School Commissioners.

Miss Hattie H. Rash, the teacher who took charge of Meadow Branch school at the beginning of the Fall term, resigned, and the Superintendent has placed Miss Bessie Steiner in that school.

The demand for another teacher in the school at Taneytown was so imperative that the Superintendent, with consent of the Smallwood trustees, placed Miss Olive O. Pennell, their teacher, in the school at Taneytown, and secured the services of Miss Bessie Wine, of Union Bridge, daughter of the President of Blue Ridge College, for Smallwood school.

The Domestic Science room is open, and the up-to-date work going on there will open the eyes of visitors who may step in to view the surroundings.

Twelve New Methodist Protestant Churches.

Twelve new churches dedicated in one year will be the record of the Maryland Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church, according to the schedule of dedications. Since the last meeting of the conference, five churches have been dedicated and seven more have notified Rev. Dr. J. M. Sheridan, the president of the conference, that they will have their dedicatory exercises before the meeting of the next conference, in the spring. The latest church to notify Dr. Sheridan of its cornerstone laying, was the Methodist Protestant Church at Laurel, which will this week lay the cornerstone of a $30,000 edifice. Rev. Avary Donovan is the pastor.

DEATHS

Slifer.

Mrs. Edmund Slifer, of Littlestown, Pa., died at the home of her son, Luther Slifer, in Germany township, Pa., Tuesday, October 24th, from a complication of diseases, aged 54 years, 10 months and 23 days. Deceased had been in ill health for about two years.

Her maiden name was Alice Rebecca Kindig, a daughter of the late John Kindig, of Conowago township, Pa. About 22 years ago she was married to Edmund Slifer. They resided in Littlestown for the past ten years with the exception of the last two months. She is survived by her husband and two children, Luther S. Slifer, of Germany township, Pa., and Mrs. Frank Bechtel of Silver Run. Also a step-daughter, Mrs. Samuel Smith, of Littlestown, and the following brothers and sisters: Geo. F. Kindig, of Hanover; Samuel Kindig, of Kentland, Ind.; Charles and Frank Kindig, of near Littlestown, and Mrs. John Maus, of Silver Run. Funeral was held Friday morning at 9:30 o'clock, Rev. John Jay Hill, officiating. Interment in Mt. Carmel cemetery.

Study.

Nelson Study, well known throughout Adams county, Pa., as a dealer in agricultural implements, died suddenly at his home in Littlestown, Saturday morning, October 28, from heart failure. He was aged about 57 years.

The deceased formerly lived in Silver Run, and went to Littlestown about 10 years ago, where he opened an implement warehouse and conducted a successful business.

He was married to a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Krug, of Littlestown, who survives him, together with three children.

The funeral took place Tuesday, October 31, at 9:30 a. m., from his late home in Littlestown. Interment in the Reformed cemetery at Silver Run, Rev. Mr. Hoover, officiating.

Bish.

Silas M. Bish, one of the best known residents of this county, died at his home on the Sullivan road, near this city, at an early hour Monday morning, October 30, aged 66 years. For forty years he was a leading buckster and had been engaged in farming for eight years. His widow and two children (Edward C. Bish, of this city, and Mrs. Sterling Shuck, of Baltimore,) survive him. He also leaves four brothers (Joel, Reuben G., Ezra M., of this city, and Noah, of Dayton, O.).

The funeral took place on Tuesday afternoon at one o'clock, at Kreider's Lutheran Church. Rev. W. D. Doty, assisted by Rev. J. W. Reinecke, conducted the services. The pallbearers were Charles Schaefer, Fred. Harver, Abraham Lefter, Denton Reese, John Leese and Jacob Basler. James M. Stoner was the undertaker.

Zepp.

Mrs. Grace C. Zepp, aged 24 years, wife of John W. Zepp, died at her home, near Wesley Chapel, on Sunday evening, October 29, of peritonitis. She was the daughter of Samuel Knapp, of Medford. The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock, at Wesley Church, Rev. Frank Steelman, the pastor, officiating.

The pallbearers were Luther Davidson, Constant Elserode, Samuel Elserode, Jr., Wm. Grumbine, Norman Taylor and Frank Raver. Interment was in the adjoining cemetery. Besides her husband she is survived by two little daughters, by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Glover, of Medford; three sisters, Ada, Blanche and Hollis Glover; and six brothers, Frank, Harry, Ernest, Clarence, George and Horace Glover, all of Medford.

Warfield.

Lula Warfield, formerly of this city, died at St. Agnes Hospital, Baltimore, on Friday, October 27, of a complication of diseases, 35 years of age. Her remains were taken to the residence of Charles E. Stem, Winfield, on Friday evening, and buried at Bethel Church, Sam's Creek, on Sunday at 11 a. m. Rev. J. T. Marsh conducted the services.

The deceased was a cousin of C. E. Stem. She is survived by her mother, Mrs. Eleanor Warfield, who resides with Mr. Stem, and by one brother, Edward, near Sam's Creek. The pallbearers were Geo. Devries, Sewell Easton, Lee Smith, Ollie Pickett, Herbert Pickett, and J. Conaway. C. M. Waltz was the funeral director.

Nash.

Joseph E. Nash, 42 years of age, and an employee of the Consolidated Gas Co. of Baltimore, while returning from work about 6 p. m., last Saturday, crossed the Pennsylvania Railroad tracks at Fulton Junction, and was run down by a shifting engine. His body was cut entirely in half before the engine could be stopped. His identity was unknown, and so his body, in parts, was taken to the morgue.

His family were very much worried about his non-appearance at home, and were in ignorance of his death until while reading the paper on Sunday morning, they saw that an unknown man had been killed, and on going to the morgue, found it was the body of the husband and father. They had his remains moved to his home on Appleton street, Baltimore, from which place they were taken to Hamstead, this county, on the 8:20 train last Tuesday, and from there to Mt. Carmel where funeral services were held. Rev. A. H. McKinley officiated.

He is survived by a widow and seven small children; his mother, and four brothers and two sisters. Mr. Nash was a member of Trenton Lodge No. 33, I. O. O. M., which lodge attended the funeral in a body and held services at the grave. The pallbearers were John H. Armacost, Jacob Armacost, Wesley Cooper, Jacob Palmer, George Dehoff and Richard Tracy. C. V. Tipton had charge of the funeral.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOOT HIMSELF.

STANLEY GORSUCH'S DEAD BODY FOUND BY HIS MOTHER.

One of the most distressing things that has occurred in this county for some time was the death on last Tuesday morning of young Stanley Gorsuch who accidentally shot himself with a single barrel shot-gun.

The boy, who was 15 years of age, was the son of Mr. and Mrs. B. Frank Gorsuch who live about half a mile west of Gamber. Tuesday morning about half-past seven o'clock, he went into the dining room of his home with his gun in his hand. His grandfather, Eli T. Bennett, who also resides there, asked what he was going to do with the gun. "Oh nothing much," replied the boy, "I have only one shell."

Young Gorsuch then went out doors, and about a half hour afterward, his mother, who was returning to the house from the dairy, saw the dead body of her son lying on the ground about ten yards from the house. There were burns on his left hand and mouth and a three-inch wound at the base of his skull. The gun had been discharged, the lead entering the mouth and going out at the skull. The shell bears marks of having been struck by the hammer three times, and it is supposed that the boy, after an attempt to fire, blew in the muzzle.

Dr. R. S. Wells was summoned but death had evidently been instantaneous. The boy's uncle, E. Elmer Bennett, stated that he had heard a sharp, short report but had not paid any attention, to it thinking that someone was hunting in a nearby woods. Coroner Hill who came and viewed the body decided that death was accidental.

Besides his parents, young Gorsuch is survived by an older brother, Oscar Gorsuch, of Binghampton, N. Y. Mrs. Price Goodwin, of this city, is an aunt.

The funeral took place yesterday, November 2, at Mt. Pleasant Methodist Episcopal Church at Gamber, at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. E. C. Gierdel officiated assisted by Rev. S. F. Cassen and Rev. Harry Spencer. The floral tributes were numerous and beautiful. The pallbearers were Irving Buckingham, Elmer Shaffer, Jarrett Shuck, Vernon Green, Oscar Monroe and Gorman Jordan. E. A. Sharrer was the funeral director.

WESTERN MARYLAND DEFEATS ROCK HILL.

Sprague's Playing Features the Contest.

Rock Hill was defeated by the local college team last Saturday afternoon, on the W. M. field, by a score of 20-0. The Westminster lads scored two touchdowns and Captain Sprague kicked two field goals.

The first touchdown came in the first period. On line plunges by Graefe and end runs by Birdsall, the ball was brought to within scoring distance, when Graefe crashed through the Elliott City collegians for the first score.

In the second quarter Rock Hill braced and Sprague dropped back and booted the ball square to the posts from his own 40-yard line. The second half was nearly a duplicate of the first, Western Maryland scoring on straight football, Birdsall going over the tackle for the touchdown. Again Rock Hill held for two downs and again Captain Sprague kicked a perfect drop kick from the 35-yard line.

Birdsall, Graefe and Sprague were the stars for Western Maryland. The former got in some of the best broken field running ever seen on the college field. Time and again he ran the kick-off back to the centre of the field. Graefe was a tower of strength on the offensive. He hit the line hard and followed his interference perfectly.

Sprague's first drop kick was of the sensational order. Standing on his own 45-yard line he received the ball and cut the cross-bar exactly in two, with several feet to spare. Weaver played with his usual force and good defense. Cooper and Welch sized up Rock Hill's plays well, and Leary and Billingsie carried the ball for several good gains. For Rock Hill Fuchs starred. His punts were got off with good distance and precision. Line-up: W. M. Umpire—Mr. Gill. Rock Hill: Dukes.....Left end.....Staley Leary.....Left tackle.....Hinchman Welch.....Left guard.....Newland Husung.....Centre.....Gately Cooper.....Right guard.....Daltis Billingsie.....Right tackle.....Long Weaver.....Right end.....Corbett Sprague.....Quarterback.....Fucy Birdsall.....Left halfback.....Hopkins Taylor.....Right halfback.....Connolly Graefe.....Fullback.....Tallaferro Touchdowns—Birdsall, Graefe. Field goals—Sprague (2). Referee—Mr. Turner. Umpire of Maryland—Mr. Posner. Gill. Virginia: Field judge—Mr. Thomas, W. M. C. Time of periods—15 minutes each. Score—W. M. C., 11; Rock Hill, 0.

RECEPTION TO CARDINAL

IN NEW PARISH HALL OF ST. JOHN'S CHURCH.

His Eminence Welcomed by Father Mallon, Dr. Hering and Mr. Parke.

The reception given Cardinal Gibbons last Tuesday night in the new Parish Hall, by Rev. J. C. Mallon, rector of St. John's Church, and his congregation, was a thoroughly delightful occasion, and afforded the people of this community an opportunity for congratulating the Cardinal on his golden jubilee.

The new hall, for which much credit is due Father Mallon, is a spacious and beautiful building. The stage was tastefully decorated with a number of large American flags and with autumn leaves and cannas.

In the presence of about 600 of the citizens of this city, Cardinal Gibbons, a few minutes after 7 o'clock, was escorted by the Knights of Columbus and members of St. John's Benevolent Association to a throne draped with his colors and with a large American flag.

Welcomed by Father Mallon and Hon. J. W. Hering.

Father Mallon welcomed the audience and spoke words of greeting to the Cardinal, after which a choir, composed of members of the choirs of St. John's and Centenary Methodist Episcopal Churches, sang Good's "Praise Ye the Father."

Dr. J. W. Hering welcomed the Cardinal in the name of the citizens of Westminster, spoke of his long personal friendship for His Eminence, and said that religious differences should not interfere with our social relations. He said it was a source of pride to the citizens of Carroll county that the Cardinal so often elected to enjoy its hospitality, beautiful hills and pure air.

Mr. Parke's Address.

Francis Neal Parke, Esq., of the Westminster bar, then spoke as follows: "While the tribute of the citizens of Westminster to the Catholic laity: Your Eminence: 'In the seventy-eighth year of your life; in the fiftieth anniversary of your ordination as a priest and in the twenty-fifth anniversary of your cardinalate, the Catholic laity of St. John's Parish give you a cordial and affectionate welcome. A luminous and persuasive writer; a sage in the councils of the church; an associate and counselor of statesmen, and beloved of all men, you sit enthroned in the hearts of the members of this parish.

"While the tribute of this presence cannot compare in grandeur and in ceremony with the distinguished honors so recently paid you by State and Nation, yet the members of St. John's Parish render their tribute from a fulness of knowledge acquired by a long and intimate acquaintance and out of a rich store of grateful memories. In 1885, your Eminence, then a young and ardent priest, assisted in the dedication of St. John's church. As you look back upon that scene what a vista must unfold to your gaze. You behold yourself a priest; the Vicar Apostolic of North Carolina; the Bishop of Richmond; the Archbishop of Baltimore; and finally, the Cardinal of the Catholic Church in these United States. Rewards followed fast upon good deeds; but there is a sadness in this review of your honors as around you sleep the dead of your early co-workers, and you remain, to the eternal glory of our grateful people, a living monument among their recumbent forms. All these years of priestly ministrations, this congregation has grown and thriven under your wise and fatherly direction; and though this is not the occasion to make acknowledgments of your religious obligations, our gratitude presses us to proclaim how you have wrought in those things which are of Caesar's, and yet of God's.

"Your frugality and abstemiousness; your courtesy and gentleness; your forbearance and charity have made you the exemplar of our lives. To your tolerance of differing opinions, to your respect for honest religious convictions may be attributed in large measure the subsidence of bigotry and the disappearance of animosity among creeds. Your charity embraces all the denominations in the knowledge that the common hope, the common belief and the common prayer of them all is that on the day when all differences shall disappear and all men shall be judged there shall be but one fold under the One Shepherd. The Lord has taught us that service of country is a duty to God; that liberty, without license, can only be attained by a devoted adherence to our form of government, accompanied by a cheerful obedience to constituted authority. These obligations you have yourself so admirably fulfilled in statesmanlike service to the Nation that your life has made articulate throughout this broad land the civic conceptions and aspirations of the Catholic laity of America. Your cheer has dispelled the fog which at one time beclouded the vision of many by vividly demonstrating that loyalty to country and its government is not the possession of one faith, but the glorious heritage of all, and the one staunch cable which binds all creeds in indissoluble union.

"For these mighty labors, these immeasurable gains, the world applauds you, 'than whom none with more zeal adored.' The Deity, and divine commands obeyed."

"A man framed in the amplitude of nature, a beaming and a shining light in the Church, an ardent and zealous American citizen, the example of your life shall be a precious and a perpetual possession of the laity of the Catholic Church."

Sunbonnet Drill.

After Mr. Parke's address fifteen little girls from the parish school came upon the stage, Catherine Yingling carrying "Old Glory," Eleanor Chrest the Maryland flag and Helen Diefenbach the papa coats. Lillian

MEETING AT SILVER RUN

DEMOCRATS ENTHUSIASTIC OVER THE TICKET—LARGE AUDIENCE.

A large and enthusiastic Democratic mass meeting was held Thursday night at the Hall in Silver Run.

Hon. T. Herbert Shriver, Chairman of the State Central Committee, presided at the meeting and made an enthusiastic address advocating the election of the whole Democratic ticket from top to bottom. Charles O. Clemson, Esq., also addressed the meeting and spoke enthusiastically of the prospects of the Democratic success this fall, and urged all defeated candidates in the Primary election, and all friends of defeated candidates in the Primary election of August 29th, to take their coats off and work for the nominees of the party, which expression of sentiment met with applause, for Mr. Clemson was a candidate in the August primaries for the nomination for State's Attorney.

Dr. Joshua W. Hering made his first address during this campaign and his first political speech since he was a candidate for Comptroller two years ago. The Venerable Doctor never spoke in better form and with telling effect and illustration he held the attention of his hearers until when about to close on several occasions he was urged to continue. Dr. Hering spoke of the valuable training and experience of Senator Gorman and the other State candidates and all their eminent fitness for the duties of the offices for which they have been nominated. He advocated the election of the whole Democratic County ticket and called attention to the fact that these nominations have been made only after a strenuous primary campaign and said the friends of the ticket should join with Mr. Clemson in his idea of straight forward Democracy; and he called upon Democrats to work and fight for the ticket, predicting a good Democratic majority next Tuesday.

The Silver Run Cornet Band, dressed in blue uniforms, was present and furnished excellent music throughout the evening.

Vote for every man on the Democratic ticket.

Meeting of Carroll County Medical Society.

The Carroll County Medical Society held its annual meeting at the Main Hotel in this city, on last Friday, October 27. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Dr. M. D. Norris—president; Dr. H. M. Fitzhugh—vice-president; Dr. Charles R. Fouts—secy-treasurer; Dr. M. D. Norris—delegate; Dr. H. M. Fitzhugh—alternate; Dr. C. H. Diller—Board of Censors; Drs. T. J. Coonan, J. Sterling Gearty and E. D. Cronk—Legislative committee.

Dinner was served at the Hotel, after which, Dr. J. Irving Spear, Neurologist of University of Maryland, read a paper on "Chorea." A general discussion of the subject followed the reading of the paper. The meeting, as a whole, was very pleasant and profitable.

Hallowen Dance.

Boyle's Hall was the scene of a very pretty dance last Monday night given by several young gentlemen of the college. The Hall was lighted by Jack-o-lanterns, and to the strains of popular two-steps and waltzes, played by one of the young men of the college, every one of the dances was enjoyed to the utmost. During the evening sandwiches and fruit punch were served. About thirty-five young people were present.

Vote for Dehoff for Commissioner; don't permit the control of the Board to pass into Republican hands.
