VOL. 44.—NO. 39.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

Nathan Englar, Linwood, is at a hospital in Baltimore for treatment. This weather is all to the good, except for summer hotel proprietors. William Zepp, of near McKinstry's, lost two of his best horses last week. St. John's fête will be held during the encampment week, July 17 to 21. The stork visited the home of Frank Ruspert, Unlontown, last week. Boy and girl. The only 4th of July casualty in Westminster was that of a man "blown up" by his wife. E. O. Went was not associated with D. N. Henning in the Lowe case, as was incorrectly stated last week. Theodore Walker, colored, near Bluff Hill, was thrown from a pack of wheat on Tuesday, falling on his head. He was badly shaken up. H. H. Weaver took his first auto ride on Monday, July 5. He was delighted. At time of going to press he was still talking about it. T. W. Mather & Sons are enlarging and otherwise improving their Manchester store. Work completed it will have a frontage of 40 feet. What's the matter with the Sunday school picnic am-c-o the Westminster churches? Hope they have not fallen into innocuous desuetude. George W. Slonaker, of Uniontown, celebrated his birthday on Saturday last. He received nearly one hundred post cards, over sixty by one mail. While hauling in wheat on Saturday last Frank Bankard, of Pocomm Hollow, was thrown from the load into a peach tree. He received a painful wound. The Mount Airy Milling and Grain Company are contemplating in the near future building a two hundred barrel flour mill on their property at Mount Airy, Md. The first of this year's wheat sent from Western Maryland was shipped to Baltimore Wednesday by Wade H. D. Warfield & Co., of Skyville, and graded No. 2 red. The young ladies of the T. W. M. Club entertained their bachelor friends at a picnic at Corbin's dam Monday afternoon, chaperoned by Mrs. John H. Cunningham. L. W. Rinehart, Medford, Md., was the first to haul this year's wheat to N. L. Gorschon Son & Co. this week. The wheat was in good condition and the price paid was $1.10. A number of members of Burns Post, of this city, attended the unveiling of the monument to Gen. Stephenson, founder of the G. A. R. in Washington last Saturday. Frank M. Stevens, at one time a farmer of this county and later a butcher in this city, was last week nominated for county commissioner by the Democrats of Frederick county. Vincent W. Power, Jr., was in town over Sunday. His headquarters are now in Cecil county, where the Good Roads Commission is building one mile of road to get some idea of the cost. Amel Reitz, pitcher on the Westminster base ball team, was on Tuesday called to the bedside of his father, who is extremely ill with cancer of the stomach, in a hospital in Baltimore. The officers who will have charge of the Democratic primary in the 7th election district, 4th precinct, will be Jesse F. Stem, judge, and Frank T. Butler, clerk, instead of those published last week. The admission to the minstrel show next Tuesday and Friday nights will be 25 and 25 cents. Tickets on sale at the drug stores. Messrs. Gibson, Haley, McGarvey and Smith will be the ushers for the two nights. A prohibition picnic will be held in Oursler's grove, near Carrollton Station tomorrow, Saturday afternoon and night. Addresses will be made by prominent speakers, and the Carrollton Cornet Band will furnish music. Curtis Hall Brown, of Skyville, while painting from a ladder at the Springfield State Hospital last Friday, became dizzy, and fell backward to the ground, striking his head, causing an abscess of the brain. He is in a hospital in Baltimore. Charles B. Hunter, with a force of men, is engaged this week in erecting shacks at Camp Crothers for the use of the soldiers. There are to be 26 frame buildings, covered with black Neoponette aper, and as will be seen by advertisement, these buildings will be for sale at the close of the encampment. Joseph Zepp, who formerly conducted a drug store at the forks of the road, this city, and was lately employed in a drug store at 201 West Franklin street, Baltimore, was operated on at the Maryland University Hospital on Wednesday. He is reported doing well. Mr. Zepp is a son of W. H. Zepp, of Main street. Bear in mind the two performances next week, Tuesday and Friday evenings, of John E. L. Hanna's famous minstrel troupe, at Odd Fellows' Hall, for the benefit of the Westminster Baseball Association. Old plantation melodies, character sketches, and Black Patti in operatic selections. A chance to spend a pleasant evening for a good cause. In the list of Democratic primary election officials, published in last week's Advocate, the name of Wm. H. Wertz should be substituted for that of Wm. H. West, clerk in the first precinct of the sixth district; in the second precinct of the same district the name of Lee A. Snyder, Judge, in place of John M. Reaver, and in the second precinct of the fifth district the name of J. Robert Hughes, Judge, in place of P. H. Lauterbach. At a regular meeting of the board of directors of the First National Bank of Skyville, held on June 29, one thousand dollars was placed to surplus account, leaving nearly half as much to undivided profits. The bank has now under construction a modern banking building which will be completed about August 15, and is to be one of the finest in the county. They wish to thank the community for their past patronage, and assure them of the very best of treatment at all times. Interest allowed on time deposits and savings accounts.

MURDEROUS ASSAULT.

Station Agent at Finksburg Knocked Down With Iron Bar.

Hugh Pitzel, 15 years old, a mere stripling, weighing scarcely a hundred pounds, is in the jail in this city charged with a murderous assault on Alva Sauble, storekeeper and station agent of the Western Maryland Railroad at Finksburg. Pitzel admits his guilt.

The assault occurred Thursday afternoon between 1 and 2 o'clock. Young Sauble was alone in the store when Pitzel entered and, placing a half dollar on the counter, asked for 2 cents worth of candy. As Sauble turned to get the candy, Pitzel struck him a heavy blow on the head with an iron bolt screwed to a wooden handle, felling him to the floor. He regained his feet and started for Pitzel, who fled, leaving the half dollar on the counter.

Sauble immediately took steps to apprehend the assailant. Sheriff Townsend went down on the 3:35 train to get off at Patapsco, where he was told the boy had been seen, and searched until dark, but got no trace of him. It was afterward learned that he cut across the country toward the E. & H. division, and doubled back in the direction of Reisterstown. He was caught in a box car at Emory Grove at 2 o'clock this morning by Detective Meade, of the Western Maryland Railroad, brought to Westminster on the first mail and lodged in jail. He says he is from Christiansburg, Va., and claims to have been looking for work.

On his person were found a purse containing two dollars and two cents, a Wild West novel, a pack of cards, a iron bolt, a railroad spike, box of matches, a woman's stocking with the foot cut off, and a number of smaller articles.

Dr. Fitzhugh, of Westminster, and Dr. Slade, of Reisterstown, treated Pitzel, Sauble, and report that his injuries are not serious.

Sheriff Townsend says he is the most strenuous wack he has had for months. On Monday he went to Harrisburg after John Davis, who is now in jail charged with larceny. Wednesday he arrested John Marz, who was working on a farm about 4 miles from Alesia, who has been wanted for two years on a charge of assault with intent to kill.

REFORMED REUNION AT PEN MAR.

Twentieth Annual Gathering in Blue Mountains on Thursday, July 16.

On Thursday, July 15, 1909, the twentieth annual reunion of the Reformed churches of Southern Pennsylvania, Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia and District of Columbia will be held at Pen Mar. The preparations for this reunion are extensive and complete. The program contains the hymns and tunes as well as the order of the services.

Rev. Theodore F. Herman, D. D., of Allentown, Pa., will be the orator of the day. Dr. Herman stands in the front rank of the clergymen of the Reformed church. Every body will be delighted to see and hear this young orator and leader of men.

The "all college hour," which was so much enjoyed last year, will far exceed all that has ever passed into the past. A large number of friends and neighbors from all over the country will be present. This has few equals in the state.

The frequent rains this spring and summer have greatly beautified Pen Mar Park. The heavy foliage and grass were never so abundant. The management of the Park has made many improvements, and added some new amusements.

The large boarding house which was so well conducted for many years by John E. Croust has passed into the hands of Milan Croust, his son, who has had large experience and will keep up the high reputation of the house. The dining room of this house seats 350 guests, and is the favored restaurant of all the reunions of all these precious people.

As the reunion comes at a time when the grain and hay harvests have been gathered in, and at a time when the mechanics and merchants need a day off from labor and care, it is hoped that a large number of friends and neighbors from the surrounding country and states will gather in the beautiful Pen Mar Park on July 15 and spend the day in the cool shades, drink the pure mountain water and graze God the rest and giver of all these precious gifts.

The railroad trains and trolley cars are all equipped to carry to the mountain park all the thousands who we believe will attend this 20th reunion. All needed information can be obtained from the Secretary, Rev. J. B. Shontz, Chambersburg, Pa., or from Rev. James B. Stoner, Westminster, members of committee.

Improved Berries.

Justice James F. Rinker, of this city, is an enthusiastic horticulturist. He has in his garden several varieties of blackberry not found elsewhere in this section of the country. There is a white blackberry called the Iceberg, this being its first year for bearing, and the bush contains nearly 500 berries. Another, equally remarkable, is called the Hybrid. The nomenclature, a combination of a raspberry and blackberry, with the flavor and appearance of both. These berries grow very large, 4 inches long by 3 inches around. He has also a climbing blackberry, which grows 20 feet a season and covers a trellis like a grapevine. The foliage is thick and deep green in color, and the fruit tastes like a dewberry. It matures about 3 weeks before the ordinary variety and is of large size. All of these berries were originated by Luther Burbank, the great California wizard in fruit and vegetable production.
