Miss Clara A. Witkoff entertained a number of friends Monday evening last at her home, Cumberland street, Baltimore. The house was beautifully decorated with palms and cut flowers. The guests were seated at small tables, decorated with roses and pink shaded candelabra. Receiving with Miss Witkoff were Miss Laura E. Buckingham and Mary H. Gregory, both of Baltimore. Many out-of-town guests were present.

Christmas Entertainment.

Thomas Chapel Sunday school at Taney, held a Christmas entertainment on December 27th. The church was decorated with evergreen and laurel. The following program was rendered by the children of the school.

Singing by the school, No. 2; responsive reading, Mr. Samuel Sharr; prayer by superintendent; singing by school, No. 6; "Christmas Eve," Ada Blizard; "Christmas" by Ida Lowe and John Bitzel; singing by school, No. 8; "A King Came Down," Roy Sykes and Elva Shaffer; solo and chorus, Mildred Shaffer and three little girls, carrying candles and evergreen; dialogue, "Winter's Child," with Henrietta Hilmer representing "Winter"; Ethel Lowe as Spring; Annie Dell, as Summer; Amanda Green, as Autumn; "Faith," carrying a cross, by Mary Lowe; "Hope," carrying anchor, by Belle Clara, and "Love," with a heart, by Grace Barnes; singing by school, No. 12; "Heralds of Christmas," by six children; singing by five little girls, carrying evergreen wreathes; recitation, by Ida Lowe; singing by school, No. 15.

After the program Samuel Sharp presented the superintendent, Miss Blanche K. Baer, with a very handsome lamp, in behalf of the Sunday school, as a token of their esteem for her services as superintendent during the past year. The children received their usual treat of candy and nuts. Mrs. A. P. Baer, of Catonsville, a good friend of the Sunday school presented beautiful dolls, books, balls and cards for the scholars. Little Miss Belle Clara was present at every service during the year, and was presented with a book for perfect attendance. Miss Ida Clara was organist for the entertainment. The school is in a good condition and we are looking forward to a successful New Year.

A Surprise Party.

For the Advocate.

A very enjoyable surprise party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Condon last Friday evening in honor of Miss Minnie Bloom, of Poplar Springs. About 8 o'clock the guests began to arrive and all spent a very pleasant evening. Graphophone music was furnished by Marshall Wetzel. The play room was decorated with crown cut which was brought from each corner and each side to the center of the room and tied with a large bow of white ribbon. The dining room was decorated with red and pink paper roses with green foliage. About 11 o'clock the gentlemen escorted the ladies to the table which was laden with cakes, lemonade, candies, apples and oranges. After refreshments were served the guests returned to the room and indulged in games until a late hour. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Condon and family, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Fowble and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fickett, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Condon, Misses Minnie Bloom, of Poplar Springs; Esther Gartrell, Naomi Gartrell, Lillian Miltner, Sherman Buckingham, May Gosnell, Gladys Butler, of Mt. Airy; Leona Waltman, Francis Gosnell, Viola Fowble, Jesse Gosnell and Georgia Fowble, Leonard Gosnell, Marshall Wetzel, Joseph Fickett, Guy Wetzel, Benjamin Condon, Ernest Cover, Lester; Long, Boyd Condon, Riley Gartrell, Harry Aspymer, John Zile, Ollie Pickett, Jay Conaway, Roy Pickett, Augustus and Lee Condon, Howard Gosnell, Beulah Pickett, Samuel Gosnell and Waldon Gosnell. All departed after thanking their host and hostess for their kindness.

Christmas at the County Home.

To all who helped:

"The very best Christmas we ever had." That was the comment of each one of the inmates as they passed from the room on Wednesday afternoon, December 29th, at the close of the very enjoyable program which had been prepared for them. And in many ways, it was, "the best," because although the weather was so unfavorable, the roads in some places almost impassable, a number of ladies and gentlemen braved the cold and the wind, and were promptly on time, to give pleasure and share the joys of the Christmas season, with those of our citizens, whom poverty and misfortune had placed there as wards of the county. The steward and stewardess, Mr. and Mrs. Humbert, always ready and glad to lend assistance, had turned the large dining room into a very attractive place, with wreaths and garlands of evergreen, flags and red Christmas bells. The Christmas gifts which had been carefully selected, with a view to gratifying as near as possible, the wishes of the inmates, were grouped around a prettily decorated Christmas tree, on one side of the room, the inmates occupying seats on the opposite side. The County Commissioners, with their wives, had all expected to be present, but on account of the snow drifts and closed roads, Mr. Brown and two daughters were the only ones present. A number of the inmates were unable to leave their rooms, and so failed to hear the delightful music of the Westminster Orchestra, who were present in full force, under the leadership of Prof. Bailey Morelock. This was an unexpected treat to the inmates, and was appreciated and enjoyed to the fullest extent. The program consisted of music by the orchestra, prayer by Rev. P. H. Miller, D. D., pastor of Grace Lutheran Church; an address by Rev. Calvin S. Slagle pastor of St. Paul's Reformed Church; recitation of a poem written by Miss Mary B. Shellman, and recited by Miss Azalea Shipley; an address by Mrs. E. K. Herr, which was preceded by Master George Stonesifer, who sang sweetly "I love to tell the story of Jesus and His love." As the strains of the orchestra died away after the addresses, the merry shout of Santa Claus was heard, and the genial old gentleman impersonated by Mr. George Jackson came bounding into the room, with his basket full of good things, and a bundle of pretty toys for Charlotte, the two year old child of one of the inmates, and who distributed, with a kind word to each all the gifts which had been provided for them. To Mr. and Mrs. Humbert was presented a vase of carnations as a token of regard, from the inmates. Santa Claus was very much "up to date," and sang, to their great delight and with as much spirit as he sang in "The Little Tycoon," to a more fashionable audience, "I've rings on my fingers and bells on my toes," and he can congratulate himself on having given unbounded pleasure. Everyone was happy, and life seemed brighter, at least for one day.

And for all this pleasure I want to thank all who so generously responded to my request for aid. From all parts of the county it came; from our young townsmen Charlie Vanderford and his cousin, Kenneth Mills, in far away Mexico; from John Snowden and wife, worthy colored people, formerly of Westminster, now of Massachusetts; from the Christian Endeavor Societies of the Lutheran and Presbyterian churches of Taneytown; and from the teachers and pupils of the Warfieldsburg and Bedford schools, and from many friends whom I could not thank by note nor in person, but whose contributions came unanimously, and with kind words of encouragement, which make me feel proud and grateful for the confidence placed in me by my fellow citizens of our much loved and generous Carroll county. To all who aided in making an attractive program, I return thanks in the name of the inmates, who not only enjoyed the beautiful music of the orchestra, but appreciated the giving of their time, by busy men, and making them feel they are not altogether friendless. "Inasmuch as we have done it unto one of the least of these, my brethren, ye have done it unto me."

Yours "In His Name," MARY BOSTWICK SHELLMAN.

A Party Near Gamber.

For the Advocate.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Ward Friday evening, December 24th, was the scene of a most enjoyable party given in honor of their daughter Miss Disye and her friend, Miss Blanche Ford. At an early hour the guests began to arrive, and all indulged in games and music until a late hour, when refreshments were served in a very attractive manner. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Ward and wife, Frank Warehime and wife, Lewis Miller and wife, Mrs. Clinton Shipley, Helen Barthlow, of Baltimore; Daisy Pool, Blanche Ford, Beulah Shalk, Margie Zepp, Pauline Barnes, Bessie Zepp, Bertha Phillips, Viola Barnes, Bessie Ward, Nellie Gardner, Amelia Ward, Laura Fawcett, Edith Myers, Disye Ward, Grace Bush, Harriet Ward, Blanche Ward, Lewis Connelly, of Shoreham, N.
