"PERSEVERE."

POMEROY, OHIO.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 7, 1851.

FOR PRESIDENT, GEN. WINFIELD SCOTT

WHIG STATE TICKET.

FOR GOVERNOR, SAMUEL F. VINTON, OF GALLIA.

FOR LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR, STEPHEN R. ECKLEY, OF CARROLL.

FOR SECRETARY OF STATE, EARL BELL, OF SANDUSKY.

FOR TREASURER, ALBERT A. BLISS, OF LOANIN.

FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL, HENRY STANBURY, OF FRANKLIN.

FOR BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS, DANIEL SEGUR, OF CUYAHOGA, PETER O'DLIN, OF MONTGOMERY, CHARLES C. CONVERS, OF MUSKINGUM, BELLAMY STOREY, OF HAMILTON, GEORGE B. WAY, OF DELANCEY.

FOR SENATE JUDGES, SHERLOCK J. ANDREWS, OF CUYAHOGA, PETER O'DLIN, OF MONTGOMERY, CHARLES C. CONVERS, OF MUSKINGUM, BELLAMY STOREY, OF HAMILTON, GEORGE B. WAY, OF DELANCEY.

JUDGE OF COURT OF COMMON PLEAS, SIMON NASH, OF GALLIA.

FOR SENATOR, ALONZO CUSHING, OF GALLIA.

WHIG COUNTY TICKET.

Representative, JEREMIAH B. ACKLEY, Probate Judge, MARTIN HECKARD, Clerk of Court, ANDREW DONNALLY, Sheriff, SAMUEL BRADBURY, Treasurer, GREEN BRANCH, Recorder, Commissioner, THOMAS SMITH.

Our issue for next week will be delayed until Thursday morning, for the purpose of giving the election returns.

See the genuine Whig Ticket in another column.

TAKE NOTICE. We expect every one who owes us to pay within TWO WEEKS—Those living in Pomero, Coalport, Middleport and Sheffield, will be called upon personally within that time. Those living at a distance will remit.

Some folks pretend to be huffy because no paper has been issued for a few weeks and impute it to intention on our part. If they can control the elements—make it rain when it suits them—take steamboats drawing three feet of water over a bar where there is no more than two—they may have reason to think we could have avoided the difficulty—if not, we hope they will turn their good bling propensities on Providence and let us alone. If their stomachs are out of order we would advise a little exercise of muscles and less of the tongue—as a sovereign remedy.

Such a length of time has intervened—some months—since the primary elections, and other matter crowding our columns—we have omitted the table of returns, and placed the ticket at the head of our paper.

OUT AGAIN.—The Robert's rise in the river, small as it was, brought us our paper, which has been high and dry on a sand bar for the past month, and we are able once more to greet our patrons and readers. The loss to our readers is less than to us—no thirty dollars a week would not remunerate us. This fact alone will convince our readers that the fault is not ours.

The river rose slightly the past week, before that time it was lower than at any time since 1838. Navigation was entirely suspended and the beautiful Ohio surrendered to the dominion of Cat-fish, Gars, Crawfish, and the other subjects of the watery element. We have now, however, prospects of a change.

WHIGS OF MEIGS. Go early to the polls on Tuesday next—vote early and see that your neighbors do the same. It will never do to have it said, that SAMUEL F. VINTON has been defeated by the indifference of his old constituents. Let us give him one of our old fashioned majorities—a real Log Cabin vote! "Up and at them!"

AGRICULTURAL FAIR! The first Agricultural Fair, for Meigs county will be held at Middleport, October 22d. We see no notices in circulation, but presume the public are aware of the fact. It is to be hoped that it will be creditable to the Farmers of Meigs county, and give such an earnest of future excellence as to encourage our farmers to take an interest in such displays of the progress of the arts of husbandry among them.

V. B. HORTON, Esq., we understand is to deliver the address.

NEW BUILDING—WASHINGTON STREET, Esq., and O. BRANCH & Co. are erecting handsome three story bricks in the best second story. We learn that they contemplate uniting their upper stories together, so as to make one room 40 feet square, which is designed for a Public Hall. This is decidedly the best move in the building line made in our place. Nothing is so much needed here as a good Hall—and the gentlemen engaged deserve the thanks of everybody for their liberal public spirit.

SAMUEL F. VINTON.

During the latter part of Mr. Monroe's Administration, a project was set on foot in Congress, by the South, for the removal of the Creek, Choctaw, and some other tribes of Indians, which then inhabited the interior portions of Georgia and Alabama; to the northwest territory, embracing that portion which is now included in the flourishing State of Iowa, and stretching west to the Rocky Mountains.

It was proposed to set apart this vast domain for exclusive and permanent occupation by the Indian tribes, and, as a commencement, those Indians owning lands and living in the slaveholding States were to be removed thither first.

On a first view, the scheme appeared plausible, and was favorably received by Congress. It was strongly urged by Mr. Calhoun, with all the ability and eloquence of which he was master, and also by very many distinguished gentlemen in the councils of the nation.

As that was a time when there was comparatively little sectional animosity existing between the North and the South, the one grave objection to the scheme was not urged or probably thought of by statesmen in their arguments pro and con in the incipient stages of discussion. The main objection thus lost sight of by the opponents of the proposition, all minor objections were easily overcome, and the friends of the bill were sanguine of its passage.

At this juncture a member from Ohio arose and claimed the attention of the house. With bold and fearless eloquence, such as the cause of freedom always inspires in the bosoms of its faithful advocates, that member proceeded to unmask the covert designs of the South in urging this scheme. The great objection to the measure, which had been overlooked by all others, he set forth in boldest array. With undaunted fearlessness, he charged home upon Mr. Calhoun and his aiders and abettors in the scheme, that their secret intent was to appropriate to the Indians territory in the Indian free territory—well knowing that at some day, not far distant, this territory would be carved up into States; therefore, they would people it with Indians—Southern Indians—to prevent this consummation.

It was enough. The scheme was unmasked. Its southern advocates quailed before the exposure. Its feeble opposers from the North admitted that they had not thought of that objection. The bill was defeated. The arguments of that member from Ohio, then comparatively unknown, had given it a fatal blow.

That member was SAMUEL F. VINTON the Whig candidate for Governor of Ohio! Here was a battle fought and a victory won for Freedom, such as Mr. Giddings, with all his honest achievements in her behalf, has never been able to accomplish. Here was a tangible triumph by the friends of free labor over the minions of slavery. Had the South succeeded in her designs, where would have been the young and prosperous State of Iowa, which was a part of the territory thus to be ceded to the Indians? Lost to Freedom and Free Labor forever.

Whigs! remember this, and when you hear your candidate for Governor charged with being a pro-slavery hunker, with no sympathies for freedom, throw the lie back into the teeth of those who make the charge.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING.—Last Saturday the Democracy made a rally at the court house, and with the aid of the Whigs succeeded in filling it very respectably. Messrs. POON and VALLANDIGHAM addressed them. We were present during Mr. Pugh's speech. It was a capital effort for the Whigs—the hardest hard-money address we ever heard, and we have heard a great many. It did not go down with the Meigs county democracy, at all. We remember distinctly that in discussions which we have had with Mr. MAHOY, the present democratic candidate for Probate Judge, in times gone by—the Judge was in the habit of denying that hard-money was a doctrine of his party—but Pugh knocked that pin from under him beautifully. The most thrilling part of his speech was his allusion to the grave of THOS. L. HAMER, but he forgot to tell his audience that HAMER was guillotined by his own party because he was not a hard. His speech was rich in description, particularly that part descriptive of the Ohio Life Insurance and Trust Company's Banking House. He beat G. P. R. JAMES, most essentially, in this respect. Mr. Pugh is a very smart young man, but a little too much so for this region.

Mr. VALLANDIGHAM, quite a juvenile looking fellow, in a gaudy, fanciful, and taking him at his word, we left. Altogether the meeting considering the notice was very respectable in numbers, very attentive to what was said, but we fear not productive of much fruit. Judge Leslie presided.

WITHDRAWN.—T. A. PLANTS, Esq., the Free Soil candidate for State Treasurer, informs us that he has withdrawn his name as candidate. This leaves the track clear between BLISS and MORGAN, and no Free Soiler ought to hesitate between the two. It is to be hoped that the Free Soil candidate for Auditor has not had this good example thrown away upon him.

Elisha Whitesley, the wise and honest guardian of the U. S. Treasury, has made a decision which cuts down the salaries of the District Attorney, and U. S. Marshals, of New York to a decent point. Hereafter these officers have contrived to swell their perquisites and charges to forty, fifty, seventy or eighty thousand dollars per annum.—Mr. Whitesley deserves well of the country for his unflinching integrity.

WORK AND WIN.

The facts and figures published in the Ohio State Journal demonstrate what can be done by proper effort by the Whigs of Ohio.

A full Whig vote in every township, will elect Vinton and the entire Whig State ticket. See to it then, that the voters are all out on the Second Tuesday of October. If any Whig neighbor talks discouragingly, says the chances are bad, and that it will be of no use to work or vote, give him the facts and figures to spur him to exertion. Set the example yourself, by acting like a "live Whig" until the contest is decided.

SALMON P. CHASE, has gone over to the Locofoco party, and pledged himself to support the entire State ticket, in preference to the Free Soil ticket nominated by his own party. So has Dr. Townshend. At a meeting of the Free Soilers of Hamilton county CHASE was by public resolution read out of church. When it was said two years ago that he was shaping his course for such an end, it was "a Whig lie," now it is a Free Soil fact. How honest some men are.

The Coalport Company have finished their well, having obtained a full supply of water, and are now engaged in erecting their furnace.

The Pomero Company are about ready to commence operation—a few weeks longer and we will be able to quote Pomero salt in the market reports. This well still continues unabated in quantity; one well supplying a furnace 150 feet long will be a new thing in this western world; but it can be seen shortly in Pomero; the Mineral city of the West.

We see that the Whig papers throughout the State are fighting away on the hard-money issue. It seems strange to us that Whigs will not let this question alone. Let the Locofocos destroy the banks if they will; they only destroy themselves by so doing. A party that will elect bank officers to the Legislature and the Judicial bench, and then fight about hard-money to get the floating vote ought to be made to the mark, and either carry out their creed or abide the scorn of a deluded people. For our part, if the banks cannot take care of themselves, they cannot get us to fight for them while they vote the Locofoco ticket; not by a long shot; and we do hope the Whigs of Ohio will let the currency question alone, and not play into the hands of Locofocism any longer.

CHARGE ALONG THE LINE—BRING OUT THE VOTERS.—In less than one week the ballot-box will decide the issues before the people. Of the result there is no doubt, if a full Whig vote is polled. A full vote is always a Whig victory and whenever the Whigs have sufficient support of their State and County ticket, success has crowned their efforts.

Let election day be borne in mind and let every Whig voter and friend of our excellent county ticket, be at the polls to render up a verdict, that shall place Ohio unmistakably upon Whig ground, and wipe out the stigma which Gov. Wood has flung into the face of the people.

Be vigilant. Whigs, efficient in your labors, uniting in zeal, and let not the poll-closure with a Whig elector at home who has not deposited his vote.

Charge along the line—bring out the voters! Let the Democracy of Meigs remember Mr. PUGH's famous anti-bank, hard-money speech on Saturday last—then to remember that ALLEN G. THURMAN, one of their candidates is an exclusive bank stockholder. That L. B. OTIS, their candidate for Common Pleas Judge, in the Northern District is Cashier of a Bank. That DANIEL BEHEL, the President of the Miami Valley Bank, has been nominated for Representative by the Democracy of Montgomery. Great country this, to make hard-money speeches in—plenty of stock to work up.

THE FREE SOILERS.—MR. VINTON.—We have noticed in the Ohio State Journal, during our vacation, a series of able articles in vindication of Mr. VINTON'S course on the Slavery question, and had we either time or room would like to republish them. There is no doubt but most of our Free Soil Friends have read them. They are usually put at a very unfair and unmanly article, which appeared in the National Era in reference to "GOTT'S resolution," written by some one in Mr. BAILEY'S absence, and intended to aid Locofocism in Ohio. The articles further show that Mr. Vinton voted against the Fugitive Law, the Texas Boundary Bill, and in favor of admitting California as a free State. How any Free Soiler—any honest one—can vote against Mr. Vinton, after reading that expose, is more than we can see—and we are glad to know many who will vote for him.

REMEMBER. Tax payers, on next election day, that the Locofoco administrations preceeding the advent of the Whig Policy in 1845, instead of paying any portion of our State debt, borrowed money to pay the interest. Since then the Whigs have not only paid the interest regularly, but a portion of the principal.

The Ohio State Journal says that the Free-soilers of Franklin county have nominated the locofoco county ticket, and that the District Attorney, and U. S. Marshals, of New York to a decent point. Hereafter these officers have contrived to swell their perquisites and charges to forty, fifty, seventy or eighty thousand dollars per annum.—Mr. Whitesley deserves well of the country for his unflinching integrity.

THE EVENTS OF A MONTH.

One of a newspaper sensation, that it is to realize the rapidly with which we pass on the ever shifting panorama of life. We give below a summary of occurrences since our last:

The Cuban expedition has failed—The prime agitator has been captured and sent to death.

A tremendous excitement and massacre has taken place in Lancaster county, Pa., the attempt to arrest a party of fugitive slaves.

The Ohio State Agricultural Fair—greatest exhibition ever held in the West has been begun and ended at Columbus.

The city of Boston has been the theatre of the greatest civic ovation which has ever been witnessed on the American continent—the celebration of the opening of the Boston and Canada railroad.

The American yacht, America, has beaten the whole English Royal Yacht squadron, in the annual regatta at Cowes, Isle of Wight, in presence of the Queen, Prince Albert, and the nobility of Europe. Hurra for Yankee skill. This song now rings Columbia rules the wave.

The American department in the Crystal Palace has at last assumed its proper luster and is now admitted, even by the London Times, to excel in practical utility, any other nation represented at this great industrial show.

The Emperor of Austria has dismissed his ministry and assumed the reins of government—a sort of NICHOLOI, No. 2.

The American War steamer Mississippi was to receive the illustrious KOSSUTH, on board, at Constantinople, September 18th. We may welcome him to the shores of America in a few days.

The Circassians have defeated the Russians, with immense loss—recovering all their forts and strongholds, and placing the Russian where he was three years ago.

A revolution has taken place in Central America, with what success a few weeks more will demonstrate.

A revolution is now in progress in Northern Mexico—a thing by no means unusual in that country, however.

Traces of Sir John Franklin have been discovered by the American expedition, among the icebergs of the polar seas.

The great Michigan Railroad conspiracy case has resulted in the conviction of twelve of the alleged conspirators.

A revolution is in progress in China, which threatens the overthrow of the present dynasty.

Gold has been discovered in immense quantities in Australia, the whole country has got the gold-tremors.

Such are a few of the events of a month—the usual number of robberies, murders, homicides, suicides, seductions, elopements, and other crimes, which are daily leaving their traces as indelibly stamped upon the face of society as the others have upon the face of nations—hairs are wasted and desolated by crime—and patriotism feels its rewards in the huzzas of the crowd, and more plainly by the jingle of eagle in the pocket—and less of all—but most strange—our good old world—wags on her way undisturbed—the sun rises and sets, and the "Telegraph" again goes its usual round.

THE RAPE OF THE LOCK.—HOBBS the Yankee Locksmith, has succeeded in picking the celebrated "Frank Lock" in England, which has hung in the window of the manufacturer for years—with an offer of 200 guineas to the man who would open it without the key. He also picked the celebrated "Chubb Lock," which has heretofore stood the test of the Locksmiths of every country. The "Lock Controversy" as it is called, has excited the Johnny Bulls to as high a pitch almost, as the beating of their Yachts by the America.

We learn from the Cincinnati Commercial that the cholera broke out in New-port barracks a few days since. There were twenty two cases, three of whom died.

We have received the first number of a new paper—"The Christian Standard"—published in Washington city—edited by R. V. R. GURLEY and DANIEL R. GOODLOE—devoted to African Colonization, &c. It is a beautifully printed sheet and promises to be ably conducted. It contains a kind of matter not generally attainable in other journals, and of a highly interesting character. Africa is now to the philanthropist, one of the most interesting portions of the world—the rays of light are just beginning to penetrate the thick darkness, which has overspread that unhappy country through all time, and promises by means of colonies the only hope of breaking up the slave trade, and imparting to the millions of that continent the blessings of religion and civilization. The Statesman commends itself to the support of every lover of his race.—Terms, $2 per annum in advance—3 copies for $5. Address Gurley & Goodloe, Washington City, D. C.

A colored Convention has lately been held in Canada to consider matters connected with colonization and employment of the large body of fugitive slaves in that country. The prevalent opinion seemed to be in favor of the removal of the whole colored population of that province to Jamaica.

Judge Joseph R. Swan, of Columbus, declines the nomination for Common Pleas Judge, recently conferred upon him by his party. He is one of the best Judges in the State and ought to have been on their ticket for the Supreme bench, but he was not radical enough to suit the hardy of the party, and hence was pushed aside to make way for such men as Corwin, Ranney, Barley, &c.

A Convention of Homoeopathic Physicians.

is to be held in Columbus this week, commencing to-day. Of course there will be long speeches made as the members carry their professional principles with them into the Convention.

The yacht America, which has beaten the English sailing craft, and taken the prize has been sold by Col. Stevens to an English officer for $35,000. She cost about 10,000.

The U. S. Consul for Hawaii, one of the Sandwich Islands, is in this country bearing negotiations for annexing those islands to the United States.

The Austrian tribunals have sentenced a spy, for a political offence, to eight years imprisonment in a dungeon.

The Bloomer dress is just beginning to be in Philadelphia. On pleasant evenings, the Bulletin says Chestnut street is alive with them.

The New York Mirror states that the health of Mr. CLAY is in a very feeble state, and that it is very doubtful if he will ever again be able to visit Washington.

The Marietta and Cincinnati Railroad Company have forty miles more of their road, completing the connection between the mineral region and Cincinnati.

MONTHLIES.—Graham's Magazine for October, is one of the finest of the year. The Engravings are "The Evening Light," a simple engraving from the burn of Robinson, and one of the finest embellishments have ever seen in a Magazine—a beautiful fashion plate—and "The Scene in the Country." The leading article is an exceedingly able metaphysical article on "Habit," from the pen of Dr. Wm. ELDER of Philadelphia. Herbert also contributes one of his own articles on sporting—which is to us, always the article of the book. Altogether Graham is alone in the Magazine world.

Godey's Lady's Book for October is a fine one—the best idea we can give is to take it—it is Godey's—it contains 21 engravings and 36 original articles. There is a proverb which we may well repeat this month—Godey always redeems his promise.

The Ohio State senate is filled, almost fully with undiscriminating filio of the Democratic State nominees. Some of its no-noses smuck so strongly of the ordinary style, that we shall not wonder to see them republished under black legs after the second Tuesday in October.

SENATOR WADE. We perceive that Mr. GIDDINGS' paper in Ashland does not like the speeches which Senator WADE is making all over that county, we do not wonder at it. We should suppose that the friends and opponents of the men who were once Whigs, and who, upon all questions of practical importance are Whigs still, would have great force. So thinks the GIDDINGS organ, and hence its groans and tears. Sensible men are beginning to see through the movements of the leaders of their party in Ohio. CHASE, TOWNSEND, MILLER, TAYLOR, &c., after their oratorical appeal to the dear people, have sloughed off into pure Locofocism, where they belong, and have carried as many Whigs with them as they could influence. The balance of that party can be the character of the men they have been trusting. Some of them have too much sense and perception of propriety to go with CHASE & Co. into full communion with a party that advocated the annexation of Texas; the extension of slave territory, and that declared itself in favor of the annexation of Cuba, slavery and all, to these United States.

It is gratifying to learn that thousands are getting their eyes open to the true tendency of these things, and we do not doubt that the speeches and labors of Senator WADE will do much in this behalf.—O. S. Journal.

ONLY ONE WEEK MORE!—TO THE POLLS! The Cincinnati Gazette opportunely reminds the People of Ohio that the approaching annual election—the most important that has ever been held in the State—comes off one week from this day, the second Tuesday in October. "But this time is left to prepare for this contest—to complete the necessary arrangements to bring out a full vote. We know that the 'Democracy' keep up their organization, work actively, and as a general rule, are always ready for action. How is it with the Whigs? From what we see and hear in other parts of the State, our friends are active—up and doing—and evincing a fixed determination, come what or come how, to do their whole duty before the election and its by-products. This is as it should be. But what shall we say of the Whigs of Cincinnati—of Hamilton county? A short time since a thorough organization was commenced by young and energetic men, which gave promise of good results. We hope and trust that these efforts are well directed, and will continue until every Whig in the county is induced to come out to the election and dispose his vote. We have thousands of good Whigs, and on their vote the election of the State officers may, and probably will depend. We owe our aid to the cause, to our principles, to our party friends throughout the State, and to the country. Let it never be said that Locofocos and Ultraists have triumphed because the Whigs had too little regard for their principles, or were too lazy to come out and vote. There is too much apathy. It endangers our cause and the prosperity of the State. Let us remember that our liberties and our rights are held on the conditions of eternal vigilance. Are we too lazy to lift our arm for the preservation of our rights, no indifferent to our principles to exert ourselves to sustain them, no careless of our personal security and our property, to devote a little time to preserve them under the protection of law and order? We have no time to lose. Let no one stand idling away his time, but be up while it yet is to do, and at work, where ever work is to be done; and continue to work from this time until the election."

LATEST FROM EUROPE.

ARRIVAL OF THE BALIC. PHILADELPHIA, SEPTEMBER 30.

The steamer Balic, from Liverpool, with dates to the 17th inst., arrived at New York at half past seven on Sunday morning. She sailed from Liverpool at 2 1/2 P. M., on the 17th, and brings 97 passengers.

The Balic passed the Asia on the 19th nineteen hours west of Cape Clear. The Balic experienced heavy westerly winds the whole passage.

The Canada arrived at Liverpool on the evening of the 13th, in 10 days and five hours.

The excitement about gold in Australia is rather on the increase.

Mr. Gladstone's disclosures about the atrocity of the Neapolitan government seemed to be causing more and more and more uneasiness among the advocates of that despotism.

The Austrian loan exercised a depressing influence on commercial interests generally.

The Liverpool Cotton market continued firm, with middling qualities a shade dearer since the Africa's departure. Sales for three days 19,000 bales, 7000 of which were taken by speculators and exporters.

Flour dull and unchanged, holders demanding higher prices. Corn dull and declined 1/4 per bushel.

Provisions dull and unchanged. Coffee increased in price, but dull. Tea unaltered. The Manchester trade continues good.

The London money market is still sensitive, with daily failures, and is further depressed.

The Earl of Donoughmore died on the 12th.

Hon. Abbot Lawrence is on a tour through Ireland.

The receipts of the Exhibition continue at about £3000 per day.

The harvest news throughout Great Britain is most encouraging, and the weather favorable for gathering it in.

The German Diet held a sitting on the 6th September, when the report of the committee on the constitutions was received; but so great was the diversity of opinion, that even the minutes could not be agreed to.

Much disappointment exists throughout England from a lack of definite information in relation to the Cuban expedition.—The papers are still filled with accounts from the United States concerning it. Negotiations are going on between Spain, France and England, with a view to announce to the American Government that it is bound to put a stop to further invasions of Cuba.

The news from the continent shows much uneasiness as to future transactions. The department of Ardeche has been placed in a state of siege. Prince de Joinville is expected to make some declaration formally as a candidate for the Presidency.

At Naples forty-six State prisoners were sentenced to death; among them were ten Jesuits, two ex-ministers, one ambassador, and two priests.

INDIA.—The mail arrived at Marseille with Calcutta dates to 7th of August. The news is unimportant.

PAY YOUR POSTAGE.—The New York Tribune says the following is an extract of a letter sent from that city to a man who did not pay his postage.

"Yours of the 21st asking information in regard to the Cotton Market is received, and below you have the lowest quotations. I am always happy to serve you, but can do so at less cost if you will prepay your letters, for which purpose I enclose a dozen of the new postage stamps."
