The report of the Western Maryland Railroad Company for the month of April shows a decrease in both gross and net income. The operating revenue decreased $66,296 as compared with the same month of last year, while the net operating income decreased $4,989. The unfavorable showing on the part of the Western Maryland Railroad for the month of April was due to the stagnation of the coal market, which prevailed during that month. The mines from which the road draws a large portion of its tonnage were in short supply, and there was a marked falling off in the movement of coal traffic over the system.

Harvest has commenced, and good crops are expected.

Then came a rush of wind and an enormous tree fell right in front of the leading car. The front wheels ran up on the fallen tree and the motorists were delayed for about an hour while the tree was being removed from the road.

Allen Griffen, justice of the peace of Carroll county sentenced a negro, named Frank Washington to serve 2 years and 6 months in the House of Correction. The commitment is said to be the queerest ever exhibited in court; it neglected to state that the prisoner had waived a jury trial but stated that Washington made an "assault on several parties by throwing stones and using profane language"; also that the affiant "is a legal officer of the State of Maryland contrary to law." Washington was released by the Baltimore City Court on a writ of habeas corpus.

Newfangled Schools.

They taught him how to hemstitch and they taught him how to sing. And how to make a basket out of variegated string, and how to fold a paper so he wouldn't hurt his thumb.

They taught a lot to Bertie, but he couldn't do a sum.

They taught him how to mould the head of Hercules in clay.

And how to tell the difference 'twixt the bluebird and the jay.

And how to sketch a horse in a little picture-frame.

But strangely they forgot to teach him how to spell his name.

Now, Bertie's pa was cranky, and he went one day to find

What 'twas they did that made his son so backward in his mind.

"I don't want Bertie wrecked," he cried, his temper far from cool,

"I want him educated!" so he took him out of school.

ANSWER IT HONESTLY.

Are the Statements of Westminster Citizens Not More Reliable Than Those of Utter Strangers?

This is a vital question. It is fraught with interest to Westminster.

It permits of only one answer. A Westminster citizen speaks here, for the welfare of Westminster.

A citizen's statement is reliable. An utter stranger's doubtful. Home proof is the best proof.

James F. Rinker, Justice of the Peace, E. Main St., Westminster, Md., says: "I willingly confirm all I said in praise of Doan's Kidney Pills in the public statement I gave in 1907. I suffered for some time from kidney and bladder trouble brought on by a cold. My back ached intensely and I felt miserable in every way. Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Moore's Drug Store gave me entire relief. I consider them an excellent remedy."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Candidates Cards.

To the Democrats of Carroll County:— I am a candidate for the office of State's Attorney. I respectfully ask for the support of every Democrat at the coming primary election. MICHAEL E. WALSH.

To the Democrats of Carroll County:— I hereby announce my candidacy for the Democratic nomination for one of the Judges of the Orphans' Court, and respectfully solicit your support at the coming primaries. JOHN T. HILL, Woolery's District. June 20-11

To the Democratic Voters of Carroll county: I hereby certify that I am a candidate in the coming primaries for the nomination for sheriff of Carroll county. June 2 ELIAS N. DAVIS,

At the request of my friends and many Democrats, I hereby announce myself as a candidate for Judge of the Orphans' Court, subject to the decision of the Democratic primaries. JOHN T. LYNCH.

To The Democrats of Carroll County:— Since announcing my candidacy for the nomination of State's Attorney, I have received many assurances of support at the coming primaries, which expressions of confidence and interest are both encouraging and gratifying. I find that this year voters are asking candidates some straightforward questions. They are asking, "Have you held public office before?" If you have been a candidate for public office heretofore and did not receive the nomination of the party, did you then, after the nominations were made, faithfully support the party nominees? If you, my fellow Democrats do not have heretofore held public office are not entitled to nominations above the men who have but equal claim to the office and have not been nominees. The people demand that faith in the party success and loyal work for the nominees shall have been the test by which candidates are to be judged. Personally I place party success above my own individual candidacy. I prefer the success of the Democratic party above my own and believe and trust in the good judgment and sense of a square deal of the people of this County. If you, my fellow Democrats find upon investigation that I measure up to the standard you have set for the candidates this year, I trust that I may have your support and votes. I am willing to submit to the judgment and action of my party. CHARLES O. CLEMSON.

To the Democratic Voters of Carroll County: I hereby submit my candidacy to the Democratic voters of Carroll county for the office of Judge of the Orphans' Court, and will be grateful for their support. J. WESLEY BIGGS, Westminster District.
