

The Democratic Advocate, PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY BY VANDERFORD BROS. CORNER OF MAIN AND CENTRE STREETS.

TERMS—$1.00 per year, 50 cents for six months, 25 cents for three months. Single copies 5 cents. ADVERTISING RATES—One square (10 lines) will be inserted 3 times or less for $1, and 25 cents for each subsequent insertion. For longer periods, rates will be made on application. When the number of insertions is not marked advertisements will be continued until notified to the contrary. Yearly advertisements must contain advertisements to their own business, full names and addresses. Business notices 10 cents per line. Marriages and deaths 10 cents per line. Notices of Personal Communications 5 cents per line.

The date on the label on your paper shows the time to which your subscription is paid.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 4, 1897.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

LOCAL BRIVITIES.

The Hanover Fair begins next Tuesday. Mr. Henry B. Albaugh, this city, has had a new stable roof put on his dwelling.

Mr. Clarence W. Zapp has purchased of Mr. William McCallum his 50-acre farm near this city.

Monday next, Labor Day, is a legal holiday. All the offices in the Court House and Banks will be closed.

The Carroll County Teachers' Association met in this city yesterday. The public schools will reopen next Tuesday.

P. M. Weidner, of Lehigh Ferry, sold on August 21st a farm of 92 acres to John T. Dutera for $44.55 per acre.

Albert, aged 9 years, son of Mr. Charles N. Mitten, of this city, fell from a tree on Tuesday afternoon and broke a rib.

Mr. L. A. Miller has opened a hotel at Crawford's old stand, near Taylorville, in honor of the event Mr. Miller sent up a balloon every night.

The County Commissioners have decided to build a new bridge over Big Pipe Creek at Trevanton, and proposals for building the same are advertised for.

Charles Edgar Pugh, a young man from Hanover, was adjudged insane and committed to Springfield Asylum by Judge Roberts. The insanity is said to be the result of excessive cigarette smoking.

The Democratic County Central Committee met in this city last Monday and organized by re-electing H. P. Crouse chairman, E. O. Weaver secretary and Dr. Jos. T. Herzig treasurer. An executive committee of one from each district was appointed.

Mrs. Margaret Royer, of this city, had a night blooming cereus plant in bloom on Wednesday night. There were seven flowers, and Mrs. Royer placed the plant at the front door so that the public could enjoy the beautiful sight. Mrs. Emily Ripplard and Mrs. Theo. Derr had plants in bloom the same night.

Evans Haines, chairman of the Democratic County Convention that nominated the county ticket on July 26, has called the delegates to meet in this city, at Odd Fellows' Hall, next Monday, September 6 to fill the vacancies on the ticket and to consider other business as may be brought before the convention.

Mr. G. Brooks Young of Littlestown, Pa., formerly proprietor of Hotel Albion, this city, in ordering the Advocate sent him, writes: "I feel a deep interest in the success of the Democratic, and especially in the election of the ticket in your county. Any one sorry I cannot be with you to aid in what I believe will be a glorious victory this year."

Mr. Frank K. Herr, of Westminster, has declined the prohibition nomination for clerk of the circuit court, and Mr. Calvin H. Chew, of Tanawagon, was nominated by the Democratic Central Committee in his place. Mr. Wesley Davidson declined a nomination for the House of Delegates, and Mr. W. H. Hood, of Mr. Airy, has been nominated in his stead.

Taneytown is to have pure water, the result of agitation on the question for several years, and an adequate supply of water. The contract to construct waterworks has been let to Chandler Bros. & Co., of Waterbury Falls, Pa., for $10,000. The house is to be completed by December 1, and the water supply is to be drawn from Pinesy Creek, a quarter of a mile from Taneytown.

Mr. Herman Dint, of Westminster, has a horse that is petted much by his mother. She would give him grass, corn husks and other things to eat. On Saturday last she offered the animal a green hulk. At the same time some one spoke to her and she turned her head aside. In the excitement of the moment she accidentally caught one of her fingers and bit off a nail of it.

Smith & Reifsnider, coal and lumber dealers of this city, lost one of their beautiful gray horses on Friday last week. The team was coming down Webster street, when some stray fall from the top of a building struck the team of grays. They started to run, and in turning into Manchester road one horse ran against an electric light pole, so injuring itself that it died several hours later.

Mr. Samuel Henry, living in Cranberry Valley, brought a sample of his potatoes on Tuesday evening. The potatoes were of the Lily variety, and were smooth and shapely. The sample included five, and the five measured 3 1/2 inches in length, an average of nearly 1 1/2 inches. Mr. E. C. Fisher, near Westminster, brought us a basket of nice apples and pears on Wednesday.

Fred Best, the itinerant photographer, who was charged with the larceny of a horse and buggy from H. H. Harbaugh, a liverman of Westminster, was brought to court on Tuesday on Friday evening of last week and lodged in jail. He was before Justice Foss on Tuesday and was discharged, best agreeing to pay for the extra fine of the horse and all costs, and Harbaugh there declining to prosecute.

Joseph German, of McSherrystown, who is under indictment for adultery, fornication and larceny in Adams county, came over into Carroll when the recent term of court began at Gettysburg. District Attorney Hersh, of Gettysburg, telegraphed to State's Attorney Reifsnider and to the sheriff of Adams county. German agreed to go to Gettysburg without a requisition and he was taken to jail there on Monday.

Mr. James A. Diefenbach has been transferred by Collector Shaw from the position of Special Deputy to the place of Deputy, formerly held by Col. T. C. Hopkins, of Harford county. Mr. Diefenbach is now in the classified list. Secretary Gage has confirmed Mr. Diefenbach's appointment to the new position, but would not confirm the appointment of Newton S. Cook, of Hagerstown, who was appointed Deputy Collector on August 25.

Last Saturday, tract No. 3, of the John A. Brumgard estate, situate partly in Union township, Adams county, and partly in West Manchester township, York county, containing 111 acres and 117 perches, was sold to Mrs. J. A. Brumgard, widow of deceased, at $28.10 per acre. Tract No. 4, located partly in York county and 30 perches, was sold to John A. Brumgard, the executor, at $80 per acre. Tract No. 5, containing 2 acres and 47 perches, adjoining tract No. 4, was sold to A. E. Noll at $50 per acre.

Ed. Noll, in his September forecast, says: "This month opens with stormy weather to eastward and clearing, cooler weather and high barometer advancing from the west. These conditions will continue to warm with storms on or about the 4th, 5th, and high barometer, with cool, clearing weather, will succeed for two or three days. From about the 10th to 13th expect very heavy storms. Look for very cool wave and frost following the storm area. From about the 14th to 17th, high gales and violent inland storms are probable. High barometer and cold will prevail as September approaches its end.

Mr. Edward Strivig, a well-known citizen of Hanover, Pa., died on August 23d. He was the son of John Strivig, and was born on the old Strivig homestead, near Manchester, Md., February 18, 1848. On January 24, 1872, he was married to Mary M. Jenkins, daughter of the late John Jenkins, of Hanover. A widow and four children survive him. He leaves the following brothers and sisters—William, of York; Henry and Ephraim, near Manchester; John, of near York; Mrs. Annie Peterson, of Hanover; Mrs. John Lamotte, of Manchester; Mrs. W. Wareham, of Bachman's Valley, and Mrs. Sarah Bucher, of near Melrose. Politically, Mr. Strivig was a Democrat. In 1891 he was elected assessor of the second ward, which office he held at the time of his death, always performing his duties with credit to himself and well as to the town.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Mr. Samuel P. Everhart has removed from Westminster to Baltimore. Ex-Justice G. W. Crapser, of this city, has been admitted to practice before the Interior Department at Washington.

The Central Hotel, this city, formerly conducted by Mr. John Marsh, has been rented to a gentleman from York, Pa. During August and August 29 deals, 11 mortgages and 10 bills of sale were recorded in the Clerk's office and 22 marriage licenses were issued.

Fifty-five tickets were sold at the station here for the Waynesboro centennial this week. The Warfieldburg Band was one of the numerous bands in the parade.

The Great mill of A. Z. Zentz, near Thurmont, Frederick county, was burned on Friday evening of last week, together with 600 bushels of wheat. The fire originated from a spark from the smokestack. The mill was insured in the Mutual Fire Insurance Company of Carroll County for $2000.

Mr. W. W. Bannister arrived here on Tuesday from Mt. Holly Springs, Pa., and took charge of Hotel Albion on Wednesday. Mr. Johnson and family left Westminster on Tuesday for the former home. Maj. Burrell has decided to give up the City Hotel and will move back to Belair next week.

Contributors to the Flower Mission this week were—Mrs. Fannie Bish, Mrs. George Baughman, Mrs. J. T. Orndoff, Mrs. P. V. Barre, Miss Emma K. Conroy, Master Howell Sherrill, Miss Jane Woodward, Mrs. Jos. Fozit, Miss Emma Reese, Mrs. William Cook, Mrs. John Diehl, Mrs. Thea Moyer, Mrs. Elia Yingling, Miss Laura Mubler, Mrs. Baker Myers, Mrs. Theo. Derr, Jr., Mrs. Jas. Fowler, Mrs. F. Rinker, Mrs. Charles Baughman, Mrs. Lizzie Nubham, Mrs. Jesse Shreeve, Miss L. Fulton Miller, Miss Nan Zapp, Mrs. A. Carr, Miss Grace Diehl, Mrs. H. Hoppe, Miss Lon Bixler, and others. Next week—Miss Lillie Woodard and Bessie Herr.

The bridge over Big Pipe Creek at Trevanton lacks down on Thursday afternoon. Mr. John Stoner and his son Emory, living near Uniontown, with a lead of steel drove on the bridge and caused it to break. The structure began to shake and the horses hurried their pace. Just as they reached the farther end the bridge fell down. The horses and crossed the bridge on the other side. Emory Stoner fell off into the creek and was not seen again. The bridge was not hit much and no special damage was done to wagon or team, though the escape was a narrow one. Had the bridge gone down when the team was midway the structure, serious results might have happened. The County Commissioners had decided to put up a new bridge and proposals for doing the work are advertised for in this issue.

Personal Notes. Mr. Thomas Barry of Freedom district, is in Atlantic City, with the family of her brother, Mr. W. H. Harden.

Mrs. Nellie H. Thielen of Washington, D. C., and Miss Hannah Dougherty, of Freedom district, are at Atlantic City.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Parker, of Washington, D. C., were guests of Mrs. David Fowle several days this week.

Mr. J. Frank Brinkerhoff, of Philadelphia, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Nelson Mitten.

Miss Belle Orndoff is visiting friends near Williams Grove.

Rev. P. H. Miller, of Grace Lutheran Church has returned home after a month's vacation, and will officiate at his church tomorrow.

Miss Eloise Eldridge Bond, daughter of Ex-Judge James A. C. Bond, and a very popular young lady, will be married next Thursday afternoon, at the residence of her parents, to Mr. Richard Hardesty Worthington, of Baltimore county.

Miss Blanche H. Frist, who has been visiting Mrs. Lily E. Cook, has returned to her home in Baltimore.

Messrs. John S. Mills and William S. Briggs of Washington, D. C., will be in this city on Saturday and Sunday until Monday.

Miss Lucinda Logue and friend, Miss Fessie Ghilardi, of Baltimore, are spending a week with Miss Logue's sisters, Mrs. A. W. Davis and Mrs. Joseph Niner.

Miss Margaret Lockard, who has spent the week of her vacation with her mother, this city, left on Thursday for a trip to Philadelphia, and will then return to Centerville, Md., where she resumes her duties as teacher.

Miss Celia Norris, of Baltimore, was a guest of Mrs. John H. Cunningham, this week.

Manchestr Items. Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Musselman spent last week in Baltimore.

Miss Edith Baskingham, of Baltimore, is the guest of Miss A. B. Baskin.

Charles Miller, of Baltimore, is the guest of Miss Laura Barrs.

Many of our citizens attended the Centennial at Tanawagon, on Wednesday and Thursday.

Miss Ida Barber, of Miller's Mill, is very ill with typhoid fever.

Mr. Richard Wareham is erecting a fine brick house on his property near Miller's.

Joseph Walters left last week for Raleigh, N. C., to be completed a position in a large jewelry establishment.

Herbert, son of Rev. Mr. Trump, of Westminster, was killed by a horse on Wednesday morning. He was riding on a horse named "Duc" and fell from the horse.

Our sportsmen started early Wednesday morning to shoot squirrels. They did not do very well, but due to the best, succeeding in shooting fifteen.

Rev. W. H. Ehrhart will hold his English harvest home services Sunday, September 12, at 10 o'clock.

The Lutheran Sunday school will hold its annual celebration in Mr. J. H. Mass' grove on Saturday, September 12, at 10 o'clock.

There will be preaching in the Lutheran Church Sunday, at 2:30 p. m., and at the Reformed Church at 10 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

Our school has had a very fine week of the fine weather and good roads this week. On Sunday Messrs. Edward Dohrer, Thomas Hall and Oliver Lippert were at Woodboro and Messrs. Herbert Lippert and Tilden Cove were at the home of Mr. L. H. Haines and John Hall are busy engaged in shipping peaches from their Haines' large orchard, at Woodboro. His crop this year is a large one, and of the best quality. He brought some very large ones home with him last Friday. There was one mouse in the peaches, and twelve inches in circumference.

On Tuesday the remains of Miss Laura A. Hesson, of Littlestown, Pa., were taken here and interred in the new cemetery. The funeral was well attended. Her age was 29 years and 11 months and 22 days. Revs. Sten and Dreisbach officiated.

Pleasant Valley Items. On Sunday last, a 2 o'clock a. m. fire broke out in the barn on the farm owned by W. B. Thomas, of Westminster, tenanted by W. H. Hesson, of Westminster. The barn was a small one, and was in use as a stable for the horse and cow. The fire was caused by a spark from the stove. The horse and cow were saved, but the barn was completely destroyed. The loss was about $1000.

The fire mentioned above was caused by a spark from the stove. The horse and cow were saved, but the barn was completely destroyed. The loss was about $1000.

The fire mentioned above was caused by a spark from the stove. The horse and cow were saved, but the barn was completely destroyed. The loss was about $1000.

The fire mentioned above was caused by a spark from the stove. The horse and cow were saved, but the barn was completely destroyed. The loss was about $1000.

The fire mentioned above was caused by a spark from the stove. The horse and cow were saved, but the barn was completely destroyed. The loss was about $1000.

The fire mentioned above was caused by a spark from the stove. The horse and cow were saved, but the barn was completely destroyed. The loss was about $1000.

The fire mentioned above was caused by a spark from the stove. The horse and cow were saved, but the barn was completely destroyed. The loss was about $1000.

The fire mentioned above was caused by a spark from the stove. The horse and cow were saved, but the barn was completely destroyed. The loss was about $1000.

The fire mentioned above was caused by a spark from the stove. The horse and cow were saved, but the barn was completely destroyed. The loss was about $1000.

The fire mentioned above was caused by a spark from the stove. The horse and cow were saved, but the barn was completely destroyed. The loss was about $1000.

The fire mentioned above was caused by a spark from the stove. The horse and cow were saved, but the barn was completely destroyed. The loss was about $1000.

The fire mentioned above was caused by a spark from the stove. The horse and cow were saved, but the barn was completely destroyed. The loss was about $1000.

The fire mentioned above was caused by a spark from the stove. The horse and cow were saved, but the barn was completely destroyed. The loss was about $1000.

The fire mentioned above was caused by a spark from the stove. The horse and cow were saved, but the barn was completely destroyed. The loss was about $1000.

The fire mentioned above was caused by a spark from the stove. The horse and cow were saved, but the barn was completely destroyed. The loss was about $1000.

The fire mentioned above was caused by a spark from the stove. The horse and cow were saved, but the barn was completely destroyed. The loss was about $1000.

The fire mentioned above was caused by a spark from the stove. The horse and cow were saved, but the barn was completely destroyed. The loss was about $1000.

The fire mentioned above was caused by a spark from the stove. The horse and cow were saved, but the barn was completely destroyed. The loss was about $1000.

The fire mentioned above was caused by a spark from the stove. The horse and cow were saved, but the barn was completely destroyed. The loss was about $1000.

The fire mentioned above was caused by a spark from the stove. The horse and cow were saved, but the barn was completely destroyed. The loss was about $1000.

The fire mentioned above was caused by a spark from the stove. The horse and cow were saved, but the barn was completely destroyed. The loss was about $1000.

The fire mentioned above was caused by a spark from the stove. The horse and cow were saved, but the barn was completely destroyed. The loss was about $1000.

The fire mentioned above was caused by a spark from the stove. The horse and cow were saved, but the barn was completely destroyed. The loss was about $1000.

The fire mentioned above was caused by a spark from the stove. The horse and cow were saved, but the barn was completely destroyed. The loss was about $1000.

The fire mentioned above was caused by a spark from the stove. The horse and cow were saved, but the barn was completely destroyed. The loss was about $1000.

The fire mentioned above was caused by a spark from the stove. The horse and cow were saved, but the barn was completely destroyed. The loss was about $1000.

The fire mentioned above was caused by a spark from the stove. The horse and cow were saved, but the barn was completely destroyed. The loss was about $1000.

The fire mentioned above was caused by a spark from the stove. The horse and cow were saved, but the barn was completely destroyed. The loss was about $1000.

The fire mentioned above was caused by a spark from the stove. The horse and cow were saved, but the barn was completely destroyed. The loss was about $1000.

PAIAPSCO ITEMS.

Mr. George H. Roushon visited his son Harold J. Roushon, and attended the Waynesboro centennial.

Misses Bonnie Hollenberry and Nellie Wood were guests of their friends in Westminster.

Mr. Norman Eckard expects to return home on Sunday from Baltimore, to take up the school here in the fall.

Little Miss Mary Reindollar returned to Tanawagon on Tuesday.

Mrs. James W. Miller and family, Mrs. Jas. Burns and family, guests of Mr. Clayton Hall's family, returned to their homes in Baltimore on Sunday.

Mr. Augustus Stitt and family, of Baltimore, who have been staying with a brother, Mr. Henry Stitt, returned home on Tuesday.

Mrs. Mary Garber and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kolb and daughter, of Woodboro, were guests of Mr. Stitt's family, Mr. Davis Myers and family on Sunday.

On Wednesday last week Mr. Lewis Myers had about 75 or 80 bushels of potatoes and a few bushels of corn raised on a thirty feet addition to his barn. A first-class dinner was served and a good time was enjoyed by all.

On Tuesday about 30 persons assisted Mr. Edwin G. Gilbert in raising a grain shed on the farm owned by Mr. Gilbert. The shed was raised in a few days and was served with an abundance of ice cream and cake.

Contributors to the Flower Mission this week were—Misses Mary McCarley and Verdie McAuliff, of Baltimore, have returned to the city, after spending several weeks with relatives and friends at this place.

Miss Nina Gardner is spending a week with friends in Baltimore.

Work on the new schoolhouse at this place is nearly completed. The contractor, Mr. George Knoll, expects to have it ready by the time school opens. The County Commissioners are looking for a new route in order to change a portion of the road leading from Sandville to Patapsco. Mr. Knoll and if the commission promises to do it, the proposed route will be a very good one, as the recent heavy rains have caused the hills to be almost impassable.

Attention, Democrats! We want a good man to represent our county in the next Legislature, and the Fourth district has the best of them.

Bicycles, Bicyclers, Bicyclists. BY AN ENTHUSIAST. The bicycling season is at its height, the weather is perfect and roads are in splendid condition every body has taken to the road and long distance riding is quite the vogue; incidentally some records have been broken by some of the best riders in the county.

Wm. F. Long, paced by W. A. Stultz and Wm. Nall, lowered the record here between and Reisterstown from 42 to 35 minutes on Sunday.

Miss May Davis, the celebrated lady centurion, of Baltimore, is visiting the Misses Roberts, of Cranberry.

W. T. Barth, of Baltimore, visited Mr. and Mrs. Krichton, and accompanied by his wife, Emma Sholer and Mr. Krichton on their tandem, visited friends in Hanover.

Elmer C. Davis, the holder of the world's 24-hour record, visited Mr. and Mrs. Krichton, Cranberry, last Sunday, and on his return to the evening in Baltimore, incidentally broke the unpaired record here in that city, making his time 1:23:55. He was checked and timed by competent persons at both ends.

W. A. Stultz, Jr., claims to be the longest long distance rider in the Carroll county for any distance.

Rev. P. H. Miller, of Westminster, is visiting Hanover on his wheels Sunday.

Mr. A. H. Wentz and Joseph Witter visited Mr. Wentz's parents, in Hanover, last Sunday. They rode up on their wheels.

Back Moore and P. Haines Cassel visited the Battelle at Gettysburg, on Sunday, in search of dead bicycle heroes connected with "the late war," but failed to find any and returned to Littlestown with a memorial service at the Hotel De Yantis.

Miss Katie Sheeler paid a visit to some unknown region last Sunday, but returned, seeming well pleased with her trip.

On Monday last, the Uniontown School District, at the residence of Mr. Krichton, on their tandem, visited friends in Hanover.

Mr. Arthur Orrison, of Washington, D. C., will be at home after Saturday, September 4, making his time 1:23:55. He was checked and timed by competent persons at both ends.

The trustees of the M. G. Shaw's family and other for same time.

Miss Louise Hoy, of York, Pa., is the guest of Miss Florence Weaver.

Mr. George M. Parke, of Westminster, is visiting Mrs. Jerry Garner.

The fishing party for Tuesday at Otterdale Mills, did not materialize, because Chas. Edlin, who was to accompany Mr. Parke and Miss Fannie and Nettie Myers, of Trevanton, had a very pleasant stay fishing in Pipe Creek, securing a carp and bass.

Mr. William Davis and wife and her sister, Miss Kroll, of Philadelphia, are the guests of Mrs. Elizabeth Davis.

An expert bicycle rider from Westminster, who has been riding on the school grounds the local newspaper correspondent and it was a real circus.

What is the matter with the Cycling Ramblers? A club as old as this with a record that is a part of history ought not to be let die out.

Dr. Baughman says when he gets his new automobile bus for his entire family, he won't be it with his Royal Blue Rambler.

We note that a great many factories have reduced their prices on bicycles. This is an easy thing to do, as the bicycle is a very simple machine and can be made in large quantities.

Our sportsmen started early Wednesday morning to shoot squirrels. They did not do very well, but due to the best, succeeding in shooting fifteen.

Rev. W. H. Ehrhart will hold his English harvest home services Sunday, September 12, at 10 o'clock.

The Lutheran Sunday school will hold its annual celebration in Mr. J. H. Mass' grove on Saturday, September 12, at 10 o'clock.

There will be preaching in the Lutheran Church Sunday, at 2:30 p. m., and at the Reformed Church at 10 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

Our school has had a very fine week of the fine weather and good roads this week. On Sunday Messrs. Edward Dohrer, Thomas Hall and Oliver Lippert were at Woodboro and Messrs. Herbert Lippert and Tilden Cove were at the home of Mr. L. H. Haines and John Hall are busy engaged in shipping peaches from their Haines' large orchard, at Woodboro. His crop this year is a large one, and of the best quality. He brought some very large ones home with him last Friday. There was one mouse in the peaches, and twelve inches in circumference.

On Tuesday the remains of Miss Laura A. Hesson, of Littlestown, Pa., were taken here and interred in the new cemetery. The funeral was well attended. Her age was 29 years and 11 months and 22 days. Revs. Sten and Dreisbach officiated.

Pleasant Valley Items. On Sunday last, a 2 o'clock a. m. fire broke out in the barn on the farm owned by W. B. Thomas, of Westminster, tenanted by W. H. Hesson, of Westminster. The barn was a small one, and was in use as a stable for the horse and cow. The fire was caused by a spark from the stove. The horse and cow were saved, but the barn was completely destroyed. The loss was about $1000.

The fire mentioned above was caused by a spark from the stove. The horse and cow were saved, but the barn was completely destroyed. The loss was about $1000.

The fire mentioned above was caused by a spark from the stove. The horse and cow were saved, but the barn was completely destroyed. The loss was about $1000.

The fire mentioned above was caused by a spark from the stove. The horse and cow were saved, but the barn was completely destroyed. The loss was about $1000.

The fire mentioned above was caused by a spark from the stove. The horse and cow were saved, but the barn was completely destroyed. The loss was about $1000.

The fire mentioned above was caused by a spark from the stove. The horse and cow were saved, but the barn was completely destroyed. The loss was about $1000.

The fire mentioned above was caused by a spark from the stove. The horse and cow were saved, but the barn was completely destroyed. The loss was about $1000.

The fire mentioned above was caused by a spark from the stove. The horse and cow were saved, but the barn was completely destroyed. The loss was about $1000.

The fire mentioned above was caused by a spark from the stove. The horse and cow were saved, but the barn was completely destroyed. The loss was about $1000.

The fire mentioned above was caused by a spark from the stove. The horse and cow were saved, but the barn was completely destroyed. The loss was about $1000.

The fire mentioned above was caused by a spark from the stove. The horse and cow were saved, but the barn was completely destroyed. The loss was about $1000.

The fire mentioned above was caused by a spark from the stove. The horse and cow were saved, but the barn was completely destroyed. The loss was about $1000.

The fire mentioned above was caused by a spark from the stove. The horse and cow were saved, but the barn was completely destroyed. The loss was about $1000.

The fire mentioned above was caused by a spark from the stove. The horse and cow were saved, but the barn was completely destroyed. The loss was about $1000.

The fire mentioned above was caused by a spark from the stove. The horse and cow were saved, but the barn was completely destroyed. The loss was about $1000.

The fire mentioned above was caused by a spark from the stove. The horse and cow were saved, but the barn was completely destroyed. The loss was about $1000.

The fire mentioned above was caused by a spark from the stove. The horse and cow were saved, but the barn was completely destroyed. The loss was about $1000.

The fire mentioned above was caused by a spark from the stove. The horse and cow were saved, but the barn was completely destroyed. The loss was about $1000.

The fire mentioned above was caused by a spark from the stove. The horse and cow were saved, but the barn was completely destroyed. The loss was about $1000.

The fire mentioned above was caused by a spark from the stove. The horse and cow were saved, but the barn was completely destroyed. The loss was about $1000.

The fire mentioned above was caused by a spark from the stove. The horse and cow were saved, but the barn was completely destroyed. The loss was about $1000.

The fire mentioned above was caused by a spark from the stove. The horse and cow were saved, but the barn was completely destroyed. The loss was about $1000.

Unlabeled Items.

Mr. George H. Roushon visited his son Harold J. Roushon, and attended the Waynesboro centennial.

Misses Bonnie Hollenberry and Nellie Wood were guests of their friends in Westminster.