PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY BY
The Democratic Advocate Company
OF WESTMINSTER, MD.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON, NOVEMBER 3, 1911

Saturday, November 4, at 12 m., 2 horses, 3 milch cows, 2 heifers, wagon, plow, etc., 50 barrels of corn, 25 bushels of white corn, 25 bushels of oats, and a cashbox and kitchen furniture, etc.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

Make your cross (X) mark in the square opposite the letter C. Carroll Lockard, East Main street, is having his residence painted, Chas. E. Bowers is the contractor.

Mrs. Jane Woodward, West Main street, is having her residence painted. Lippy & Cassell are doing the work.

The Ladies' Aid Society, of Patapsco, will hold an oyster supper on Friday and Saturday evenings, November 3 and 4.

Owing to the inclement weather on October 22, Thomas Chapel Sunday school will hold its Rally Day service November 5.

John Huntzberg, the popular express agent in this city, has been transferred to Frederick. Mr. Huntzberg made many friends during his stay in this city.

Puck, the three year old colt owned by J. Worth Barnes, near Gamber, moved himself the fastest runner at Smallwood, in an event arranged by the Smallwood Grange.

Noland E. Baslen, of Carrollton, and Miss Annie E. Hoffman, of Hockville, were married at Salem Lutheran parsonage on Saturday, October 28, by Rev. R. W. Doty.

While picking apples on Monday morning, Charley Kress, of Eastview, fell from a ladder to the ground, fracturing his nose, spraining his left wrist and injuring one of his ribs.

Carroll Lockard, of the firm of J. W. Lockard & Son, Liberty street, broke his arm on Sunday afternoon, at Taneytown, while cranking the automobile of J. H. Handley, this city.

The Main-Court Inn was very elaborately decorated on Monday, in honor of the visit of the Republican State candidates. A large picture of Mr. Goldsborough was placed just outside.

Tomorrow afternoon the annual struggle, between the football teams of Western Maryland and Delaware colleges, will take place at the college field. An interesting game is anticipated.

Thomas O'Neill, of O'Neill & Company, Baltimore, sent a number of very handsome American flags to Mrs. Charles E. Stewart, to be used in decorating St. John's Parish Hall for the Cardinal's reception.

The Ladies' Mite Society, of Providence Methodist Protestant Church, will hold an oyster supper in the hall at Gamber Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights, November 30th, and December 1st and 2nd. The public is cordially invited.

In some sections of the county, cholera has broken out among the hogs causing much discouragement to the farmers. This is not, however, confined to Carroll county, as the same is true in Frederick county and in several counties on the Eastern Shore.

George N. Hunter, green grocer, has purchased the apple orchard of Roy Poole, at Gist, which yielded about 500 barrels of fine York Imperials. The apples are being hauled to Mr. Hunter's shop this week, where he is storing them until he can sell them.

The Standard Lime and Stone Company will supply the Western Maryland Railroad Company with ballast for a part of all of the connecting link between Cumberland and Conellsville. A plant is now being erected at a point near Bidwell on the south side of the Youghiogheny river. This is the side taken by the Western Maryland.

The County Commissioners met the tax collectors on Tuesday and arranged to have all the money refunded which had been collected as taxes on bank deposits before the decision recently rendered in the Bank Deposit cases by Judge Brashears. The County Commissioners are now preparing a list of the depositors which will be sent to each tax collector.

That a blight is spreading through Maryland which is rapidly destroying the chestnut trees was the report of State Forester F. W. Besley to the State Board of Forestry, which met at the Johns Hopkins University on Monday. He explained that this blight is a fungus which fastens upon branches and trunks, finally destroying the bark and killing the trees. It first appeared in this country several years ago.

Local fruit dealers report that the Florida orange crops this season are large; but the Florida grape crop is short. Prices on Florida and California oranges will probably be a little cheaper than usual. However, owing to a law recently passed by the Florida Legislature, fruit is no longer allowed to be shipped until it is ripe. This week some detections in Baltimore held up some green fruit that had been shipped to the city.

An invitation has been received by the County Commissioners to attend the Seventh Maryland Conference of Charities and Correction in Baltimore, November 28, and 29. The plan for the establishment of county hospitals for advanced cases of tuberculosis will be discussed at the Conference and the County Commissioners have an especial interest in the matter, as it will probably require a special tax levy to build such hospitals. The Carroll County Commissioners will be particularly busy at that time they will not be able to attend the conference, but they may possibly send representatives from among the citizens of the county.

Turnips are more abundant this fall than they have been for years.

The flowers that bloom in the fall got several nips from Jack Frost this week.

The Ladies' Literary Club met last Tuesday for the first time since the warm weather.

Mrs. J. S. Myers and children, E. Main street, are visiting Mrs. Myers' sister, Mrs. Albert Brockett, of Alexandria, Va.

The Western Maryland Railroad has gotten out large maps of its lines, showing the connections. The Western Maryland road proper is outlined in red.

Vote for the first proposed Amendment on your ballot, and against the other two.

Yesterday a few flakes of snow fell in Westminster about one o'clock. The first touch of real winter is here and everybody has a chance to wear his new overcoat.

Special Reformation services will be held at Trinity Lutheran Church, Deer Park road, next Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock, with appropriate sermon by the pastor.

The Pleasant Valley Cornet Band gave a very creditable and highly appreciated concert at an oyster supper held by the Union Mills Band at Union Mills, on Saturday night, October 28.

A number of building lots, near Union Bridge, designated as Bellevue Heights, and owned and laid out by S. Raymond Soseney, will be offered at public sale on Saturday, November 11, at 1 o'clock p. m.

Land owners are preparing for the hunting season by posting their property with signs of no trespassing allowed. It would seem that the hunters will not be given a free scope in pursuit of game.

The duck season in Maryland opened November 1. Ducks have been reported in large numbers on the head of the bay. Numbers of flocks of geese have also been reported. It looks as if it will be a good year for hunting these hoovers.

There is a noticeable increase in the supply of dressed chickens since the weather has gotten cooler. The price, however, still remains high, and if you have an appetite for chicken you will necessarily have to pay the price.

The tour made by the Republican candidates in automobiles on Monday last was every thing but a success. Reports come to us that at several stopping places where large audiences were expected, there was but a handful of people.

O. D. Gilbert of this city, has purchased for $1,100, from Mrs. Sarah R. Colestock, administratrix of the estate of the late George L. Colestock, the property in Mt. Pleasant township, Pa., consisting of 5 acres of land with improvements.

Baltimore City is claimed by the Democrats by about 8,000 majority. Goldsborough is so confident, so he states, of carrying Baltimore, but issues no figures. Goldsborough was confident of being elected in 1895, but was defeated by over 12,000.

Rev. Kenneth G. Murray, formerly of Hampstead, and now pastor of South Baltimore Station Methodist Episcopal Church, delivered a lecture on "Switzerland" last night, showing views, which he himself had taken. It was the first of a series of lectures, which he will give during the winter.

Don't forget the oyster supper which is to be held in the basement of W. L. Richard's store, Patapsco, on Friday and Saturday nights, November 3 and 4, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society, of Patapsco M. E. Church. An orchestra from Baltimore will furnish music on Saturday night. All are invited.

George Hutchinson, a young man claiming Lineboro, this county, as his home, was arrested on Thursday last week in Gettysburg, on the charge of obtaining money under false pretenses. His scheme was the borrowing of small sums of money from people on the plea of having left his pocketbook at home. He was held for a hearing.

Mrs. Charles Stonesifer, East Green street, raised a bushel of fine potatoes from the eyes of a 1/4 of a peck of potatoes, which were planted on August 10 and taken out on November 2. A few of the potatoes were exhibited at this office which weighed about 1 pound each. This is a remarkable yield for the season in which they were planted.

The Republicans held a mass meeting in the Court House, in this city, on Monday evening, presided over by Dr. George E. Baughman. The Republican State candidates and Frank E. Williams, of Elkton, discussed campaign issues. After the meeting they were entertained at the residence of John H. Cunningham, candidate for Comptroller, East Main street.

A number of Halloween pranks were played by mischievous boys on Tuesday night. The steps in front of the lawyers' offices on Court street—"Skinner's Row"—were turned aside from the entrances; and a tombstone was hauled from the shop of Joseph L. Mabin and placed in front of the T. W. M. Girls' Club, East Main street. Also autumn leaves and grains of corn were thrown on the porches of many of our citizens. The pranks, for the most part, were perfectly harmless.

Rev. W. L. Seabrook, informs us that his father, W. L. W. Seabrook, Esq., who has been visiting his grandson, W. B. Seabrook, of the staff of "The Journal," Atlanta, Ga., is seriously ill in that city. He expected to start for home yesterday, so us to be here to vote. A letter to his son indicates that the thought of missing his vote for the first time in his life is the cause of keen regret. There is no man in this city who is better known or more highly regarded than Mr. Seabrook, and we hope a speedy recovery will enable him to be with us soon again.

Prof. Simpson, County Superintendent, has been confined to his bed most of the time for the last week. Just after the Institute he felt badly the need of absolute rest, but the difficulties encountered in opening the Domestic Science room, and economically fitting it up with equipment, called for personal attention. Also the filling of important vacancies and making transfers of teachers for the good of the work, together with heavy routine business made it seem impossible to stop. The constant strain during the summer and fall months, and the fact of dealing with difficult conditions. At last he sent for a doctor and the doctor put him to bed. Under rest and quiet, he is much improved and it is hoped that soon he will be well and at his post.

A Card of Thanks.

The teacher and pupils of Bethel school desire to thank the patrons and friends of the school who helped to make our oyster supper a success.

EMORY C. EBAUGH, Teacher.

Mr. Fink's Reply to the Carroll County Local Option League.

Westminster, Md., Oct. 10, 1911. Dr. D. F. Shipley, Sec., Carroll County Local Option League, Westminster, Md.

My dear Sir:— Yours of recent date duly received asking me whether, if elected State Senator, I will vote for the State Wide Local Option Bill presented to the last Legislature by the Anti-Saloon League and which is to be presented to the next Legislature in the same form.

Also in case this bill should fail to pass, will I vote for a similar bill applicable only to Carroll County.

In reply I beg to say, that according to my conscience and professional judgment, a promise to vote for a Particular Bill would be a violation of the Law against "Corrupt Practices," and moreover, an infringement of this Law upon my part, would subject me to its severe penalties and even prevent me from holding the office or position should I be elected thereto.

But, I believe I am not violating the law in expressing my opinion or sentiments in a general way, namely that I believe in majority rule, and am in favor of the submission of any question to the vote of the whole State or of any County, if a reasonable number of the registered voters ask for such submission.

Respectfully yours, CHARLES E. FINK, Clem.

Last Saturday evening Jesse D. Clem, a highly respected citizen died at his residence near Ladiesburg, from a complication of diseases. He was a great sufferer and endured patiently to the end; and his age was 89 years.

He was a faithful member and deacon of Ladiesburg Reformed Church. During the past six years he was a loyal member of the P. O. S. of A. Camp, No. 44, Woodsboro. Mr. Clem was admired for his honest and industrious habits in the community in which he lived, being a kind husband, father and neighbor.

Besides his widow, one son, Earl, survives, also four brothers, Milton, of Frederick; Winfield, Harmony Grove; Martin, Hansenville; Loyal, Utica; and a half-brother, John, of Bethel.

Funeral services were held on Monday at Ladiesburg. Six members of the P. O. S. of A. acted as pallbearers. There were many floral tributes. Interment in Haugh's cemetery. His pastor, Rev. Martin Schweitzer, officiated.

Frizzell. Bernard Carter Frizzell son of J. Casper and the late Mrs. Annie Frizzell, died on Tuesday, October 31, at his residence 2804 Woodbrook avenue, Baltimore. His age was 23 years. He was a grandson of the late William Frizzell, of Frizzellburg, and his mother was a sister of J. David Crowl, this city.

The remains were brought to this city yesterday morning on the 10 o'clock train and taken to Kreider's Reformed Church, where funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. W. Reinecke, the pastor. Interment was made in the adjoining cemetery. The pallbearers were Frank Cassell, Charley and Luther Null, Walter Clarence and Robert Myers. F. A. Sharner was the funeral director.

Hooper. Effie Lee Hooper, wife of Theodore R. Hooper, died on November 2, at her home, Overlea, Baltimore county, Md., aged 38 years. Funeral will take place on Sunday, November 5, at 2 p. m., from her late residence. Interment in Baltimore cemetery.

Littlestown Defeated. Littlestown was defeated by the Westminster Bowling team on Thomson's alleys on Wednesday evening. This is the first of a series of three matches, the home team winning two out of 5. The next match will be played at Littlestown. The score is as follows:

Table with 4 columns: Name, Score 1, Score 2, Score 3. Littlestown: Roby 67, 95, 93, 86, 88; Polly 90, 81, 79, 90, 100; Morris 92, 83, 86, 87, 74; Blocher 93, 89, 93, 74, 85; Bankert 84, 148, 84, 93, 92. Westminster: Campbell 94, 81, 111, 88, 82; H. Thomson 93, 103, 111, 93, 73; Stoner 115, 73, 88, 81, 110; Mitchell 92, 85, 90, 92, 99; E. Thomson 93, 83, 104, 94, 99.

Next Tuesday is Election day. HUNTERSVILLE. Mrs. Sadie Bowers and son, Joseph, of Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bowers, Mrs. James Stoner and daughter, Miss Mae; Mrs. Margaret Shipley, Mrs. C. Gunther and daughter, Mary; and Harry and Helen Manger visited Mrs. Cora Bowers and Mrs. Mary Bowers, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Shipley spent Sunday visiting relatives at Taylorsville. Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Mumford visited Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Wantz, of Frizzellburg, on Sunday.

You Can Raise 100 per cent. Of Chickens Hatched. PRAISE WHERE PRAISE IS DUE. I have been most successful with my Incubator Chickens this year—having raised 100 per cent. of Chickens hatched. In former years I was only able to raise about 40 to 50 per cent. and I fed them on home products, but this year I am feeding Bolgiano's "Square Deal" Foods entirely and attribute my success to your nicely balanced foods. My hatches were made with one of your Buckeye Incubators. I tell you this because I believe in it, I've proven it, where praise is due. Written on September 26th, 1911, by Miss Lula Thomas, of Parsons, St. Mary's county, Md. DON'T BE FOOLED. If your local merchant doesn't sell Bolgiano's "Square Deal" Poultry Foods drop us a postal, we will tell you how to get them.
