

TO CONSUMPTIVES.
The advertiser, having been restored to health in a few weeks by a simple remedy, after having suffered for several years from a severe lung affection, and that dread disease, Consumption—is anxious to make known to his fellow-sufferers the means of cure.
To all who desire it, he will send a copy of the prescription (free of charge), with full directions for preparing and using the same, which they will find a sure cure for Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds, and all Throat and Lung Affections. The only object of the advertiser in sending the prescription is to benefit the afflicted, and spread information which he conceives to be invaluable, and he hopes every sufferer will try his remedy, as it will cost them nothing, and may prove a blessing.
Parties wishing the prescription, FREE, by return mail, will please address

HOW TO SAVE MONEY.
BY THE USE OF MARBLE BALLS.
The stones are hard; you'd like to know how you may save your dollars; The way to do it I will show. If you will read what follows:
A man who lived not far from here, Who worked hard in his trade, Had had a household to support That squandered all he made.
I met him once, says he, "My friend, I look threadbare and rough; I've tried to get myself a suit, But can't save up enough."
Says I, "My friend, how much have you?" "Fill 'em up, says he, 'till you're blue!"
To get a suit that's sound and cheap— AT SMITH BROTHERS & CO.
He took what little he had saved And went to Smith & Brothers, And there he got a handsome suit For half he paid to others.
Now he is home; he looks so well, And their respect is such, That when they take their daily meals They don't eat half so much.
And now he finds on Saturday night, With all his wants supplied, That he has money left to spend And some to lay aside.
His good success, with cheerful smile, He gladly tells to all, "If you'd save money, go and buy Your clothes at SMITH BROTHERS."
Where the cheapest, finest, and best clothing and agents' furnishing goods can be had to suit every taste and in every style, at 88 and 90 WEST BALTIMORE STREET, no36-ly.
