The Circuit Court was engaged this week in the trial of the case of Young vs. Young. In 1898 the farm in Franklin District upon which Mrs. Ann E. Young, the widow of John T. In consideration of his doing this she gave him all property amounting to several thousand dollars. The son afterward marrying, trouble arose and she left his home, and brought suit against him. The story of the mother as to her treatment was denied by the son and his wife, but the jury believed her and late Wednesday evening brought in a verdict in her favor for $1,000. Guy W. Steele represented the plaintiff and Bond & Parke the defendant. Judges Brashear and Forsythe were on the bench on Wednesday and heard the argument in the case of Sullivan vs. Junkins, removed from Howard county. For the Advocate. Mr. H. U. Gelman, of near Miller's, Md., killed a hog on February 21 that measured 8 feet 6 inches long from the tip of his nose to the end of tail and 6 feet 4½ inches around the body behind the front legs and 3 feet 2 inches high, and weighed 750 pounds. Mr. Jacob N. Dehoff weighed the hog, and was sold to Elmer Davidson, of Greenmount.

This hog was a White Chester, with part Berkshire, and is probably the largest hog that was ever killed in the nearby districts. #### That Breach of Promise Case.

The Mock Court Trial to be given under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of Centenary M. E. Church, in Odd Fellows' Hall, on Monday evening, February 28, promises to be an event of unusual interest. Judging from newspaper reports of similar entertainments conducted by the present management it would seem to be one of the most amusing things now offered for public patronage.

It will be, in the first place, an exact production of a court scene in methods and procedure and on this account will be extremely interesting to ladies and others who have never attended a real trial.

Best of all will be the refined fun of the whole affair. With Joseph D. Brooks, Esq., presiding over the court, Miss Nettie Whitmore appearing as the broken-hearted plaintiff, Mr. Geo. Armacost as the defendant, Col. Newton prosecuting the case and Charles O. Clemson, Esq., defending the accused, to say nothing of the brilliant array of court officers, witnesses and jurors, it is pretty certain we shall have all the comedy and reality of a court scene and enough wholesome fun to last a whole year.

Indeed it is predicted by those in position to know, that from the opening of the court until the close of the case, the audience will be kept keyed up to the point of conclusions by the unique proceedings.

Wit, pathos, eloquence, laughable local hits and vagaries will be drawn upon without stint to keep up the current merriment.

As an entertainment of innocent fun, conducted with mock dignity and under the shade of offense to refined tastes, the Mock Court Trial will be as mentioned above, an event of unusual interest.

The following are the rest of the participants: Clerk, George Miller; court officer, Walter Davis; Crier, George Jackson; Witnesses, Miss Madeline Gilbert, Miss Virginia Register, Dr. Luther Bare, Dr. James E. Shreeve, H. Peyton Gorsuch; Jurors, Atlee Wampler, Charles Hesson, Ezra Stem, Abraham Price, Ferdinand Schaeffer, Frank Herr, Morris Mitten, John Hanna, Prof. E. A. Hildey, Dr. Thomas Shaw, Dr. Jesse Myers, Prof. C. H. Kolb.

Musings of the Gentle Cynic.

Even the man who is well reared may get to the front.

Wise is the man who is too sharp to be a bore.

All things are more apt to come to those who don't wait for them.

The man who needs a rest cure should have thought of that before he got married.

Almost any one can tell us how we might have succeeded after we have failed.

Faith often moves mountains, and sometimes it even puts up a bluff.

It makes a fellow hot to think what a cold, cruel world this is.

The opportunity seldom calls when we are all dressed and waiting for it.

The best thing about being a failure is that you have plenty of company.

A nervous woman's illness is frequently due to the fact that the doctor needs the money.

Some girls are adorable, and some merely pompadourable.
