"That's What's the Matter." The reason of the great rush to Fleming & Herrett's Bookstore for Wall Paper and Shades, is, because they sell cheaper than any others in the line—so much so that they have ordered a fifth supply, to arrive in ten days. New and splendid patterns, ten per cent. cheaper than ever offered in Xenia. Give them a call and be convinced.

June 9-21. Masonic Celebration. There will be a Grand Masonic Celebration on the Fair Grounds, at Xenia, on Saturday, June 24th. An address will be delivered by Rev. C. A. Felton, of Columbus. The music of the occasion will be furnished by the Xenia Glee Club, and by the Cornet Band of Springfield. Dinner will be prepared on the ground, by Mr. Currie, of the Xenia Depot. The exercises of the day will doubtless be very attractive and interesting.

The Old Continental Quartette. This troupe will give a Concert at McMillan's Hall, in Xenia, on Tuesday evening, June 18th. It is composed of the genuine, original, Continentals. This feat alone is sufficient to draw the very largest audience. The printed programme, for the entertainment on Tuesday night, promises unusual attractions, and there will doubtless be a large turnout of the music-loving public. Let all attend.

The Athenum Dramatic Company which has been giving delightful entertainments in Dayton for a week or two past, is to be at McMillan's Hall, in this City, on this (Friday) evening, and also on tomorrow (Saturday) evening. It is composed of good performers, many of them from the best theaters in the country.

Literary Address. Dr. Wiley, Editor of the Ladies Repository, will deliver the annual address before the Litchiana Society of the Xenia Female College, in the First M. E. Church at 8 P. M., June 9th. Essays by the Graduating Class at 7:30 P. M., Tuesday and Wednesday, June 20th and 21st.

Soda Fountain. Mr. J. B. MURPHY has erected a beautiful Soda Fountain in his Drugstore, and on last Monday afternoon he consecrated it to its purpose by giving a free, and we may say delicious, treat to all passers-by. In this hot, oppressive weather, nothing can excel, in its refreshing quality, a cool glass of excellent soda. This house will doubtless be a fashionable resort during the warm summer months. Mr. John Martin, the gentlemanly clerk, will always be on hand to please.

Dissolution of Partnership. The partnership heretofore existing between R. S. Finley and J. M. Milburn in the Drug business has been dissolved by mutual consent. The accounts of the old firm are made out. Persons indebted will please call and close them.

R. S. FINLEY. J. M. MILBURN. The business will be continued by R. S. Finley under the name of R. S. Finley & Co. The new firm hope to conduct the business with such care and discretion as to merit a liberal patronage.

The stock is full; all the leading articles were bought at the reduced prices and will be sold accordingly.

June 9th. A distressing accident occurred, on Tuesday, on the Railroad between Xenia and Dayton. A Mr. McCormick, who was employed in repairing the road, while in the act of coupling together a couple of freight cars, was badly and dangerously injured in the abdomen. We are informed by Dr. Martin that his recovery is doubtful.

FLEMING & HERBERT are selling a vast amount of wall paper, the reason being that their patterns are the most beautiful and their figures the lowest in the Xenia market.

On Monday morning, about five o'clock, a fire broke out in a barn belonging to Judge Winans, on Second street. The fire companies arrived so quickly on the spot that the flames were arrested in their progress before even the roof was burned off. It is reported that the building was fired by an incendiary. Our citizens certainly have reason to congratulate themselves upon the possession of such prompt and excellent fire companies. If proper alarm is given no fire can do much damage in Xenia. Our companies, we think, are unusually efficient. They deserve much praise.

On last Sunday a young boy of Xenia, named Jack, went off to the woods on a hunting excursion. He managed to get himself intricately lost, and after groping till dark in the forest he struck a public road and started in the direction of Wilmington. Some person met him, and, taking him up in a spring wagon, carried him to Xenia. During the day those who were seeking him were informed that he had fallen into the river and was drowned. Of course this report gave rise to much anxiety. There are many "fast" boys in Xenia, who seem to be under subjection to no proper authority. A great responsibility rests upon parents.

Mrs. Ann Elizabeth English, daughter of Lawrence Wagner, sexton of the 1st U. P. Church, died very suddenly on Wednesday evening. Her sickness was not of more than thirty minutes duration. We have not learned the particulars.

The Mayor's Office.

Our citizens may well congratulate themselves upon the efficiency of the city government of Xenia. The way wardens, law-breakers, and wrong-doers generally are brought to justice in a very gratifying manner. A day or two ago, through the courtesy of the Mayor, we were permitted to examine the record of our City Court. It showed very plainly that offenders in Xenia, who knowingly and intelligently violate the peace and order of society, may expect to be dealt with by our city authorities in a manner that justice and a determination to preserve good order dictate.

Several important cases were disposed of last week. In the case of the State of Ohio against Thomas Scoury, for assault and battery, the defendant pleaded not guilty, and was recognized to appear before the Court of Common Pleas.

In the case of the State of Ohio against W. L. Hampton, charged with obtaining money from W. A. Hightower under false pretenses, the defendant was acquitted. This case was tried on last Saturday. During the progress of the trial a very interesting and lively episode transpired. Mr. J. A. Sexton and Mr. Hugh Carey were the attorneys in the case. Their words were bright, and lawyer-like, but they were indulging in lively repartee. But the respective clients did not feel so good natured. They felt belligerent, and warlike. Mr. Sexton's client, anxious to assist his principal, assaulted Mr. Carey with a chair. The latter gentleman defended himself as well as might be with a chair also. At this stage of the proceedings Mr. Carey's client entered the ring, and the two clients took their case in their own hands, and proceeded to settle in a vigorous and summary manner. Scorpions of broken chairs flew through the air like bullets on a battle-field. After quite a little trial of muscle, the parties were separated, and the legal trial again commenced, not, however, until the parties—the clients—had each been fined five dollars for bad behavior and contempt of Court.

In the case of the State of Ohio against George Schlemmer, Samuel Schlemmer, and William Schlemmer, for assault and battery, each of the defendants was fined seven dollars and costs.

Festival at Trinity Church. The Strawberry Festival, at Trinity Church, on last Friday night, was a delightful entertainment. The attendance was not numerous, but was sufficiently large, however, to insure good financial returns. Strawberries, ice-cream, lemonade, candies, cake, etc., were in abundance, and could not fail to please the most fastidious epicurean. The tables were spread in the lecture room, the front room being used chiefly for promenade. The evening passed off quietly and pleasantly, and all went away highly satisfied with the entertainment.

Let U. P. Church Festival. The Festival at Theological Hall, on Tuesday night, given by the young ladies of the 1st U. P. Church of Xenia, was a grand success. The Hall was beautifully decorated with arches of evergreens, the Stars and Stripes, choice flowers in great profusion, portraits of prominent characters, and other not less pleasing attractions. The room was filled to its utmost capacity, and the evening, during the warm summer months, drank, talked, laughed, and what was better than all, spent their money freely. Everybody was pleased with the entertainment.

Among the many attractions to be seen, was a relic of antiquity in the form of a musical clock, which was one hundred years old. Mr. John Bleasing—now deceased—carried it to this country from Virginia, many years ago, paying the expenses of his traveling with the receipts made by the music.

We understand that the receipts of the Festival amounted to about $300.

The County Convention meets in Xenia to-morrow. We hope there will be a large delegation from each Township in attendance.

What was formerly the Barr building, but what is now the Arnold building, opposite the Court House, on Main street, is undergoing major repairs. The building is, also, in a short time, to be extended back to the rear of the lot, thus making the lower rooms, at present occupied by Nichols & Black's Clothing store, J. B. Murphy's Drugstore and Fleming & Herrett's Bookstore, long and commodious. We hope Mr. Arnold will soon make this improvement. It will add a little, at least, to Xenia's business room. We need a little capital judiciously invested in Xenia in the way of building. We need more dwelling houses and more business rooms. Rates are too high by fifty per cent. In fact there are times when houses can not be rented at any price. If mercantile rooms were obtainable there would soon be more business done in Xenia. We sincerely hope Mr. Arnold will soon make the contemplated improvement, and that other men of capital will make similar investments.

For several days past our people have been enjoying (?) a season of exceedingly hot weather. The mercury has stood, on an average, (in the middle of the day) at about ninety degrees. Such weather is enough to test the endurance of people living in this temperate climate. If the heat shall increase in intensity regularly from now until the middle of August—

"Then flames above, around, below, Will make this world a stage, Such as no other age Has given to try men's souls."

We publish in to-day's Sentinel a new advertisement of the Drugstore of R. S. Finley & Co. This is the old stand of J. P. Patton; and it maintains its reputation for safety and reliability. The public may expect prescriptions to be properly filled in the future as in the past, as there is no change in the clerkship of the establishment.

We are under obligations to Mr. D. B. Tiffany for a late copy of the Nashville Union; also, to Mr. James Mitchell for a late copy of the New Orleans Times.

Desirable Building Lot for Sale. I will sell Lot No. 10, in Lesman's addition to the city of Xenia. It is a beautiful and well located lot for building purposes. Terms, Cash. J. G. FEURLE.

LETTERS FROM JAMESTOWN.

JAMESTOWN, June 5, 1865. Last week the temperance men of our village gave further evidence of their determination to keep the "ardent" out of our midst, by raising a subscription of $400 and buying real estate, which was about to be sold to a stranger who intended to convert it into a drinking saloon.

It is getting quite dry here. The weather is getting dry, and our old time toppers are dry, which drouth causes the Criminal Docket to "slumber in the dust" on a secluded corner of the shelf, untouched, uncaared for and unseen.

This part of Greene County will probably be largely represented at the County Convention on next Saturday. If there is any man in this part of the County who desires the nomination of John Brough for Governor I have not heard of him. All with whom I have conversed on the subject are opposed to his nomination. And while the people here think they have abundant reason to believe that Brough is wrong in the "back part" of his head; many of them have a lurking suspicion that Anderson has a screw loose in the "front part" of his head. As far as I have been able to ascertain, the people here desire the nomination of honest old David Todd. They supported Brough two years ago because they thought him the most available man against Vallandigham, and in other words they believed he could carry more democratic votes than Todd, he (Todd) being then considered by a majority of the semi-loyal democrats too hard a shelled abolitionist to be entitled to their support. All of our party knew the terrible consequences which must inevitably follow the election of Vallandigham and all seemed ready to make any sacrifice to prevent it. We had no objection to Todd's administration. He had fully satisfied his loyalty and patriotism. We heard no one complain that he lacked executive ability. His honesty was proverbial, and from his heart there gushed forth a stream of admiration for, and devotion to our loyal soldiers in the field; and his ear was ever attentive to the complaints of their (too often neglected) families at home.

I do not presume to trespass upon your time and space, by writing a history of Todd's administration, but before dropping the subject, I cannot refrain from mentioning one of his noblest qualities—a quality in which, (judging from the many complaints we hear,) we should suppose Gov. Brough is sadly deficient—namely: In his office, Todd welcomed alike the rich and poor, the high or low, in military rank or civil station. The accomplished and the untaught: all classes found him courteous, communicative and devoted. None were so poor or so humble that he spread them indignantly from his presence, or heaped profane or vulgar epithets upon them. He was the friend and counsellor of the poor, the afflicted and the humble. This trait of character, which made our late lamented President so immensely popular with the people, was prominent in the conduct of David Todd.

OLD FOGY. [Of course "Old Fogy" has a right to have his "say," but his abuse of Gov. Brough, and his advocacy of the resurrection of David Todd sound very strangely to us.—E.]

A CARD.

CAMP OF THE 14TH REGIMENT, O. V. L., Near WASHINGTON CITY, D. C., May 31st, 1865.

EDITOR SENTINEL.—In the SENTINEL of May 26th appeared a letter written by myself, dated April 20th, in which I said, in reference to the consolidation with the 69th Ohio, that "it was all done in order to gratify the wishes of one man, that he might be promoted to the Colonelcy." Now, last night of your readers might infer that I had reference to Maj. FRENCH of the 74th, I deem it but justice to the Major to state, that no allusion was made to him whatever, but to the Lieut. Colonel of the 69th Ohio. I do not wish to be understood either, that we had an unfriendly feeling toward the 69th. I am happy to state that consolidation has not taken place. We are still the 14th Ohio. I have the honor to be, yours Ac., IRA E. OWENS.
