display of motor cars be the only attraction to take the public to Music Hall during the time of the show. Arrangements have been made for concerts every afternoon and evening by the noted Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra, with soloists from time to time. Special demonstrations by the various exhibitors also will be featured, while the two large halls in which the vehicles will be shown will be handsomely decorated, this portion of the project alone entailing an expense of $7,500.

Some idea of the magnitude of the show may be gained from the following list of exhibitors, many of whom will show three or four models of their respective cars:

Charles Behlen's Sons Company, Detroit electric pleasure cars and trucks; Cincinnati Automobile Company, Stutz and Pope-Hartford pleasure cars and trucks; Cincinnati Motor Truck Company, universal trucks; Citizens' Motor Car Company, Packard pleasure cars and trucks; Fischer Auto and Service Company, Chalmers, Locomobile and Saxon pleasure cars; Ford Motor Car Company, Ford; Franklin Motor Car Company, Franklin; Hanauer Automobile Company, Pierce-Arrow pleasure cars and trucks; Hellman Motor Car Company, Haynes pleasure cars and commerce trucks; Herschede Motor Car Company, Rauch & Lang electric; Imperial Motor Car Company, Stearns-Knight pleasure cars and Baker electric; Kentucky Motor Car Company, Oakland; Kruse Motor Car Company, Marmon and Maxwell pleasure cars and Kelly-Springfield trucks; Leveigne two-cycle pleasure cars; Leyman-Bulck Company, Buick pleasure cars and Buick and Federal trucks; George C. Miller Sons, Cole pleasure cars and Standard electric; Ratterman Motor Car Company, Maxwell; Charles Schlear Motor Car Company, Hupmobile and Apperson; Stevens-Duryea Company, Stevens-Duryea pleasure cars; Towle-Cadillac Company, Cadillac; Weibon Motor Car Company, Hudson pleasure cars; White Motor Car Company, White pleasure cars; Progressive Garage, Pathfinder pleasure cars; Rose Hill Garage, Ohio electric; Moore Oil Company, Paragon Refining Company, oils; Ten Brock Tyre Company, tires; Eureka Resilient Wheel Company, auto wheels; A. S. K. Company, metal and body polish; Dayton Rubber and Manufacturing Company, airless tires; Ohio Ford Shop, Ford specialties, Perkins-Campbell Company, seat covers; National Auto School, auto instruction, and other for whom spaces have been reserved.

Dealers from this section, as well as many of our citizens interested in motor cars, have arranged to attend the show.
