HYATTSVILLE TO FIGHT ROAD.

Town Council Objects To Grade Crossing At Columbia Avenue.

Hyattsville, Md., September 20.—This town will go to court in its effort to keep the Washington, Gettysburg and Westminster railroad from crossing Columbia avenue at grade. A brief stop for some automobile supplies was made at the store of Wm. N. Keefer, on East Main street, where several persons inspected the aeroplane. This mode of transportation was adopted on account of inability to make suitable railroad arrangements in time. The aeroplane was placed on a platform supported by pneumatic tired wheels and the scheme worked well thus far.
The Rex Smith machine is similar to the Wright biplane and the one seen Monday is new from the factory, the aviator having merely given it a brief tryout Sunday. Separate parts of the aeroplane were carried along in the automobile.

DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATES NOTIFIED.

GREAT ENTHUSIASM AND EVIDENCES OF PARTY HARMONY.

Gorman Shows Exactly Where He Stands—Guarantees Against Ring Rule—Would Unearth Fraud—Pledges Good Government.

State Senator Arthur P. Gorman was formally notified on Tuesday of his selection as candidate for Governor of the Democratic party, at his beautiful home, Fairview, in Howard county. At the same time Edgar Allan Poe, candidate for Attorney-General, and Emerson C. Harrington, candidate for Comptroller, were also notified.
More than 500 Democrats, representing every element within the party, were present, and inspired by the ringing frankness and boldness of Mr. Gorman's speech, they cheered and applauded from the time the ceremony began until it ended.

The Notifiers.

The speeches notifying the candidates were made by State Senator Jesse D. Price, of Wicomico, for Mr. Gorman; Mr. W. Mason Sheehan, of Talbot county, for Mr. Harrington, and Judge Glenn H. Worthington, of Frederick county, for Mr. Poe. All three made strong addresses.

The Candidates Accept.

Mr. Harrington and Mr. Poe both made speeches of acceptance which were well received and which elicited much applause, but it was the candid and frank speech of Mr. Gorman, the keynote which will ring throughout the campaign. His speech was aggressive, forceful and straight from the shoulder, and when he finished everyone present knew exactly where Mr. Gorman stood.

A Few Sentences From Mr. Gorman's Speech.

"I am a Democrat and I am a politician, and I am not ashamed to plead guilty to either charge. . . . But while I am not ashamed to be called a politician, I have no more use for the crooked politician or the man who is in politics for graft or to serve his special friends or interests, or for the man who tries to fool the public, than I have for the hypocrite or the liar or the thief."

"If I am elected, I shall appoint Democrats to office. But in selecting Democrats I shall feel free to forget any service any individual or group of individuals may have done me or the party, and I shall refuse to appoint any man, regardless of his political backing, who does not possess the highest possible standards of efficiency."

"I assert that as a candidate Mr. Goldsborough is a Custom House product, pure and simple."

"In all of Mr. Goldsborough's political record there is no incident or instance that marks him as independent of his political sponsors and party bosses."

RODE TO HIS DEATH.

Young Eckard Instantly Killed When His Bicycle Collided with team.

In a most unusual accident Maurice N. Eckard son of Mr. and Mrs. Newton Eckard and grandson of the late Jesse Eckard, met instant death on Sunday, September 10th on the Long Green road about half a mile from Long Green Station, on the Maryland and Pennsylvania Railroad.
He had been to the station on his bicycle to meet the train for Baltimore and was returning home when, at a point on the road just where the Pennsylvania Light & Power Company's transmission line crosses, he ran into a double team driven by Eugene Wheatley and was instantly killed.

The pole of the buggy struck the boy on the nose and penetrated the brain nearly two inches; the horses stopped immediately and the boy dropped to the ground. Mr. Wheatley with his wife and baby, were in the buggy when the accident occurred. They got out and Mrs. Wheatley tenderly lifted the youth to the road side while Mr. Wheatley drove for Dr. John Green, about a quarter of a mile away. The Doctor returned with him and found the body lifeless.

The father and mother of young Eckard, who with their two other children were driving on ahead of the lad and had just pulled to the side of the road to let the team pass, knew nothing of the accident until reached the sad scene he hastily sent a youth for the parents of the boy to tell them an accident had occurred and it was thought their boy was hurt. They hurriedly drove back and viewed the gruesome sight at the side of the road, the same place before he knew it. The accident happened at once it is supposed that Maurice had been riding along with his head down and was on the team before he knew it. EXTENDS BUSINESS.

FOUNDRY COMPANY WILL OPERATE ON LARGER SCALE IN WAYNESBORO

Messrs. Miller, Armacost, Bacon and Moore are the Officers.

The following article, with a few corrections, is taken from the Waynesboro Record.
The board of trade has secured the first of what it is expected will be a number of new industries for Waynesboro. The members of the Westminster Metal & Foundry Co. will extend their plant to Waynesboro, Pa., and operate here on a larger scale than in the Maryland town.
At a special meeting of the executive committee of the board of trade, yesterday evening, the terms of agreement for the removal of the industry to its suitable location, were extended their plant to Waynesboro, Pa., and operate here on a larger scale than in the Maryland town.
At a special meeting of the executive committee of the board of trade, yesterday evening, the terms of agreement for the removal of the industry to its suitable location, were extended their plant to Waynesboro, Pa., and operate here on a larger scale than in the Maryland town.

To secure this new industry the board of trade, through the use of the guarantee fund recently subscribed, will purchase a tract of land and erect on it suitable buildings, which it will lease to the new company for a certain rental until the latter is ready to purchase the property.

The Westminster Metal & Foundry Co., which will extend operations to Waynesboro, will be incorporated under the laws of Pennsylvania as the Waynesboro Metal & Foundry Co. It will have a capital stock of $50,000. The majority of this will be held by the Westminster people; but Waynesboro capitalists have also purchased some of the stock.

The Waynesboro Co. will have these officers: President—Fred D. Miller; general manager—A. V. Moore; treasurer—Geo. H. Armacost; sales manager—A. T. Bacon.

The first three have been connected with the company in Westminster. President Miller is a member of the large dry goods firm of Miller Bros., Westminster. He is a long-time friend of Val Smith, the well-known merchant of this place.

Armacost is assistant cashier of the Union National Bank, Westminster. General Manager Moore is the practical man of the company and the head of the foundry business. Sales Manager Bacon was formerly employed by the Shriver Packing Co., extensive packers of vegetables, etc.

The Westminster Metal & Foundry Co. does a profitable and growing business but it wanted to enlarge and it found in Waynesboro the conditions which it believed would enable it to do this. About $100,000 is the amount of the annual brass bill of the local industries and this will go to the new company naturally.

The principal output of the plant is brass pig. Almost equally as large is the product of brass castings. The company has enjoyed a large business and has a number of good-sized contracts now on hand, employing 16 men in Westminster but will increase this number here.

The executive committee of the board of trade, yesterday evening, authorized the erection of a brick, with slate roof, building, 150x40 feet in size. Forty feet of the structure will be two stories in height and 10 feet one story. Plans will be prepared at once by Architect Woltz and it is expected the building can be completed by December 1 and the new industry in operation January 1. By the agreement accepted by the company and the board of trade the company will pay a rental equaling six per cent on the board of trade's investment, clear of taxes.

Messrs. Moore, and Bacon will move their families to Waynesboro and build or lease homes here. They will become residents of Waynesboro as soon as possible. Mr. Miller will continue his residence in Westminster. The board of trade has been engaged for the past two months in its efforts to bring the new industry here.

The members of the new company have made a very favorable impression upon all they have met here. They are capable financiers and foundry men and Mr. Bacon is an experienced sales manager, having had charge of this department of one of the largest packing businesses in Maryland.
