LOCAL AFFAIRS.

Cheer up the blue birds are coming. When? The thermometer registered four degrees below zero on Sunday morning.

Eggs are five cents a dozen in China; but who wants to eat China eggs. Notwithstanding all our severe cold weather our coal merchants have plenty of fuel on hand.

A gentleman in our city said it contained more tight wad people than the balance of the county. It has not been safe to trust a good resolution on the icy pavements during the past few weeks.

The way some people are hoarding up money for a rainy day—they must expect nothing but rainy days. The regular fast mail was 4 hours late on Saturday night. Another train was sent out to make its schedule.

Automobile licenses were taken out by N. E. Franklin, New Windsor; B. F. Shriver Co., and O. D. Gilbert, this city; and George Monroe Englar, New Windsor.

The West End Schoolhouse was fumigated on Monday by Health Officer Charles R. Foutz. The children who have scarlet fever were scholars at that school.

Our promoter of athletics, Edwin Gehr, who so successfully leased a tract of land for a baseball field, will soon look after a winning ball team for the coming summer.

John Snyder, living at Morgan's River, slipped and fell on the icy pavement in front of Lawyer Hoff's office on Saturday afternoon, badly lacerating his forehead.

The ground hog certainly had every opportunity to see his shadow on Friday last. It is hoped however that his hogship, as a prognosticator will prove a big failure.

There are 3,752 farmers in Adams county, among them are 2 negroes and 16 foreigners. The farm land in the county has increased from $4,000,000 to $16,193,163 in ten years.

The high wind on Saturday night drifted the snow on our county roads to such an extent that travel was suspended on Sunday until the roads could be opened. In many places fields were used instead of the roads.

Dr. S. Simpson takes this method of thanking the teachers for the basket of delicious fruit and the beautiful flowers they sent him after their meeting in this city last Friday. Their kindness was very much appreciated.

The diamond which was lost by Austin Clary from his ring at the Jun. or Order banquet on Wednesday night of last week was found by Wed Powell, colored, while washing dishes. Powell received the $10 reward offered by Mr. Clary.

The Democratic State Central Committee sent in the following names to Governor Gales for the Democratic Supervisor of Elections: John M. Roberts, Edward O. Diffendal, Henry S. Musselman and Basil Dorsey. Only one will be selected from the above four.

Have you gotten all the ice off your pavement yet? Good laying hens are worth their weight in gold these days.

If the ground hog did see his shadow he is fulfilling his promise of cold weather.

The Western Maryland Railway Company has sold to the city of Baltimore a strip of land to widen Hillen street.

The latest report of the Weather Bureau is—fair tonight, probably increasing cloudiness on Saturday and moderately cold.

The attendance at the public schools around Alesia is not up to the mark as a number of scholars have diphtheria or chickenpox.

Valentines are the most attractively displayed articles in our stores at the present time. Next Wednesday, February 14, is St. Valentine's day.

Did our friend who was recently married think Ryland's band was after him when he made that 3 a. m. rise to go on duty on Wednesday?

A bill was introduced by Mr. Farmer in the House of Delegates on Monday to refund to the authorities of Baltimore city a sum of money erroneously paid to Springfield Insane Asylum, Sykesville.

The Parish Aid Society, of Ascension Church, met at Mrs. J. L. Reiff's home on Saturday morning. It will meet at the residence of Mrs. E. O. Went, Willis street, on next Wednesday, February 14.

Last Tuesday Alvey T. Brauning, of Reisterstown road, had 30 dozen eggs stolen from his wagon on Druid Hill avenue, near Baltimore. He valued the eggs at $15.00. A negro has been arrested and charged with the larceny.

John Smith, son of William A. Smith, of near Libertytown, who broke one of his legs last summer by jumping from a wagon that was about to upset and spent several months at the Frederick City Hospital, was again taken to that institution recently. It is probable that amputation will be necessary.

Joseph Sipes, of this city, who was taken to Chambersburg, Pa., recently, by the Sheriff of Franklin county, charged with a serious crime upon Ruth McIntyre, of Waynesboro, Pa., was tried on Monday afternoon at the Franklin County Court and found guilty. Sipes was sentenced to 11 fine and 6 months in the county jail.

Good audiences have been in attendance at the new Opera hall each night since the opening last week. The pictures have been very creditable, though the lens is not yet perfected. Attendance has also been good at the Star and the Pioneer, both of which theatres show, as a rule, excellent pictures well focused.

An indorsement of Mr. Joseph B. Boyle, of this city, for the office of State Insurance Commissioner was sent to Governor Goldsborough on Monday by several prominent underwriters, and with it letters of indorsement from some of the Democrats of Carroll county. Mr. Boyle is one of the leading business men of this city.

Charles Sientz and Samuel V. Miller, Waynesboro, Pa., were tried before the Franklin County Court, Chambersburg, Pa., this week on the charge of furnishing liquor to Elmer Yingling, of the same place, formerly of this city, causing him to become temporarily deranged and to threaten to shoot himself in the presence of Rev. Dr. Wilcox.

Charges that the Pennsylvania Railroad is trying to block the Western Maryland Railway in its efforts to reach the north side of the harbor are flying thick and fast at the City Hall, Baltimore. The statement is made by several City Councilmen that the "Penns." through its allied interests is behind the opposition to the closing of Front and Constitution streets.

The Seminary Woman's Club at their regular meeting last night at the home of Mrs. H. L. Elderderck, College Hill, had a "Dickens evening" in celebration of the centennial of Charles Dickens. The program was made up of readings from the books of the great author, and of magazine articles relating to his life and work. Among the refreshments served were English buns. About 20 ladies were present.

The Chambersburg Valley Spirit says: "The name of J. Edward Beck, of Waynesboro, Pa., formerly of Linwood, this county, is being mentioned in Democratic circles, as a probable candidate for the legislature. If he decides to be a candidate it would be pleasing to his many friends in the county since Mr. Beck is one of the leading merchants in our neighboring town and is identified with many of its other business interests."

The County Commissioners enjoyed a delicious dinner at the County Home for the Poor, on Wednesday. Besides Commissioners Jacob N. Dehoff, Benjamin F. Stansbury, and John W. Myers, there were present: counsel to the board Charles E. Fink, former commissioner, Geo. W. Brown, county treasurer, Oliver E. Dodder, Dr. Henry M. Fitzhugh, Miss Mary B. Shelman, Mr. Paul Hough and Rev. and Mrs. E. W. Doty. A. G. Humbert is steward of the Home.

An entertainment which promises to be quite worth while will take place at the new Odd Fellows' auditorium on next Thursday and Friday nights when "Robinson Crusoe" in opera-dramatic form, written and staged by Frank S. Davidson, will be presented. Mr. Davidson assisted by local talent will be seen in the production. The scenery, costumes and the choruses have all received a full share of attention. Admission 50 and 35 cents; children under 12 years, 25 cents. The attraction is under the management of the Salem Lodge, No. 60, I. O. F. Between acts interesting moving-pictures will be shown.

Residents in the vicinity of the cement plant at Union Bridge will be pleased to learn that David Utz, a carpenter and builder, of Arlington, has invented a device for eliminating the fine dust that is blown off of the plant, where cement is manufactured and thereby save valuable pastures from destruction. The invention consists of tube which fits over the top of the stack used to carry off the cement dust. A strong current of air is drawn through the tube which carries the fine particles back into the plant from which they emanated. Crops and pastures for miles around cement plants have been ruined by the heavy dust settling on them. Horses and cattle will not eat grass that is coated with this sediment.

Wheat is 98 cents a bushel. Eggs dropped 10 cents on the dozen yesterday.

On October 1, 1911, there were 1,078 patients at the Hospital under treatment, 599 males and 479 females.

A letter received from Mr. H. F. Lucabaugh, who went from this county to Bluffton, Ind., in 1855, states that he cannot do without the Advocate. Mr. Lucabaugh says Indiana was like a wilderness when he arrived there but now the country has been cleared up, good crops are raised and the inhabitants enjoy fine gravel roads.

According to a recent dispatch from Pittsburgh, Pa., bids have been requested on $5,000,000 worth of freight cars by several railroad companies, including the Western Maryland. The Western Maryland asked for prices on 1,000 steel under frame box cars, 1,000 gondolas and 750 cars of mixed types. Bids will be made on a total of 5,000 cars.

A deal has just been consummated between Baltimore city and the Western Maryland Railroad whereby the former agrees to close Front street, between High and Exeter streets, in lieu of property along Hillen street amounting to $20,000, which the city would have to pay for the widening that thoroughfare. The announcement of the execution of the contract was made yesterday.

It was decided Friday at a meeting of the Supervisors of City Charities at Bayview Hospital to remove 75 insane patients from Bayview to the new Hospital for the Insane, at Sykesville, on account of the overcrowded conditions at Bayview. Forty patients were taken to Springfield Asylum Thursday on a special car, and the remaining 35 will be taken February 15. It is one of the most wholesale removals of the insane ever attempted by the Supervisors of City Charities.

The Waynesboro, (Pa.) Board of Trade is making strenuous endeavors to have Blue Ridge College, now located at Union Bridge, located in that city. That city and Myersville, Md., are also endeavoring to secure the institution, but the larger opportunities presented in Waynesboro, make it possible for that city to acquire the school. Blue Ridge College was known as Union Bridge Bible Institute until a few years ago when it was advanced to the collegiate class. It is controlled by the Church of the Brethren, but numbers members of other churches among its faculty of 14 members and has many denominations represented in its student body of about 150.

Citizens of Arcadia and vicinity have organized a volunteer fire company and elected officers and directors for the ensuing year. IN MEMORIAM. In sad and loving remembrance of our dear mother and wife Mrs. Louise E. wife of John T. Yingling, who departed this life four years ago today, Feb. 6, 1908. Loved in life in death remembered.

The month of February once more is here. To us the saddest of all the year. Because it took from us a loved one. The one we loved so dearly four years ago today.

You are not forgotten wife dear. None will ever be. For as long as life and memory last. I will remember thee.

We miss you mother we mourn you still. No one your vacant chair can fill. We pray that when our call shall come We'll be 7-0 in that heavenly home.

No smile will ever be so sweet As the smile she gave us last. No hour will ever be so dear As the hour she passed away. Rest on dear mother, thy labor is over. Thy hands will never be so busy. Faithful mother both true and kind. A truer mother we could not find.

Costing hundreds of dollars of the Great Baltimore Harbor as it looks after being built up since the Great Fire in 1904, which fits into million dollars. This picture was taken from the top of the Emerson's Bromo Seltzer Tower 310 feet high and shows the big river and ocean going vessels, a vast portion of the city, the entire harbor, the Eastern Shore of Maryland, and miles and miles of surrounding country.

If you like it tell us so, it is the front cover of J. Bolgiano & Son's 1912 Seed Catalogue. It plainly shows Bolgiano's New Pier and Warehouses and Bolgiano's Seed Store, both on the Water Front. It's Free, although Bolgiano's 1912 Catalogue cost many thousands of dollars to produce—having over 309 half tone illustrations, we will send it free to those who plant Garden Seed, Field Seeds or Flowers, seeds or users of Poultry Foods and Supplies—but we cannot afford to give it free to those who do not use these items. The edition is limited, so send for one today before they are all gone.

For a 2c stamp we will also send a 25c Poultry Record for one year.

The Perfection Oil Heater! Do you know that the weather which we are having now is the coldest that we have had for years? This means that you will have to force your fires, and even then you will have difficulty to keep warm. A chilly room means GRIPPE or TONSILLITIS, and some times even PNEUMONIA. Save yourself from sickness and a doctor's bill by purchasing at once a Perfection Oil Heater. This stove can be moved from room to room. By the more lighting of a match you can get instant heat. That chilly, cold room can be warmed in a few minutes. A gallon of oil will last for ten hours continuous burning. A cent an hour. The most economical fuel known. Can you beat it? We guarantee each Perfection Oil Heater to be absolutely smokeless and odorless. No smoke, no smell, no trouble. By a patent safety contrivance it is impossible to turn it too high, or to turn the wick down in the oil. Come in and let us show them to you. D. S. GEHR, THE HARDWARE MAN ON THE CORNER, WESTMINSTER, MARYLAND.
