

The Democratic Advocate, PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY BY VANDERFORD BROS. CORNER OF MAIN AND CENTRE STREETS.

TERMS—$1.00 per year; 50 cents for six months; 25 cents for three months. Single copies 5 cents.

ADVERTISING RATES—One square (3 lines) will be inserted in this paper for 25 cents per week.

SALES—$1.00 per year; 50 cents for six months; 25 cents for three months. Single copies 5 cents.

Next Friday, being Good Friday, is a legal holiday.

At 12 m. yesterday, Friday, the Weather Bureau sent out the following bulletin:

Fair tonight except rain in extreme west portion; Saturday rain in west, and by afternoon or night in east portion.

Calvin Forsythe, aged 49, of Sykesville, died suddenly on Monday after a brief illness.

Mr. Forsythe was for a number of years a Baltimore and Ohio engineer. He was a member of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, which organization conducted his funeral at Springfield Presbyterian Church on Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. Charles E. Fink, of Westminster, obtained a verdict for $5,000 and costs on Tuesday, in the Circuit Court for Howard county.

The suit grew out of an agreement between the plaintiff and defendant as to the sale of the stock of the Maryland Telephone Company of Baltimore.

Monday, March 17.—Mary L. Craft, administratrix of William Graf, deceased, returned inventory of personal property and received order to sell the same.

Abraham H. Huber, acting executor of John B. Huber, deceased, returned inventory of personal property, debts and money, and received order to sell real estate and personal property.

Chester E. B. Oliver, F. B. Jacob B. Wentz and Willis P. Tracy, executors of Cornelius R. Wentz, deceased, returned inventories of personal property and debts.

Letters of administration on the estate of Lorin Shipley, deceased, were granted to Horace L. Shipley, who received order to notify creditors.

The last will and testament of Henry Mahalis, deceased, admitted to probate in the Circuit Court for Howard county.

The executors of Cornelius R. Wentz, deceased, guardian to Parker Norman Wentz, settled fourth and final account.

The Westminster Deposit and Trust Company bonded as guardian to Parker Norman Wentz.

Monday, March 18.—The last will and testament of Mary M. Weaver, deceased, admitted to probate in the Circuit Court for Howard county.

Nathan M. Ballo, executor of Elizabeth Jane Ballo, deceased, reported sale of personal property, returned inventory of goods, rents, etc., and received order to transfer mortgages, etc.

David H. and William Hosfeld, executors of Andrew Hosfeld, deceased, received orders to sell real estate and personal property.

The last will and testament of Amos Miller, deceased, admitted to probate and letters of administration with the will annexed, granted to Sarah A. Zapp and Joseph Zapp, who received order to notify creditors.

Thomas A. Barnes and Isaac E. Fritzell, administrators of Joseph Tenor, deceased, reported sale of personal property.

Charles E. Stewart, administrator of J. H. C. L. of Mary S. Mathias, deceased, received order to notify creditors.

The Court finally ratified and confirmed the sale of the real estate of Isaac C. Forrest, deceased.

Mr. A. T. Buckingham, of Bird Hill, had sale this week, and removed to Baltimore.

Warren L. Shipley and family have removed to Baltimore also.

Mr. J. L. O'Farrell, of Westminster, has purchased the furniture, stock and fixtures of the Franklin House, Hanover, Pa., and will take charge of the house April 1st.

The Westminster Fire Company intends having a big parade on Easter Monday afternoon, at which time they will start their fair and oyster supper in the Fremont's Hall.

Plans have been made and bids received for a station and office building for the Western Maryland Railroad at Union Bridge, but the sale of the road may delay the erection of it.

William Black, son of Mr. Lee Black, of Westminster, has accepted a position in the store of James A. Orendorf, at Motta's Station, Frederick county, and will get there April 1st.

Gor. Smith has designated Friday, April 11, as Arbor Day. The practical effect of Arbor Day is loss of time to school children in hearing a program for the occasion and in performing it.

The Miller Bros' Company have purchased the stock of men's furnishing goods of Fred. Batzler, 608 West Baltimore street, and removed them to their store here. They bought the entire stock at a bargain.

Mr. P. A. Gorsuch, of Westminster, will leave Monday for Frederick, carrying with him a pair of axes for Col. S. K. Herr. He expects to reach Frostburg in four days. He will drive back, and get home the following week.

John Joseph Zentgraf, step-son of Mr. Vincent Yungling, near this city, has wandered away again, for the third time. He left home on Friday evening of last week, and he told some of his playmates he was going either to Pittsburg or Harrisburg.

Mr. Abraham C. Stranburg, of Westminster, is one of the executors of the will of his late father-in-law, Isaac Nordtger, who died in Baltimore last week. Mr. Nordtger's son William is the executor. The entire estate is left to the widow.

Mr. Thomas E. W. Crawford, who has been tenant of the Dr. Crawford farm, in Franklin district, made sale on Monday and will remove to Westminster, where he will occupy the residence and become deputy sheriff. Sheriff Crawford will board with him.

Abraham Jacobs, of Baltimore, was released on $1,500 bail on Monday, after being held on the Circuit Court for Carroll, by Judge Phelps, on the charge of receiving about 1,000 pounds of copper wire, knowing it to have been stolen.

There was a banquet given at Union Street Hall, this city, Thursday night last week, in honor of the retiring members of the P. G. Walker, and his son, Dr. P. G. Walker, who served two years in the U. S. Army Hospital Staff, in the Philippines Islands.

The County Commissioners were engaged in general routine business last Monday. They directed that Patrick Boylan, whose mental disorder was noticed at Carroll last week, be confined in Springfield Hospital, near Sykesville. His mental unsoundness was certified by Dr. W. H. W. Crawford.

A dispatch from Carlisle, Pa., on March 14, to the Baltimore Sun, says—"From Washington, D. C., to Reading, Pa., by way of Baltimore, historic route, Carlisle, Harrisburg and Lebanon, is the plan of a syndicate of trolley promoters. The company whose line to the Philadelphia and Harrisburg is the Baltimore, Westminster and Gettysburg Electric Railway.

The Omnibus bill, presented in the House of Delegates on Thursday, carries the following appropriations for Springfield Hospital for insane—for hospital $50,000, for buildings $12,500, for stock $1,250, for repairs $1,500, shops $85,000, insurance $1,000, new boilers and large washer $500 each, drainage $2,000, bakery $1,500, heating apparatus $1,000, building roof $6,000—a total of $97,800.

The Mutual Fire Insurance Company of Carroll County, which has insured the Wakefield mill, owned by Messrs. Wm. B. Thomas and E. O. Grimes, for $2,000, on Saturday last admitted the total destruction and paid the full amount, although the thirty days limit does not expire until the 24th inst. Messrs. Thomas and Grimes are much gratified at the fairness of the company and the prompt payment of the loss.

The next annual session of the Baltimore Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church will be held at Grace Church, Baltimore, commencing Tuesday evening, April 1. Homes for the ministers during the meeting have been provided. Rev. J. A. Price, D. D., of Centenary Church, Westminster, will be entertained by Charles R. Wilcox, 2311 Callow avenue. Conference will close on April 7. Bishop K. G. Andrews will preside.

In the past weeks a number of persons left Carroll for Colorado, where they will locate in Provers county and engage in sugar beet culture. They left Westminster at different times to meet at Chicago, then to go to Colorado in a body. In the party were Mr. and Mrs. Royer Bink and two children, Mrs. Clara Balle and four children, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Royer and three children, Miss Jane Wolf, Mrs. George Zapp, Richard C. Starnes and Harvey and Charles Utz, of Westminster and vicinity, and Albert Elserod, of Patapsco.

On Thursday afternoon of last week, Mr. John Geiger, living a mile and a half from New Windsor, met with a very severe accident. He was having some wheat threshed and the work was nearly finished, when he undertook to step over the driving roll of the thrasher. His clothing caught in a knuckle and he was whirled around, having his left leg dislocated at the hip joint and the right leg fractured near the thigh. Mr. Geiger is 76 years old, and the accident was a very severe one. Drs. Shreve and Kemp, of Uniontown, attended him.

Next Friday, being Good Friday, is a legal holiday.

At 12 m. yesterday, Friday, the Weather Bureau sent out the following bulletin:

Fair tonight except rain in extreme west portion; Saturday rain in west, and by afternoon or night in east portion.

Calvin Forsythe, aged 49, of Sykesville, died suddenly on Monday after a brief illness.

Mr. Forsythe was for a number of years a Baltimore and Ohio engineer. He was a member of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, which organization conducted his funeral at Springfield Presbyterian Church on Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. Charles E. Fink, of Westminster, obtained a verdict for $5,000 and costs on Tuesday, in the Circuit Court for Howard county.

The suit grew out of an agreement between the plaintiff and defendant as to the sale of the stock of the Maryland Telephone Company of Baltimore.

Monday, March 17.—Mary L. Craft, administratrix of William Graf, deceased, returned inventory of personal property and received order to sell the same.

Abraham H. Huber, acting executor of John B. Huber, deceased, returned inventory of personal property, debts and money, and received order to sell real estate and personal property.

Chester E. B. Oliver, F. B. Jacob B. Wentz and Willis P. Tracy, executors of Cornelius R. Wentz, deceased, returned inventories of personal property and debts.

Letters of administration on the estate of Lorin Shipley, deceased, were granted to Horace L. Shipley, who received order to notify creditors.

The last will and testament of Henry Mahalis, deceased, admitted to probate in the Circuit Court for Howard county.

The executors of Cornelius R. Wentz, deceased, guardian to Parker Norman Wentz, settled fourth and final account.

The Westminster Deposit and Trust Company bonded as guardian to Parker Norman Wentz.

Monday, March 18.—The last will and testament of Mary M. Weaver, deceased, admitted to probate in the Circuit Court for Howard county.

Nathan M. Ballo, executor of Elizabeth Jane Ballo, deceased, reported sale of personal property, returned inventory of goods, rents, etc., and received order to transfer mortgages, etc.

David H. and William Hosfeld, executors of Andrew Hosfeld, deceased, received orders to sell real estate and personal property.

The last will and testament of Amos Miller, deceased, admitted to probate and letters of administration with the will annexed, granted to Sarah A. Zapp and Joseph Zapp, who received order to notify creditors.

Thomas A. Barnes and Isaac E. Fritzell, administrators of Joseph Tenor, deceased, reported sale of personal property.

Charles E. Stewart, administrator of J. H. C. L. of Mary S. Mathias, deceased, received order to notify creditors.

The Court finally ratified and confirmed the sale of the real estate of Isaac C. Forrest, deceased.

Mr. A. T. Buckingham, of Bird Hill, had sale this week, and removed to Baltimore.

Warren L. Shipley and family have removed to Baltimore also.

Mr. J. L. O'Farrell, of Westminster, has purchased the furniture, stock and fixtures of the Franklin House, Hanover, Pa., and will take charge of the house April 1st.

The Westminster Fire Company intends having a big parade on Easter Monday afternoon, at which time they will start their fair and oyster supper in the Fremont's Hall.

Plans have been made and bids received for a station and office building for the Western Maryland Railroad at Union Bridge, but the sale of the road may delay the erection of it.

William Black, son of Mr. Lee Black, of Westminster, has accepted a position in the store of James A. Orendorf, at Motta's Station, Frederick county, and will get there April 1st.

Gor. Smith has designated Friday, April 11, as Arbor Day. The practical effect of Arbor Day is loss of time to school children in hearing a program for the occasion and in performing it.

The Miller Bros' Company have purchased the stock of men's furnishing goods of Fred. Batzler, 608 West Baltimore street, and removed them to their store here. They bought the entire stock at a bargain.

Mr. P. A. Gorsuch, of Westminster, will leave Monday for Frederick, carrying with him a pair of axes for Col. S. K. Herr. He expects to reach Frostburg in four days. He will drive back, and get home the following week.

John Joseph Zentgraf, step-son of Mr. Vincent Yungling, near this city, has wandered away again, for the third time. He left home on Friday evening of last week, and he told some of his playmates he was going either to Pittsburg or Harrisburg.

Mr. Abraham C. Stranburg, of Westminster, is one of the executors of the will of his late father-in-law, Isaac Nordtger, who died in Baltimore last week. Mr. Nordtger's son William is the executor. The entire estate is left to the widow.

Mr. Thomas E. W. Crawford, who has been tenant of the Dr. Crawford farm, in Franklin district, made sale on Monday and will remove to Westminster, where he will occupy the residence and become deputy sheriff. Sheriff Crawford will board with him.

Abraham Jacobs, of Baltimore, was released on $1,500 bail on Monday, after being held on the Circuit Court for Carroll, by Judge Phelps, on the charge of receiving about 1,000 pounds of copper wire, knowing it to have been stolen.

There was a banquet given at Union Street Hall, this city, Thursday night last week, in honor of the retiring members of the P. G. Walker, and his son, Dr. P. G. Walker, who served two years in the U. S. Army Hospital Staff, in the Philippines Islands.

The County Commissioners were engaged in general routine business last Monday. They directed that Patrick Boylan, whose mental disorder was noticed at Carroll last week, be confined in Springfield Hospital, near Sykesville. His mental unsoundness was certified by Dr. W. H. W. Crawford.

A dispatch from Carlisle, Pa., on March 14, to the Baltimore Sun, says—"From Washington, D. C., to Reading, Pa., by way of Baltimore, historic route, Carlisle, Harrisburg and Lebanon, is the plan of a syndicate of trolley promoters. The company whose line to the Philadelphia and Harrisburg is the Baltimore, Westminster and Gettysburg Electric Railway.

The Omnibus bill, presented in the House of Delegates on Thursday, carries the following appropriations for Springfield Hospital for insane—for hospital $50,000, for buildings $12,500, for stock $1,250, for repairs $1,500, shops $85,000, insurance $1,000, new boilers and large washer $500 each, drainage $2,000, bakery $1,500, heating apparatus $1,000, building roof $6,000—a total of $97,800.

The Mutual Fire Insurance Company of Carroll County, which has insured the Wakefield mill, owned by Messrs. Wm. B. Thomas and E. O. Grimes, for $2,000, on Saturday last admitted the total destruction and paid the full amount, although the thirty days limit does not expire until the 24th inst. Messrs. Thomas and Grimes are much gratified at the fairness of the company and the prompt payment of the loss.

The next annual session of the Baltimore Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church will be held at Grace Church, Baltimore, commencing Tuesday evening, April 1. Homes for the ministers during the meeting have been provided. Rev. J. A. Price, D. D., of Centenary Church, Westminster, will be entertained by Charles R. Wilcox, 2311 Callow avenue. Conference will close on April 7. Bishop K. G. Andrews will preside.

In the past weeks a number of persons left Carroll for Colorado, where they will locate in Provers county and engage in sugar beet culture. They left Westminster at different times to meet at Chicago, then to go to Colorado in a body. In the party were Mr. and Mrs. Royer Bink and two children, Mrs. Clara Balle and four children, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Royer and three children, Miss Jane Wolf, Mrs. George Zapp, Richard C. Starnes and Harvey and Charles Utz, of Westminster and vicinity, and Albert Elserod, of Patapsco.

On Thursday afternoon of last week, Mr. John Geiger, living a mile and a half from New Windsor, met with a very severe accident. He was having some wheat threshed and the work was nearly finished, when he undertook to step over the driving roll of the thrasher. His clothing caught in a knuckle and he was whirled around, having his left leg dislocated at the hip joint and the right leg fractured near the thigh. Mr. Geiger is 76 years old, and the accident was a very severe one. Drs. Shreve and Kemp, of Uniontown, attended him.

Next Friday, being Good Friday, is a legal holiday.

At 12 m. yesterday, Friday, the Weather Bureau sent out the following bulletin:

Fair tonight except rain in extreme west portion; Saturday rain in west, and by afternoon or night in east portion.

Calvin Forsythe, aged 49, of Sykesville, died suddenly on Monday after a brief illness.

Mr. Forsythe was for a number of years a Baltimore and Ohio engineer. He was a member of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, which organization conducted his funeral at Springfield Presbyterian Church on Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. Charles E. Fink, of Westminster, obtained a verdict for $5,000 and costs on Tuesday, in the Circuit Court for Howard county.

The suit grew out of an agreement between the plaintiff and defendant as to the sale of the stock of the Maryland Telephone Company of Baltimore.

Monday, March 17.—Mary L. Craft, administratrix of William Graf, deceased, returned inventory of personal property and received order to sell the same.

Abraham H. Huber, acting executor of John B. Huber, deceased, returned inventory of personal property, debts and money, and received order to sell real estate and personal property.

Chester E. B. Oliver, F. B. Jacob B. Wentz and Willis P. Tracy, executors of Cornelius R. Wentz, deceased, returned inventories of personal property and debts.

Letters of administration on the estate of Lorin Shipley, deceased, were granted to Horace L. Shipley, who received order to notify creditors.

The last will and testament of Henry Mahalis, deceased, admitted to probate in the Circuit Court for Howard county.

The executors of Cornelius R. Wentz, deceased, guardian to Parker Norman Wentz, settled fourth and final account.

The Westminster Deposit and Trust Company bonded as guardian to Parker Norman Wentz.

Monday, March 18.—The last will and testament of Mary M. Weaver, deceased, admitted to probate in the Circuit Court for Howard county.

Nathan M. Ballo, executor of Elizabeth Jane Ballo, deceased, reported sale of personal property, returned inventory of goods, rents, etc., and received order to transfer mortgages, etc.

David H. and William Hosfeld, executors of Andrew Hosfeld, deceased, received orders to sell real estate and personal property.

The last will and testament of Amos Miller, deceased, admitted to probate and letters of administration with the will annexed, granted to Sarah A. Zapp and Joseph Zapp, who received order to notify creditors.

Thomas A. Barnes and Isaac E. Fritzell, administrators of Joseph Tenor, deceased, reported sale of personal property.

Charles E. Stewart, administrator of J. H. C. L. of Mary S. Mathias, deceased, received order to notify creditors.

The Court finally ratified and confirmed the sale of the real estate of Isaac C. Forrest, deceased.

Mr. A. T. Buckingham, of Bird Hill, had sale this week, and removed to Baltimore.

Warren L. Shipley and family have removed to Baltimore also.

Mr. J. L. O'Farrell, of Westminster, has purchased the furniture, stock and fixtures of the Franklin House, Hanover, Pa., and will take charge of the house April 1st.

The Westminster Fire Company intends having a big parade on Easter Monday afternoon, at which time they will start their fair and oyster supper in the Fremont's Hall.

Plans have been made and bids received for a station and office building for the Western Maryland Railroad at Union Bridge, but the sale of the road may delay the erection of it.

William Black, son of Mr. Lee Black, of Westminster, has accepted a position in the store of James A. Orendorf, at Motta's Station, Frederick county, and will get there April 1st.

Gor. Smith has designated Friday, April 11, as Arbor Day. The practical effect of Arbor Day is loss of time to school children in hearing a program for the occasion and in performing it.

The Miller Bros' Company have purchased the stock of men's furnishing goods of Fred. Batzler, 608 West Baltimore street, and removed them to their store here. They bought the entire stock at a bargain.

Mr. P. A. Gorsuch, of Westminster, will leave Monday for Frederick, carrying with him a pair of axes for Col. S. K. Herr. He expects to reach Frostburg in four days. He will drive back, and get home the following week.

John Joseph Zentgraf, step-son of Mr. Vincent Yungling, near this city, has wandered away again, for the third time. He left home on Friday evening of last week, and he told some of his playmates he was going either to Pittsburg or Harrisburg.

Mr. Abraham C. Stranburg, of Westminster, is one of the executors of the will of his late father-in-law, Isaac Nordtger, who died in Baltimore last week. Mr. Nordtger's son William is the executor. The entire estate is left to the widow.

Mr. Thomas E. W. Crawford, who has been tenant of the Dr. Crawford farm, in Franklin district, made sale on Monday and will remove to Westminster, where he will occupy the residence and become deputy sheriff. Sheriff Crawford will board with him.

Abraham Jacobs, of Baltimore, was released on $1,500 bail on Monday, after being held on the Circuit Court for Carroll, by Judge Phelps, on the charge of receiving about 1,000 pounds of copper wire, knowing it to have been stolen.

There was a banquet given at Union Street Hall, this city, Thursday night last week, in honor of the retiring members of the P. G. Walker, and his son, Dr. P. G. Walker, who served two years in the U. S. Army Hospital Staff, in the Philippines Islands.

The County Commissioners were engaged in general routine business last Monday. They directed that Patrick Boylan, whose mental disorder was noticed at Carroll last week, be confined in Springfield Hospital, near Sykesville. His mental unsoundness was certified by Dr. W. H. W. Crawford.

A dispatch from Carlisle, Pa., on March 14, to the Baltimore Sun, says—"From Washington, D. C., to Reading, Pa., by way of Baltimore, historic route, Carlisle, Harrisburg and Lebanon, is the plan of a syndicate of trolley promoters. The company whose line to the Philadelphia and Harrisburg is the Baltimore, Westminster and Gettysburg Electric Railway.

The Omnibus bill, presented in the House of Delegates on Thursday, carries the following appropriations for Springfield Hospital for insane—for hospital $50,000, for buildings $12,500, for stock $1,250, for repairs $1,500, shops $85,000, insurance $1,000, new boilers and large washer $500 each, drainage $2,000, bakery $1,500, heating apparatus $1,000, building roof $6,000—a total of $97,800.

The Mutual Fire Insurance Company of Carroll County, which has insured the Wakefield mill, owned by Messrs. Wm. B. Thomas and E. O. Grimes, for $2,000, on Saturday last admitted the total destruction and paid the full amount, although the thirty days limit does not expire until the 24th inst. Messrs. Thomas and Grimes are much gratified at the fairness of the company and the prompt payment of the loss.

The next annual session of the Baltimore Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church will be held at Grace Church, Baltimore, commencing Tuesday evening, April 1. Homes for the ministers during the meeting have been provided. Rev. J. A. Price, D. D., of Centenary Church, Westminster, will be entertained by Charles R. Wilcox, 2311 Callow avenue. Conference will close on April 7. Bishop K. G. Andrews will preside.

In the past weeks a number of persons left Carroll for Colorado, where they will locate in Provers county and engage in sugar beet culture. They left Westminster at different times to meet at Chicago, then to go to Colorado in a body. In the party were Mr. and Mrs. Royer Bink and two children, Mrs. Clara Balle and four children, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Royer and three children, Miss Jane Wolf, Mrs. George Zapp, Richard C. Starnes and Harvey and Charles Utz, of Westminster and vicinity, and Albert Elserod, of Patapsco.

On Thursday afternoon of last week, Mr. John Geiger, living a mile and a half from New Windsor, met with a very severe accident. He was having some wheat threshed and the work was nearly finished, when he undertook to step over the driving roll of the thrasher. His clothing caught in a knuckle and he was whirled around, having his left leg dislocated at the hip joint and the right leg fractured near the thigh. Mr. Geiger is 76 years old, and the accident was a very severe one. Drs. Shreve and Kemp, of Uniontown, attended him.

Next Friday, being Good Friday, is a legal holiday.

At 12 m. yesterday, Friday, the Weather Bureau sent out the following bulletin:

Fair tonight except rain in extreme west portion; Saturday rain in west, and by afternoon or night in east portion.

Calvin Forsythe, aged 49, of Sykesville, died suddenly on Monday after a brief illness.

Mr. Forsythe was for a number of years a Baltimore and Ohio engineer. He was a member of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, which organization conducted his funeral at Springfield Presbyterian Church on Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. Charles E. Fink, of Westminster, obtained a verdict for $5,000 and costs on Tuesday, in the Circuit Court for Howard county.

The suit grew out of an agreement between the plaintiff and defendant as to the sale of the stock of the Maryland Telephone Company of Baltimore.

Monday, March 17.—Mary L. Craft, administratrix of William Graf, deceased, returned inventory of personal property and received order to sell the same.

Abraham H. Huber, acting executor of John B. Huber, deceased, returned inventory of personal property, debts and money, and received order to sell real estate and personal property.

Chester E. B. Oliver, F. B. Jacob B. Wentz and Willis P. Tracy, executors of Cornelius R. Wentz, deceased, returned inventories of personal property and debts.

Letters of administration on the estate of Lorin Shipley, deceased, were granted to Horace L. Shipley, who received order to notify creditors.

The last will and testament of Henry Mahalis, deceased, admitted to probate in the Circuit Court for Howard county.

The executors of Cornelius R. Wentz, deceased, guardian to Parker Norman Wentz, settled fourth and final account.

The Westminster Deposit and Trust Company bonded as guardian to Parker Norman Wentz.

Monday, March 18.—The last will and testament of Mary M. Weaver, deceased, admitted to probate in the Circuit Court for Howard county.

Nathan M. Ballo, executor of Elizabeth Jane Ballo, deceased, reported sale of personal property, returned inventory of goods, rents, etc., and received order to transfer mortgages, etc.

David H. and William Hosfeld, executors of Andrew Hosfeld, deceased, received orders to sell real estate and personal property.

The last will and testament of Amos Miller, deceased, admitted to probate and letters of administration with the will annexed, granted to Sarah A. Zapp and Joseph Zapp, who received order to notify creditors.

Thomas A. Barnes and Isaac E. Fritzell, administrators of Joseph Tenor, deceased, reported sale of personal property.

Charles E. Stewart, administrator of J. H. C. L. of Mary S. Mathias, deceased, received order to notify creditors.

The Court finally ratified and confirmed the sale of the real estate of Isaac C. Forrest, deceased.

Mr. A. T. Buckingham, of Bird Hill, had sale this week, and removed to Baltimore.

Warren L. Shipley and family have removed to Baltimore also.

Mr. J. L. O'Farrell, of Westminster, has purchased the furniture, stock and fixtures of the Franklin House, Hanover, Pa., and will take charge of the house April 1st.

The Westminster Fire Company intends having a big parade on Easter Monday afternoon, at which time they will start their fair and oyster supper in the Fremont's Hall.

Plans have been made and bids received for a station and office building for the Western Maryland Railroad at Union Bridge, but the sale of the road may delay the erection of it.

William Black, son of Mr. Lee Black, of Westminster, has accepted a position in the store of James A. Orendorf, at Motta's Station, Frederick county, and will get there April 1st.

Gor. Smith has designated Friday, April 11, as Arbor Day. The practical effect of Arbor Day is loss of time to school children in hearing a program for the occasion and in performing it.

The Miller Bros' Company have purchased the stock of men's furnishing goods of Fred. Batzler, 608 West Baltimore street, and removed them to their store here. They bought the entire stock at a bargain.

Mr. P. A. Gorsuch, of Westminster, will leave Monday for Frederick, carrying with him a pair of axes for Col. S. K. Herr. He expects to reach Frostburg in four days. He will drive back, and get home the following week.

John Joseph Zentgraf, step-son of Mr. Vincent Yungling, near this city, has wandered away again, for the third time. He left home on Friday evening of last week, and he told some of his playmates he was going either to Pittsburg or Harrisburg.

Mr. Abraham C. Stranburg, of Westminster, is one of the executors of the will of his late father-in-law, Isaac Nordtger, who died in Baltimore last week. Mr. Nordtger's son William is the executor. The entire estate is left to the widow.

Mr. Thomas E. W. Crawford, who has been tenant of the Dr. Crawford farm, in Franklin district, made sale on Monday and will remove to Westminster, where he will occupy the residence and become deputy sheriff. Sheriff Crawford will board with him.

Abraham Jacobs, of Baltimore, was released on $1,500 bail on Monday, after being held on the Circuit Court for Carroll, by Judge Phelps, on the charge of receiving about 1,000 pounds of copper wire, knowing it to have been stolen.