COURT HOUSE NEWS.

TRACT OF LAND IN DISPUTE OVER 60 YEARS IS SETTLED AGAIN.

An Important Case Removed from Baltimore County on Trial This Week.

The jury rendered a verdict in a case involving the title to a tract of land near Winfield, which has been in dispute for more than 60 years and which has not only been fought over in the courts but has frequently been an actual physical battle ground. The plaintiffs in the case, James Harp, Charlotte Gosnell and Eliza Fredericks, sued George H. Pickett for trespass upon the land in question, which contains about 16 acres. The testimony was conflicting. It was in evidence that the Picketts from time to time cut wood on the lot, but on several occasions went to the land armed with shotguns; that the Harps had surveys made and did some cutting, and that on one occasion they drove the Picketts from the premises. The Harps heirs, however, relied upon their paper title, but the jury evidently regarding it as insufficient rendered a verdict for the defendant. Bond & Parke represented the plaintiffs, and Guy W. Steele the defendant.

J. Nathan Dean vs. United Railway & Electric Company, body Corporate; tried before a jury. The case removed here from Towson, of Mr. Dean, of Bel Air, Hartford county, against the United Railway Company, of Baltimore, has been on trial since Monday. It has been hotly contested and much acrimony has been developed. Mr. Dean sues for $20,000 for injury to his leg and hip. He was on the car, near Towson, when it ran off the track.

The case will be concluded today, but too late to give verdict.

Archer, Offett, Bond & Parke for plaintiff; Cook, Steele and Clemson for defendant.

There is danger in Street Loafing.

The worst habit that boys can fall into is that of loafing around on the streets at night. It is then they cast their lot in slippery places, when at any moment they are likely to fall from grace. All good and noble lessons taught them by their mothers are there counteracted and nullified. They learn nothing that is good—but everything bad. The boys who spend their evenings in the sacred precincts of home, with good books for their companions, are the future hope of this republic. They will fill our legislative and Congressional halls, and sit in judgment upon men and measures, while the boys who run the streets will fill our penitentiaries, almshouses and lunatic asylums.

INSTANTLY KILLED

MR. KERN FALLS 50 FEET FROM SCAFFOLD.

Was Erecting Steel Beam When Accident Happened.

Mr. Kerns, of Baltimore, Md., accidentally fell, while erecting steel beams at the Tidewater Portland Cement Company at Union Bridge, yesterday morning about 10 a. m., and was instantly killed.

ANNOUNCEMENT TO BONDHOLDERS.

Tidewater Portland Cement Company.

About a year ago we put into operation the large lime plant of the Tidewater Portland Cement Company and on May 1st, of this year the stock house was empty and the Company was behind in deliveries, 31 cars of material.

On May 25, 1911 the operating department of the Company had its traffic affairs, including rate adjustments, sales, arrangements, etc., well in hand, in anticipation of the opening about August 1st 1911, of its large cement plant with its first unit equipment.

Experts say this is the most modern cement plant in existence and should operate very successfully.

The management of the Tidewater Company has already demonstrated what it can do. The operating organization of the Company is in the hands of competent and experienced men who have been connected in responsible capacities with some of the oldest and best known lime and cement companies in the country.

Many of our bondholders have expressed a desire to see the plant before it goes into commission. The underground work, including tunnels, elevator pits, etc. is very extensive, in fact, thousands of dollars have been expended in providing a conveying system to insure the lowest possible manufacturing cost. The elevators, belt and pan conveyors, will soon be in position and the last opportunity to see this part of the work is now.

We enclose herewith an invitation to be present at the preliminary inspection of the plant on May 27th. Your presence is earnestly desired and we believe you will count the time at Union Bridge, well spent.

Sandyville Grange Sociable.

For the Advocate.

On Thursday evening, May 18, 1911, the Sandyville Grange, No. 256, of Sandyville, Md., held a sociable at the home of its overseer, Frank Eckenrode, of Reese, Carroll county.

The members of the Order, together with a large number of invited guests assembled on the lawn and spent a very pleasant evening. The program consisting of singing and speaking, was conducted by U. H. Shipley, Master of the local Order. The first speaker of the evening was Grove J. Shipley, of Smallwood Grange. He gave an excellent talk on "Interest in Grange Work." Brother Jacob Basher, Pastmaster of the Westminster Grange, spoke especially on the attack that a blue beetle was making on his vineyard. It was found to be quite a general trouble in this community, and the discussion brought out the fact that spraying the vines with a solution of arsenic of lead will destroy the beetle and thus save the vines. (The beetle will appear twice in a season, first, in April or May, second, in July or August. By dusting vines with soot or wood ashes the insects will be driven away.)

Brother Upton Gladhill, Master of Medford Grange, spoke very convincingly on the effect of the reciprocity bill and kindred topics. He showed by a number of comparisons that the producer received a very small portion of the consumer's dollar.

Much interest was taken in the gathering by the neighboring farmers, for they are convinced that unless they organize and stand together for the mutual protection and welfare of themselves and families they will never be granted the consideration due them for their labors. After the speaking, all were invited to the dining room where refreshments were served in abundance. At a late hour all returned to their homes well pleased with the hospitality of their host and the Grange in general.

Those present were as follows: Messrs. and Mesdames. Frank Eckenrode, William Leister, William Eckenrode, Butler Gorsuch, Noah Arbaugh, Ira E. Operetta Given by High School.

A beautiful operetta entitled "The Tyrolean Queen," was charmingly rendered by the pupils of the High School yesterday evening, and will be sung again this evening at eight o'clock. A great deal of talent was disclosed during the production, and we predict that this city may produce some prima donnas in the future.

The costumes worn by the Tyrolean Mountaineers, were very attractive and their choruses were good; the principal role was that of their queen, taken by Miss Marjorie Yingling, who has a pretty soprano voice and sang with part with expression. The gypsy chorus, however, was particularly fine and made up of many, good strong voices; the costumes worn by the gypsies were most picturesque and the character of Mother Grunt, taken by Miss Helen Stonifer, was particularly well acted.

Toward the latter part of the evening the fairies came on the scene—18 pretty girls with fairy wands and dresses of blue, white, green, pink, yellow, red and lavender, decorated with stars and spangles, and with Miss Elizabeth Lewis as their queen. She sang several beautiful solos with much ease and grace. The duet rendered by Misses Mary Hay and Dorothy McDaniell was a special feature, their voices blending particularly well together.

The teachers who trained the choruses and solos are to be complimented on the very creditable production, and the excellent taste displayed in all the costumes.

We are proud of our High School boys and girls and hope they will give us another entertainment next year, as good as this one.
