

FROM NEAR-BY TOWNS

CRONICLE OF HAPPENINGS AMONGST OUR NEIGHBORS.

The following local letters were crowded out for lack of space last week.

SKESVILLE.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Carter, situated on the elevation of Springfield avenue, always has a hearty welcome for those seeking amusement and diversions. The larch string is ever on the outside and hospitality and geniality always abound. Thus it was that on Monday evening the young folks met there to enjoy the pleasures and speculate upon the mysteries of a masked party. The costumes were elaborate and elaborate. Various games were enjoyed and all spent a most enjoyable evening. Those present were Messrs. and Mesdames—R. W. Carter, M. H. Weer, I. E. Buckingham, E. L. Chaney, B. A. Fowble, J. F. Spurrer; Misses—Anna Brown, Elizabeth Hepper, Esther Sullivan, May Sullivan, Edna Davis, of Washington, D. C., Margaret Harris, Mattie Fowble, Elizabeth Bennett, Ruth Bennett, Adell Harris, Margaret Barlow, Carrie Hughes, Bessie Shipley, Grace Hobbs, Beulah Wolfersberger, Manie Hughes, Grace Arrington, May Carter, Emma Hobbs, Minnie Phillingier, Olga Barnett; Rev. Mr. Harrison, Messrs.—Bradley Shipley, Clarence Vieg, William Hughes, John Korner, Herbert Forthman, of Baltimore; Marion Harris, Charles Wisotzky, Ernest, of Baltimore; Henry Clark, Ernest Ridgley, Kenneth Barnes, Clarence Clark, Wm. M. Chipley, Charles Harry Weer, Harry T. Brown, Nathan C. Hobbs, B. P. Dudderer Harry Carter, Marshall Carter.

BACHMAN'S VALLEY.

Potatoes seem to be getting cheaper. November 7th will be the busy day; large one in this section. Frost has appeared several times, but little damage has been done. The pumpkin crop is an unusually large one in this section. The following persons were present at the home of E. J. Wertz on Sunday, October 8:—Mr. and Mrs. Benton Burgoon, of Manchester; Mrs. Richard Martin, Gilbert, Ralph and David Martin, Lucella Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey C. Wertz, Florida Barnhart, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Peeser, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Fridinger, Mrs. Peter C. Wertz, and Misses Carre, Viva and Vesta Fridinger. Mr. and Mrs. Ephraim Bachman spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Sweenk. Chestnuts are so plentiful this year that many go to waste, the ground is covered some—drainage and they are picked by the half-bushel. Dr. W. Panabaker, of Baltimore, who was ill at his home here for 11 weeks was able to return to Baltimore on Saturday with the assistance of Otto Harmon, who is farming his place here. Otto Harmon raised a sweet potato which weighed 4 1/2 pounds. The new comet has made its appearance in the heavens. Weather permitting, it can be seen low down in the western sky at a few minutes after 6 o'clock in the evening. Sterling Bixler bought the large gasoline engine from Arthur Hollinger last week, also some other machinery; he will now be able to do his own work. Jerusalem Church celebrated Holy Communion on Sunday; a large crowd was present but only a few members, what was the trouble? Many are buying their cows and steers for winter feeding. The heavy weights are selected in preference to the lighter ones. The upland pasture is fine here, this fall, and every farmer seems to have an abundance of it. Everyone that reads the Advocate, Times and Sentinel, says they are up-to-date and up to the minute. Rev. S. A. Crabbill, the newly appointed pastor of the United Brethren church here; will preach a sermon on Sunday evening at 7 o'clock. Sunday school, Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Revival services will begin on Saturday evening, and will continue; all are invited to be present. Services at Jerusalem church on Sunday conducted by Rev. J. B. Lau, at 10 a. m.

PLEASANT VALLEY.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Yingling entertained on Sunday.—Mrs. Wesley Hahn, Mrs. Arthur Wantz, and daughter, Viola, of Green Valley; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Stonifer, and son, Gary, of Westminster; Mrs. Wm. T. Lucabaugh, of near Westminster; and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Keefe, and daughter, Ethel, of Mayberry. Mrs. Levi Myers returned home on last Sunday from Baltimore, after spending a week with her daughter, Mrs. P. W. Fowler, and other relatives and friends. Halloween passed as usual. The boys were a little tricky; the people in the village know what they did, the outside world doesn't need to know. A Halloween party was given at the home of Robert Wertz, in honor of Miss Pauline Nusbbaum. A large number of persons were present. Holy communion this Sunday morning at 10 a. m., Preparatory service on Saturday afternoon at 2 p. m., conducted by Rev. John W. Reinecke; Sunday school at 9 o'clock. Miss Ada Geisinger was operated on at the Woman's Hospital in Baltimore for chronic peritonitis, is getting along so well as can be expected. E. C. Yingling lost a valuable cow by death at noon yesterday.

UNION MILLS.

Mrs. Rosa Winters is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Fannie Swelgart who lives with Charles O. Bloom, a nephew. "Aunt Fannie" as she is familiarly known, has been quite ill for the past few weeks. Misses Lillie Warner and Mable Houck, of Hanover; Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Crouse and Mrs. Ellen Erb, of Littlestown, were guests of Dr. and Mrs. J. H. T. Eashart last Sunday. Mrs. Wm. Yingling and Mrs. Edw. Devilliss, of Pleasant Valley, spent Wednesday with their aunt, Mrs. Susan Leister. Charles E. Nusbbaum and daughter, Mrs. Geo. Bankert and son, Charles, spent Friday and Saturday in Hanover, Pa. The oyster supper held in the Hall last Saturday evening by the band was quite a success. The Pleasant Valley Band was present and furnished some excellent music. The ladies of the M. E. Church are making preparations for an oyster supper to be held in the hall during Thanksgiving.

MILLER'S.

Last Sunday afternoon the Alesia lodge met at the Church here, where memorial services were held. Mr. Rignier, of Baltimore, made a very interesting address, and Rev. George Sparks, of Mapleton, Pa., also addressed the Lodge and congregation. These services were well attended, and enjoyed immensely. Mr. and Mrs. Emory Bollinger attended the funeral of the latter's father, Mr. Geiman, at Shrewsbury, last Thursday. Mrs. Wilhelm, of Baltimore county, spent a few days last week as the guest of Mrs. Isiah Miller. Mr. and Mrs. George Grogg, of Black Rock, Pa., visited the former's sister, Mrs. Irvin Wyand, and family, last Sunday. Miss Fern Miller, and Miss Edith Rinehart visited Manchester friends Saturday and Sunday. Revival services will begin here next Sunday evening, at 7.30 o'clock. Theodore Miller, who has employment near Pen-Mar, Pa., spent Sunday with his family. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Utz, and son, Mr. and Mrs. Franz Utz, of Ebergs, visited Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Miller last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Redding spent Saturday and Sunday among friends at Baltimore. Mrs. Lloyd Miller has grown a red-head weighing 7 pounds. Who can beat that?

The friends of Miss Lizzie Dell gave her a delightful birthday surprise party at her home last Wednesday evening. It was her 17th birthday anniversary. The evening was spent in various parlor games, and some beautiful selections were rendered on the graphophone. At ten o'clock all were invited to partake of refreshments. At a late hour all departed to their homes wishing Miss Lizzie many more happy birthdays. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. John Dell, Mrs. Rinehart Hoffnagle; Misses—Minnie Hoover, Lizzie Barnhart; Abbie Brown, Lizzie Dell, Lola Hart, Della Dell, Gertrude Hoffnagle, Grace Brown, Estie and Fannie Dell, Sylvia Hare, Julia and Elsie Dell; Messrs.—Russell Williams, William Hare, Harvey Miller, William Harris, Howard Hoffnagle, Harry and Roy Shaffer, Peirre Miller and Louis Warner. Henry K. Miller is building an addition to his barn for young cattle. Charles Hoffnagle, who had been spending a year in the West returned home last week and is visiting his parents, Rinehart Hoffnagle, and wife. Mr. and Mrs. George Dehoff entertained the following at their home last Sunday: Rev. George Sparks and family, of Mapleton, Pa., Walter Sparks, of Middletown; Dora Sparks and daughter, of Grave Run, and Miss Myrtle Dehoff, of Baltimore.

Chestnut harvest is about over. Shipley & Bonner merchants bought 4570 pounds, and shipped them for 3 days. Apple buyers are scarce, and the fruit is abundant. B. F. Gorsuch and George B. Knox hauled their clover seed last week. Our number from this place attended the races and horse show at Smallwood, on Saturday, October 28. A few of the blue ribbon came South. Worth Barnes was there with his good colt, "Puck." Sylvester Shipley, of Louisville, has sold his farm to Jackson Raver, also his personal property at public sale, and will move to Baltimore. Bradley Stockdale, of McComas Mills, sold his personal property on Saturday, October 28, and will make his future home in Baltimore. Frank B. Yingling, merchant and farmer, of Deer Park Road, 2 miles north of Westminster, was at Johns Hopkins Hospital for treatment. Miss Ruth Slasman, of Mahlon's School, who had her leg broken by a kick from a horse in September last, is in a serious condition, and was taken to the Maryland General Hospital on Wednesday. Misses Viola and Pauline Barnes, of "Orange Farm," were in Baltimore from Saturday until Sunday. E. Elmer Bennett, First Lieutenant Coast Artillery Corps, is at the home of his sister, Mrs. B. Frank Gorsuch, near here. Mrs. Blanche Brightwell and Mrs. H. Baker, of Westminster, were at the home of the former's brother, Jacob Power, of Pool's School, Saturday and Sunday. The Jr. O. U. A. M., of this place held a "Memorial Service" in the M. E. Church on Sunday which was well attended. Much credit is due Rev. E. C. Clarist for the sermon he delivered, the text being found in Psalms 30:5. The Ladies' Aid Society, of Providence Methodist Protestant Church, will hold an oyster supper and bazaar in the hall here on Thanksgiving evening, 20th of November, also on the following Friday and Saturday evenings, December 1 and 2. All are welcome.

WEST FALLS AND GREEN VALLEY.

The store house owned by Oscar Baumgardner and tenanted by Ernest Rigler, at West Falls was burned to the ground on the night of October 28, and all of the store goods belonging to Mr. Rigler were burned. The origin of the fire is unknown. It was discovered by Edward Rigler, who lives nearby but it was too late to do any good. Mr. Rigler had gone to Baltimore the day before to purchase his winter stock of goods, and did not know anything about the fire until he came home next evening. The house next to the store, occupied by Truman Lowman and sister, caught fire and would have burned had it not been for neighbors who broke in and put the fire out; they also had to work pretty hard to keep the mill and creamery belonging to Lawrence Doyle from being burned. The oyster supper held by the Ladies' Aid Society, of West Falls, at Wm. Chaney's, Saturday night was quite a success, and was well attended. Alonzo Gosnell, of Long Corner, spent Sunday with his brother, D. Gosnell. Walter Trig and wife, of Baltimore, spent Saturday night and Sunday with friends in this vicinity. Miss Virgie Hood, who had been ill with typhoid fever, is able to be out again and spent Sunday with her grandmother, Mrs. F. Elgen. Guy Brown, of near Mt. Airy, expects to move into the property recently vacated by Mrs. Elizabeth Baumgardner. Revival services will begin at West Falls M. E. Church Sunday night, November 5. Mrs. Joseph Wagner and Mrs. Elmer Kolb visited friends in Union Bridge last week. Some of our good Democrats attended the meeting in Frederick this week. Elmer Wilson and wife, from Upper Carroll, spent Sunday with friends near here.

BLUE RIDGE BREEZES.

We are exceedingly fortunate in getting Prof. John F. Chambers one of the world's best impersonators, Saturday evening, November 11. This is the second number of our regular lecture course. Season tickets are still on sale at $1.00. Five numbers yet to come. Miss Evelyn Good was called home on account of an accident to her father while threshing. Miss Bessie Wine began teaching at Smallwood on Monday. Misses Kathryn Smith and Naomi Stouffer spent Saturday and Sunday at their respective homes. Prof. Parkhurst, Prof. Waring, and a number of advanced music students spent a very pleasant evening recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Haines. They were entertained by the reproductions of some of the most famous grand opera. Elder Calen B. Royer gave us several interesting lectures on the conditions of India and China last Wednesday evening and Thursday morning. He boarded the train for New York Thursday evening expecting to meet a party of other missionaries and set sail for India on Saturday. A pleasant surprise is in store for those who attend the Emersonian Literary Society meeting to-night—Friday. Elder Chas. D. Bousack returned Monday from Southern Pennsylvania where he had been conducting church work. R. A. Nusbbaum is in receipt of a pleasant letter from Elder Simon P. Early, Lima, Ohio. It will be remembered that Mr. Early was a teacher here for a number of years. Mr. and Mrs. Early are getting along very nicely and wish to be remembered to their many friends in this community. A mask social was held in the commercial hall on Saturday. Some of the costumes would have made Solomon, in all his glory, turn green with envy. Peanut races, fortune telling, music and the Hall of Horrors were among the many amusements of the evening. Refreshments were served consisting of cake, pumpkin pie, apples, popcorn and coffee. Prof. John Wertz surprised Wednesday morning to find that his wagon had taken a midnight flight and landed on the college barn roof.

MT. AIRY.

The protracted meeting which commenced last Sunday at the M. E. Church South, conducted by the pastor, Rev. Mr. King, bids fair to result in a good crop of Westminsters, in town last Tuesday. Charles Roushahn and wife, spent several days in Baltimore this week. We are sorry to report the illness of C. B. Horn. John Runkles, one of Mt. Airy's oldest and most substantial citizens, is on the sick list. The Mt. Airy Milling Company shipped 28 loads of corn last Tuesday for which they paid $2.65 per barrel. Prosperity Lodge, I. O. O. F., has equipped its orchestra with fine uniforms of the militant type. Mr. and Mrs. Marjorie Iahn and Mr. and Mrs. Marjorie Poole took a spin to Gettysburg last Sunday in Mr. Poole's new automobile. Ed. Mercer and daughter, Miss Jessie, will visit Middletown on Saturday. Frank Lewis and Norman Hood were in Baltimore last Tuesday on important business. We are sorry to report the removal of C. G. Sprecker, and family, to Hagerstown. Mr. Sprecker will sell his real and personal property on Saturday, November 11. The real estate consists of good dwelling and shop and would be a fine investment for anyone wishing to enter any kind of business. Mrs. Allen Griffin is visiting relatives in Baltimore this week.

MEDFORD.

A letter to your congressman is more influential than a ballot for him; nevertheless all ye Democrats bring up a big majority by getting in a full vote, as well as by using your influence to get others to vote. George Barber and family spent last Sunday with John Hyde and family, at Union Bridge. The Grange Hall at this place is still in progress. The roof is being put on this week. The Hall, which is being built of concrete blocks will be one of the finest in the county. Vachel B. Seliman, of Warfieldsbury, raised on 3 1/2 acres of ground, 19 barrels of corn, averaging about 70 bushels an acre. Mrs. Ella Martin raised this season two fine pumpkins weighing respectively 52 and 55 pounds. Wm. Snider, formerly of Medford, but now of Brazil, Indiana, had the misfortune to lose his wife by death. She was buried at St. Bernard, Ohio, October 24. Mr. Snider is a brother of Jesse Snider, of this place. It is rumored that the wedding bells will soon ring in this vicinity. Revival services are now in progress at the Brick Church near this place.

WEST FALLS.

Farmers are about through husking corn. The oyster supper which was held on Saturday night was largely attended and was quite a success. Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Wilson, of Freedom, called on Charles Keefe Sunday. Mrs. Anella Lowman, who had been visiting friends at Kermar and Unionville, has returned home. Miss Emily Gosnell called on Mrs. Wm. Chaney Tuesday. Those who called at the home of Howard Keefe on Sunday were Albert Buckingham, wife and son, Keefe, of Mt. Airy, and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Wilson and son, Norman, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Keefe, Mrs. J. C. Lowman, Mrs. Neal Brashear and daughter, Alta, Florence Gartrell and Jessie Mercer. Mrs. Elizabeth Baumgardner has returned home after spending some time with friends in Taneytown.

ALESIA.

Silas Dull and children, of York Haven, Pa., spent Sunday with relatives and friends in this vicinity. Mr. and Mrs. James Ehrhart spent among relatives in Baltimore, Md. Isaac P. Dandy spent last week Sunday with relatives in Glen Rock, Pa. Miss Ella May Hare, of York, Pa., visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Hare, of near here, over Sunday. Harrison Wilhelm, of Baltimore, spent Sunday with his sister, Mrs. James Miller. Politics seem very dull in our district, not even any money floating. John Weis, of this place, has gone to Baltimore for employment. The Jr. O. U. A. M., of this place is a decided loss to add another improvement to their Hall, by giving it a coat of paint. Shilke & Son contractors.

FERTILIZER.

Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. A woman who is sick and suffering, and won't at least try a medicine which has the record of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, is, it would almost seem, to blame for her own wretchedness. Read what this woman says: Richmond, Mo.—"When my second daughter was eighteen months old I was pronounced a hopeless invalid by specialists. I had a consultation of doctors and they said I had a severe case of ulceration. I was in bed for ten weeks, had sinking spells, and was pronounced to be in a dangerous condition. My father insisted that we try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and brought me six bottles. I soon began to improve, and before it had all been taken I was as well and strong as ever—my friends hardly recognized me so great was the change."—Mrs. Woodson Branstetter, Richmond, Mo.

There are literally hundreds of thousands of women in the United States who have been benefited by this famous old remedy, which was produced from roots and herbs over thirty years ago by a woman to relieve woman's suffering. Read what another woman says:— Jonesboro, Texas.—"I have used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for myself and daughter, and consider it unequalled for all female diseases. I would not be without it for anything. I wish every mother in America could be persuaded to use it as there would be less suffering among our sex then. I am always glad to speak a word of praise for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and you are at liberty to use this testimonial."—Mrs. James T. Lawrence, Jonesboro, Texas.

Since we guarantee that all testimonials which we publish are genuine, it is not fair to suppose that if Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had the virtue to help these women it will help any other woman who is suffering from the same trouble? For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No sick woman does justice to herself who will not try this famous medicine. Made exclusively from roots and herbs, and has thousands of cures to its credit. If the slightest trouble appears which you do not understand, write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., for her advice—it is free and always helpful.

GIST.

Our farmers are busy husking corn and getting their winter wood. Leslie R., formerly of this place, but now employed in the United States Navy, is in the Hospital at New London, Conn., having been operated on for appendicitis. He is well known here and has many friends who hope for his speedy recovery. George Wilson, oldest son of Clarence Wilson, is ill with typhoid fever. Miss Maud Parker fell down the steps last Sunday and sprained her ankle. Chas. Kopp and Grammer Phillips were in New York last week on business. Many of our people attended the oyster supper and horse show held by the Grange of Smallwood last Saturday; and we are proud to say that the fastest horse was owned and driven by one of our popular young men. Mrs. Jos. S. Babylon and children, Margie and Roland, visited relatives near Skylesville, a few days this week.

RIDGEVILLE.

Jacob Winebrener and son, Raymond, were in Frederick recently. Miss Bessie Hutchins has returned home after a pleasant visit to her cousin, Miss Mary Webb, of Skylesville. Miriam Riddlemeier left Saturday to spend the month of November with her son, Charles Riddlemeier, of Lovettsville, Pa. Miss Delma Mullinix, of Damascus, is visiting Mrs. Clifford Mullinix, of Ridgeville. Miss Hester Warner spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Davis Winsor. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nicholson and Miss Goldie, were in Ridgeville recently. Master Earl Norwood spent Sunday with his grandfather, Wm. Norwood.

LINBORO.

Mrs. T. H. Wertz and two children, of Hanover, Pa., spent several days visiting relatives here last week. The chestnuts are about gone. Miss Mary Kopp, spent Sunday with Mrs. George Brodbeck, of Brodbeck's, Pa. Election day is approaching rapidly. W. W. Boyer spent several days with relatives in Hanover. D. Nickey, of Westminster, Md., spent several days with his father, S. H. Nickey.

SICKLY CHILD

Made Well by Vinol—Letters from a Grateful Mother. New Haven, Conn.—"My little girl, ever since her birth, was frail and sickly and nothing seemed to do her any good until we tried your cod liver and iron tonic, Vinol. As soon as she commenced to take it, I noticed an improvement in her health and appearance. She has now taken three bottles of Vinol, and from the good it has done her I can say it will do all you claim for it in building up and strengthening frail and delicate children." Another mother of Chicago, Ill., writes: "I can not say too much in praise of Vinol for delicate, ailing children." We ask every mother of a frail, sickly or ailing child in this vicinity, to try Vinol on our agreement to return their money if it does not do all we claim. Shaw Drug Co., Westminster, Md.

A MAIL CARRIER'S LOAD

Seems heavier when he has a weak back and kidney trouble. Fred Duestrom, Mail Carrier at Atchison, Kas., says: "I have been bothered with kidney and bladder trouble and had a severe pain across my back. Whenever I carried a heavy load of mail, my kidney trouble increased. Some time ago I started taking Foley Kidney Pills and since taking them I have gotten entirely rid of all my kidney trouble and am as sound now as ever." For Sale by all Druggists.
