SYKESVILLE.

Leave all subscriptions, advertisements and job work at Walter V. Ritter's Tonsorial Parlor, local agent.

Miss Josephine, Helen and Blanche Warfield visited Mr. De Sales and Baltimore the past week. The Guild of St. Barnabas P. E. Church met at the rectory the first Thursday in the month.

There were three runaways in Sykesville the past week: A six horse team loaded with wheat, ran violently down Springfield avenue and collided with a telephone pole, spilled the wheat, broke the wagon and injured two horses slightly. Mr. Howard was the owner of the team.

A day or two later John Weetenkamp's horses ran away from the station, up the board walk on Springfield avenue, causing only a broken single tree. The early part of the week Mrs. J. B. Mellor and her son, Mrs. Emma Favore, had a short runaway, no damage being done and no one hurt.

The Rev. L. A. Koontz delivered a lecture at Wesley Chapel, Freedom, on the evening of the 19th. Miss Briggs and Miss Snyder, of Montgomery county, are visiting friends in the neighborhood.

Mrs. J. M. McDonald made a trip to Baltimore the past week. Misses Grey and Eleanor Horpel, of Baltimore, are spending a fortnight at Mrs. J. H. Ruby's.

Wm. L. Harris, of Rapid City, S. D., who has amassed quite a fortune in the west, expects to return to Maryland and settle permanently. His many friends will welcome his return, and he will be a valuable addition to the citizenship of his native place.

Mrs. J. Clement Clarke entertained at Bridge. Albert Burns, of the Fifth Regiment, spent the week end at Mrs. J. H. Ruby's.

Miss Helen Bauer is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. D. B. Hepper. Mrs. Wm. Harris and children, of Baltimore, who are guests of Mrs. Ethelbert Shipley, were in Sykesville the early part of the week, accompanied by Mr. Minnie Hood and daughter.

"Chihuahua," the most popular summer resort in this section of the county, has a quota of thirty-five guests, among whom are the Rev. H. M. Wharton, of Brady Baptist Church, Baltimore. Mr. Wharton, who is a warm hearted typical southerner, has compiled a volume of southern war songs, and is well known as a popular Baltimore preacher.

Several thousand bushels of wheat daily has been passing through the elevator of Wade H. D. Warefield & Co., Sykesville.

In the ball game last Saturday between Woodstock and Sykesville, the score was 1 to 3 in favor of Sykesville. On the 23rd Magnolia will play Sykesville and a lively time is expected. Magnolia says "she will beat the Sykesville's or know the reason why."

Mrs. Wade H. D. Warefield is confined to the house with a severe cold. Frank Mellor, who is well known among "the younger set" and with all the local base ball teams, underwent an operation last Wednesday at "The Presbyterian Eye and Ear" Hospital of Baltimore. Mr. Mellor's friends hope he will soon be well again.

George Blake and little daughter Harriet, of Baltimore, spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. John McDonald. Wm. A. Hutton, of Baltimore, returned after a short stay at the home of his parents, at Monkton.

Beverly Bennett spent Sunday with his sisters, Misses Hattie and Nell Bennett.

Mrs. Lawrence Costell, of Baltimore, has returned to her home after a short stay with her sister, Mrs. Lula Brooks, of "Elba."

The cottage opposite the town hall, belonging to John Harris, which has been vacant for a year, has been rented to Mr. and Mrs. Luther Collins, of Baltimore.

Miss Blanche Warfield, of Wheeling, W. Va., is visiting her father, Mr. Wade H. D. Warefield.

Miss Mildred Marsh has returned to her home in Baltimore after a pleasant stay at the home of the Misses Sullivan.

"The Little Workers" lawn fete was quite a success.

Mrs. Joseph Clement Clarke, wife of the superintendent of Springfield Hospital, was robbed of her handbag, containing $25 in money and several pieces of jewelry, in a well-known Lexington street department store, Baltimore, about 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. It appears that the thieves, evidently expert women shoplifters, entered the store while Mrs. Clarke was making some purchases at a counter on the first floor.

As she examined the goods before her she put her bag to one side and paid no further attention to it for several minutes. When she turned again the bag was gone. Two women are supposed to be the guilty parties, as they were seen in consultation by a waitress, but nothing was thought about it until a half hour later when the same girl discovered that a handbag was lying on the floor with a pocketbook, a watch, wide open and containing cards and several papers. She reported this to the management. Mrs. Clark's card was found in the bag, but the money and jewelry were gone.

WEST FALLS. We were very much surprised at the quick change of the temperature of the weather.

Farmers are busy plowing. The croquet club of West Falls is still in progress. There were two players came to play on Thursday evening. West Falls won. We would like to see some more good players on Saturday evening.

A large number of our people attended Children's services at Bethany on Sunday evening.

Mr. E. W. Riggler has purchased the lot of J. S. Utz, and will erect some new buildings in the near future, one of which will be a beautiful dwelling house. It will be quite an improvement to our little town.

Mrs. Wm. Chaney is visiting friends in Baltimore. Miss Edna Hood made a pleasant visit with friends in Woodboro.

Mrs. Amelia Bowman is visiting friends in Libertytown.

Carroll Reese and wife and little daughter Edith, Charley Elgin and wife and Miss Maye Long were pleasantly entertained at Mr. George Gartrell's on Sunday.

Miss Martha Culberson, of Uniontown, spent Tuesday with John Henry Benner and family.

Harris and Paul Warehime attended the harvest festival at Levi Maus' on Tuesday night.

Grandma Burrall, who had been spending some time with her son, John Burrall, returned to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Samuel Brandenburg, at Litwood, on Tuesday.

The people of this neighborhood are very busy now attending harvest treats.

A very enjoyable harvest treat was had at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Robertson on Friday night. Refreshments, consisting of ice cream, cake, lemonade and bananas were served, to which all did ample justice.

Those present were William Robertson and family, Harry Myers and family, John Warner and family, Joel Myers and wife, Samuel Robertson and wife, James Robertson and wife, Harvey Selby, wife and son Paul, Misses Jennie Davidson, Allie Robertson, Effie Robertson, Harry Babylon, Lizzie Robertson, Ruthanna Babylon, Wm. Shaw, Charles Goodwin, Maylon Lambert. Mr. Shaw entertained them with some fine selections on the graphophone.

EDEN. Frederick Hoffman, of Eden, died on Saturday afternoon after a brief illness with Bright's disease. Mr. Hoffman was in his 57th year. He was of a quiet unassuming nature, with a kind disposition, always ready to help a neighbor in time of need and will be greatly missed by those around him. His funeral services and interment took place at St. John's (Lutheran) Church on Monday afternoon, at which place he had been a consistent member, his pastor, Rev. W. D. Doly, officiating. He leaves a wife and one son to mourn their loss. His pallbearers were John T. Albaugh, Le C. Leister, Edward Leister, George Neudecker, W. H. Snyder and Joseph Zepp.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred. Behm are making an extensive visit in the West, visiting relatives in Illinois and Kansas.

Jesse H. Null and George A. Leister made a business trip to Hanover, Pa., on Tuesday. Jesse says that Maryland is the place for a pocketbook, but Pennsylvania caps the climax for corn.

Mrs. Dora Sherman and son, Noland Chester, of Baltimore, visited relatives in this vicinity the past week.
