February Weddings.

The initial of the new St. Paul's M. E. Church, New Windsor, was solemnized at 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon, when Miss DeVilbiss, the youngest daughter of Chas. DeVilbiss, Esq., was united in marriage to Mr. Jacob F. Enzor.

The bride wore an imported going away gown of brown, with coral trim, and carried a shower bouquet of white carnations and smilax, tied with white ribbon.

The ushers, in frock coats with boutonnieres of carnations and smilax, were Messrs. E. Englar, J. Ezra Stem, J. Marshall DeVilbiss, a brother of the bride, and Mr. Armistead, a brother of the groom.

There was no reception, the bride and groom leaving at once on the 4 p. m. train for Washington, D. C., and will proceed from there for their future home near Kansas City.

Barn Burned. The barn of the farm of Harry P. Gorsuch, one mile south of Warfieldburg, was totally destroyed by fire last Wednesday night. The barn was nearly all burning machinery, all the hay, straw and fodder on the farm. The farm is tenanted by John Baker, who has been the farmer one being struck by lightning and burnt, together with nearly all the machinery and all the feed for same time. The cause of the fire is not known. There has not even a lantern about the barn for a week. The barn was insured for $1500, and the contents for $300 in the Wilson & Goodwin Agency, this city.

Striking Back. The action of the grain dealers of Frederick and Carroll counties, who organized in Baltimore several weeks ago, with A. D. Birely, of Frederick county, as president, and J. Myers, Charles Stevenson, Leonard Zile, William Wertz, Silas M. Bush and John Nall, A. K. Kurtz was elected president. On the 15th inst. the members of the association were notified by the local dealer, has aroused considerable opposition among the farmers of Frederick county. D. Columbus Kemp, president of the farmers' institute of Frederick county, says the officers of that body have given the matter their best consideration, and will support a public meeting, at which time a series of resolutions will be offered denouncing the boycott which the local dealers have attempted to place upon the farmers of the various counties in the State, and take such other action as they may see proper for the protection of the farmers' rights and interests.
