Miss Pearl Carlisle Honored.

Miss Pearl Carlisle, who is attending Ohio State University, last week had the high honor conferred upon her of being elected a member of Phi Beta Kappa fraternity. Members of this fraternity are selected solely upon their work in their studies and is the highest honor that can be conferred upon a student. Prof. Elder, Miss Carlisle's advisor, stated that her record in her studies was unparalleled at Ohio State University. Miss Carlisle is a junior and it is most unusual for any but a senior to be elected to membership in Phi Beta Kappa. Miss Carlisle is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Carlisle, of this place.
