COURT HOUSE NEWS

The following cases were heard before the Circuit Court this week:

State vs. Gilbert Hall, larceny; tried before jury; verdict guilty. J. M. Reif, for state; Weant for prisoner.

State vs. John Davis, larceny; trial before jury; on trial. J. M. Reif, for state; Stockdale for prisoner.

Police Justice's Court.

Following are the cases disposed of by Police Justice Edwin W. Shriver before his honorable court this week:

State of Maryland vs. Clarence Weber Fisher and Mary Elizabeth Fisher; abandoned by mother, committed to the Saint Elizabeth Home, Baltimore, Md.

State of Maryland vs. Floyd Zenggraf, assault; case continued.

Mayor and Common Council of Westminster vs. Joseph Freeman; disturbing the peace; guilty; paid fine and cost.

Mayor and Common Council of Westminster vs. Charles Coen; disturbing the peace; guilty; paid fine and cost.

State of Maryland vs. Robert L. Green; assault; jury trial prayed.

State of Maryland vs. Robert L. Green; held for court on peace warrant.

Mayor and Common Council of Westminster vs. Alice Smith; disorderly at Railroad station; guilty; paid fine and cost.

Mayor and Common Council of Westminster vs. Maggie Fritz; disorderly at Railroad station; guilty; paid fine and cost.

The cases of the Mayor and Common Council vs. Charles Coen and Mr. J. Freeman were knotty ones for Justice Shriver. Here is where two sons of Israel, who are rivals in the old iron trade. Coen we all know, Freeman comes to town each fall and offers more for iron than our local magnate. Hence the quarrel leading to the united rest of each. After they had both put their hats on and were sworn upon the five books of Moses the trial began. The first interruption occurred during the testimony of Charles Coen who in describing his wrongs stated that they had been witnessed by "Mr. Upton Morgan." This caused Guy W. Steele, Esq., who was representing the Mayor and Common Council, to inquire "who he was and why he was not present?" The Coen pointed to our celebrated son of Africa, "Up Morgan," whose stentorian voice is familiar to all who visit the railroad, and remarked that "he was present," seeing the incredulity of Mr. Steele, Morgan with a sheepish look replied "Yis-air; its me; dat's de respect he has for me." It was with difficulty that the united efforts of Justice Shriver and Mr. Steele prevented a complete history of the iron trade and its ups and downs and the case was full of crimination and recrimination, each according to the other being guilty of all that was wrong and he pure and innocent. It was a Gordian Knot that confronted the Justice and after much perplexity, he cut it, by taking the Son of Ham's testimony, and finding the pair to be guilty of all that was wrong and he pure and innocent, and it is doubted if they will again seek the aid of this tribunal in reference to the price of old iron. It is also said that they could not understand why their word should not be taken in preference to a darkey's.

On account of a defective loop in the furnace the public school in Hampstead is without fire. To meet the emergency a section has been ordered to be shipped by express and it is hoped that they will be able to fire up in a few days.

Echoes in the Corridors.

One of them is that Mr. Ralph Reifelder, the popular son-in-law of Mr. Gilbert, will be one of his deputies.

Although Mr. William Arthur has not announced his deputy register, we have it on good authority that it will be his brother-in-law, Mr. Harry Rinehart, Frizzellburg.

It is said that Rev. W. L. Seabrook, no is to be the chief deputy under Mr. Gilbert, will have difficulty in maturing the details of the work, which have been so well and faithfully performed, and the intricacies of which have been so carefully guarded, by Mr. Geo. A. Miller, for 42 years. This is disputed by many of his friends, who assert that he will be perfectly able to transact them without the assistance of Mr. Miller or anyone else.

How many disappointed ones will there be after the first of December? Echo answers, how many?

AUDIENCE DELIGHTED

PLAYS OUR LOCAL TALENT PRODUCE ARE AN EDUCATION

Hampered by Lack of Stage Room

Again was the audience in Odd Fellows' Hall on Tuesday night, delighted with this opera, given for the benefit of the Westminster orchestra. The hall was comfortably filled, and everyone enjoyed it. The play, noticeable in the performance, different from previous nights, unless it was the acting of Mr. Mikesell, whose grasp of the difficult part of Gen. Kirkcaldie was more firm.

It is apparent to everyone who attended these performances that we should have an opera house or town hall. Plays such as our local talent produce are an education in that elevating and beautiful, and we want them continued. But the play-ers are hampered for lack of stage and dressing room. In addition, the audience is not seated comfortably. We have many generous and public spirited men and women in this town, perhaps, than any other town of its size in the State. Let them take up this matter and devote a little attention to some home missionary work. They will be more than repaid for their labors in gratitude, if not in cash.

Another thing that should be done, is the organization of a dramatic association. With the orchestra and our talent, we believe that no stronger can be formed in the state. Think of the advantages which would be gained by it! The music and the costumes, would belong to the association; and they would not have to incur much expense when you wished to produce the same or a similar play. Take this one for an example; we venture to assert that what has been spent for the Japanese costumes would have paid for the making of them. The association owning them you would not have to go to that expense when "The Mikado" is given, which we believe to be the best. An opera house and a dramatic association, these two things we need, and remember, it's not what we want but what we need that we usually get.
