SMALLWOOD.

The company that gave the entertainment at Smallwood on January 7 gave one at Gamber January 28. The attendance was all that could be desired, about 250. The company wishes to extend their thanks to those that were present and for the excellent order that prevailed. It holds the people of Gamber in the highest esteem for the courteous manner in which they received them. The company also extends their thanks to the enterprising merchants, Shipley & Bonner, for the use of their fine organ. The receipts were $35.55; expenses $7.50. The proceeds will be used to purchase an organ for the public school at Smallwood and to improve the Smallwood Hall. It has been demonstrated since the erection of the hall at Smallwood that a large hall is a great advantage to any community, as it brings the people together on a great many occasions, therefore giving them the opportunity of knowing one another. The company has received invitations to go to other places. If they do decide later on the advertisement will appear.

Mr. Joseph Niner has made quite a name for himself. He was on hand Saturday evening with a four-horse bus, to convey the company to Gamber. He is always in for anything that is a help to the community. He was assisted by Elmer Logue, who is a fine young man. The company has no name as yet, but it has been suggested that they call themselves "The Little Joe Dramatic and Vaudeville Company," in honor of Mr. Joseph Niner. So wherever an entertainment is advertised under the head of Little Joe, be sure and come, for they will try to keep up to the standard.

A new boiler will soon be placed in the Smallwood Creamery. During the past year the average of 27c per pound for the butter fat was paid, and the skimmed milk returned to the patrons. During the drought of 1910 the supply of milk was short, but the prospects for 1911 are very encouraging.

Mrs. Howard Hare is confined to the house with a severe cold.

Mrs. Charles Brown is ill with pneumonia.

Clinton Bortner is on the sick list.

PLEASANT VALLEY.

At a recent meeting of the Pleasant Valley band a reorganization was effected and the following officers elected: Musical director and manager, Edward P. Zepp; sergeant, Oliver Myers; president, Upton E. Myers; vice president, Charles S. Yingling; secretary and treasurer, Carroll E. Myers; trustees, Lewis D. G. Wantz, Claude Myers and Raymond N. Myers.

Mr. Zepp had been for some weeks previous urgently solicited and pressed to take the band under his charge as director, but consented only after several weeks consideration, and then only on condition and pledge of the members to faithfully stick to him and earnestly cooperate with him in his efforts to arouse the dormant musical talents and develop a musical organization that will be a credit to any community. The boys took on renewed energy and ambition and pledged themselves, and expect to be in the shape for an engagement by the time the band season opens. If the boys become too negligent and dilatory Mr. Zepp will drop it like a hot potato. It is due Mr. Zepp to say right here, that he is in no way responsible for the removal or withdrawal of certain members from the band, which is known as the "Pleasant Valley Concert Band." The boys greatly need funds, and to raise same will hold a band fair and bazaar, and oyster supper in the P. O. S. of A. Hall, on the nights of February 9, 11, 13, 15 and 17, on which the following bands will give concerts: Mayberry, Taneytown, Pleasant Valley Cornet and Union Mills Bands. Remember, a different band each evening. These will be unique occasions, and you should not miss one evening. A treat in store for you.

Few people, especially in the country, realize, or stop to consider what best benefit and great influence for good a band exercises on a community. The love of music is inherent in almost every person, and where there is lack of an appreciation of the divine art, (music) there is sure to be found some element that is antagonistic to higher culture and advanced civilization. In communities where there are no bands or singing societies it is a noticeable fact that the people are unprogressive, devoid of refinement, and live wholly on the physical plan, giving no heed to any of the arts and totally indifferent as to the outcome of the future. What is more elevating and soul-soothing than the beautiful tones of some well rendered concert selections? Few have any idea of the amount of money required to run a band.

Divine service this Sunday at 10 a. m. by Rev. John O. Yoder. Sunday school at 9 a. m.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. Church met at Mr. and Mrs. George Cecil's last Thursday afternoon. The February meeting will be held at the parsonage of Rev. and Mrs. H. C. Hall. Each member is requested to bring something.

The first services are still in progress at Taylorsville M. E. Church with a very large attendance.

SOUTHERN CARROLL.

Roads through this section of Carroll are about eight inches deep with mud.

The heavy rain fall has been enjoyed here during the past week or two, which has done many to wear quite broad smile.

The benches of Mt. Olive M. E. Church have been repainted.

The interior has also been given a coat of paint. The edifice was closed during the month of January, but will be opened for Sabbath school at 9.15 a. m. Sunday.

The months of January, April, July, October and December of 1911 have five Sabbath days each, which only occurs once in six years.

Mr. Roy Buckingham visited Bethel school last Tuesday and found the interior in a perfect condition. Miss Pearl Mercer, the instructor, deserves a great deal of credit for the most proficient way she teaches. Both teacher and scholars are in perfect accord.

The Ladies' Aid Society of Morgan M. E. Church met in the hall owned by Mr. George Pickett, Saturday afternoon last. The two young school teachers of Day entertained the society. Sixty dollars remain in the treasury after all bills were paid. Two or three new members were added. The society is in a flourishing condition under the excellent leadership of Mrs. H. B. Pickett, president.

An oyster supper will be held by the society on the evening of February 9 in the basement of Morgan church. If the weather should be unfavorable it will be held the next fair evening.

Ulysses Pool, who has been suffering from a complication of diseases, is recovering.

UNION MILLS.

Probably never in the history of this village was so much sickness and so many indisposed persons as there are at present. Nearly every family has from two to four on the sick list.

We have seen a number of the same condition prevails in the surrounding community. Grip seems to be the principal cause.

Miss Miraud Nusbau, whose school at Pleasant Valley was closed for nearly two weeks, was suddenly recovered to open her school on Monday last.

Irving Burgoon, formerly of this place, but now of Gettysburg, Pa., underwent an operation at the York Hospital last week to restore, if possible, the use of several fingers of his left hand, which had been disabled last August by a piece of heavy plate glass falling upon them and badly lacerating his arm near the wrist. His surgeons think the operation will restore the use of his fingers. He hopes to be able to work at this place on return to his home at Gettysburg the first of next week. His many friends here are hopeful that the operation may be a complete success.

Rev. F. T. Tagg, D. D., of Baltimore, will deliver a lecture at the Methodist Episcopal Church, at this place, on Friday evening, February 10. His subject is P's and Q's. Dr. Tagg is a native of this place, and is well known and will gladly welcome a large audience. His subject is one that will not only amuse, but will instruct to all, and is cordially invited. A collection will be taken for the local church.

The series of meetings which had been in progress at the M. E. Church, closed Tuesday evening, January 24. N. G. H. Jones, whose wife and two children died last fall with typhoid fever and who was taken to a Baltimore hospital with the same malady, returned to his home last week, after being confined to the hospital for more than three months. He and his son, about 14 years of age, are the only members of the family left.

WAKEFIELD.

Mrs. Granville G. Bixler is spending this week with her son, Granville B. Bixler, of Walbrook, Baltimore.

Miss Mabel Hann was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Gorsuch, of Westminster.

One of our school boys wrote the following composition on Patrick Henry: "Patrick Henry was not a bright boy, he had blue eyes and light hair. He got into a fight with a girl named Liberty or give me death." Give talk, give me some more.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Belt, of Panama, is expected home at any time. Mr. Belt held a position as chief foreman of the canal.

Miss Carrie Belle Miller is spending a few days with friends in Baltimore.

Miss Mabel Hann is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Gorsuch this week.

The remains of Mrs. George Snider were interred in the Brick M. E. Church cemetery on Thursday morning, Revs. G. J. Hill and W. K. Kindler officiating. Mrs. Snider had many friends in this section.

The train which arrives here at 9.30 a. m. is called the noon train by our young people.

Mrs. Ella Belt returned home from Panama on Tuesday.
